On Wednesday night, Oct. 17, Hattie Anderson and her excellent company open in the Opera House, and on Thursday evn'g. following. Of the company the Evening Times of Hamilton says:—"The opening night of the Fair week entertainment at the Grand indicates a successful season for the company now performing, for there was a large audience present and all appeared pleased with 'Mugg's Landing' and especially with Miss Hattie Anderson. The young lady is a versatile and clever actress; she can sing well and dance gracefully, and her impersonation of Muggs was free from coarseness. She was ably supported by Mr. Herbert, who was an 'army' in himself—a regular blustering soldier. Asa is a character just juited to Frank H. Doane's ability. When he was in the well he was 'down, away down,' but his singing brought him 'up, away up, terribly up,' and as a result he had to respond five times to one of his songs. The third act was the strongest, for in it were introduced several burlesque scenes and dances, in which Miss Anderson and Mr. Doane gave some really good exhibitions of comic acting and received loud applause. The minor parts were well sustained and they all went smoothly. Mr. Maurice Levi is a first-class musical director, and he must have been well pleased with the efficient way Mr. Nelligan's orchestra played their choice selections. This evening 'Gyp' will be produced, and it will doubtless receive large patronage." 1d87

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1888.

DOMINION DOINGS:

A BAD BREAK IN THE CORNWALL CANAL.

CORNWALL, Oct. 12.—About 11 o'clock last night the bank of the Cornwall Canal broke away about half way between Millerooches and Moulinette. There is a gap 150 feet in width and a hole in the bottom of the canal 10 feet deep. There were eight empty barges and two tugs in the canal at the time, and the Alexandria was at the entrance but did not get in. Navigation will probably be interrupted for two or three weeks till the break is repaired.

WINTER FREIGHT RATES.

The Advanced West-Bound Tariff Not to Take Effect Until Nov 15.

MONTREAL, Oct. 12.—At a meeting of wholesale exporters and importers held here to-day for the purpose of discussing the proposed winter freight rates between Montreal and western points the merchants expressed satisfaction with the arrangements made by the railway companies on the understanding that the full mileage tariff would be kept in effect from Toronto and Hamilton, and that rates from all the lower provinces should be made consistent with those charged from Montreal. It was also agreed, having regard to navigation not closing until the latter part of November, that the advanced west-bound tariffs should not go into effect until Nov. 15.

Kingston and Smith's Falls Railway.

SMITH'S FALLS, Oct. 12.—At a meeting of representative men from the places along the line of the proposed Kingston and Smith's Falls Railway, held here last night, a resolution was passed in form of these bonuses: Kingston $150,000, Smith's Falls $25,000, South Elmsley $4000, Bostard $15,000, South Crosley $10,000. A by-law will be submitted in Kingston first and it is thought will meet with little opposition.

Hurt by a Horse.

STOUFFVILLE, Oct. 12.—Yesterday, after returning home from market here, Miss Vague of the 7th concession, Markham Township, was knocked down by a frightened horse. The animal stepped on her head, inflicting such injuries that her recovery is thought doubtful.

Woolen Mills Burnt.

WEST WINCHESTER, Ont., Oct. 12.—Hugh Christie's woolen mills were totally destroyed by fire to-night which broke out in the engine room. Loss from $5000 to $10,000. no insurance.

Supreme Court Appeals.

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—In the Supreme Court to-day the Chief Justice stated that the present list of appeals would be heard before taking up the appeals of the October session.

Stouffville's Scare Dying Out.

STOUFFVILLE, Oct. 13.—The smallpox scare here is dying out. No new cases have appeared. Peterman, the only person attacked, is improving and will in all probability soon recover.

Mr Smith's Majority.

KINGSTON, Oct. 12.—The complete returns make Mr. Smith's majority 61.

The Only Remedy.

PARIS, Oct. 12.—In an address at a political banquet, M. Floquet, the Prime Minister, although he had been apprised that the majority of the guests were against the proposition to revise the constitution intimated that the Government was determined to proceed with the scheme as the only remedy for the present situation.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Victoria and College Federation — The Buckley Case—Died From His Injuries.

TORONTO, Oct. 13.—Alfred A. Payne, the unfortunate lad who was so shockingly mangled by a C. P. R. express train, near the Bathurst-street bridge Thursday morning, succumbed to the terrible nature of his injuries at 12.30 yesterday morning, after suffering the most excruciating agony for nearly 15 hours.

What was probably the most important meeting ever held in the interest of Methodism in Canada, has been in session for the past two days at the Metropolitan Church in this city. The subjects under discussion: the final acceptance of the plan of university federation, the location and erection of a new Victoria College in Queen's Park, and the character and plan of the buildings, were all of the first importance. The anti-Federationists made a big fight but were worsted completely. Victoria comes to Toronto, work is to be begun at the earliest possible moment, and a committee has been named to make the necessary arrangements for federating with the University of Toronto.

Yesterday morning Mr Æ. Irving, Q. C., who is acting for the Crown at the present assizes, gave notice in court that he would apply to-day to have the Buckley case re-opened, with a view of bringing before the court the prisoner's previous record, which fairly bristles with lawlessness and violence, and would ask to have the sentence of five years for the killing of Bertha Robinson increased.

Another Case of Smallpox at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Oct. 12.—Another case of smallpox is reported by the Board of Health this afternoon, being a boy named Isaac Barrett, aged 19 and living at No. 478 Spring-street. It is a mild case of the disease.

INTERESTING ITEMS BY WIRE.

Mr. Levy, proprietor of The London Daily Telegraph, is dead.

An Anti-Boulangist meeting in Paris last evening was disturbed by Boulangists and a fight ensued, in which the furniture in the hall was wrecked and many persons were injured.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes. 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM LYNCHING.

Negro Miners Attack the Crew of a Freight Train.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 13.—Two hundred negro miners at Smith's mines, on the Birmingham Mineral Railroad, yesterday afternoon made a desperate attempt to lynch five white men composing the crew of a freight train. The train ran over and killed Clara Dickson, a colored woman, who was lying across the track drunk and asleep. Her body was cut into half a dozen pieces of flesh and bones. The train crew took shovels and dumped the still bleeding flesh of the woman into a ditch by the road.

This made the negroes who had witnessed the accident frantic, and they quickly surrounded the train and sent for a rope. All the crew managed to get on the engine, which they stealthily uncoupled from the train, and by pulling the throttle wide open managed to escape. A shower of bullets was sent after the flying engine, but they did no harm beyond breaking the cab windows.

FAIR ELECTION LEAGUE.

The Penitentiary Ready for the Debauchers of the Ballot Box.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 13.—The Indiana Fair Election League, which has been quietly organized here, proposes to see that an honest election will be held in this State. The officers sent out circulars with the heading, "A Fair Election or the Penitentiary." The provisions of the State law and the decision of the Supreme Court in the Coy-Bernheimer case are noted. Samuel Merrill, a book publisher, is president, and John B. Conner, of The Indiana Farmer, secretary of the league. They are both Republicans, but not politicians.

A Serious Charge Against Powderly.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—In a speech at New York T. B. Barry, who resigned last week from the General Executive Board of the Knights of Labor said: "I state now, and will prove it right, that General Master Workman T. V. Powderly is illegally using the funds of the order, and using his position to further his personal ends. I know that D. J. Campbell, of Scranton, went to Washington a few weeks ago, ostensibly to see the President in regard to the miners of that district, but principally to secure a promise that if the labor vote was handed over to the Democratic party this fall Mr. Powderly would succeed Mr. Carroll D. Wright as Chief of the National Labor Bureau. The General Master Workman has Mr. Cleveland's promise in his pocket now, but in my estimation the labor vote will not be handed over to gratify any such base desire."

Mail Robbery at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Oct. 12.—An extensive and bold mail robbery was perpetrated during last night, by which most of the mails arriving in this city from all points were plundered, and papers, documents and money extracted. The present inferences point directly to the guilty party being an employe of the postoffice department in this city. It was ascertained early this morning that torn letters, drafts and checks were scattered on Pearl and Eagle-streets in the vicinity of Fulton Market. The fact was revealed that the robbery had been general in character, and covered letters from Canada, Pennsylvania, Jamestown, New Orleans, Boston and nearly every point east, west, north and south. There were found checks, drafts, mercantile orders and the usual miscellany which goes to make up a business mail.

WHERE Should I Buy PROPERTY?

This is the question that confronts the citizen who is thinking of getting himself a home,—Where to buy.

Common sense will tell that citizen that the best lot he can get is none too good for him, and why?

Because well located property is always worth its price. Because it is conducive to health and happiness to live in the midst of good surroundings; because if you want to sell you can always find a buyer: because such property is becoming scarce and is therefore rapidly increasing in value. I am prepared to offer a special bargain of a few such Lots, one exceedingly good Lot on Dublin-st. 54x196 feet, high and dry, south front east of and adjoining Mr. Bogue's fine new residence. This is a Bargain. A beautiful Lot on Water-st. opposite St. Paul's Church. This Lot should suit any person wanting a beautiful and central location. Also Two Very Desirable Building Lots in most respectable localities on Stewart-st. Cheap Lots and a few Good Houses to be closed out during the next few days.

Yarns and Hosiery

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies', at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what in ducements may be offered we never allow our selves to be undersold.

DOINGS IN THE DOMINION.

THE C. P. R. AND THE TORONTO ESPLANADE.

Three Rogues Sentenced at Sarnia—Operations to Repair the Cornwall Canal Break to be Commenced at Once.

OTTAWA, Oct. 15.—The postponed discussion of the application of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company for an order authorizing the expropriation of certain water lots in front of the City of Toronto was resumed before the Minister of Railways Saturday. Hon. R. W. Scott and Mr. McMurchy appeared for the Canadian Pacific Railway Company and Mr. Gormully for the Fuller Estate. After hearing the counsel Mr. Pope decided to grant the application and make the necessary order. It is proposed that the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific companies shall erect a Union station in Toronto and make a co-operative arrangement for the use of each other's tracks leading into and out of the city. York and Simcoe streets are to be carried over the railway tracks by means of overhead bridges, thus giving the public access to the water frontage, and a splendid roadway is to be built outside along the Windmill line. The filling in of the water lots and the construction of the proposed roadway will cost an enormous amount.

THE CORNWALL CANAL.

It is Hoped Repairs May be Completed Within Ten Days.

MONTREAL, Oct. 13.—The break in the Cornwall Canal and consequent interruption of business, continue to be the only topic of conversation on 'Change to-day. Superintendent Conway of the Lachine Canal, went up yesterday and returned to-day. He reports that the break is a very bad one, but that he will probably be able to finish repairs within ten days. A good deal of timber work and puddling will be necessary where the bed of the canal is washed away, and the earth for the embankment will have to be brought a long distance. Mr. Conway, on his return here, immediately chartered the steamer Beauharnois, which was loaded with the plank necessary for repairs and the staff of men, and left Lachine at 12 o'clock for the Cornwall Canal. She will land her cargo within a mile of the break.

THE MINING COMMISSION.

Large Bodies of Valuable Ore Awaiting Development.

RENFREW, Oct. 14.—The commission is now visiting the mines on the line of the Kingston and Pembroke Railway. The Glendower mine in Bedford township is not now working owing to the depressed state of the market, but the ore taken from it gave good satisfaction and built up a good reputation; about 100,000 tons of ore has been taken out. The width of the Calabogie vein is from 12 to 13 feet and 7000 tons of ore of good quality have been shipped from it, but nothing is now doing on it owing to the low price of iron now ruling. About two miles from the Calabogie iron has been found which about 50 feet down was within the Bessemer grade; about 1000 tons taken out although none has been shipped.

On lot 16 in the 9th concession of Bagot there is an immense deposit of fine ore; the vein is 75 to 100 feet wide and can be traced a distance of two miles. The next mine visited was the Wilbur, the ore from which is exceptionally fine, containing neither phosphorus, sulphur, nor titanum; about 100,000 tons has been shipped; the vein is from 15 to 18 feet in width, and recently the drill ran through 42 feet of solid ore; at present 27 men are doing work mostly of an exploratory nature. Everything in this section of the country points to the existence of large bodies of ore which but await discovery and development. Even a moderate rise in the iron market would make an immense difference in this section.

THE U. S. CHINESE ACT.

A Naturalized British Subject Excluded From Yankeedom.

MONTREAL, Oct. 14.—One day last week Mung Koow, merchant of Notre Dame-street, was prevented from visiting New York on business under the new American Chinese Exclusion Act. This gentleman is a naturalised British subject, his papers bearing date Vancouver, Oct. 12, 1886. He has lived in Canada over five years and says he feels legally that he is an Englishman. His business is suffering and he asks "What about my being a British subject?" Mr. Mung Koow intends, if possible, to test his rights in the courts.

HIT WITH A HOE.

A Quarrel at Port Hope Resulting Seriously to One of the Combatants.

PORT HOPE, Oct. 13.—About 4.30 yesterday afternoon Stephen Barkwell went over to Mrs. Nelson's in Charles-street, Englishtown, to get a rake he had loaned her. On his arrival there he found one Mitchell, a ship carpenter, in possession of the ranch engaged with a hoe digging Mrs. Nelson's potatoes. Mitchell says Barkwell wanted to know why he was there, a quarrel ensued, Barkwell struck at him with the rake and he to defend himself used the hoe as a weapon and struck Barkwell on the back of the right hand, which he had raised to protect his head. The blow severed the tendons and broke the bones of the first and middle fingers between the wrist and knuckles. Mitchell was at once arrested and will be tried to-day.

Body Snatchers at Work.

FREDERICK THE NOBLE.

DR. MACKENZIE'S STORY OF THE LATE KAISER'S ILLNESS.

Professor Gerhardt Charged With Having Caused the Cancerous Complication—The Emperor's Courage—Historic Consultations.

"Mark how plain a tale shall put you down."

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Aside from its intense historic and medical interest, Sir Morell Mackenzie's work entitled, "The Fatal Illness of Frederick the Noble," while one of the most important polemical treatises of the century, is delightfully readable. In his explanatory chapter the author says he is forced to the course he has taken by accusations that are tantamount to charges of malpractice. Among the things that console him, he says, are his consciousness that he did his duty, and the absolute trust reposed in him by "my noble-hearted patient." He complains that the Prussian Government forbid him access to the State archives, without which he could not allude to several points, notably the protocols drawn up in November, 1887, which would show the views Professors Gerhardt and Von Bergmann had of the case before he was summoned to Berlin.

This brings us to the opening of the treatise, of which the following are extracts:

I confess that I felt some surprise that among those with whom I was invited to take counsel in a case of such importance there was not at least one of the leading German specialists in throat diseases.

All three were unanimous in thinking that a cutting operation from the outside would be necessary for the removal of the growth. * * *

While freely admitting that the operation in this case presented exceptional difficulties, I said that I thought it could be done, and that at any rate it should be attempted. I then turned to Professor Gerhardt and said to him:

Will you try?

He replied:

I cannot operate with the forceps.

I next asked Professor Tobold if he would make the attempt, but he also declined, saying, I no longer operate.

These replies increased the surprise which I already felt at a case of such a nature having been intrusted to the hands of these gentlemen. For a throat specialist who cannot use the stethoscope is like a carpenter who cannot handle a saw.

Now, Professor Gerhardt himself tells us that at a very early period of his connection with the case he suspected that the affection was malignant. This makes the manner in which he proceeded to deal with it simply incomprehensible, except on the supposition that his very anxiety made him reckless. It is certain that if the growth was malignant from the first, Gerhardt, by his unmerciful use of the galvano-cautery, went the surest way to work to make it so. I do not say that he actually caused the cancer. No one has the right to dogmatize in medicine, which is still an inexact science, in which nearly every fact is open to more than one interpretation. I do not hesitate, however, to say that the treatment adopted by Professor Gerhardt was at once unscientific and injudicious.

Dr. Hovell once observed to the Crown Prince:

"I can see that Dr. Bramann is not accustomed to use the laryngoscope."

"Yes," said His Imperial Highness, "you can see it and I can feel it."

"On the morning of November 6 I examined the Crown Prince's throat * * * without rising from my chair I informed His Imperial Highness that a very unfavorable change had taken place in his throat.

He said:

"Is it cancer?"

To which I replied:

"I am sorry to say, sir, that it looks very much like it; but it is impossible to be certain."

The Crown Prince received the communication with perfect calmness. After a moment of silence he grasped my hand and said, with that smile of peculiar sweetness which so well expressed the mingled gentleness and strength of his character:

"I have lately been fearing something of this sort. I thank you, Sir Morell, for being so frank with me."

In all my long experience I have never seen a man bear himself under similar circumstances with such unaffected heroism. He showed not the least sign of depression, but spent the day in his ordinary occupations, and at dinner time that evening he was cheerful without apparent effort and chatted freely in his usual manner.

April 12.—As I intended to do whatever was necessary with my own hands there was really no need for the assistance of a surgeon, but it is an elementary rule of civilized medical practice that all those associated together in the management of a case should be made acquainted with the details of the treatment that is carried out.

As soon as the new tube was ready, therefore, I despatched a messenger to Professor von Bergmann to request him to come to me as soon as possible—meaning, of course, that I was anxious to proceed to change the tube without delay. In sending off the message little did I think that it would have such fatal consequences. It is no exaggeration to say that these hastily scribbled lines proved to be the death warrant of the Emperor.

We found the Emperor engaged in writing. The inspiration was distinctly audible, but beyond this there was not the slightest indication of any difficulty in breathing. Professor von Bergmann placed a chair opposite the window and asked the Emperor to sit down upon it, and the reason, without making any remark, he quickly undid the tape which kept the canula in position, pulled the latter out and, with considerable force, endeavored to insert one which he had in his hand, and which was not provided with a pilon.

The instrument was forced into the neck but no air came through it. The Emperor's breathing thereupon became very much embarrassed and the Professor withdrew the tube. This was followed by a violent fit of coughing, and there was considerable hemorrhage. Professor von Bergmann next seized a tampon canula covered with sponge, cut the sponge quickly off, and tried to push the tube into the windpipe. Again no air came through the canula, and it was clear that instead of entering the air passage it had been forced downward in front of the trachea, ploughing the soft tissues in that situation, and making what is technically known as a false passage.

Again the professor had to pull out the tube and again its withdrawal was followed by violent coughing and streams of blood.

To my consternation Professor von Bergmann then pushed his finger deeply into the wound, and on withdrawing it tried to insert another tube. He again failed, however, and again the attempt was followed, as before, by most distressing coughing and copious bleeding. Professor von Bergmann then asked that his assistant, who was waiting in his carriage outside, might be sent for. It seemed as if he contemplated doing some further operation, perhaps enlarging the wound, but the Emperor was saved any further torture by the arrival of Dr. Bramann on the scene * * * Half an hour after the Professor's departure the Emperor sent for me and asked, "Why did von Bergmann put his finger into my throat?"

His Majesty then went on to say, "I hope you will not allow Professor von Bergmann to do any further operations on me."

I answered, "After what I have seen to-day, sir, I beg most respectfully to say that I can no longer have the honour of continuing in attendance on Your Imperial Majesty if Professor von Bergmann is to be permitted to touch your throat again." * * * Von Bergmann's roughness was never forgotten by the Emperor, although the nobility of his nature prevented him from showing any resentment, and even from bearing that awkward operator any ill will.

Tried to Shoot Her Eye Out.

WATERLOO, N.Y., Oct. 13.—William Jarvis, aged 12 years, shot Pearl Kelly, aged 5, this afternoon with a pistol. The boy told the girl to start off and see if he could shoot her eye out. The girl complied and he fired, the ball taking effect over her eye. She is dangerously injured and the doctor thinks she cannot recover.

THE MUD RUN VICTIMS.

Heartrending Scenes at Pleasant Valley—An Immense Funeral.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 13.—The scenes at Pleasant Valley this morning were heartrending. Twenty-eight priests assisted at the funeral services in the Roman Catholic Church over the thirty-three Pleasant Valley victims of the Mud Run disaster. The entire population of the town of Pleasant Valley and surrounding villages were present and the church could not hold one-tenth of those who desired admittance. The bodies were interred in the Catholic Cemetery west of the town, amid the saddest scenes ever witnessed in Pleasant Valley.

Twenty-two Buried at Scranton.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 13.—Business was suspended during the greater part of the day owing to the funeral services of the victims of the Mud Run disaster. The funerals were held simultaneously throughout the valley. Twenty-two of the victims were buried in this city, 33 at Pleasant Valley, and smaller numbers at Moosic, Minooka, and other points. The services in this city were held at the Roman Catholic Cathedral, and the cortege to the cemetery was nearly two hours passing a given point. No such scene has been witnessed in the Lackawanna Valley since the great disaster at the Avondale mine in 1869, when more than 150 miners were killed.

Fixing the Responsibility.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 13.—Charles M. Hain of Kiddy-street, this city, this afternoon said he was on the train that crashed into the preceding one. After it stopped he saw the fireman, Hannigan, beside the second car with his lantern in his hand. He was the man who had been sent back to flag the approaching train, but instead of doing as he was told he remained to talk with some girls on the cars which were afterward wrecked. Hain made oath to this statement, and it is corroborated by others who will appear before the coroner. This relieves Engineer Cook from all blame in the matter. It is said Hannigan will be arrested.

COMPROMISED.

The Chicago Street Car Strike Terminated—A Fair Settlement.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 14.—The great street car strike after a duration of nine days was ended completely this evening on a basis honorable to both sides. The question of wages was compromised. The men got about one third of the increase asked for, but all the reforms in the system of working are conceded and all the strikers are to be re-employed. The men hired by the company since the strike began will also be retained.

Traffic Resumed on Saturday.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—In accordance with the arrangements made between the strikers and President Yerkes at last night's conference street-car traffic was resumed on the West Side this morning and has continued throughout the day. A large number of cars have been run on the North Side, although by no means the usual number, and they were guarded by the police as usual.

A Fight Between Strikers and "Scabs."

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Yesterday afternoon Wm. Hord and Frank Guard, two of Yerkes' men who came here to take the places of the strikers, went into Richberg's grocery store to buy some tobacco. Richberg, who is in sympathy with the strikers, knew the two men and refused to sell them anything. While they were arguing the question several strikers entered the store and Richberg ordered Yerkes' new men to leave the place. They refused to go and a fight ensued, during which Youngblood was struck on the forhead with a hatchet in the hands of one of the Philadelphia men. Knives and razors were drawn and Hord was cut on the head, but not seriously wounded. Hord and Guard made their escape, but Youngblood was arrested and locked up.

The Alleged Dynamiters.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—The cases of the alleged dynamiters, Julius Kasebergher, Thomas Nicholson and Peter D. Thompson, came up in the Police Court this morning and were continued in bonds of $10,000 each until Oct. 23.

The work of the detectives last night has resulted, it is claimed, in the unfolding of a serious dynamite conspiracy in which at least five persons are implicated.

QUITE ENCOURAGING.

Only Thirty-one New Cases and Three Deaths at Jacksonville Saturday.

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 13.—Dr. Mitchell, president of the Board of Health, reports thirty-one new cases of yellow fever for the twenty-four hours ending 6 p. m. to-day. There were only three deaths. The situation is still hopeful. The only alarming feature is the sudden outbreak of the fever in South Jacksonville. There are ten cases there.

Slight Frost at Decatur.

DECATUR, Oct. 13.—There was a light frost this morning. E. L. Deada, a foreigner on the danger list for some days past, died last night. One new case is reported to-day.

The Law Compelled a Refusal.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The Chinese Charge d' Affaires in Washington recently requested the Treasury Department to send telegraphic instructions to the Collector of Customs at San Francisco directing him to permit the landing at that port of certain Chinese laborers who have lately arrived there, some of whom are provided with return certificates, while others desire merely to pass through the United States to their countries. In answering the communication, Acting Secretary Thompson quotes the provisions of the Chinese exclusion law and says that, as it is understood that the laborers in question arrived since the approval of the act, the Treasury Department is unable to comply with the request.

Gave Up His Booty.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Several days ago the United States Marshal's office in this city received a cablegram from Manchester, England, stating that George Middleton, book-keeper for a Manchester merchant, named Dettchner, had fled with his employer's money and papers, and asking that a lookout be kept for the fugitive. A deputy United States marshal met Middleton on the deck of the steamer City of Richmond to-day and, having no warrant for his detention, resolved to face the thief and secure his stolen goods. After a fiery interview Middleton's nerve deserted him and he surrendered $1000 in cash to the marshal, also some books and papers and the overcoat which he wore, all belonging to his employer. The marshal had no authority to detain him and the fellow concluded to continue on to his destination at Memphis, Tenn.

Robbed a Girl of Her Tresses.

DETROIT, Oct. 14.—Carrie Piggott, 16 years old, had a splendid head of hair, reaching far below her waist, of which she was justly proud. Last evening she started to call on a neighbor, and at the corner of Joy-street a man came up behind her, placed one hand over her eyes and told her to guess who he was. Supposing him to be one of her friends she began guessing and while she was thus engaged he was busy with a pair of shears cutting off her hair which hung down her back. She soon heard the clipping of the shears and, throwing back her hand, seized a heavy tress that he had just severed. He then ran with nearly half of her hair, not having had time to cut all of it.

PACIFIC MAIL SERVICE.

ALL THE DETAILS OF THE CONTRACT FINALLY SETTLED.

Tenders to be in Within a Week and the Service to Commence in Eighteen Months—Manitoba Wheat Ahead.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—Every detail of the Pacific mail contract is now finally settled between the Imperial Government and the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. Tenders for three new steamers will be received within a week. The contract stipulates that service shall commence in eighteen months, the company receiving annually £45,000 from the Imperial, in addition to the £15,000 from the Dominion Government, for a monthly service for ten years from Vancouver, not only to Yokohama and Hong Kong, as at first intended, but also calling at Shanghai. Increasing anxiety is felt here to learn whether the Dominion Government realizes that the whole efficiency of the Canadian route to the East now depends on the Atlantic service, and if that equals the New York service—say, 18 knots—the Canadian route to Hong Kong will easily compete with the Suez route, otherwise the fast Canadian railway and Pacific service will be useless. It is felt strongly in official and commercial circles that if Canada intends to supply the British route to the East she must make sacrifices and initiate an adequate Atlantic service. It is pointed out that Australasia, with a population of four millions, annually pays for purely oceanic service £315,000, while Canada pays only a fraction of that amount. The Times in an editorial commenting on a correspondent's letter, indicates Canada's clear duty. The letter says that many here are wistfully awaiting the decision of the Dominion Government. It rests with them to give such an admirable service, with perfect terminal arrangements, which Atlantic travellers long for. The Times' editorial adds that if the Dominion apprehends this opportunity, it is entitled to anticipate that it will become the main link across the two oceans.

Manitoba No. 2 hard wheat is realizing the highest price of all wheats in the Liverpool markets, fetching nine shillings and fourpence; No. 2 Duluth best fetching a penny less. All other wheats are much below.

The Bank Failure at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 13.—The announcement to-day of the failure of the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of the South Side caused little excitement in financial circles. An investigation of the general ledger shows deposits of $103,000, and the individual ledger $319,000, a difference of $216,000. The books have not been examined for ten years.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Buckley's Term in Penitentiary Increased to Fifteen Years.

TORONTO, Oct. 15.—Thomas Buckley, the slayer of Bertha Usher, had his sentence increased on Saturday by Chief Justice Sir Thomas Galt from 5 to 15 years' imprisonment in the Kingston Penitentiary. His Lordship said that had he known his previous record on the day of his first sentence he would have inflicted a much severer sentence. In fact five years for a man of his stamp in view of his life of crime, and the enormity of the last would be a perfect farce. An appeal will probably be taken.

Carlton-street Methodist Church and Sunday School held their 55th anniversary services yesterday.

On Saturday the Royal Grenadiers engaged in a sham fight and captured the citadel of German Consul Nordheimer.

Hon. Edward Blake leaves for Montreal to-night. He goes from there to British Columbia to look over the Onderdonk and other contracts on the Canadian Pacific Railway in that Province. He has been retained by the Canadian Pacific in their arbitration with the Dominion Government, which resumes in Ottawa early in December.

The collectorship plum occupies a large share of public attention. Hon. John Beverley Robinson announces that he is not a candidate. It is believed that John Small, M.P., or F. D. Barwick will get the prize.

Burglars at Lancaster, Ont.

LANCASTER, Oct. 13.—Some time between 9 o'clock last night and this morning the store of Messrs. D. F. & W. McPherson, dry goods and groceries of this place, was entered by burglars and a quantity of goods, consisting of ready-made clothing, mitts, gloves, underwear, etc., was taken. In the same building are the offices of the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company, Bell Telephone Company and the post office which were entered and the papers, etc., belonging to them strewn in confusion on the floor. A number of letters in the post-office were opened. The safe in which the registered letters were kept was not tampered with. Entrance was secured by forcing the front door of the store open. Another store kept by A. J. McDougall, grocer, was entered and a few articles are missing together with about $10 in money.

A "Swift."

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The champion compositor has cases in the office of The Mail and Express. His name is Joseph W. McCann, and last week he performed the astonishing feat of setting 2,127 ems of solid nonpareil in one hour on a wager of $25 that no compositor in New York could set 2,000 ems in an hour. The feat was performed in The Sun composing room.

Indicted for Conspiracy.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—The Kane County grand jury, at Geneva, Ill., has found bills of indictment against John A. Bauereisen, Thomas Broderick, Alexander Smith, John A. Bowles, August Kaegel and George Godding. They are charged with conspiracy to injure the property of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company by the use of dynamite at Aurora, Ill., during the late strike of locomotive engineers and firemen on that road. They are all members of the brotherhood and Bauereisen is chief engineer of Division No. 32, Locomotive Engineers.

NO USE DRAGGING HERRING ACROSS THE TRAIL!

THE PUBLIC WON'T BE DECEIVED BY THE HIGH-PRICE CLOTHING CORMORANTS!

We are carrying the war into Africa. Our Solid Brigades of Overcoats, Regiments of Suits and Battalions of Pants with Companies of Vests and Underclothing, which we have deployed on the field so skillfully during the month, have terrorized the enemy, routed him at all points and carried the fortifications on the run. Our Guns, double-shotted with Low Prices have thrown cannister and grape into their ranks and scattered their forces which only existed on paper.

Our Victory is complete. An agonized wail sent up is a token of Surrender to the inevitable fortunes of war. WYATT & TURNER have carried the day and our enterprise has forever broken the yoke of High Prices that has held the County.

We hurl back defiance at the Clothing Sharks who would grasp at the right of an Honest and Pushing Firm to live and do Trade. The man who wants to buy Clothing don't care a continental whether it is bought wholesale in Montreal, Toronto, Omemee or Pontypool. What the purchaser wants is value. It don't interest him whether the Goods are sold from a plate glass palace or from a clapboard shanty with 7x9 windows. What he wants is Value and Low Prices. It does'nt concern the buyer to know whether the Goods were brought in by rail, steamboat, waggon, oxcart or on foot. What he wants is Value, Low Prices and Square Dealing. He does'nt care whether its rain or shine, hot or cold, late or early as long as he gets the Best Value, the Best Goods, the Best Treatment, the Best Satisfaction and he gets all these at WYATT & TURNER'S.

Our Stock is our own, bought with honest money and we sell for as low a profit as we can do trade and live. Our competitors may howl and squirm, twist and wriggle but they may as well submit to the inevitable that WYATT & TURNER are doing, and will keep doing, the Clothing Trade of the County.

See our Stock before buying. Look at some of our Prices which will be found to be Lower than the Lowest.

TEA!

A Chinese writer says: "To make good tea it is an old custom to use running water boiled over a lively fire. Teas from springs in the hills is the best, and river water next, while well water is the worst. Do not boil the water too hastily; at first it begins to sparkle like crab's eyes, then, somewhat like fishes' eggs, and lastly it boils up like pearls innumerable springing and waving about. This is the way to boil the water."

If you like a splendid cup of tea try one of the many brands in stock. The price varies with the quality. Splendid Teas at low prices. Better Teas a trifle higher. The best not dear and well worth the moderate price asked.

Lost Thirty Watches.

J. H. Irving, watchmaker, informed the police on Saturday night that on the previous Tuesday night he lost about thirty watches. He put the timepieces, most of which he had to repair, in a satchel to take them home for safe keeping, but before he got home he imbibed too freely and became, as the boys say, paralyzed. What became of the satchel and the watches he says he does not know. Four of the timepieces were gold ones. The chief was furnished with a list of them.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

THE BATTALION ATTENDS SERVICE IN ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.

Harvest Festival Services in the George-st. Methodist Church—Missionary Sermons in the Baptist Church.

Yesterday morning the volunteers of the 57th Battalion gathered at the drill shed at about ten o'clock to attend Divine service in a body at

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.

The volunteers turned out in force and presented a very fine appearance as they marched from the drill shed to the church, headed by the battalion band. Colonel J. Z. Rogers was in command with Major R. W. Bell, and Captains Edwards, Langford, Denniston and Miller and Lieut. K. G. Lech in command of the several companies. On arriving at the church they marched in single file down the aisles and occupied the seats in the centre of the church, which had been reserved for them. A large congregation attended and the church was well filled, every seat being occupied. At the opening and close of the service and during the intermission the organist, Prof. A. E. Carter, played some very fine pieces of music, two of them especially being very appropriate, the Isreaiites March, and the Vienna March. The pulpit was occupied by the Rev. Alex. Bell, the pastor, who took his text from Ephesians, 4, 8:—"For by grace are you saved through faith," or, as the revised version gives it, "For by grace ye have been saved." On God's part salvation is by grace, on man's part salvation is by faith, and both are absolutely necessary. Man cannot be saved by Divine grace and human merit, for where grace comes in merit goes out, and where merit comes in grace goes out. God has not altered his plan of salvation since Paul's time, as it was through faith then and so it is now. When men become spiritually dead, and are cold and indifferent to the things of Christ, there is a deadness of the soul, and a dead soul hears not the voice of God; there is no response of gratitude for all the bountiful goodness He has heaped upon them. Their faculties were capable of raising their lives to a very high standard, yet they are spiritually dead, cold and indifferent to spiritual matters. They are not content to remain within the bounds God has placed for a contrite and upright life, and are constantly breaking these bounds. It requires the quickening grace of God to lift the man from this state. Man cannot quicken his own heart. God must do that, and God has provided a way by which man may be quickened, provided out of the richness of his grace. He gave his only begotten Son that man by grace through faith might be saved. God could save us without our trusting him, but He wants us to trust him, and we do Him a wrong when we refuse to trust him, and we are doing just what we ought to do when we put our trust in Him. The hand cannot receive when closed, so a shut up heart, a self hardened soul, cannot receive the grace of God; but an open, trusting heart receives the grace of God through faith. As the electric light requires a conductor, to bring the electricity from the machine which makes it, so the soul requires a conductor. There is abundant grace in God, but it requires a conductor, and faith is that conductor. Believe in Christ with all thine heart and thou shalt be saved.

BAPTIST HOME MISSIONS.

The Rev. Alex Grant, of Toronto, Superintendent of Home Missions, occupied the pulpit at both services in the Baptist Church on Sunday. His visit to Peterborough was in the interest of home mission work and the sermons had special reference to it. In the evening his theme was patriotism. His text was Romans, x, 1.—"Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God is, that they might be saved." In Paul's day there was a discussion as to the future of his country, as there was a discussion now as to Canada's future. Some of the Jews favored Herod, some wished to become Roman citizens and some wished to wait for the coming of David's son who would fill David's throne. Paul's prayer to God favored none of these, but his heart's desire was that his countrymen might be saved. The future of this country was more bound up in the matter of home missions than in any political system. They must have more Gospel. There was no more fruitful field for preaching than in Ontario and Quebec. The hearts of the people were more open to preaching than ever before. Infidelity had had its little day, and they should preach the Gospel everywhere. It was not with Parliaments or Legislatures to say whether a nation would be prosperous, but it was with the church and the saved people. If there was one thing which made him tremble for America it was that there was no Sabbath in many parts of it. Paul was willing to be cursed from Christ if it would save his countrymen. That was true patriotism. What did they think of that for a standard for themselves? Moses asked that his name be blotted out from the book of life to save his people. If they had more of that spirit home missions would not have to go begging. He would like to be raised so near to Christ that personal salvation would give no satisfaction while others were being lost. Christ was patriotic. He went over Jerusalem, and sent His disciples to the Jews first. If they had the heart of Christ they would love their land and want to have it evangelized. The preacher then discussed the question of responsibility. Christ took the responsibility of the salvation of the soul of each one who believed on Him, but he made each one responsible for his neighbor. Who was their neighbor? A Jew asked Christ that question, and he told him that—not the Roman, the Greek or the Persian, whose acquaintance the Jew desired—the Samaritan, despised by the Jews, was his neighbor. In Ontario there were between 17,000 and 20,000 Indians. All along the north shore of Superior there were Ojibway Indians, and only one missionary among them. The Indians were dying year by year, and how about their blood? People were pouring into the Ontario north country and there were nearly 100,000 people there. They were poor people, but they must have the Gospel. In the cities there were thousands of men whom nobody cared for and who were never asked to come to Christ. It was their work to attend to it. They could contribute to the mission work and thus extend the preaching further and take the Gospel to people who would otherwise not hear it. Their country came to them and asked them to give for the preaching of the Gospel in their land.

Mr. Grant preached in the afternoon in the Smith church. The subscriptions and collections for the home missions at the morning and evening services amounted to over $118, and at the Smith church to $32.

GEORGE-ST. METHODIST CHURCH.

The services at the George-st. Methodist Church were of the character of a Harvest Home Festival. Rev. Mr. Pearson, the pastor, preached morning and evening. The rostrum of the church was handsomely decorated with flowers, fruit and sheaves of wheat in the ear, and was much admired. The sermon at the morning service dealt with "the goodness and beauty of harvest," and a large congregation attended the service.

In the evening the pastor preached to the subject "Fools and Crops," taking his text from Luke xii, 20, "And God said unto him, Thou Fool." After analyzing the text and pointing out that the man referred to in the text was a rich man, Rev. Mr. Pearson went on to say that riches or the possession of riches was no sin when unaccompanied with a lust for riches. The character mentioned sat down to think. This indicated a proper line of action. But the direction of his thoughts was the critical matter; he was restless and uneasy on account of his wealth and want of room to bestow an accumulation while thousands were starving around him. He made the mistake of supposing the limitations of the universe were bdounde by the size of his barn. His avarice proved his destruction. His spirit of intense worldliness proved his ruin. God had crowned the years of his life with great harvests and yet avarice predominated. God gives plenty to those who acquire plenty so that it may be consecrated to assisting in the happiness of others. The error in the calculation of unworthy rich men was that they never took God into the calculation. God sometimes gives his tenants very little warning. Our right and title to our souls was often demanded almost on the instant. With such a possibility incurred what was all the planning and scheming for earthly happiness worth? The pursuit of riches as riches would infallibly bring its reward. Life was too short to afford to forget the future.

An Industrial Exhibition.

The event for this week is the "Industrial Exhibition," to be held in the Charlotte-st. Skating Rink, on Thursday, the 18th Oct. The Young Peoples' Association and Ladies' Aid Society, George-st. Methodist Church, are working hard to make this a success, and we may expect to see an exhibit that would not disgrace the Central Exhibition of the county in the particular lines shown. And just here, it may be said, that married as well as single ladies are expected to compete in the lines of fancy, ornamental and plain work. There will be two classes of exhibitors, young ladies of sixteen years and under; and the ladies' department to which only the ladies over sixteen contribute. The rink will be open from 4 to 10 p. m. Tea will be served from 6 to 8 p.m. Admission 10 cents; admission and tea 25 cents. 1d88

Wednesday Evening,

Obituary.

On Sunday morning one of the oldest residents of the county passed away in the person of Mrs. Whitla, relict of the late Wm. Whitla, of Otonabee, in the 69th year of her age. Mrs. Whitla has been unwell for about two years and was confined to the house about six weeks. She bore her suffering, caused by consumption, with Christian fortitude. Mrs. Whitla was a daughter of the late Philip Casement, a retired officer of the British army, who came to Canada from near Belfast, Ireland, in 1832 and settled at Lakefield. In 1848 or 1849 she was married to Mr. Wm. Whitla, who had come from the same part of Ireland and settled in Otonabee, near the locks, in 1830. Mr. Whitla died five years ago, and Mrs. Whitla moved to town about a year later and lived here until she died on Sunday morning at her residence on Sheridan-st. Of a family of five sons and three daughters only two sons survive her, Mr. Robert Whitla, of Peterborough, and Mr. George Whitla, who is in the Northwest. Mrs. Whitla was a consistent member of the Church of England and an attendant of St. John's Church. The funeral takes place this afternoon.

Keep Your Seats.

A local man who was riding in a Toronto street car the other day relates the following incident. A handsomely-dressed young woman entered the crowded street car. A long-whiskered old fellow, wearing a dingy slouch hat and a suit of homespun clothes, got up and said: "Miss, take my seat. I don't look as well as these here gentlemen"—nodding at several men—"but I've diskivered that I've got more politeness." The young woman sat down without thanking the old fellow. "Miss," said the old fellow with a smile, "I b'leve I left my pocketbook thar on that seat. Will you please get up?" The young woman got up. The old fellow sat down, and, stroking his whiskers, remarked: "B'lieve I'll jest keep on settin' here, Miss. I've got a leetle more politeness than these here gentlemen, but I have diskivered that I ain't got nigh so much sense." The local man also states that observing the signs along the street he concluded that some advertising was done in the city but not one-half as effectively as that by gough bros. the wonderful cheap men. At goughs', 375 george-st. you will find a prime $7,000 stock of boots and shoes bought at half wholesale prices, being sold at the same rates. Thousands of pairs of good, sound boots and —a bargain in every pair. Take $2 to the high price shops and you get one pair; take the same money to gough bros. and you get two pairs of just as good goods. Take this lesson to heart and don't do yourself the injustice of wasting your money elsewhere. 1d88

FARLEY IN PRISON.

THE CONDEMNED MAN TALKS OF HIS CRIME AND SENTENCE.

Hopes for a Commutation, but Prepared for the Worst—His Version of the Incidents of the Fatal Day—Thinks of His Family.

The trial of James F. Farley for the murder of the Indian, Simon Elijah, and the sentence of death pronounced upon him, are the chief topics of conversation on the street. Children have grown to be men since a death sentence was pronounced in a Peterborough court before, and the facts brought out in the evidence, the incidents of the trial, the verdict and the punishment decreed are discussed on every hand. The honor of the jury is not questioned and none believe they discharged their duty otherwise than conscientiously. Yet there is a general feeling of sympathy for the condemned man in his unfortunate position.

Farley himself feels his position keenly. He had hoped that he would not be convicted of wilful murder, and he even yet has a hope that he will not be hanged, but he recognizes his position and realizes that only one hand can save him from death and that that hand may not be reached out.

When a REVIEW reporter was shown into the gaol on Saturday afternoon Farley was in the upper corridor or ward on the north side of the gaol. He was sitting by a table and held in his hand a pen with which he had been writing.

He still wore the same wearied air noticed when he was placed in the prisoner's box at the trial. He was pale and the haunted look in his eyes was more noticeable. He had on neither coat or vest and a handkerchief hung loosely about his neck above his guernsey shirt. He shook hands with the reporter accompanied by an ordinary greeting. By way of opening a conversation it was suggested that he might have something which he would like to make known to the public.

"No," said the prisoner, and then continued, "except this, that I hope they will grant me a reprieve. As for the hereafter, I am prepared to die; I look forward to that, but hope the Minister of Justice will give me a reprieve."

"Have you any remark to make as to the trial?" was asked.

"Yes," the prisoner replied, "I would like to say that I feel grateful to my lawyers and all who did anything for me, and to the newspapers of the town and people, Mr. Nesbitt (the gaoler) has also been kind. I have no hard feelings against any one."

"Were there any circumstances connected with the case that were not brought out?"

"There were. Some of the witnesses should have told more. I could have told things that the witnesses did not see, but I was not allowed to speak."

"Since this has happened," his mind returning to his position, "it has worried me more than I can tell. I have thought about it night and day, but have forced myself to bear up. I looked forward to the trial and hoped when all was told I'd not be found guilty of the worst, but," and the prisoner's eyes filled, "I was mistaken."

"I was with the show from the time it started from St. Thomas," he said in reply to a question. "I was at home in Philadelphia when I hired with this show. I had agreed to give two weeks' notice if I wanted to leave, and I had given the notice before we came to Peterborough."

"You were going to leave it?"

"Yes. The two weeks would have been up that Sunday night and Peterborough was to have been the last place I would be with them. I told Mr. Bailey, I think it was at Orillia, that I would have to leave on account of the Indians. They did not like me. He said to pay no attention to them and if they did anything they would have to leave. The next morning I again told him to take my two weeks' notice and the time would have been up before they left here."

"Had the Indian bothered you long?"

"From the first day out from St. Thomas. He attacked me more than once, but I always told him I wanted nothing to do with him. He was one I wanted protection from earlier on the Sunday. I told the chief I would lay a charge on Monday, and I asked him to lock me up." After a pause he added, "If I had been in my right mind it would not have happened."

In reply to a remark he went on: "I had been drinking that day. Some of the men had got money the night before and were drinking. I was in several hotels. I was in Roddy's hotel when the Indian came in. I asked the side drummer, as they call him, if he had covered the drums. He was under me, as I had charge of the property. He said he had; I said he hadn't. He repeated that he had and I said he lied. Then the Indian interferred, though I had not spoken to him."

"How long was it from when you left Roddy's until you met the Indian on the market square?"

"About five minutes. I was going to the dining tent and did not see him till he called to me. I told him I didn't want to have anything to do with him."

The prisoner always talked more slowly when he spoke of the meeting on the square, and was more thoughtful and depressed.

"You remember the circumstances of the meeting."

"Yes. I was going across the square to my supper. He called to me and I told him I didn't want to have anything to do with him, as I had told him at other times. He spoke again and I turned. He came towards me and "—a pause, then more rapidly—"I suppose it happened then."

"Had you been long at the show business?"

"About two years. I was with theatrical companies more than with circuses. I never quarrelled with anyone before."

"Your parents are alive, I believe."

"Yes; my mother is sick at home. Here is a letter (which he showed) telling me my brother is sick, and my father, who is here, is almost out of his mind. I have two other brothers and two sisters. It is hard to bear."

After further conversation the reporter rose to go.

"Don't forget," said Farley, "to thank the people for me. Do you think," eagerly, "that I will get a reprieve?" He evidently meant a commutation of sentence.

"Your counsel, Mr. O'Meara, will have a better knowledge of that," was the reply, "as he knows what is being done and what the result will probably be."

"Yes, he will know," said Farley. "They made a move this morning. I hope the Minister of justice will grant it." He added, with evidences of emotion, "If he doesn't, and it is God's will that I must die, I am prepared to go. At the same time if I was sent to penitentiary I would have a longer time to prepare for death."

After a few words more "good-bye" was said, and as the reporter withdrew Farley adjusted the handkerchief on his neck and sat down again by the table to write.

A Trip to Africa.

To-night a delightful "Trip to Africa" will be enjoyed. There will be none of the dangers that beset Stanley and other African explorers, but an exquisite operatic entertainment. The opera is the work of a Suppe, is very highly commended and has been exceedingly popular in the large cities. It will be presented in the Opera House to-night by a company of sixty performers—an unprecedentedly large company. It is composed of the best talent, secured from various places, and the company has received high praise wherever it has been, including Toronto, where it concluded a successful engagement on Saturday night. This large and excellent company has been brought here through the enterprise of the Amateur Athletic Association, and the Opera House should be crowded this evening.

On Thursday of last week a tramp presented himself at Mr. Staples' farm in Cavan, and stated that he had walked from Peterborough and that while staying at a a hotel here he had been robbed of about fifty dollars, a gold watch and chain and a Canadian Pacific railway ticket. He said that his home was up west, where he had five children, and that he was then trying to foot his way there. He worked upon the sympathy of Mr. Staples to the extent of obtaining five dollars which he promised to return, when he reached home, but Mr. Staples has not since heard of his five dollars or the tramp.

It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes. 25 cents a bottle. In Brief and to the Point.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies; at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what inducements may be offered we never allow ourselves to be undersold.

THE GALT POISONING CASE

DR. ELLIS' ANALYSIS TO GO TO THE AUTHORITIES TO-DAY.

A Daring Robbery in the Quebec Bank at Montreal—A Probable Murder at St. Catharines—Whirled Round a Shaft.

TORONTO, Oct. 16.—When Dr. Ellis, Government analyst, informed Deputy Attorney-General Johnston that he had not only found strychnine in the viscera of little Meta Cherry, but in all the candies forwarded to him for analysis in connection with the Galt poisoning outrages, Mr. Johnston asked the doctor to place his report in writing, together with any peculiarities that might come to his notice regarding the chocolate drops as to the manner in which they were loaded with poison. It was expected that this report would have been sent to the authorities yesterday, but at a late hour last night the report had not been forwarded.

Dr. Ellis was seen at his residence on St. Albans-street, when he explained that as the report required by Mr. Johnston would be a most complete one, he had been unable to finish the work of preparing it yesterday. However, it will be sent to the Attorney-General to-day, when it will be forwarded to the coroner at Galt after the detectives at work on the case have had an opportunity of examining it.

Detective John Murray has spent considerable time in Galt looking up the facts of the case. However, yesterday he had to go to Buffalo, N. Y., again in connection with the extradition of Greenfield. This case comes up in court in Buffalo to-day. Detective William Greer is still working on the poisoning case, and is making an effort to connect certain links in a chain of evidence which might bring certain parties to justice.

A Stepping Stone to Wealth.

MONTREAL, Oct. 16.—The clerks in the Quebec Bank got a surprise when a youth walked in with a soap box under his arm arm between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, put the soapbox down upon the floor, stepped upon it, reached over, grasped a parcel of bills and went out of the door. Almost before the clerks realized what had happened he was nowhere to be seen. The manager cannot tell how much was taken, but says the sum cannot be a large one, probably $2500.

Supposed Infanticide at St. Kitts.

ST. CATHARINES, Oct. 16.—On Saturday afternoon children discovered in Smoky Hollow the body of a child lying partly submerged in a pool of water underneath a bridge. A colored woman named Mrs. Brown, a widow, was arrested, and at the inquest yesterday, admitted the child was hers, but said that she had given it to a woman in Grantham who promised to care for it for two years. The inquest was adjourned for a week.

Caught His Sleeve in the Shafting.

DUNDAS, Oct. 16.—While attempting to fasten a belt in his carpet lining manufactory yesterday afternoon, T. N. Kirk caught his sleeve in the set screw of the shafting and was carried around 30 times, striking the ceiling at each revolution. He is still alive, but his recovery is doubtful.

Arrested for Assault.

OSHAWA, Oct. 16.—A man named Strickland, from Whitby, was arrested early yesterday morning for attempting an assault Sunday night on a hired girl employed at the Queen's Hotel here. He is held for trial.

FONG TANG AT THE FALLS.

A Toronto Chinaman Prevented from Crossing the Line.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Oct. 16.—Fong Tang, a naturalized citizen of the Dominion, residing in Toronto, where he carries on the laundry business, arrived here at 3.30 yesterday afternoon by the Grand Trunk en route from Toronto to New York. He was accompanied by Mrs. Tang, formerly Miss Sarah McMeher, to whom he was married by Rev. B. Longley on May 29, 1887, at Toronto. The United States Customs authorities would not allow Fong Tang to cross the line, and Mrs. Tang would not without her husband. The pair were on their way to New York on the invitation of Mrs. Tang's father, who proposed to give the cigar store over which he presides in Gotham to his son-in-law.

WINNIPEG WIRELETS.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 16.—The Canadian Pacific is fully prepared against a wheat blockade, having 3000 cars against 1600 last year and more grain.

The Provencher Conservative Association adjourned without selecting a candidate, owing to the slim attendance.

Ruined by Politics and Liquor.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Gustave Richter was found on a lounge in a court room here dead, and it was discovered that he had shot himself over the right eye with a revolver which was found at his side. Richter was once a well-to-do real estate and insurance agent, but he went into politics and his downfall is said to date from that time. An unfortunate fondness for liquor reduced him to want.

"THE DEVIL TEMPTED ME."

So Said a Georgia Negro as an Enraged Mob Lynched Him.

COCHRAN, Ga., Oct. 16.—Early last week O. Newman, a young farmer who lives three miles out on the Hawkinsville extension, employed a strange negro, who gave the name of Bill Johnson, to pick cotton. Friday morning Mr. Newman came to this city. As soon as the husband disappeared Johnson went to the house, ostensibly for a drink of water. Mrs. Newman was bending over her baby crooning it to sleep, when suddenly she was grasped by a strong arm. In the fight which ensued the lady scratched Johnson's face fearfully, but her efforts were in vain. No other house was within a mile, and her screams could not be heard. When he left she was unconscious.

A neighbour called in the afternoon and found Mrs. Newman almost dead. Mr. Newman was first apprised of the event by a messenger just as he was preparing to return home. Men on foot and mounted started out after the negro and dogs were brought into requisition. Late in the night they caught Johnson, and the party reached the place at 3 a.m. Johnson denied that he was the culprit, and the crowd of fifty decided to try him. They sent for Mrs. Newman. She recognized him and fainted.

"Let us hang him at one," was the declaration of the leader, and they did hang him. "You have five minutes to live," said the leader. Johnson, who had up to this moment protested his innocence, broke down and confessed his guilt. "I did not mean to do what I did," he said, "but when I got up to the house the devil tempted me."

THE MUD RUN CALAMITY.

Evidence at the Coroner's Inquest—An Engineer Blamed.

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., Oct. 16.—The coroner's jury investigating the Mud Run accident resumed its session yesterday afternoon. Henry Cook, the engineer of the first engine, testified that he was running at the rate of 12 or 15 miles an hour, but saw no signals at the station. When rounding the curve he heard two blasts from the engine behind, which signified "all right," and he went on, coming to the station at ten miles an hour. When still nearer to the station he saw a white signal being swung violently across the track and applied the brake to his engine, but it was then too late to avoid the crash. He declared positively that if Engineer Major of the rear engine had applied the air breaks the train could have been stopped, but instead of that Major pulled open the throttle when within a quarter of a mile of the station.

Other witnesses testified that the train which ran into the foreward section was running from 15 to 18 miles an hour. One witness who was on the fourth section says he saw the red light waved 200 or 300 yards back of his train. Most of the evidence of passengers on the two sections corroborated each other in declaring that the train was running at a high rate of speed and that the proper danger signals were displayed.

The hearing was adjourned until Wednesday.

Mules Prevent a Murder.

ONANCOCK, Va., Oct. 16.—Boss Bailey, a white man residing at Savageville, in the lower part of Accomack county, celebrated his fiftieth birthday yesterday by visiting a neighboring place called Little Hill, where he got full of liquor. Returning home he thrashed his wife and having armed himself with a double barrel shotgun went in search of a negro who he said had insulted him. He found the negro proughing in a neighboring field and opened fire on him, striking him in the left shoulder, side and leg, inflicting serious wounds.

Bailey was on the point of emptying the second barrel when the negro took shelter behind his mule until his assailant could be disarmed by persons who were near the scene. Both Bailey's wife and the negro swore out warrants for his arrest, but when the Sheriff went to arrest him he found that he had flown to parts unknown. Bailey's wife's brothers are highly incensed against him, and if they can catch him will handle him roughly.

Five Dead Babies in a Box.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—A ghastly discovery was made by a couple of boys in a deserted brickyard. They found an old soap box and opened it. The dead and decomposed bodies of five babies law side by side within. The police were notified and the remains sent to the Morgue. The bodies were badly decomposed. Two were males, and one of the females appeared to have lived about two weeks, while the others had died shortly after birth. A cursory examination revealed a seeming fracture of the skull in two of the cases, but these were the only marks of violence discovered. The babies had probably been dead for about ten days.

A Fatal Blow.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Oct. 16.—John Waters last night went to the house of James and Martin Boyle in Adams. The Boyles, N. Keenes and Dwight Sherman were there and the party drank. Shortly afterwards Waters' wife knocked, and on being refused admission she kicked in the door, insisting that her husband should leave the place. Finally Waters and wife left, followed by the party, who stoned them. Waters was hit on the head and his skull was fractured. He managed to get to a house near, where he died. His assailants were arrested this morning.

Poisoned By Her Son.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 16.—Arthur Rich, aged 17 years, attempted to poison his mother by putting poison in her coffee in East Haddam yesterday. She questioned her son in the presence of several witnesses, and he admitted his guilt. He said he knew his mother had money, and he intended to kill her in some way to get it. Sunday night he put half a teaspoonful of paris green into her tea, and, as it did not kill her, on Monday night he put in two teaspoonfuls.

The Marble and Iron of Eastern Ontario.

OTTAWA, Oct. 16.—The Mining Commission visited a marble quarry situated in the heart of the village of Renfrew which is being operated. The stone is shipped to Ottawa where it is dressed. It is the intention to operate the quarry much more extensively, the stone being possessed of great power of resistance to the weather and capable of a fine polish. The manufacture of lime is carried on in Renfrew with success. There is any amount of limestone and there is no reason why the manufacturing of lime should not be carried on extensively.

The commission went to Arnprior and examined a deposit of hematite iron ore which is of good quality and rich. Other marble quarries were examined and the product was found to be promising. Little is being done on account of the unfair competition of some United States quarries, but the stone is of such a quality that it will make its way in the market eventually.

Suicide of a Farmer.

MONTREAL, Oct. 16.—A man named Winceslas Dubois, a farmer of St. Cuthbert, committed suicide the other day in a peculiar manner. He took his team of oxen and a log chain to the bush and putting the chain over the branch of a tree he fastened the other end around his neck. Then he started his oxen and as they stepped off he was suspended from the tree. The oxen had then stopped and when he was found by his wife he was still hanging and stone dead.

CROFTERS AS FISHERMEN.

A NUMBER COMING TO BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The Charges to be Brought Against Mr Parnell—The German Emperor in Rome—A Warrant for Mr. Mahoney.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—A large emigration of crofter fishermen to British Columbia is probable next spring. A number of leading cannery owners are arranging to emigrate 120 families—about 600 souls—to take the places of Indians and Chinese in the canneries, at fixed wages. The movement is regarded as important in view of the drawbacks caused by the Chinese element in the province.

A prospectus has been issued for the Excelsior Copper Company, with a capital of £450,000. The company has been formed to acquire copper mining property in West Broughton, Megantic. The directors include Hon. Messrs. Mercier and Lynch.

The Times' Charges.

DUBLIN, Oct. 16.—The Freemans Journal publishes the gist of the charges against the Parnellites which The London Times will bring forward before the commission of enquiry. The only specific charges are the paying of money to criminals for their defence, and to help them to escape.

Seeing The Sights.

ROME, Oct. 16.—Yesterday morning the weather was inclement and Emperor William remained at the Quirinal transacting business with Count Herbert Bismarck. In the afternoon the weather became fine and after a conference with King Humbert the Emperor drove about the city seeing the sights. The party will start for Naples in the morning.

The Kaiser and the Pope.

ROME, Oct. 16.—Cardinal Rampolla, Papal Secretary of State, has sent a circular letter to the various nuncios in which he says that the Pope is much satisfied with Emperor William's visit to the Vatican. He further says that Emperor William recognizes the Pope's high sovereignty.

The Trouble in Samoa.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—Advices from Samoa of Oct. 2 state that Malealoa's partisans had burned Tamesese's residence and were besieging his adherents at Mulni Point. The latter were without food and water and the Germans were trying to supply them.

A Warrant for an M. P.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of P. Mahony, M. P. for North Meath, for inciting tenants not to pay rent.

Attacked by Natives.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 16.—The German East African station at Madinole, on Kengeni River was attacked by the natives and burned.

CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION.

The Governmental Bill Introduced in the French Chamber of Deputies.

PARIS, Oct. 16.—M. Floquet in his speech yesterday, on introducing in the Chamber of Deputies the bill for the revision of the constitution, expressed the belief that the nation desired that the constitution be revised. The republic, he said, would remain, its existence was beyond discussion, since it was the issue of universal suffrage. Monarchism excluded every system of Government elected by suffrage. [Protests from the Right.] M. Floquet declared that it was not proposed by revising the constitution to destroy Republican institutions but to insure them. The revision was rather aimed against Royalist plots and plots for the creation of a dictator. M. Floquet added that the bill proposed to grant the ministers a legal period during which they should remain in power. The Ministers would thus be less preoccupied with the voices of the Chambers. At the same time the Chambers would always possess the right to impeach ministers. He moved that the bill be referred to a committee.

M. Andrieux demanded urgency and moved that the bill be referred to a special committee.

M. Ribot denounced the proposals.

M. Floquet insisted that the question be referred to an existing committee. He said he would regard the result of the vote as a question of confidence.

M. Deimas in the name of the Moderates declared that from motives of patriotism they would support the Government.

M. Floquet's motion was passed by a vote of 307 to 181.

Dynamite Scared the Druggist.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—J. C. Whiteford, a druggist at the corner of Harrison-street and Marshfield-avenue, was very badly scared about 9 o'clock last night, and he had reason to be. He had waited upon a tall, blonde woman, evidently a foreigner, and noticed while tying a parcel for her that she leaned across the counter. He thought nothing of it, and after she went out sat down to read a paper. Smelling smoke he hunted around and discovered a parcel under the counter, from which smoke was issuing. Hurriedly unwrapping the parcel he found the hub of a pulley wheel, plugged at both ends, from one of which projected a smoking fuse. He put out the fire of the fuse and took the bomb to the police, who found it filled with dynamite.

A Sensational Lawsuit.

BUFFALO, Oct. 16.—The jury in the sensational suit of Homer P. Sherwood against Henry S. Dunning, of Syracuse, failed to agree, after being out thirty-six hours. Mr. Sherwood claimed that Mr. Dunning, who is a dashing drummer, had eloped with his wife, and produced Syracuse hotel clerks to prove this. A woman testified that Mrs. Sherwood retired with a man who resembled Mr. Dunning and said there was no harm in it. The defence claimed that a man named Warner, who looked like Dunning, had taken Mrs. Sherwood to theatres and other places.

A Rejected Wheat Blockade.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 16.—There is a blockade of a thousand cars of rejected wheat here. The elevators refuse to accept it and the stuff stands on the track. The roads have now agreed to let their cars go east of here if charges are prepaid and it will be lifted.

BAILLIEBORO FAIR.

The Annual Union Show—A Fairly Successful Exhibition.

The annual exhibition of the Baillieboro Agricultural Union was held at Baillieboro on Thursday and Friday, Oct, 11th and 12th. The exhibition was not over successful on account of the wet weather and muddy condition of the ground. The outside exhibits were very good but the number was not large. The inside exhibits were good, especially the ladies' work department and the fancy work; the patchwork quilts were exceedingly good and numerous prizes were taken. The display of garden produce was quite up to the mark. Altogether the inside exhibitors were better than in any previous year.

TELL THAT TO THE MARINES!

NO USE DRAGGING A HERRING ACROSS THE TRAIL!

THE PUBLIC WON'T BE DECEIVED BY THE HIGH-PRICE CLOTHING CORMORANTS!

We are carrying the war into Africa. Our Solid Brigades of Overcoats, Regiments of Suits and Battalions of Pants with Companies of Vests and Underclothing, which we have deployed on the field so skillfully during the month, have terrorized the enemy, routed him at all points and carried the fortifications on the run. Our Guns, double-shotted with Low Prices have thrown cannister and grape into their ranks and scattered their forces which only existed on paper.

Our Victory is complete. An agonized wail sent up is a token of Surrender to the inevitable fortunes of war. WYATT & TURNER have carried the day and our enterprise has forever broken the yoke of High Prices that has held the County.

We hurl back defiance at the Clothing Sharks who would grasp at the right of an Honest and Pushing Firm to live and do Trade. The man who wants to buy Clothing don't care a continental whether it is bought wholesale in Montreal, Toronto, Omemee or Pontypool. What the purchaser wants is value. It don't interest him whether the Goods are sold from a plate glass palace or from a clapboard shanty with 7x9 windows. What he wants is Value and Low Prices. It does'nt concern the buyer to know whether the Goods were brought in by rail, steamboat, waggon, oxcart or on foot. What he wants is Value, Low Prices and Square Dealing. He does'nt care whether its rain or shine, hot or cold, late or early as long as he gets the Best Value, the Best Goods, the Best Treatment, the Best Satisfaction and he gets all these at WYATT & TURNER'S.

Our Stock is our own, bought with honest money and we sell for as low a profit as we can do trade and live. Our competitors may howl and squirm, twist and wriggle but they may as well submit to the inevitable that WYATT & TURNER are doing, and will keep doing, the Clothing Trade of the County.

See our Stock before buying. Look at some of our Prices which will be found to be Lower than the Lowest.

Suits from $1.75 up to $15.00. See our Big Mens' Suits for $1.75. It is a Marvel of Cheapness. Pants for 39 cents (not overalls.) A Lot of Odd Vests to be sold at a trifle. Mens' Overcoats, commencing in price at $2.25 and ranging up to $15.00.

Boy's and Youth's Suits and Overcoats at any price you wish. An Immense Stock to choose from.
Mens' Knitted Top Shirts at 29c. and up, Mens' All Wool Under-Shirts and Drawers, All Wool remember, for 41c.
Fine Flannel Shirts for 35c, Home-made Socks and Mitts at 22½c.

Heavy All Wool Cardigan Jacket for 75c. A Special Line of Mens' Canadian Tweed Pants to be sold Saturday, and Saturday only, at 78 cents.

TEA!

A Chinese writer says: "To make good tea it is an old custom to use running water boiled over a lively fire. That from springs in the hills is the best, and river water next, while well water is the worst. Do not boil the water too hastily; as, first it begins to sparkle like crab's eyes, then, somewhat like fishes' eggs, and lastly it boils up like pearls innumerable springing and waving about. This is the way to boil the water."

If you like a splendid cup of tea try one of the many brands in stock. The price varies with the quality. Splendid Teas at low prices. Better Teas a trifle higher. The best not dear and well worth the moderate price asked.

To-Night

Should be Attended To.

The sanitary condition of the town offices is an unsavory subject, but something must be done about it. A south wind was blowing this morning, and as is always the case then the stench about the offices was unbearable. The Town Clerk vacated his office and retreated to the police station, but it was little better there. The Collectors office and the court room were invaded with the odor. If the Council does not take this matter up, the Board of Health should.

Runaway Accident.

This afternoon while Mr. A. P. Poussette, Q.C., and Mr. Peck, of the Canada Permanent office, Toronto, were driving on Bethune-st. the horse became frightened at a train and ran away. He turned east on Hunter-st. at a terrific pace and the gentlemen were thrown out. Mr. Peck received a severe cut on the hand, his face was severely scratched and he was shaken by the fall. Mr. Poussette fell on his shoulder, which received a hard blow, and he was scratched on the forehead and face. The buggy upset and left the top at Aylmer-st. Near Sullivan's hotel Mr. Spencer, of Ennismore, caught the horse. A shaft ran through his coat and he was rolled over in the mud, his leg being slightly hurt, but the animal was stopped.

An Industrial Exhibition.

The event for this week is the "Industrial Exhibition," to be held in the Charlotte-st. Skating Rink, on Thursday, the 18th Oct. The Young Peoples' Association and Ladies' Aid Society, George-st. Methodist Church, are working hard to make this a success, and we may expect to see an exhibit that would not disgrace the Central Exhibition of the county in the particular lines shown. And just here, it may be said; that married as well as single ladies are expected to compete in the lines of fancy, ornamental and plain work. There will be two classes of exhibitors, young ladies of sixteen years and under; and the ladies' department to which only the ladies over sixteen contribute. The rink will be open from 4 to 10 p. m. Tea will be served from 6 to 8 p.m. Admission 10 cents; admission and tea 25 cents. 1d89

Oddfellowship.

The growing importance of Oddfellowship in Canada is shown by a discussion going on in the columns of the Dominion Oddfellow, the organ of the Order. A writer from Peterborough commenced the agitation by claiming for the Dominion a share of the honors in the Sovereign Grand Lodge. The membership in Ontario alone, to say nothing of the other Provinces, is over 17,000. Ontario has contributed largely in every way to promote the interests of the Society and is regarded as one of the best jurisdictions under the Sovereign body. Since the Grand Lodge of Ontario was first represented in the Sovereign Lodge it is claimed that none of the officers, except minor appointed offices, have been conferred on representatives or delegates from the Dominion, though Ontario has sent men well qualified for the highest position. The writers say they do not desire secession, but they claim that their representatives should be recognized and placed in the higher positions when fairly entitled to the honor, or that Canada should be given a Sovereign Grand Lodge acting with the United States body, similar to Australia and Germany. The Peterborough writer seems to hold his own in the discussion.

CHEESE BOARD.

A Regular Meeting—Ten and a Half Cents bid, but no Sales Made.

The Cheese Board for the first half of October met at 12.30 o'clock to-day. There were twenty-two factories represented, boarding 2,750 boxes of cheese. The buyers present were Messrs. Wrighton, Cook, Bird, Cluxton and Bower. The bidding was very slow and there seemed a reluctance on the part of the buyers to bid. A factory in the Victoria section formerly known as the Star factory, has had its name changed to Scotch Line factory. The Liverpool quotation for cheese was 50s. The following is a list of factories:—

A Trip to Africa.

It is only once in five years that our citizens have the opportunity of hearing and seeing such an operatic treat as that presented on Monday night by the J. C. Duff Opera Co., and for which treat they are indebted to the enterprise of the P. A. A. A., in bringing the company to Peterborough. The house while not crammed held a large and select audience and the gathering testified that our people are ready to support enterprise when the results are sure to be a satisfactory performance. "A Trip to Africa" was presented with all the wealth of costume and handsome scenic effect that has given it an almost unparalleled run in the principal American cities. The personnel of the company is first class, comprising artistes of great celebrity and talent. From the first the performance was warmly applauded and as the evening progressed individual soloists were called back and heartily encored. Miss Laura Bellini, the prima donna, is of handsome presence, and a vocalist of rare merit, her rendition of the principal feminine role carrying the audience by storm. She was warmly encored and gracefully compiled. Miss Agnus Stove, Miss Rose Leighton and Miss Maud Wilson are all admirable support in features of the opera. Of the gentlemen Mr. Hurbert Wilke carried his part with great effect and gave some admirable solos. Mr. Harry Brum was inimitable and in his topical song of "It's all a matter of Taste," brought down the house. Mr. John Brand was a happy combination of the adventurer and musician and gave his part admirably. The choruses was effective and the costuming brilliant and striking. The stage did not afford room for proper grouping of the company but under the circumstances the results were especially pleasing.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger airi passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—In your issue of last night you do me a manifest injustice. I was very jolly, I admit. I can bring several gentlemen to testify (whose veracity will outvie your common reporter), that I was in a sound state of mind previously to the knock down blow received by me in the arcade immediately after the electric light went out. I would rather at any time be called a drunkard than a thief or liar. I may here state that a little patience on the part of the sufferers by my carelessness will be recouped at an early date. I intend for the future to continue business here and endeavor to have one of the most flourishing in this section of Ontario.

I am, sir,
Yours respectfully,
JAMES H. IRVING.

THE CONDEMNED MAN.

A MASS MEETING OF WORKINGMEN IN HIS INTEREST.

Earnest Efforts to Have his Sentence Commuted—Petitions Signed and to be Taken to Ottawa.

A mass meeting of workingmen was called to be held in the Knights of Labor hall last evening. Before the hour for business arrived men began to gather in and about the hall and the conversation was about the case of Farley, under sentence of death for murder. The feeling of those present was that a less severe punishment than death would be sufficient for him.

When Mr. George Rose was, by a motion, called to the chair, the hall was well filled. Mr. R. McGregor acted as secretary of the meeting.

The CHAIRMAN, in opening the meeting, said he believed it was the first time a meeting of workingmen had been held for such an object—to try to save a young man from the gallows. He believed it was a worthy object, as, taking everything into consideration, the ends of justice would be served by a life sentence to penitentiary instead of the penalty of death. They had petitions prepared, which the workingmen present could sign if they agreed with them, asking the Executive to exercise clemency and commute Farley's sentence.

Mr. Z. B. D. LAFLEUR said that the evidence in this case showed that Farley had been provoked and tantilized beyond endurance. He did not wish to condone the crime, but considering the provocation and that the men were under the influence of liquor, he thought, without reflecting on the jury or judge, that a less severe sentence would be adequate punishment. He contrasted Farley's case with that of Buckley who was convicted of manslaughter in Toronto. Buckley was under the influence of liquor, and so was Farley. Buckley had assaulted and killed a woman and had a bad record, while Farley had born a fairly good character and had been annoyed and assaulted by a man his superior physically. He referred to other cases of killing in which the verdicts had been manslaughter and the sentences terms of imprisonment.

Mr. GEO. BALL, as one who had been instrumental in calling the meeting, said he did so to get the workingmen together and thus reach them more easily to sign the petition for mercy. He had been armed with a petition, and the signatures of the best citizens of the town financially and of oldest citizens had been placed upon it. It was not a question now between them and the judge and jury, who had done their duty, but it was one as to whether they would ask the Minister of Justice to commute the sentence. If the petitions were forwarded numerously signed, and the Minister reviewed the evidence, he believed he would recommend a less severe punishment. He sympathised with the father and mother of the condemned man. He sympathized with the prisoner as a fellow human being. If he had been rich he would have friends to work for him, but no man would want for friends because he was poor while the workingmen were organized.

Other remarks were made, and those present all signed the petition.

On motion Mr. H. Denne was unanimously asked to take the workingmen's petition to Ottawa, and a committee was appointed to ask Mr. Denne to do so.

Mr. T. McGRATH moved, seconded by Mr. R. McGregor.—That the Mayor be requested to call a meeting of the Town Council for the purpose of passing a memorial to the Hon. the Minister of Justice, at Ottawa, praying that the sentence of death passed on James Farley be committed to imprisonment for life.—Carried.

Messrs. Rose, the chairman, and McGregor, secretary, were appointed to wait on the Mayor with the resolution.

The meeting then adjourned.

AN AMERICAN CITIZEN.

The condemned man, Farley, is a citizen of the United States and a resident of Philadelphia, Pa. It is the duty of a Government to see that any citizen of the country who gets into trouble in a foreign country receives a fair trial. Yesterday Mr. O'Meara, Farley's counsel, received a telegram from the Governor of Pennsylvania asking if the United States Government could do anything. Evidently the people of Philadelphia are taking an interest in the case. A reply was sent asking the Government to unite in asking for clemency for the young man.

THE PETITIONS.

Parties having petitions asking for the commutation of Farley's death sentence are requested to return them at once to Mr. O'Meara. The petitions will be taken to Ottawa to-morrow night by a deputation. The deputation will be introduced by Mr. James Stevenson, M.P. Mr. Denne will take the workingmen's petition, and Messrs. O'Meara and Burnham and probably others will go.

A TOWN COUNCIL MEETING.

In accordance with the requisition of the workingmen's meeting last night the Mayor has called a special meeting of the Town Council to be held this evening, to consider a memorial to the Governor-General asking for the commutation of the sentence.

THE PRISONER'S FATHER.

Mr. Luke Farley, father of the prisoner, leaves for home this evening. He says that in his grief on account of his son's terrible position he has been greatly impressed with the kindness of the people whom he has met here. He came an entire stranger, expecting no sympathy, but has received sympathy on every hand. He earnestly hopes the efforts being made to save his son's life will be successful, and though he has to go home his mind will be in Peterborough for some time.

KEENE.

WEDDING BELLS.—We congratulate Miss Maggie McIntyre and Mr. Jas. Robertson, of Villiers, on their wedding, which happy event occurred on Wednesday, Oct. 3rd, and we also wish to convey our sympathy to them for their loss, which occurred on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 6th. It appears that while absent from home their place was ransacked by burglars, who helped themselves to what they wanted, even taking all Mr. Robertson's clothes except what he had on at the time.

TO RIPEN LATE TOMATOES.—Mr. Wm. McFarlane, of Keene, has a good plan to save late tomatoes from the frost and give them time to ripen. He covers them every night with pea straw.

ROADS.—We notice that the old R.R. bridges over the Keene road at the cheese factory and Morgan's have been removed. Also that the road just south of Mr. Jos. Redmond's is in a very bad state for drifting snow as the rail fences are close to the roadway.

"BARKIS IS WILLIN"

UNITED STATES SENATOR BLAIR ON POLITICAL UNION.

Mr. Hoar of Massachusetts Suggests That the United States Might be Willing to be Annexed to Canada.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—In the Senate yesterday Mr. Blair (Rep., N.H.) presented certain information collected by a correspondent of The New York Tribune as to the condition of public sentiment in Canada on the great international question of the political and commercial connection of the Dominion with the United States, and asked that it be printed with his remarks. He was entirely opposed, he said, to the idea of anything like retaliation or resort to unnecessary force.

Mr. Hoar (Rep., Mass.) suggested that if Canadians objected to being annexed to the United States, the United States might be willing to be annexed to Canada.

Mr. Blair: "I am willing that the United States shall be united with Canada, but I am not willing that there shall be an idea of inequality on either side. It is nothing but political union that will satisfy my mind. Undoubtedly a majority of the people of Canada is in favor of union and I believe that inclination is most seriously and harmoniously reciprocated by the 65,000,000 who make up the American nation."

FIGHT WITH A BEAR.

A Hunter in the Catskills has an Exciting Adventure.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 16.—A big bear was killed in a cave in the Stoney Clove in the heart of the Catskill mountains yesterday forenoon by a hunter named "Jake" De Puy. The hunter had sought refuge from a driving rain storm, and he built a fire of dry leaves and twigs to warm himself. The cave was soon filled with smoke, and as he sat half dozing over the red hot coals a peculiar sound in one corner of the cave attracted his attention. A growl or two convinced him that he either had a wildcat or a bear to deal with. He picked up his shotgun and fired it in the direction whence the noise proceeded.

For the next five minutes De Puy had his hands full. The animal in the corner was a bear, and part of the shot lodged in Bruin's flank. The wound maddened the brute, and it rapidly came shuffling along towards its assailant. De Puy fired again, but his aim was not true and his shot went wizzing past one side of the bear. The hunter then used his gun over the brute's head, and while trying to give it a second blow the stock came in contact with a projecting piece of rock and broke off short.

The bear's innings followed, and before De Puy got through with it he did not know whether he was standing on his head or his feet. The bear hugged him and almost squeezed the life out of the hunter, and for a minute or two prevented him from using his knife. The two had a rough and tumble time on the uneven floor of the cave, and once they rolled over and over through the wood fire. When bruin's cold nose dipped into the red coals it unclasped its paws from around De Puy's body, gave a tremendous howl and began trying to get the hot embers out of its nostrils.

Now it was that the hunter again and again plunged his hunting knife into the body of the bear, and at the third thrust he pierced its heart. The brute gave the man a parting scratch with its claw, gave its last growl and rolled over and died.

The skin is considered a fine one. The bear made sad havoc with the hunter's clothing. It scratched him on the back, breast and arms, and came within an ace of putting one of his eyes out.

HIS SECRET FOE.

A Remarkable Attempt to Disfigure a Baltimore Lawyer.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 16, 1888.—Annie Herbert, the keeper of a disorderly house in Spring-street, about the middle of September received an anonymous letter in which the writer asked her to put a certain preparation, which he would furnish, on the face of a man whom he would mention later. The preparation, the writer continued, would do no harm and she need have no fear. The price named for the service was $50. If the proposition was accepted she was to advertise in the personal column of The American, the words: "H. D.—I agree."

This letter the woman handed to the police, who had her insert the personal, and she received a package containing a bottle of liquid carefully wrapped in cotton and a note which read:—"Here is the stuff I want used, and the man upon whom I want it used is William A. Taafe, lawyer, No. 18 East Lexington-street. You will have to stupefy him before using the liquid, and be cargful not to get it in his eyes. As soon as the work is done the money will be paid."

The liquid, when analyzed, was found to contain sulphuric acid in sufficient quantity to permanently injure the skin and destroy the sight.

Nothing was heard of the anonymous correspondent until last week, when the woman Herbert received another letter asking her whether she had received the package, and to let him know through a personal.

"H. D." was told in the personal column that a letter awaited him at The American office, and yesterday a detective stationed himself near the door and awaited a caller for the letter. The applicant proved to be a boy, who, on receiving the missive, was taken by the officer to Marshal Frey's office where he said that he had been sent by Hamilton Delahay, a clerk employed by Dambmann & Co., fertilizers.

Delahay, who was arrested, denies having written the letters. He says that he sent for the letter because it was addressed to "H. D.," and he thought the letter might be for him.

Pending an investigation Delahay was admitted to $5000 bail.

It is extremely interesting to visit some of the leading manufacturing houses in Toronto. Perhaps the most interesting and surprising of them all are the extensive Ornamental Stained Glass and Decorative works of the McCausland & Son. It is from this establishment that the finest windows have come for the principal edifices throughout our country.

A TIE.

The Two Doctors in East Northumberland Have an Equal Vote.

COLBORNE, Oct. 16.—According to yesterday's returns the result of the election of last Thursday in East Northumberland is a tie. The mistake was made in Wooler subdivision in Murray Township. It being about nine miles from the telegraph office, a wrong report was brought and it was not discovered till Saturday night. The first report gave Willoughby nine majority, the correct report is seven majority for Mallory, thus making the result, instead of Willoughby's majority of sixteen, a tie.

Shelburne Nominations.

HALIFAX, Oct. 16.—General Laurie and Mr. Congdone were nominated at Shelburne yesterday. There were speeches by the candidates, Premier Fielding and others, which lasted until a late hour.

HE WANTS A SHARE.

A Former Baltimore Capitalist's Claims Regarding a Bond Transaction.

ST. JOHN, N. B. Oct. 16.—Some time ago the Northern and Western Railway issued bonds amounting to $300,000 which were placed in the hands of W. E. Collier, manager of the Bank of British North America in this city, and were subsequently negotiated in London by W. E. Collier and Robert Cruikshank. W. A. Harrison, a capitalist formerly of Baltimore but who has recently taken up his residence in St. John, made application for the arrest of W. E. Collier, on the ground that he (Harrison) was a partner in the sale of the bonds and should have been paid a share of the profits arising out of the sale of the bonds. A writ of ne exeat has been issued.

In Brief and to the Point.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

WHERE Should I Buy PROPERTY?

This is the question that confronts the citizen who is thinking of getting himself a home,—Where to buy.

Common sense will tell that citizen that the best lot he can get is none too good for him, and why?

Because well located property is always worth its price. Because it is conducive to health and happiness to live in the midst of good surroundings; because if you want to sell you can always find a buyer: because such property is becoming scarce and is therefore rapidly increasing in value. I am prepared to offer a special bargain of a few such Lots, one exceedingly good Lot on Dublin-st. 54x196 feet, high and dry, south front east of and adjoining Mr. Bogue's fine new residence This is a Bargain. A beautiful Lot on Water-st. opposite St. Paul's Church. This Lot should suit any person wanting a beautiful and central location. Yarns and Hosiery

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies, at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what in ducements may be offered we never allow our selves to be undersold.

A GHASTLY FIND.

HUNTERS DISCOVER A DEAD BODY NEAR OWEN SOUND.

The Detained Chinese—Fong Tang Succeeds in Crossing the Line But Is Hustled Back—Fatal Accident at Hamilton.

OWEN SOUND, Oct. 16.—Yesterday while John Scott and H. G. Tucker, of this place, and W. C. Greene, of Lockport, N.Y., were hunting in Sarawak township, they came across the body of an unknown man lying on the shore of the bay about six miles down. The body was nude with the exception of a flannel shirt, and death had apparently occurred a week or more before. There was nothing about the body to identify it. It was that of a man about average height and weight, full brown beard, iron grey hair, a mole on the left cheek, prominent teeth and a bunion on each great toe.

After finding the body the hunters, when about half a mile south in a slash, came across a suit of clothing, evidently those of the deceased. The coat and vest are dark blue serge, pants dark grey striped material. In the vest was a lady's open faced gold watch with chain and locket, $11 in money, a Catholic emblem, a picture of himself, a railroad ticket second class from Owen Sound to Boston, on which the name Wm. Turcotte was written. The ticket is dated Winnipeg, Sept. 14, 1888. Inside the hat was written in ink, "J. A. Phinse, H.B.C." The name Wm. Turcotte is on the books of the Athabasca as having arrived here Sept 17, and a man answering his description was seen around the yards that day, but that was the last seen of him alive.

A coroner's inquest was begun last night by Dr. Cameron and adjourned.

A Fatal Accident on the Grand Trunk.

HAMILTON, Oct. 17.—A fatal accident occurred between 5 and 6 o'clock Monday afternoon at the G. T. R. yard. William G. Servos, a yardsman, was on engine No. 70 with the engineer, Mr. Alfred Condie. The engine was attached to a train of about a dozen freight cars and was running at an ordinary rate of speed. Servos was on the front of the engine when the train pulled out from the Stuart-street yard. When under the Catharine-street bridge Servos, who had gone from the engine to the cars, was in the act of climbing back from the car to the engine when he slipped and fell. Engineer Condie saw what had occured and whistled for the brakes, at the same time reversing the engine. When the train was brought to a standstill it was discovered that the unfortunate yardsman had been run over. His mangled body lay by the track covered with blood. It was found that three or four of the cars had passed over his legs and that his body had been frightfully bruised. He was taken to the hospital and one of his legs taken off at the thigh and the other below the knee. The injured man lingered until 2.10 o'clock yesterday morning, when death relieved him of his suffering. He was 39 years of age and leaves a widow and three small children.

Fong Tang Will Stay in Canada.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Oct. 16.—Fong Tang and wife crossed over to the American side last night by the foot bridge, stopping at the New York Central Hotel, Suspension Bridge, N. Y., all night. After breakfast this morning they walked to the New York Central depot to get their baggage rechecked for New York, and ran into the arms of the American custom officers, who forthwith hustled him back to Canada. Fong Tang says he will take up his residence in this town and engage in the laundry business.

The four detained Chinamen have not as yet received any information in regard to their admission into the United States from the authorities at Washington.

COUNTERFEITERS CAPTURED.

Montreal Police Catch Two Men Making Bogus 25-Cent Pieces.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—What is supposed to be a gang of counterfeiters has been arrested by the police. Sergeant Courtois was notified that some parties were coining money in a shop on Montcalm near Robert-street and accompanied by Constable Morel, the sergeant entered premises and found in a shed in the rear two men melting white metal, pewter and lead in a large ladle. On a bench near were some plaster of paris moulds with the impress of 25-cent pieces. On examining the place the officers found a trap door in the floor and under it some more metal, moulds, mould boxes, and an instrument for milling the edge of silver coins. A third man was also found there but he seemed to have nothing to do with the alleged counterfeiter. The officers, however, arrested the three and took possession of the tools and metals. The three prisoners were brought before the magistrate and gave their names as Eugene Harrison, 26; Elzear Michaud, 20, and Adolphe Desjardins, 40. The last named was discharged, and made a deposition against the other two, saying that he had seen them working at casting 25-cent pieces in plaster of Paris moulds, that their first attempt had not succeeded well, but they were trying more. Harrison and Michaud were sent to stand their trial before the Court of Queen's Bench.

Criminal Burglar.

KINGSTON, Oct. 17.—P. Varney, second-hand dealer, has lately been missing various articles from his store, and Officer Aiken hid himself in the store on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. On the last-named night, about 11 o'clock, William McNally, after removing his shoes in the gateway, got through a back window and tumbled into the waiting arms of the constable. It was a great surprise to the boy, who yelled lustily when he was seized by the policeman. The lad is sixteen years of age and cannot read or write. He was sent to the Penitentiary for four years.

AN OVERWHELMING CASE.

THAT OF THE TIMES AGAINST THE IRISH LEADERS.

Parnell Devoting Himself to Preparations for the Sitting of the Commission—The Conservative Leadership.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—In spite of all assertions to the contrary, I have the best authority for saying that the case of The Times against the leaders of the Irish party is overwhelming, and is being strengthened day by day. Now that the case has drawn out the whole plan of action the systematized strength of the indictment is more evident. The authenticity of the letters will hardly be questioned seriously, but the letters would be hardly sufficient without something of a stronger and more condemnatory nature, of which there is also a plenty. There was some difficulty at first in making Mr. Parnell realize that it was necessary he should give his careful attention to the matter. However, I understand now that George Lewis finds him most tractable. He is devoting himself to preparation for the sitting of the commission.

The increasing confidence of the Conservative party in Balfour makes Smith's tenure of the leadership of the House of Commons more important than ever, at least during this Parliament. When Lord Randolph Churchill resigned the Conservative party welcomed Goschen with acclamation, feeling satisfied that if Smith was not inclined to continue to act as leader, Goschen was there to take his place. But it is no secret that many Conservatives in the House would prefer any leader to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, for, with all his genius and ability, the Conservative party would rather be led by a man born and bred among themselves. In Balfour they find a chief whom they can follow, but his apprenticeship is not quite long enough yet to justify the party in depriving Goschen of the leadership were Smith to retire during this Parliament. Smith will, therefore, remain at his post, for no one has shown more unselfish patriotism than he. When dissolution takes place and he gets his well-earned repose, Balfour would naturally succeed him. Judging by the progress he has made in public estimation in the last two years, his promotion to the leadership of the party would be most popular.

Balfour's Speech.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Mr. Balfour in a speech at Haddington said: he did not agree with the view that a closer and more intimate union with the Unionists was desirable. Each man, he said, owed something to his party. Both parties might amalgamate with the object of preserving the Empire without losing that identity of connection with the history of the past which might be involved in a change of name. He believed this union would appear to historians as the most remarkable phase of the Irish controversy.

The Late Lord Sackville's Will.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The will of the late Lord Sackville bequeathes everything unentailed to the Queen's maids of honor. Sir L. Sackville-West, the British member at Washington, inherits the estates and £10,000 yearly.

DR. MACKENZIE'S BOOK.

Sir Morell Not Dismayed at the Prospect of Libel Actions.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The wholesale misappropriation of a large portion of Sir Morell Mackenzie's book by American, German, and English newspapers, notwithstanding the extraordinary precautions adopted by the publishers to insure inviolable secrecy, will add a very discreditable chapter to the history of modern journalism. The literary pirates managed to place their wares in several markets, for The Neue Freie Presse and Tageblatt provided their readers with copious selections and extracts the same day as the New York papers. Although the early sheets of necessity passed through a variety of hands, this most recent development of piracy has furnished Sampson, Low & Co. with a clue to the probable offenders, whose position would, under ordinary circumstances, place them beyond suspicion. The firm had a long conference with its legal advisers on Saturday. A case was at once drawn up and submitted to counsel yesterday. If so advised Sampson, Low & Co. will commence action for heavy damages under the copyright act against a news agency and a daily and weekly newspaper.

Sir Morell Mackenzie is naturally annoyed at the piratical proceedings, which caused so much anxiety to his publishers, but they have not occasioned in him the cerebral excitement so touchingly alluded to in a Sunday paper. As a matter of fact he is now in better health than for a long time. He is in no way dismayed at the prospect of a crop of libel actions, which as yet only exist in imagination, and has no intention of giving Dr. Bergmann the advertisement of a sensational trial in Germany. In case proceedings are instituted he will allow judgment to go by de

THE KAISER'S VISITS.

England not at all Disturbed by the Monarch's Neglect.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—It seems to have created no surprise here that the Kaiser should think it his first duty on ascending the throne to pay state visits to every country save England, to which he is allied by nearer and stronger ties than to any other. There is no talk of his coming over, for the Queen has said that she will receive no royal visitors while mourning lasts and it would seriously curtail her Scotch visit were he to come here at this moment. When the Empress Frederick arrives next month his presence would be anything but desirable. We are curiously apathetic in England not to feel irritated and surprised at the sight of a royal progress made to every other European capital fraught with the most important consequences and significant to the highest degree while we are treated as if there was no chance or possibility of our interference in any European complications, and as if our voice was silent in the councils of Europe while the Queen is passing her autumn in the seclusion of the Highlands.

The Emperor William travels about Europe in his own railroad car, which is quite as complete and luxurious as the double saloon one which belongs to the Prince of Wales and is always used by him in his continental journeys. The Italian government caused a carriage of exactly the same dimensions to be built and sent to Bologna ten days ago, and it made the journey from that place to Rome, as there was apprehension that the Emperor's saloon carriage would not get through the numerous tunnels between Bologna and Florence, but it was found that the model just fitted.

A Cocaine Sufferer Kills Himself.

MACKINNEY, Tex., Oct. 17.—Dr. C. K. Gregg, son of the Episcopal Bishop of Texas, shot and killed himself last night while suffering from the effects of a hypodermic injection of cocaine, with which he was experimenting.

A Fatal Scuffle.

MERRITON, Oct. 16.—During the noon hour on Monday two employes of the Riordan paper mills named Henry Youghton and Wm. Allen engaged in a playful scuffle. Youghton who is an elderly man, tripped in some manner and Allen fell on top of him causing an internal rupture from which he died this morning at 11 o'clock.

CITY DEBT OF MONTREAL.

Canadian Cattle Sales at Aberdeen—High Prices Realized.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Hon. J. J. C. Abbott, mayor of Montreal; Ald. Grenier and Treasurer Black are now engaged in the proposed conversion of the Montreal debt. It has been suggested that the rise in the bank rate will cause the conversion to be postponed, but there is no ground for the suggestion. The opinion in city circles is that the present is the best time for the operation. It is intended to make the conversion as soon as initial arrangements are completed.

In four auction sales of Canadian cattle at Aberdeen 584 head realized from £11 15s. to £15 per head; £17 5s. was the highest. A good proportion fetched high prices.

The ratepayers of Dundee will decide next month whether provision shall be made to import Canadian cattle to Dundee similar to Aberdeen.

Canadian Briefs.

Sir Richard Cartwright addressed his constituents at Ingersoll last night.

The fire in the Southfield mine at Nanaimo, B.C., continues, but is being gradually subdued.

The Hindoos and missionaries from Toronto had a warm reception in Montreal last night.

The new Methodist church at Centralia, Ont., was opened on Sunday. Rev. Dr. Burns, of Hamilton, preached in the morning and evening and Rev. B. Clements in the afternoon. A tea meeting was held on Monday evening, at which $900 was subscribed and the church is clear of debt. Mr. L. Trivett generously subscribed $865.

Hewitt Accepts.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Mayor Hewitt has written a letter accepting a re-nomination for the mayorship. In it he scathes Tammany Hall as a secret order merely for the spoils of office, and which two years ago was overtaken with a spasm of virtue and saw fit to nominate him for mayor. He declares he is in for tariff reform and will vote for the Democratic national nominees, but says nothing of the state ticket. He says he has never had any sympathy with the Know-nothing movement, and calls attention to the fact that he himself was the author of the resolution in the Democratic national platform of 1884, on the subject of immigration, which was adopted without dissent both in committee and by the convention.

Another Collision on the Lehigh.

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., Oct. 16.—A collision on the Pottsville division of the Lehigh Valley Railway near Taman End about 8 o'clock this morning between a Lehigh gravel train and a Pennsylvania Railroad fast freight. The flagman did not go back far enough to signal the freight which struck the caboose of the gravel train, the latter containing a batch of Hungarian laborers, six of whom were instantly killed. Twenty-six were injured, two of them dying while being conveyed to the hospital. The gravel train was backing on a siding when the freight train, which was running on orders, approached at a high rate of speed and went crashing into the cars ahead.

The Women's Crusade.

FORKS, Dak., Oct, 17.—About a dozen women were brought here under arrest from Thompson to-day. All attempts to close the saloons there having failed, the ladies took a hand themselves, gutting the saloons and spilling the liquor on the ground, for which they were arrested. They all wear white badges and spent their time on the train singing temperance songs. Great interest is manifested in the trial and there is much bitter feeling.

Killed By An Octogenarian.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 17.—George Meyer, a cigarmaker, of Belleville, Ill., was fatally shot by Joseph Schrandt, sr., aged 83 years, yesterday. Schrandt has a half-witted daughter, 25 years old, and he found Meyer in her room. He seized a gun and filled the intruder with buck-shot. Schrandt is in custody to await an investigation.

Dakota's Growth.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—T. K. Church Governor of Dakota Territory, in his annual report says there has been a gain in the population of the territory during the year of 62,346 in a total population of 640,823. The quantity of land newly filled on and purchased for settlement during the year was 2,500,000 acres.

To Advance Wages.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 17.—At a meeting of the railway coal operators of Pittsburg district, held here to-day it was decided to advance the price of mining from 74 to 79 cents per ton on Nov. 1, provided that competitors in this and other states shall make a like advance.

Bronze John's Victims.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 17.—The following is the official bulletin for the twenty-four hours ending at 6 p. m. yesterday: New cases, 58; deaths, 2. Total cases to date 3637, total deaths 318. Dr. J. M. Fairlie, secretary of the Board of Trade, died at 9 o'clock last night.

A Big Blaze at Duluth.

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 17.—The warehouses of the Standard Oil Company have caught fire from sparks from a locomotive yesterday morning and were consumed with 22,000 barrels of Oil and an Oil train which had just been switched in. Loss $130,000.

An Explosion at Calais.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—A quantity of petroleum in the forehold of the Ville de Calais at Calais from Philadelphia exploded yesterday. The vessel afterwards sank. It is feared that some lives have been lost. The explosion caused the utmost alarm throughout Calais. Hundreds of windows were shattered by the concussion. Two persons were killed and many injured.

CORNWALL CANAL BREAK.

Work on the Repairs Being Vigorously Pushed Night and Day.

CORNWALL, Oct. 16.—Work on the break in the canal is progressing favorably. The dam around the washout to carry off the water from the upper reach will be completed to-morrow, and the water thus conducted past the opening in the banks will, it is thought, be sufficient to furnish motive power for the electric light company and several mills that are without steam power. This will be a great boon to the manufacturers and others who have been put to great inconvenience through the accident. Over 200 men are now engaged at the work, and there is no cessation of operations except at meal times. The electric light plant arrived yesterday and the light will be ready for use to-morrow night. Last night and to-night work was carried on by the light of bonfires and lanterns. Superintendent Conway still expects to have water in the canal again in ten days from the time he commenced work.

One was Drowned.

BRISTOL, Que., Oct. 16.—Mr. John Ramsay, Secretary of the Township of Bristol, and Mr. David Ballantyne, a merchant of this place, were fishing in Phillip's Lake and while raising anchor the boat upset. Mr. Ballant clung to the boat till rescued but Mr. Ramsay was drowned.

Ingersoll Cheese Market.

INGERSOLL, Oct. 16.—At the cheese market held here to-day about 20,000 boxes were represented, holding from 10½c. to 12c. No sales, buyers offered 11c. for some fancy lots but were refused. Factory men were unwilling to board their cheese.

"VARIOUS AND VALUABLE"

CANADIAN BUILDING STONE AS A POLITICAL TEXT.

The Republican Warwick Says the Mills Bill will Enable the Dominion Quarries to Supplant Those of Indiana.

BEDFORD, Ind., Oct. 17.—Mr. Blaine addressed a crowd at the railway station here yesterday. He said:

"MY REPUBLICAN FRIENDS: It is the effort of the Democratic party to persuade the Western States that the protective tariff is all for the benefit of the East. I know that this town of Bedford and County of Lawrence are very largely interested in building stone. I have seen it in many cities of the Union, one of the most beautiful stones known in the United States.

"Heretofore you have had a protective duty against the stones in Canada. They have various and valuable stones in the Dominion, and the Mills Bill strikes down all the protection which the tariff has given to the building stones of the United States. [Cheers and cries of "That's so."] If the bill is passed and becomes a law all the building stones of Canada along the St. Lawrence and along the Great Lakes will have cheap transportation to the great cities of Detroit, Milwaukee, Chicago, Cleveland, Buffalo and in fact all the cities of the great northwestern States, and they can reach those points cheaper than you can who have to transport your building stone by rail.

"They will have cheaper transportation and therefore instead of putting you on equality with the building stones of the Dominion of Canada, the Mills Bill goes clear over and gives the preference to the Canadian stones and puts you at a disadvantage."

POWDERLY'S RETORT.

Answering Emphatically Thomas Barry's Letters.

PITTSBURG, Penn., Oct. 17.—There was published in this city yesterday a sensational letter from Mr. Powderly, in which he states that Thomas Barry was three months ago bounced from the Knights of Labor Executive Board, as the result of charges preferred by the District Assembly of Toronto, Canada. Mr. Powderly gives no idea of the charges in his letter, which is addressed to Harry Bengough, a prominent Knight of Labor of this city. Powderly says that the presentation of the charges, which were mailed direct to him, were delayed because he pitied Barry, who was then ill. Powderly says he will make no public reply to Barry's speeches and letters, but at the Indianapolis General Assembly he will make a complete statement of the work of the order. He accuses both Barry and Litchman of having been in the order for revenue only, and when they were disappointed in that line they were eager to retire.

It is stated here that Barry prevaricated when he says he never resorted to any scheming to secure office in the order. It is recalled that, at the Cincinnati General Assembly, Barry presided over a caucus which dictated the election of everybody except Powderly, Barry being then elected to the General Executive Board for the first time. The great fight was over the General Secretaryship, Robert D. Layton of Pittsburg, who is again a candidate, having refused to stand for re-election. The candidates were Fred Turner and Gilbert Rockwood. Barry opposed the latter because he had been Layton's assistant, and secured Turner's election. Powderly is aware that in Pittsburg there is to be had much information damaging to Barry, and he is anxious to have it in his possession for use at Indianapolis. Mr. Powderly states in his letter that Barry's letter and speeches are the effusions of a disappointed and diseased mind, and that he is now repaying kindness with the basest of ingratitude.

Found a Pot of Gold.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Henry M. Barnhart, an ice dealer, employed Frederick Rudolph to kalsomine his bedroom ceiling. Rudolph found in a little recess over the door a glass candy jar, inside of which, in a pastboard box, was $45 in gold pieces. Rudolph took the gold home. Barnhart missed it and reported his loss to Detective Valiant. Valiant went to Rudolph's house and told the kalsominer's wife to give him the gold her husband had brought home on Friday. Mrs. Rudolph brought out $40. Rudolph was arrested and said he had spent the missing $5. He was held at Jefferson Market Court yesterday morning.

The Long Standing "Q" Strike.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—It is reported here that the "Q" strike will yet be settled and a large number of old employes taken back. It is said that General Manager Stone was present at a secret meeting of the grievance committee of engineers, at which he conceded all the points except the classification system, and agreed to take back 500 men. It is also stated that at a second conference he agreed to take all the men back at standard wages, as paid on other roads, but still refused the classification system, and arranged for further conference.

A Vindictive Tramp.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 17.—Mrs. Sackett, living near Santa Fe Springs, this county, was shot through the neck and seriously wounded yesterday afternoon by a tramp who called at the house and asked for work, and fired on her reply that she had none to give him. W. S. Slocum, a neighbor, attracted by her cries, came to her assistance, and was fired at twice by the tramp. He escaped injury, and, returning the fire, shot his assailant through the head, killing him.

Shielding a Thieving Bank President.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—In an application to Judge Sheppard for an order to compel Cashier Talman, of the suspended Traders Bank, to answer certain questions, which he either evaded or declined to answer, it was stated by the attorney for the creditors that the examination thus far showed that $400,000 had been taken from the bank by the late President Rutter, and the cashier refused to give testimony on the subject, referring counsel to the books. The order will probably be made.

Canadian Firm in Virginia.

DANVILLE, Va., Oct. 17.—Mr. John A. Tuckett of the large tobacco firm of George A. Tuckett & Sons, of Hamilton, Canada, has concluded to go into the manufacture of tobacco in this city on a large scale, having secured a factory for 10 years. He will work probably all the year.

May and December.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—In the Circuit Court before Judge Tuley, Mrs. Mary E. Campbell, who was married to Mr. Andrew Campbell in Ottawa, Ont., got a divorce from her husband, who was thirty-one years older than she, on the ground of cruelty.

Poisoned Her Mother.

MEXICO, Mo., Oct. 17.—Jennie Johnson, a 14-year-old mulatto girl, poisoned her aged foster mother with rough on rats. The victim is dead and the girl has confessed.

Convocation at Queen's.

KINGSTON, Oct. 16—This was University day, and a public meeting was held in Convocation hall this evening. Chancellor Fleming was present and so were several trustees and benefactors. After the Chancellor, who occupied the chair, had made a few remarks, Dr. Williamson delivered an address.

KEENE.

Correspondence of the Review.

HARVEST FESTIVAL.—The harvest festival held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, was well attended considering the rainy weather. The tables fairly groaned beneath the weight of good things of all kinds and were very creditable to the ladies. The church was beautifully decorated with fruits of the field and garden, orchard and wood, all being arranged artistically, and the parties who designed the general effect deserve great credit. The Rev. M. L. Pearson, of Peterborough, and the Rev. F. Johnston, of Lakefield, delivered excellent addresses, and the music furnished by the choir was very fine.

THE STAFF OF LIFE.—The bakers who supply Keene with bread have combined and put the price up to 14 cents.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Dastardly Case of Highway Robbery—Riotous Women on a Train.

TORONTO, Oct. 17.—A case of highway robbery took place on King-street west, about midway between Brock and Brant streets, in front of Gurney's foundry at 10.30 o'clock Monday night. At that hour, as William Holderness, who lives at No. 463 King-street west, was proceeding homeward, he was attacked by three men. One of his assailants knocked him senseless with a heavy blow from his fist, and when he regained consciousness he discovered that the ruffians had abstracted $65, a silver watch and gold chain from the pockets of his clothing. In the encounter Holderness claims that he was stabbed in the left arm by one of the gang, and shows a painful wound to back up his statement. The police have the matter in hand.

Fire was discovered in the storehouse on Geddes' wharf at 4.30 p.m. yesterday, and an alarm was immediately turned in. Several streams of water were turned on the building, but they seemed to have little effect on the fire, which was not quenched until nearly $5000 damage had been done.

Annie Henderson accused Saverio Urciaoli of assaulting her, and in the examination of several witnesses it transpired that the prisoner had banged her with his fist, whisked a razor out of his hip pocket and drew a revolver out of his capacious boot leg. The further hearing was adjourned.

Passengers in one of the coaches of the midnight express from Hamilton Monday night were greatly annoyed by a couple of women, who seemed to be hilarious from the effects of liquor. They kept up a continuous session of hilarity, using profane and blasphemous language. When the train arrived the women were handed over to a policeman. The prisoners gave their names as Rose Le Femmena and Theresa Conway. The Magistrate fined the unruly pair each $25 and costs, or 60 days.

Warden Massie and two guards marshalled three convicts from the Central Prison named James McQuade, Thomas McPherson and Walter Walsh, and charged them with escaping from the prison, to which they pleaded guilty and were given an additional six months each. Walsh is a Toronto thief and the two Macs hail from London.

A wagon driver named Blong was hailed at the corner of Spadina-avenue and King-street by a man who appealed for a lift as he was tired. The driver acceeded, and leaned over to assist the other to a seat beside him. The latter proved too heavy, and Blong fell over him to the ground, his head striking the curb stone. He is now unconscious, and concussion of the brain is feared.

The Hindo Salvationists, with the volunteers for India's coral strand, left Toronto yesterday morning on their way to their destination.

A passing patrol waggon aroused the curiosity of Eli Jeffries, of 238½ King-street east, and in rushing out to see it he stumbled against a glass door. His face and head were so badly cut as to necessitate his removal to the hospital.

The annual inspection and parade of the police force came off in Queen's Park yesterday, 150 of the 230 men who comprise the force turning out.

The Dangerous Coal Oil.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—The explosion of poorly-refined coal oil is the cause of another accidental burning. A little girl named Beauchamp, living on Maple-street, while helping her mother in domestic duties, was suddenly enveloped in flames, through the oil lamp exploding while resting on the table. Her burning clothing was only torn from her with much difficulty, and not before she was badly burned about the face, hands and body. Medical aid was quickly summoned and the poor child's suffering relieved. It is feared she will be disfigured for life.

HORSE DIED.—One of Mr. John McIntosh's most valuable horses died last week of inflammation of the lungs.

REAL ESTATE CHANGES.—Mr. Jas. Walters has purchased the Ray property at Springville and also took a lease of Captain Dundas' farm. Mr. Wm. Battier has also rented fifty acres of the Bradshaw farm.

HUNTING PARTY.—Messrs. David Baxter and R. Stewart, of Fraserville, and six others left Friday for somewhere a little this side of the north pole, their object being to chase the wild deer. The party is composed of some crack shots and we who stay at home hope to be able to report what good venison goes like.

In Brief and to the Point.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

THE PUBLIC WON'T BE DECEIVED BY THE HIGH-PRICE CLOTHING CORMORANTS!

We are carrying the war into Africa. Our Solid Brigades of Overcoats, Regiments of Suits and Battalions of Pants with Companies of Vests and Underclothing, which we have deployed on the field so skillfully during the month, have terrorized the enemy, routed him at all points and carried the fortifications on the run. Our Guns, double-shotted with Low Prices have thrown cannister and grape into their ranks and scattered their forces which only existed on paper.

Our Victory is complete. An agonized wail sent up is a token of Surrender to the inevitable fortunes of war. WYATT & TURNER have carried the day and our enterprise has forever broken the yoke of High Prices that has held the County.

We hurl back defiance at the Clothing Sharks who would grasp at the right of an Honest and Pushing Firm to live and do Trade. The man who wants to buy Clothing don't care a continental whether it is bought wholesale in Montreal, Toronto, Omemee or Pontypool. What the purchaser wants is value. It don't interest him whether the Goods are sold from a plate glass palace or from a clapboard shanty with 7x9 windows. What he wants is Value and Low Prices. It does'nt concern the buyer to know whether the Goods were brought in by rail, steamboat, waggon, oxcart or on foot. What he wants is Value, Low Prices and Square Dealing. He does'nt care whether its rain or shine, hot or cold, late or early as long as he gets the Best Value, the Best Goods, the Best Treatment, the Best Satisfaction and he gets all these at WYATT & TURNER'S.

Our Stock is our own, bought with honest money and we sell for as low a profit as we can do trade and live. Our competitors may howl and squirm, twist and wriggle but they may as well submit to the inevitable that WYATT & TURNER are doing, and will keep doing, the Clothing Trade of the County.

See our Stock before buying. Look at some of our Prices which will be found to be Lower than the Lowest.

TEA!

A Chinese writer says: "To make good tea it is an old custom to use running water boiled over a lively fire. That from springs in the hills is the best, and river water next, while well water is the worst. Do not boil the water too hastily; at, first it begins to sparkle like crab's eyes, then, somewhat like fishes' eggs, and lastly it boils up like pearls innumerable springing and waving about. This is the way to boil the water."

Literary Notes.

We have received by J. Theo. Robinson, publisher, Montreal, copies of the second Canadian edition of those books, "Letters from Hell" and "Letters from Heaven," which have created quite a stir. This edition is got up in popular form.

From the same publisher we have received copies of "The Quick and the Dead," "Adventures of Capt. John MacRa" and "From 18 to 20," three very interesting stories.

Among the recent publications by Wm. Bryce, Toronto, is the Canadian copyright edition of Zola's latest novel, "The Dream," translated from the French by Eliza E. Chase.

A Dead Bruin.

This morning Mr. Walter Emery brought a large bear to the market, which had been shot by himself and his son, Elsworth, near their home in the 9th concession of Dummer. They were walking in some beach woods when they discovered two bears, presumably about two years old, walking towards them. Having their rifles with them they waited until the bears came within nice shooting range, when Mr. Elsworth Emery fired at one of the bears but did not bring him down: Mr. Emery fired at the same bear and both bears then moved away. They tracked the wounded animal about a hundred rods and found him under some cedar logs, and dispatched him with another shot. It was purchased by Messrs. Fairweather & Co. for its fur, which is very black and in prime condition.

A number of the petitions in the Farley case were brought in to Messrs. O'Meara & Burnham's office to-day, and others were yet to be brought in at 3 o'clock. The petitions returned had about 350 names attached. The deputation will go with the petitions to Ottawa to-night and will probably consist of Messrs. Stevenson, Kelly, Dunne, O'Meara and Crevier. As the deputation leaves to-night all the petitions should be left with Messrs. O'Meara & Burnham at once.

The Market.

There was quite a good market to-day, but no material change was noticeable in the prices. 40c. to 50c. per pair was asked for chickens, geese 55c. to 60c. each, turkeys 80c. to $1.00. Eggs were scarce and 18c. and 19c. per dozen was asked. Butter per roll ranged from 22c. to 24c. per lb., apples from 50c. to 65c. per bag, and potatoes 60c. per bag. Wheat remains pretty steady at $1.17 to $1.18 per bushel for spring, and $1.20 for fall, but very little is coming in. Quite a large quantity of barley is coming in and is bought up at from 60c. to 75c. per bushel.

The Curling Competitions.

In the curling competition for the jubilee medals presented by the Royal Caledonian Club, Peterborough is set down to play with the Toronto Granites, Port Hope with Whitby, Lindsay with the Toronto Caledonians, Lakefield with Milbank, Keene with Port Perry and Bobcaygeon with Campbellford.

In the tankard competition Peterborough is in group 2, along with Whitby, Bowmanville, Orillia and Lindsay. These matches are to be played at Peterborough, as are also those of the next group, composed of the Port Perry, Bobcaygeon, Lakefield, Campbellford, Millbrook and Keene.

A Handsome Premium.

We have received from the office of the Empire, Toronto, one of the busts of Sir. John Macdonald given as a premium this fall with the Weekly Empire. It stands eleven inches high and is a faithful likeness of the Premier, and would make a handsome ornament for a parlor. The Empire took a first position in Canada journalism at its first appearance and is going ahead. The daily is undoubtedly the best newspaper ever published in Canada—its news, European, United States and particularly Canadian, being fuller than is supplied by any of its contemporaries. No doubt there will be a rush for these premiums as every Conservative will want the bust of Sir John and large numbers of Reformers will also want this faithful likeness of Canada's Premier.

They Work Like Lightning.

Though the weather is a trifle damp and uncomfortable two stores in town are crowded with customers. Standing room at the counters is scarcely obtainable, so great is the rush to obtain the bargains that are being offered. While the purchasers vie with each other in the endeavor to secure attention, the utmost good humor prevails. In an hour of big rush, when all is excitement of sale and quick dispatch of business, there is not an unkindly look nor an uncivil word spoken. A peculiarity of these stores is that they have two specialties, clothing and boots and shoes. Gough Bros is the place. The proprietors seem to have the faculty of buying first class goods cheaply, and with instinctive business qualification apply the old rule that a "nimble sixpense is better than a slow shilling," and the consequence is that there is a constantly new supply rolling in as fast as the present goods go out. No dust or cowebs are ever allowed to accumulate on the goods, they are disposed of too quickly. The very best element of our people are among their customers. All classes are their patrons, and they keep up their patronage.

Just to Mention.

—The Industrial Exhibition.

—Capital affairs this Exhibition, everybody will be there.

—Three pleasant hours can be well spent. And the admission fee is only 10 cts.

—It is an Exhibition, not a Fair. You won't be bothered to buy.

—You can put in 5 hours if you like, at 2 cts per hour. Cheap, isn't it?

—Take tea at the Industrial. Toothsome edibles and charming waiters.

—It is said that numerous young ladies are staking their chances of matrimony on the excellence of their culinary exhibits.

—If you have some rare article, a valuable painting or antique piece of decorative work send it in. It may gain the red ribbon.

—The Committee will be glad to see all who can crowd into the rink at any time after 4 o'clock. Tea served at and after six p. m.

—Don't let the fact that this is leap year influence you to stay away. A brave man should take the chances—and things being equal—always will. 1d90

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth It relieves the little suffer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

THE TOWN COUNCIL.

Passes a Memorial to the Governor General in the Farley Case.

A special meeting of the Town Council was held on Tuesday evening.

PRESENT—His Worship Mayor Stevenson in the chair, and Councillors Cahill, Davidson, Kelly, A. Hall, Moore, Douglas, Kendry and Hartley.

THE CASE OF FARLEY.

The MAYOR explained that he had called the meeting in response to a requisition signed by Geo. Rose and a number of others asking that a meeting be called to consider adopting a memorial to the Governor-General asking for executive clemency in the case of Farley.

Councillor CAHILL said that in passing a memorial they would be doing an act of mercy at the request, he believed, of all the citizens of the town. He moved, seconded by Councillor KENDRY, the first reading of the memorial, which was as follows:—

To His Excellency the Governor-General in Council.

The memorial of the corporation of the town of Peterborough by the Council thereof:

Whereas one James F. Farley, an American citizen, was on the 12th day of October, instant, convicted at Peterborough of the murder of one Elijah, an Indian, and sentenced to be hanged on the 8th day of November next;

And whereas as the representatives of the people we are vitally interested in the preservation of peace and good order in our community;

And whereas a universal feeling appears to prevail amongst the people of the town that the sentence of death passed upon the said Farley is under the circumstances of the case too severe;

And whereas it is considered that the deed done by the said Farley was done in a moment of passion without premeditation or malice aforethought;

And whereas we believe that the case of the said Farley is one proper for the consideration of Your Excellency and one warranting the exercise of mercy on the part of the crown;

Therefore, we the Mayor and corporation of the Town of Peterborough do hereby respectfully pray that Your Excellency be graciously pleased to commute the sentence of death passed upon the said Farley and to substitute therefor imprisonment in the penitentiary for life or for such term as to Your Excellency shall seem met.

The memorial was given its several readings and passed, and the Mayor was requested to present it to the Governor-General.

THE ROLLS.

Councillor DAVIDSON moved, seconded by Councillor CAHILL.—That the Collector return the roll for 1887 to the Finance Committee, and that he furnish bonds for 1888 and proceed with the issuing of notices at once.—Carried.

A STREET MATTER.

Councillor KELLY referred to the widening of Aylmer-st., near Brock, requested by Mr. Logan.

The matter was referred to the Street and Bridge Committee, and the Council adjourned.

Celebrating the 5th November.

L.O.L. No. 80, propose celebrating the 5th of November, by a social ball and supper, to be held in the lodge room. The affair is in the hands of an energetic committee of management who will do their utmost to make the event a successful one. It is hoped that no other engagements will be made for that evening in order that the ball may be as fully attended as possible. 1d90

Somewhat Remarkable.

It is somewhat remarkable that the trial of Farley occurred exactly twelve years to a day after the trial of Ryan. The latter was tried on Oct. 12th, 1876, and Farley on the 12th of Oct., 1888. The verdicts in the two cases were identically the same, guilty with a recommendation to mercy, and the sentences were the same. The Town Council met on Oct. 16th, 1876, and passed a memorial asking for a commutation of Ryan's sentence, and on Oct. 16th, 1888, the Council passed a similar memorial in Farley's case. Will the result of the efforts made to secure a commutation be the same?

They are Coming.

The original company of Jubilee Singers from Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn., will give one of their inimitable concerts at the Opera House on Wednesday, Oct. 31st. With the remarkable history of this company and their marvelous achievement in building Fish University with the profits of their first eight years of song, and with the high character of the entertainment they gave, all are no doubt familiar; but as there are other companies of so-called "Jubilee Singers," who use the name without right or title, and whose performances are generally a mere travesty upon the entertainment given by this company, the public are asked to distinguish the genuine from the counterfeit. They endeavor to fill the demand of the public for an entertainment worthy of patronage, and there is unlimited testimony that they succeeded. 1d90

Grand Organ Recital.

A fairly large audience gathered in St. Paul's church on Tuesday evening to hear the organ recital by Mr. Frederick Archer, the great English organist. Mr. Archer's manipulation of the instrument pronounced him to be one of the first masters of music, and the soft, modulating style of playing showed great musical skill. In several of the pieces, which were low and musical, and full of effect, Mr. Archer held the whole attention of his audience. A few of the pieces were very loud, the volume of sound seemed too great for the size of the church, and this detered somewhat from the effect the music would otherwise have had. Miss Vair sang two beautiful solos during the evening, the accompaniments being played by Mr. J. S. Parker. Her singing was good and held great attention throughout. The following was the programme:—

PART I.

1 Sonata ..... "F Minor" ..... McKel
2 (a) Allemande ..... Durand
(b) Jacletanz ..... Guilmant
3 Introduction and Scherzo ..... J. F. Barnett
4 Sacred song ..... "Emanuel" ..... Rodney
Miss Vair.
5 Barcarolle ... 4th Concerto ... W. S. Bennett
6 Overture ..... "Der Freyschutz" ..... Weber

PART II.

1 Selection ..... "Macbeth" ..... Verdi
2 Allegro-con-moto Quintett in A ... Mendelssohn
3 Andante and Concert Fugue ..... Archer
4 Sacred song ... The Beauteus Song ... Barri
Miss Vair.
5 Priere-et-Barcarolle ..... Meyerbeer
6 Overture ..... "Semiramide" ..... Rossini

A PRIZE FIGHT AT MONTREAL.

Fitzgerald Knocks Dougherty Out in the Second Round—The Police Outwitted.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—Jack Fitzgerald of Liverpool and Dan Dougherty of Glasgow, two clever young light-weights, met a few miles beyond the boundary of the Island of Montreal yesterday afternoon. The fight had been much talked of, and the police sought to prevent it, but were outwitted. The mill was under Queensbury rules, for $100 a side and a purse of $250, on turf with skin gloves. Dick Guthrie looked after Dougherty and Mike Welsh seconded Fitzgerald, and only twenty-eight friends of the parties were present. Fitzgerald had it all his own way and won in two rounds, his opponent being done up at the end of the first by a blow just under the ear, being only able to come to time and collapsed in the second. Fitzgerald is now anxious to reach higher, and will shortly challenge Warren, and his backers are confident he can make a good showing.

Taken to New York by a Toronto Man.

HAMILTON, Oct. 19.—The police of this city have succeeded in discovering the whereabouts of the three children of Mr. Henry Walters, of No. 134 King-street east. The children, Bennie, Hannah and Lena, were with a dramatic organization and got separated from the rest of the company. Mr. Walters and the police succeeded in discovering that they had been taken from Niagara Falls to New York city by a Toronto man.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger airl passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

THE POPULAR VERDICT.

ETNA, PA., June 11, 1888.

GENTLEMEN—I am well pleased with your Ideal Felt Tooth Polisher. After using it my teeth are smooth and have a lustre which cannot be obtained by the use of bristle brushes; Please send me two more, cost enclosed, as my family wish to try them.

Truly yours N. SPANG.

NEW ORLEANS, June 11th, 1888.

After satisfactory trial, I can safely say that the polish obtained from the Felt is superior to that which is obtained from the bristles.

JAS. WEST, D.D.

I consider your brush an improvement on the old tooth brush. R. J. FRIEDRICHS.

I can cheerfully recommend it as being superior to any other in the market. I intend to recommend it to all my patrons. Respectfully. G. P MALONEY, D.D.S

TO DEPOSITORS.—Deposits are received by this Company both on current account and for periods of one year or longer. The rate of interest paid on amount deposited on current account and which may be withdrawn by check in such sums as the depositor may from time to time require, is four per cent., either paid or compounded half yearly, and the rate on yearly deposits is five per cent.

TO INVESTORS.—The five and ten years five per cent. debentures of this Company which are issued in denominations of $100, $200, $500 and $1,000 each, transferable by endorsement, with half-yearly interest coupons attached, payable at the Head Office of the Company in Peterborough, or at any Branch of the Bank of Toronto in Canada, afford a safe and convenient mode of investment.

The funds of the Company being invested with the utmost care and precaution, no better security can be offered to depositors or debenture-holders, they having a first claim or mortgage on the whole Assets of the Company, the Shareholders having the second. The last audit shows that the amount so invested was over $1,316,223.69, and on securities of at least double that value.

Yarns and Hosiery

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies, at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what inducements may be offered we never allow ourselves to be undersold.

ATLANTIC MAIL SERVICE.

THE DOMINION MUST BE A RIVAL OF NEW YORK.

Captain Haxton's Invention—Alberta Cattle—A General Advance in Canadian Securities in London.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The Times continues to publish letters pointing to the importance of the coming decision by the Canadian Government respecting the Atlantic mail service. There is undoubtedly a growing opinion that unless Canada initiates an Atlantic service equal to the New York service, she must fail in her efforts to establish a route to the East via the Canadian Pacific.

It is stated that negotiations are proceeding for a Canadian Pacific mail service to Australia. It is reported that the promoters expect an Imperial subsidy equal to that granted the eastern line in addition to a joint colonial subsidy of fifty or sixty thousand pounds. This is probably premature, but it is pointed out unless the Atlantic section of the through route is completed as speedily as by the New York service, Canada will be entirely unable to compete with the existing routes to Australia.

It is reported that the invention of Captain Greville Harston, of the Royal Grenadiers, Toronto, for converting the Martini rifle into a magazine weapon, has been adopted by the Small Arms Committee for the British Army.

The depressed state of the cattle markets has been harmful to the Alberta ranch cattle venture. It is estimated that from three to four and a half pounds cash per head will be lost on current shipments, though it is believed that with normal conditions they would yield a profit.

Canadian securities advanced during the week under the improved general prospects. Dominion issues have all risen, and Manitoba and Quebec bonds have recovered slightly. The new order of the Supreme Court, operating from Oct. 24, enabling trustees to invest in colonial securities is expected to have a beneficial influence on Dominion issues.

Filled His Mother With Shot.

DONALDSON, Pa., Oct. 18.—While Mrs. William Morgan was sitting in her dining-room nursing her infant her 6-year-old son picked up a shotgun, just laid down by his grandfather, and discharged it in the direction of his mother. The entire charge entered the head, face, breast and shoulders of the unfortunate woman and the back and head of the infant. Neither is yet dead, but little hope is entertained for their recovery.

Armed to the Teeth.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—In view of the arrest of A. S. Wheeler, one of the new men employed by the North Side Company, for flourishing a revolver, officers searched all the new men one after another as they came in. Nearly every one of them was carrying a weapon of some description and the results of the search—about 75 revolvers, steel knuckles and clubs—were placed in the safe at Police Headquarters.

The Kaiser at Naples.

NAPLES, Oct. 18—Emperor William launched the ironclad Castella Mare at midday in the presence of King Humbert and in view of the united fleets and thousands of spectators. In the afternoon the Emperor reviewed the Italian fleet and received an imperial salute from the fleets in the harbor. The weather is superb.

To Be Sent Back to His Grace.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Among the immigrant arrivals on the steamship Spain yesterday was a party of destitute men and women, who had been sent over here by the Duke of Buckingham. Work was slack on the other side and the Duke was appealed to with the above result. Some were sick and none had money, so the whole party will be returned to His Grace on Saturday.

Caused by Gas.

CALAIS, Oct. 18.—It is now learned that the steamer Ville de Calais, in the hold of which an explosion occurred Tuesday was empty. It is supposed that the ignition of gas generated in the hold caused the explosion.

ROME, Oct. 18.—Acting on the advice of Italian and foreign clericals the Pope has decided to instruct the bishops throughout the world to continue to agitate for the restoration of the temporal power of the Pope.

A PECULIAR DAMAGE SUIT.

The Father of a Murdered Man Sues the Slayer for $5000 and Gets $800.

DANBURY, Oct. 18.—A peculiar lawsuit has been concluded here in the Superior Court, before Judge Andrews, in which the father of a murdered man sued the murderer for $5000 for the loss of his son's services. The criminal case has not yet been tried, and the alleged murderer is under $3000 bonds.

Last summer John McNiff owned a saloon on Turner street. On Saturday night McNiff closed his saloon and went home. He claims he did not go near it on Sunday, but during the night he was called up by some one who lived in the same building, and was told the saloon had been entered by burglars. He went to the place and found Frank Burns with several empty beer bottles in his hands, and in an alley back of the saloon McNiff had some words with him, and struck him with a bottle. Friends of Burns came up at this juncture, picked him up, and carried him into the room of an abandoned woman near by and laid him on the floor. When the woman arose in the morning she found Burns dead.

The father of Burns tried to prove that his son was a hard-working young man; that he could make at his trade as hatter from $4 to $5 a day; that he boarded at home, and that he (his father) received a portion of his pay, and that by his untimely death he had been deprived of his services, etc. The defence called witnesses to prove that Burns was a worthless character; that while he could earn big wages when he worked he did not work except as he felt like it, and his average pay for the year was very small; that he had frequently been arrested for drunkenness, and had served time in jail for it. The case occupied two days, and the jury, after being out seven hours, gave a verdict for the plaintiff of $800.

ONE DEATH MAKES TWO WIDOWS.

The Story of a Double Life Brought Out By the Yellow Fever Scourge.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Another case of two widows has come out at Jacksonville. H. L. Robinson, an employe of the Western Union, died in August, was buried by Superintendent Dillon at the expense of the company, and his salary due paid to his wife there. Yesterday a Mrs. H. L. Robinson writes from Brooklyn asking about and claiming him. Her address is not given, but an aunt of Robinson's lives at No. 87 Sixth-avenue, Brooklyn.

A reporter called last evening at No. 97 Sixth-avenue, Brooklyn—a handsome four-story brown-stone dwelling adjoining the Carleton Club—and there found Mrs. H. L. Robinson herself, a young, pleasant-faced woman. When shown the news printed above she was greatly affected. Then she said with emphasis:

"It's a cruel shame. I thought my husband had received a Christian burial. This is all news to me and it looks like fraud. I wrote to Jacksonville for information regarding his place of burial, as we desire to have his body brought on here. He had been in Jacksonville seven months and had written me that he was boarding with a family there of the same name, and that he had nursed Mrs. Robinson through the fever and caught it himself. I answered a telegram notifying me that he was in the hospital, telling him to 'keep up courage.'

"Put one of the telegrams previous to Sept. 13, the day of his death, were signed otherwise than H. L. Robinson, and bore the name of Ada Robinson, whom I supposed to be the widow he was boarding with. She wrote me since his death asking for money, as she had paid the expenses of his burial. And so Supt. Dillon paid the expenses and also paid a Mrs. H. L. Robinson his salary?" she mused. "His aunt does not live here. I sent the correspondence to his father who lives in New York."

MRS. WEIDENBACH SHOT.

She Says It was Because She Repelled Garrett F. Carey's Advances.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Florence Weidenbach, the wife of Charles Weidenbach, a drummer for a wholesale drug store in this city, was removed on Sunday from her home in Robinson-street, near Rogers-avenue, Flatbush, to the King's County Hospital with a bullet wound over the left eye, which is certain to cause the loss of the sight of that eye and may result still more seriously. She was shot on Friday night by Garrett F. Carey, who formerly kept a saloon in Flatbush, and who has been in considerable trouble heretofore resulting from his violent disposition. Since the death of his wife, three years ago, his attentions to Mrs. Weidenbach have caused considerable gossip in the town.

On Friday night Mrs. Weidenbach called to see Carey at the Brighton Hotel, where he had a room, and about ten o'clock Carey started with her, to escort her home. They quarrelled on the way, and the shooting occurred a short distance from Mrs. Weidenbach's house, to which she was carried by Carey.

Carey summoned a physician. He admitted that he did the shooting, but said it was accidental. In her ante-mortem statement Mrs. Weidenbach said Carey made love to her, and shot her when she told him he was making a fool of himself.

Carey was arrested on Sunday, and committed to Raymond-street jail to await the result of the woman's injuries.

REFUSED TO PRODUCE TELEGRAMS.

A Western Union Manager Fined $100 and Committed to Jail Until it is Paid.

LARAMIE CITY, W. T., Oct. 18.—In the District Court of Albany county, Dilks Black, manager of the Western Union Telegraph office at this point was fined $100 and committed to jail for failure to produce certain telegrams, as directed by Judge Saufley. A few weeks ago Edward J. Wagner, an extensive clothier of Laramie, gave a bill of sale on his stock to his brother, Charles Wagner, St. Louis. Several creditors then secured attachments on the stock on the ground that the transfer was made to defraud them. Mr. Black as manager of the Western Union, was commanded to produce all the telegrams that had passed between the Wagners, but upon the advice of General Superintendent Dickey, he refused to do so. Mr. Dickey telegraphed Mr. Black to stand firm, as the company proposed making a test case of it. In committing Mr. Black Judge Saufley said:

"We will see which has the greater power, the Western Union Telegraph Company or the Congress of the United States. Mr. Clerk, enter up a fine of $100 against Mr. Black, and Mr. Sheriff, commit him to jail. There is to be no parole about this business, but he is to remain in jail until his fine is paid."

The Bank Statement.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—The bank statement for September has just been issued. The paid up capital has been increased $83,991, being at present $60,210,258. The bank notes in circulation reached $32,913,526,—an increase of $2,464,711. Since last month the Dominion Government deposits increased $1,013,919—an increase of about $90,000. The amount due from American banks is $23,130,677—a reduction of $1,396,986. "A reduction is shown in overdue bills not specially secured. Total assets, $251,024,434.

Marriage of an Ottawa Journalist.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—Mr. William J. Curner, who has been connected with The Citizen for some time and is well known in journalistic circles, was married yesterday morning to Mrs. Egleson, widow of the late James Egleson.

PARNELLISM AND CRIME.

THE TIMES' CHARGES AGAINST THE IRISH LEADERS.

Prominent Nationalists Alleged to be Guilty of Treason, Sedition and Assassination—Sixty-five M. P.'s Arraigned.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—A London despatch to The Sun says The Times' charges against the Irish patriots were furnished in full to Mr. Parnell's solicitors yesterday. Appended is the text of the charges made and the particulars as demanded by the special commission. The names of members of Parliament against whom charges and allegations are made are set out in the schedule. The members of Parliament mentioned in the schedule were members of the conspiracy and organizations hereafter described, and took part in the work and operation thereof with the knowledge of its character, objects and mode of action. From and including the year 1879 there have existed societies known as "The Irish Land League," "The Irish National Land League and Labor and Industrial Union," "The Ladies' Land League," "The Ladies' Irish Land League and Labor and Industrial Union," "The National League and Affiliated Societies of Great Britain and America," all forming one connected and continuous organization. The ultimate object of the organization was to establish the absolute independence of Ireland as a separate nation. With a view to effect this one of the immediate objects of said conspiracy and organization was to promote agrarian agitation against the payment of agricultural rents, thereby securing the co-operation of the tenant farmer of Ireland, and at the same time the impoverishment and ultimate expulsion from the country of Irish landlords, who were styled "the English garrison." Action was taken to organize a system of coercion and intimidation in England, which was sustained and enforced by boycotting and the commission of crimes and outrages. The organization was entirely engaged in the following matters:

1. The promotion of and inciting to commission of crimes and outrages, boycotting and intimidation.

2. The collection and providing of funds to be used, or which it was known were used, for the promotion and payment of persons engaged in the commission of crimes and outrages, boycotting and intimidation.

3. The payment of persons who assisted in, were affected by, or accidentally or otherwise injured in the commission of such crimes, outrages and acts of boycotting and intimidation.

4. The holding of meetings and procuring to be made of speeches inciting to the commission of crimes and outrages, boycotting and intimidation. (Some of the meetings referred to, which were attended by members of Parliament with approximate dates and place of meeting are given in the schedule hereto annexed.)

5. The publication and dissemination of newspaper and other literature inciting to and approving of sedition and the commission of crimes, outrages, boycotting and intimidation, particularly The Irish World, Chicago Citizen, Boston Pilot, Freeman's Journal, United Ireland, Irishman, Nation, Weekly News, Cork Daily Herald, Kerry Sentinel, Evening Telegraph, Sligo Champion.

6. Advocating resistance to law and constituted authorities, and impeding the detecting and punishment of crime.

7. The making of payments to or for persons who are guilty, or supposed to be guilty, of the commission of crimes, outrages and acts of boycotting and intimidation for their defence, and to enable them to escape from justice, and for the maintenance of such persons and their families.

8. It is charged and alleged that the members of Parliament mentioned in the schedule approved and by their acts and conduct led people to believe they approved of resistance to law and the commission of crimes, outrages and acts of boycotting and intimidation when committed in furtherance of the objects and resolutions of said societies, and that the persons who engaged in the commission of such crimes, outrages and acts would receive the support and protection of said societies and their organization and influence. Acts and conduct specially referred to are as follows:

9. They attended meetings of said societies and other meetings at various places and made speeches and caused and procured speeches to be made, inciting to the commission of crime, outrage, boycotting and intimidation.

10. They were parties to and cognizant of the payment of moneys for the purposes above mentioned, and as testimonials or rewards to persons who had been convicted or were notoriously guilty of crimes or outrages, or to their families.

11. With the knowledge that crimes, outrages and acts of boycotting and intimidation had followed the delivery of speeches at meetings they expressed no bona fide disapproval or public condemnation, but on the contrary continued to be leading and active members of said societies and to subscribe to their funds.

12. With such knowledge as aforesaid they continued to be intimately associated with the officers of the same societies (many of whom fled from justice) and with notorious criminals and agents and instruments of murder and conspiracies, and with planners and paymasters of outrage, and with advocates of sedition, violence and use of dynamite.

13. They, and said societies, with such knowledge as aforesaid, received large sums of money, which were collected in America and elsewhere by criminals and persons who were known to advocate sedition, assassination, the use of dynamite and the commission of crimes and outrages.

14. When, on certain occasions, they considered it politic to denounce, and did denounce, certain crimes in public they afterward made communication to their associates and others, with the intention of leading them to believe such denunciation not sincere. One instance of this of which said defendants propose to give evidence is the following series of letters: Letter from C. S. Parnell, dated May 15, 1882; letter from same dated June 16, 1882; another letter from same of same date.

The names of a large number of Irish Nationalists who are alleged to be guilty or advocates of treason, sedition, assassination, with whom the Irish members of Parliament continued to associate, then follow. Among them are the names of Frank Byrne, C. S. Parnell, Patrick Egan, Patrick Ford, James Carey, Tynan, McCaffrey, James Stephens, Alex. Sullivan, P. A. Collins, John Devoy, Mooney, John Finerty, James Redpath and O'Donovan Rossa. The names of sixty-five members of Parliament against whom it is proposed to present evidence are also given.

The Defence in the Libel Suit.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The Times' defence in the Parnell libel action has been presented to the Scotch Court. Mr. Parnell on Aug. 10, a day prior to the opening of the Edinburgh action, obtained a writ in the Court of Queen's Bench for the same libel. The case therefore must be first tried in the English court.

A Life Prisoner Pardoned.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 18.—Frank Bowie, convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment in 1885 as accessory to the murder of Ronald McDonald, Tracadie, Antigonish county, has been released from Dorchester penitentiary and returned home yesterday.

ELECTION SURPRISES.

A few days ago the Globe published a report that the Dominion Government contemplated bringing on a general election. Much attention has not been paid to the Globe's article, but it would not be surprising if it meant more than appeared on the surface. Other Liberal papers are circulating the report—not very vigorously, perhaps, but it is going the rounds. To the Conservatives this should mean, keep an eye on Mr. Mowat. When the Globe begins to shout that Sir John Macdonald means to surprise the electors, look out for a general election for the Provincial Legislature. In the latter part of 1886 the whole Liberal press declared that the Dominion elections were impending, that Sir John intended a surprise, and called on their party to get ready for the contest. Mr. Blake took up the cry—or did he originate it?—and sounded the call to the faithful to prepare. It turned out that the Liberal leaders and press were, in a cunning way, preparing their followers for a Provincial general election. When they said that Sir John intended to dissolve the House of Commons, they meant that Mr. Mowat was preparing to dissolve the Provincial Legislature. And one morning Mr. Mowat surprised the Conservatives by announcing the dissolution through the Globe. Is the Globe's recent article, pretending that the Dominion Government contemplates a general election, a note of warning to the faithful of its party to get ready to again do battle for the Ontario Government?

The Ontario Legislature at its last session extended the franchise. The Act does not come into force until next year, and it will be towards the end of next year before the voters' lists under the new Act will be ready throughout the country. They will be ready, however, before the term of the present Legislature expires. If the Liberals were honest in arguing that Mr. Mowat was compelled to bring on the last general election before the usual time on account of an extension of the franchise, another election may be expected before the end of next year, on account of the new franchise law of last session. Will the Ontario Government wait until the lists throughout the country are complete and ready for use? It did not do so last time. It may go further in the direction of hurrying on the elections this time. It gained by midnight attack before; it will try to do so again. Watch Mr. Mowat.

SOME DISCOVERIES OF 1888.

The country has discovered that, notwithstanding the large expenditures of recent years in the development of all parts of the Dominion, says the Empire, Canada's credit has reached this year in the money markets of the world, the highest point yet attained.

We have discovered that we possess in the Great Mackenzie Basin a country, almost illimitable in extent, containing the richest minerals, the greatest rivers and the widest area of arable land. This discovery has attracted great attention in England and may lead to very important results.

Political friends and foes have alike discovered that Sir John Macdonald's Government is so strongly entrenched in the affections of the Canadian people that a fresh lease of power on the expiration of the present Parliament seems absolutely assured. From Cape Breton to Vancouver Island, the bye-elections have spoken with trumphet tongue in behalf of the Administration.

The country has discovered that the Opposition leaders and the Opposition press are at loggerheads; that all the most prominent acts and utterances of the Opposition leader are condemned by his own journals; and that the great under-current in the Liberal ranks is decidely hostile to the party platform so hastily constructed last session.

The people have discovered that there is in the Liberal Conservative ranks any amount of talent whereof to form successful Governments. The splendid talents of the younger members of the Administration have extorted universal encomiums. Sir John Thompson has gone to the front rank as a debater and orator and sagacious counsellor. Hon. George E. Foster, having displayed first-class ability as Minister of Marine and Fisheries, and in connection with the negotiations of the Washington Treaty, has taken the honored position of Finance Minister. As he is the youngest of all Canadian Finance Ministers, so Hon. Charles H. Tupper is about the youngest politician appointed to a portfolio in a Canadian Government. Both Mr. Foster and Mr. Tupper during the recess have done themselves, the Government and the country the greatest credit by their public addresses on political and national questions. Of one of the latest acquisitions to the Cabinet, Hon. John Haggart, much is expected, and there is a shrewd belief that he will prove as able in administration as he is in parliamentary debate. Hon. Mr. Dewdney, the very latest addition to the Cabinet—the greatly abused and slandered Lieutenant-Governor of the Territories—has been addressing himself to the practical duties of the Department of the Interior ever since his appointment. There are many who believe that he will not be found inferior to any of his predecessors. With such talent as the party has at its command within and without the Administration, and with so patriotic a platform as it offers the country, it is not surprising that in Ontario, in Quebec, the Maritime Provinces, the Northwest Territories, or wherever the party standard is unfurled, success is the order of the day.

The world has discovered that the Canadian people are not to be moved to unseemly anger or improper retort by any display of partisan violence or national ingratitude which may proceed from our powerful neighbor to the south. The only effect of the Retaliation message or the deliverances of senators on Canadian matters is to bind Canadians closer to one another and make their country dearer in their eyes than ever before. Our neighbors will wake up presently to learn that the more they assail us by threat or menace the more Canadian and British they make the people of this Dominion.

THE HATFIELD-McCOY FEUD.

One of the Hatfield Gang in an Ohio Jail Makes a Confession.

Ironton, O., Oct. 18.—Charles Gillespie, who belongs to the Hatfield faction of the far-famed Hatfield-McCoy feudal war, was one of the party that burned the McCoy house last New Year's night, and foully murdered the women who were in it, has for nearly a month past been a mysterious inmate of the Ironton jail. He came here with Detective Lon Campbell, who overhauled him in a stone quarry in Southern Virginia. Gillespie is a tall handsome youth of quiet manners and intelligent bearing. He is only eighteen years old. When discovered by the officer he would not submit to an arrest, but agreed to accompany him as a companion which he did. On arriving here he moved more freely on the streets in daylight, unknown and undisturbed, and slept in the lockup at night. He was committed to jail for 15 days, and, the time having expired, at his own request he was recommitted.

Meanwhile the officers were actively working up the case and arranging for his safe transportation to the scene of the tragedy. The utmost caution to conceal the prisoner's identity was observed. Authorities from Kentucky and West Virginia visited him at the jail at night, and to them, upon the promise of being released if he would appear against his companions, he made a full confession and recited the horrible details of the murder. His story is a blood-curdling tale, but only the officers who heard it know its full extent. Gillespie says the six men, including himself, who are under indictment for the murder on New Year's night, are the guilty parties. A few days ago young Gillespie quietly left for Wellstown, and, it is now learned, has been safely taken to Pike county, where at last accounts the Hatfields and others, who were with him that night, are living, but defying arrest.

NO USE DRAGGING A HERRING ACROSS THE TRAIL!

We are carrying the war into Africa. Our Solid Brigades of Overcoats, Regiments of Suits and Battalions of Pants with Companies of Vests and Underclothing, which we have deployed on the field so skillfully during the month, have terrorized the enemy, routed him at all points and carried the fortifications on the run. Our Guns, double-shotted with Low Prices have thrown cannister and grape into their ranks and scattered their forces which only existed on paper.

Our Victory is complete. An agonized wail sent up is a token of Surrender to the inevitable fortunes of war. WYATT & TURNER have carried the day and our enterprise has forever broken the yoke of High Prices that has held the County.

We hurl back defiance at the Clothing Sharks who would grasp at the right of an Honest and Pushing Firm to live and do Trade. The man who wants to buy Clothing don't care a continental whether it is bought wholesale in Montreal, Toronto, Omemee or Pontypool. What the purchaser wants is value. It don't interest him whether the Goods are sold from a plate glass palace or from a clapboard shanty with 7x9 windows. What he wants is Value and Low Prices. It does'nt concern the buyer to know whether the Goods were brought in by rail, steamboat, waggon, oxcart or on foot. What he wants is Value, Low Prices and Square Dealing. He does'nt care whether its rain or shine, hot or cold, late or early as long as he gets the Best Value, the Best Goods, the Best Treatment, the Best Satisfaction and he gets all these at WYATT & TURNER'S.

Our Stock is our own, bought with honest money and we sell for as low a profit as we can do trade and live. Our competitors may howl and squirm, twist and wriggle but they may as well submit to the inevitable that WYATT & TURNER are doing, and will keep doing, the Clothing Trade of the County.

See our Stock before buying. Look at some of our Prices which will be found to be Lower than the Lowest.

Suits from $1.75 up to $15.00. See our Big Mens' Suits for $1.75. It is a Marvel of Cheapness. Pants for 39 cents (not overalls.) A Lot of Odd Vests to be sold at a trifle. Mens' Overcoats, commencing in price at $2.25 and ranging up to $15.00.

TEA!

A Chinese writer says: "To make good tea it is an old custom to use running water boiled over a lively fire. That from springs in the hills is the best, and river water next, while well water is the worst. Do not boil the water too hastily; at first it begins to sparkle like crab's eyes, then, somewhat like fishes' eggs, and lastly it boils up like pearls innumerable springing and waving about. This is the way to boil the water."

A Decided Improvement.

For some time past Mr. Peter Hamilton has had men engaged making improvements on some of his property lying along the creek, between King and Charlotte-sts. The dam formerly used for Mr. Poole's old factory has been removed, and the bed of creek changed some fifty feet to the west. It now runs as far as Sherbrooke-st. with only a slight curve, and the parts which were once occupied by standing pools of water, have been filled up and levelled off. The banks of the creek are made high enough to prevent the danger of its overflowing in the spring, and thus Mr. Hamilton has turned an almost valueless property into a valuable and desirable piece of ground.

Mugg's Landing.

This very successful comic opera was played before a large audience in Bradburn's Opera House on Wednesday night. It was well presented and the dances, funny expressions, and comic songs were highly amusing. The plot was not a deep one, but the parts were well taken. Mr. Frank H. Doane in his character of "Asa Beck," the land agent kept things booming. His comical expressions and droll sayings brought forth uproarious laughter, in fact he kept things up, "way up, terribly up," all through the performance. Miss Hattie Anderson, as "Little Muggs," filled her part to the letter. Her songs were well received, but on account of a very severe cold she was unable to do them justice. The other parts of the programme were well taken and received the appreciation of the audience. The four act comedy "Gyp" will be presented to-night.

The military concert given on Feb. 21st last, under the patronage of Col. J. Z. Rogers and officers of the 57th Battalion, will be remembered, and those who attended it will be pleased to learn that another concert under the same auspices is being prepared. A number of new and attractive features will be introduced and it is probable that well-known vocalists from a distance will assist. The management is in capable hands and a success even more complete will no doubt crown their efforts. The concert will be given on the evening of the day the battalion is inspected, which will probably be Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 15th.

Repairs to a Dam.

For the past few days Mr. Geo. Hilliard has had men at work building an addition on the east side of the river to the dam at his mills. In consequence of this the Blythe mills and the Auburn mills have been at a stand still until this morning, when they were able to commence work again. The plan for the new dam was drawn up by Mr. Geo. Ranney, and the construction is being done under the superintendence of Mr. Thos. Irwin. The slide was torn up and new sills placed and bolted to the bottom. Six sets of braced bents were put in, single ones on each side and double ones in the centre, forming three spaces for stop logs, each twenty-four feet long. These stop logs replace the temporary brackets that had to be renewed every spring and fall, to prevent them being washed away. A foot bridge will cross the dam connecting Auburn and the town at this point. A track will be laid over the dam on which a carriage and windlass will run for raising the stoplogs. The structure has been built very strong as it has to stand a very heavy pressure from the ice flow in the spring of the year. A new front has also been built to one of the piers in the old dam, which had been jammed and broken. The work will be completed by to-morrow night.

at the Charlotte-st. Rink,

The Lock Bridge.

The new bridge at the lock is completed by the contractors and teams were allowed over it on Wednesday evening. The bridge was designed and built by Mr. W. H. Law, of the Central Bridge Works, Peterborough, and is a double cancellated high truss of twelve panels, each 15 feet 3 inches long. The length of the span is 190 feet and the width of the roadway 18 feet clear. The height of the trusses is thirty feet from centre to centre of chords. The flooring is of four inch red pine. The superstructure is designed to carry a moving load of about 1,500 pounds per lineal foot or a total load of about 142 tons, exclusive of the weight of the structure, and when fully loaded no member of the superstructure will be strained to more than one-fifth of its ultimate strength. Mr. Law has done his work well and it is very creditable to the Central Works. The masonry, which included a pier and an abutment, was done by Mr. Chas. Wynne. The work was done with heavy cut stone, rock-faced ashlar work, drawn from the Warsaw quarry. The pier is set in about twelve feet of water, in a caisson composed of timbers bolted together from bottom to top and partly filled with Portland cement concrete. Great difficulty was experienced in setting this caisson, in consequence of the debris of an ancient dam which was unexpectedly met with while preparing the ground for the foundations. This had to be removed by divers, which was necessarily a tedious process. After the caisson had been pumped dry the stone work was built up from the concrete. By the new pier the engineer, Mr. J. E. Belcher, C. E., who superintended the work, increased the waterway at the entrance to the lock by over a foot. A new cut stone curving has been placed on the land side of the swing, which will prevent the possibility of an accident such as happened last fall when a horse got its foot between the end of the swing and the roadway. The work has all been satisfactorily completed and is ready to be taken off the hands of the contractors, which it is expected will be done in a few days.

Admission 10 cents.

BURGLAR GREENFIELD,

Before the Buffalo Court—Expected to be Handed Over in Two Weeks.

Greenfield, alias Ferguson, the burglar who is charged with having tried to kill Constable Stewart at the time he caught the burglar in Gough Bros' store, was brought up in the courts again at Buffalo on Wednesday. Detective John Murray, of the Ontario staff, produced the necessary papers proving the charge and formally demanded the extradition of the prisoner. Detective Murray classed Greenfield as being one of the worst young men of his age in America. He has already served three years in the Kingston penitentiary, having been sent from Peterborough for burglarizing Mills Bros'. store. After he served his time in Kingston he committed another burglary and was sent to the Central Prison for a term of one year. While a convict in that institution last May, he by some means managed to escape and make his way to Barrie. During is stay in that town he committed another burglary and immediately decamped to Buffalo, carrying some of the stolen goods with him. He was, however, arrested there on "general principles" for being a thief and the goods taken from Barrie were found in his possession. The complainants in the case at Barrie failed to appear against him, and the only option which the authorities had was to bring a charge of vagrancy against him and on that charge being substantiated he was locked up for 30 days. He duly served his time and was released. It appears that after leaving Buffalo Greenfield again came to Peterborough, and encountered Constable Stewart in Gough's store, when he jumped through the glass and emptied a revolver at the constable. Word was sent far and near, and a few days afterwards a telegram was received by Chief Roszel from the Buffalo police saying Greenfield was there and asking if they would hold him. Chief Roszel replied to hold him, and at once commenced proceedings under the directions of Mr. E. B. Edwards, town solicitor, and Mr. R. E. Wood, county attorney. The Chief went to Buffalo and returned with a photograph of the prisoner, which was identified by the constable and others. The papers were then sent to the Ontario Government, which took the matter up and handed them to Detective Murray.

The usual trascript of the proceedings has been forwarded from Buffalo to Washington, and it is expected that the warrant for the surrender of the prisoner will be ready in about two weeks.

Numerous Bears.

The Campbellford Herald says:—"Three young bears were seen in the neighborhood of Tilton post office, Seymour, one evening last week. A hunt took place, right away, as might be expected, but the animals eluded their pursuers by entering a piece of woods near by. The dogs followed them and made the place ring with their barking, but it did not frighten the cubs out of their ambush, and the night was too dark to locate them. According to reports which have come down from that locality there must be ten or a dozen bears taking up their abode within a circuit of a few miles."

Those Petitions.

The petitions praying the Governor-General in Council to commute Farley's sentence from the death penalty to confinement in the penitentiary were taken to Ottawa last night by a deputation composed of Mayor Stevenson, M.P., and Messrs. Denne and Kelly. The petitions bore about nine hundred signatures. Farley himself sends a petition to the Governor-General in which he recites his early training by his now grieved father and mother, his error in taking employment with a circus, his remorse because he killed a man under an impulse of passion aroused by persistent annoyance and aggravated by liquor, and pleads that the act was not premeditated. His prayer is the same as that in the other petitions, that the sentence be commuted to confinement in the penitentiary.

The Industrial Exhibition.

The industrial exhibition under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid and the Young People's Association of the George-st. Church opens in the Charlotte-st. skating rink this afternoon. During this forenoon articles were being taken down to the rink, and when a visit was paid there this afternoon the committee was busy arranging the exhibits. The display includes a large number of various kinds of articles. Oil paintings and other pictures occupy considerable space and fancy work is represented by many articles beautifully made. Curiosities, useful articles, bread, cake, etc., were being arranged on the tables on each side of the rink or displayed on the railings above the tables. The rink was being decorated and everything made ready for the public to view the exhibition. The band will be present this evening, and tea will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock, and the exhibition will be open until about 10 to-night.

The Soloists of the Fiske Jubilee Singers stand in the front rank as vocalists of rare accomplishments. To hear them is a musical treat. Wednesday evening, Oct. 31.

LAKEFIELD.

Correspondence of the Review.

LECTURE.—On Monday evening a lecture was delivered by the Rev. J. McEwen in the Presbyterian Church. Subject, "Backbone." The lecture was delivered under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. The attendance was very poor. Those present fully appreciated the reverend gentleman's remarks.

A NEW SCHOOL.—The School Board have under discussion the opening of a ward school, and are thinking of leaving or buying the old R. C. Church, now occupied by the Salvation Army, which we believe to be a step in the right direction.

A MISFORTUNE.—A hunting party that left Lakefield on Saturday morning were unfortunate in the loss of a dog. They had tied the hound with a rope to the rear of the waggon, where it hung itself, greatly to the chargrin of the party. Better luck next time, boys.

IMPROVING.—Mr. C. J. Blomfield is having his house re-shingled and intends painting the outside, also putting the place in thorough repair. Mr. B. has a very pretty place, and when put in first class order will be an ornament to the village.

AN INVITATION.—Mr. S. Henderson has just returned from the wholesale market, where he purchased a large stock of lamp goods, stationery and Xmas goods, which will soon be opened for inspection. The public are cordially invited to inspect the new stock. No trouble to show goods, and will be delighted to see all our friends whether they make a purchase or not.

WORK WELL DONE.—Mr. Lillicrap will soon be moving into his new house on Queen-st. Mr. Thos. Gordon had the contract and has done his work in a creditable manner.

CONCERT.—The St. John's church folk are advertising the first concert and entertainment of the season and are starting the ball rolling for the winter. Their concert is in the P.C.A. hall, on Friday evening, Oct. 26th inst. We wish them a bumper house.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order. Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

There is no Evaporation or Deterioration in strength about Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. The ingredients of this incomparable anti-rheumatic and throat and lung remedy are not volatile, but fixed, pure and imperishable. Pain, lameness and stiffness are relieved by it, and it may be used with equal benefit externally and internally.

FISH SHIPMENT IN BOND.

AN UNAUTHORIZED NEWSPAPER ARTICLE.

The Chamberlain Treaty Represents the Canadian View—Fong Tang's Case Before the Minister of Customs.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—There is considerable discussion in political circles over the article in The London Free Press advocating the granting to American fishermen of the privilege of transhipping their fish in bond over Canadian railroads, many people inferring that it foreshadowed a change of base by the Dominion Government. The Free Press article was altogether unauthorized and in no way indicates the policy of the Government, but merely expresses the individual views of the writer. The line of action of the Government has in no way varied from the stand taken by the Ministers who have spoken on the question since the beginning of the fisheries dispute, and neither directly nor indirectly has there been any suggestion from the Imperial Government for any concessions beyond what were made in the treaty itself. The Dominion Government thinks that that treaty has gone as far in the way of concession as can be fairly asked for by the United States or given by the Canadian Government.

Mr. Parmelee, Assistant Commissioner of Customs, who is also comptroller of Chinese immigration, was asked yesterday if anything would be done by the department to secure the recognition of the rights of Fong Tang, who, although a British subject by naturalization, under the Exclusion Act was on Monday refused admission to the United States at Suspension Bridge. Mr. Parmelee said if the plea of being a British subject were admissable, nine-tenths of the Chinamen who come to Canada would make it, inasmuch as the vast majority of Chinamen coming to this country are from Hong Kong, which, as you know, is a British colony. We cannot do anything for British or Canadian Chinamen refused admission to the States, and it is a matter over which the British Government has no control.

The immigration returns for September indicate that the immigration season is practically over, although the numbers are fairly encouraging. New settlers in Canada during the month totalled 10,415, an increase of 1500 as compared with September, 1887. The total settlers in the Dominion for the nine months was 69,787.

ARE THEY POISONED?

Mrs. Lennox of Barrie Receives Four Chocolates Through the Postoffice.

BARRIE, Oct. 18.—Mrs. Thomas Lennox, wife of a prominent grocer of Barrie, received through the Postoffice yesterday a small paper box, containing four chocolates similar to those received by the Galt people. The package not having any mark to show the sender, and Mrs. Lennox being completely at a loss to know where they came from, she called in Chief Constable Rogers, who has taken charge of the candies and will investigate the matter at once. There was no mark to show where the box came from, the postmark being obscure.

SUICIDE AT QUEBEC.

Count Premio-Real, Spanish Consul, Sends a Bullet Through His Brain.

QUEBEC, Oct. 18.—His Excellency Count Premio-Real, the Spanish Consul at this port, committed suicide this morning by shooting himself in the head with a revolver. The act is the sensation of the day here in social and political circles. The cause which impelled the Count to take his own life was financial embarrassment.

The Quebec Bank Robber.

MONTREAL, Oct. 18.—There is no clue as yet as to the whereabouts of the Quebec bank robber, but it is supposed he has either gone west or is hiding in the city. The detectives are not at all sanguine of getting hold of him, as they say they can get no sort of a description from the bank clerks. Some parties think the robber is Hardy, who recently escaped from the States. Hardy's modus operandi was exactly the same. He entered the Fifth National bank at New York and, reaching his hand over the counter, grabbed $2000 of greenbacks and skipped, and though chased, managed to get off. The same afternoon he went to the National Bank of New York and, reaching over the brass railings, ran off with a package of $5000 bills. This time he was caught by the police. The $5000, but not the $2000, was found on him. Last Monday week he was brought before the Criminal court of New York, and while waiting for his trial was confined with a murderer and a burglar id a room. By some means unknown all three managed to escape, and Hardy was thought to have come to Canada with his $2000 plunder secured from the Fifth National Bank.

A Painful Accident.

HAMILTON, Oct. 18.—A Grand Trunk fireman named Wm. Allan, while on his way to London on Monday, was very painfully injured by the bursting of a steam gauge in the cab of the engine. A piece of the flying plate glass struck him in the eye, inflicting a deep cut, which bled profusely. It is believed, however, that the sight of the eye is not permanently injured. Engineer Busby, who was also on the engine, was not injured. Allen is a young man, and was transferred to Hamilton about a month ago from Palmerston. Prior to that he lived in London.

L'Imprimerie Generale to be Wound Up.

MONTREAL, Oct. 18.—Judge Loranger has granted a motion for an order to wind up the affairs of L'Imprimerie Generale. The motion was presented at the instance of the New England Paper Company, who are creditors to the amount of about $3000, and H. Godin was appointed provisional liquidator. The total liabilities are in the vicinity of $30,000 and the company claim assets of $40,000. La Minerve and La Presse are both published by the company, but they will in no wise be affected by the order to wind up.

Fong Tang Missing.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Fong Tang left for New York yesterday. Fong Tang said he was to return to Toronto, but has not been seen since his wife's departure.

ASSAULTED BY A BRUTE.

A Hamilton Woman Roughly Handled by an Unknown Man.

HAMILTON, Oct. 18.—Thursday night a most brutal assault was committed on Mrs. Jackson, a respectable married woman, who lives at 354 Hughson-street north. Mrs. Jackson had been out on an errand, and was on Hughson-street on her way home when she was assaulted. As she was turning the corner of Wood and Hughson-street, a man who had been standing in the doorway of a grocery store sprang out, grabbed her around the neck and endeavored to throw her down. The plucky little woman struggled with her assailant and resisted his attempt. She screamed for help, whereupon the brute kicked her several times in the side and dealt her a couple of blows on the face. Mrs. Jackson continued to scream, and when the man saw that somebody was coming he ran away. Alfred Rebitaille, who lives near the corner, heard the woman's cries and went to her assistance. He saw her assailter running away, and started in pursuit, but was unable to capture him. Mrs. Jackson was so seriously injured that she is confined to her bed. It is thought that she was taken for another person, and that the blows she received were intended for somebody else. She did not know the man, and could not even give a good description of him.

DeBaun's Last Chance.

SHERBROOKE, Que., Oct. 18.—In the matter of Chas. I. DeBaun, the New York defaulter, a writ of habeas corpus has been taken out by his solicitors. The argument will take place before Hon. Mr. Justice Brooks to-morrow.

The Offer Accepted.

WINDSOR, Oct. 18.—The executors of the Crawford estate have accepted the Canadian Pacific Railway's offer of $30,000 for the 600 feet of river frontage belonging to the estate. This, with the Molson and Potter frontage, will give the railway all they desire.

A Rise in Coal at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Oct. 18.—Stove and chestnut coal advanced 50 cents per ton yesterday, and are now $7; egg and furnace 25 cents, to $6.60; Scotch grate 50 cents, to $6.50; lower port grate 75 cents, to $6.

An Entire Family Poisoned.

ELLSWORTH, Wis., Oct. 18.—The entire family of Obel Olson, residing near here, were poisoned yesterday. One child is dead and the others are dangerously ill. Foul play is suspected.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you may depend upon this for certain.

WHERE Should I Buy
PROPERTY?

This is the question that confronts the citizen who is thinking of getting himself a home,—Where to buy.

Common sense will tell that citizen that the best lot he can get is none too good for him, and why?

Because well located property is always worth its price. Because it is conducive to health and happiness to live in the midst of good surroundings; because if you want to sell you can always find a buyer: because such property is becoming scarce and is therefore rapidly increasing in value. I am prepared to offer a special bargain of a few such Lots, one exceedingly good Lot on Dublin-st. 54x196 feet, high and dry, south front east of and adjoining Mr. Bogue's fine new residence, This is a Bargain. A beautiful Lot on Water-st. opposite St. Paul's Church. This Lot should suit any person wanting a beautiful and central location. Also Two Very Desirable Building Lots in most respectable ocalities on Stewart-st. Cheap Lots and a few Good Houses to be closed out during the next few days.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack whenever there was a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies; at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what in ducements may be offered we never allow ourselves to be undersold.

TORONTO TOPICS.

A Protest Against Differential Freight Rates —Central Bank Dividends.

TORONTO, Oct. 19.—A meeting of the Board of Trade Council was held yesterday afternoon, at which strong protests were made against the differential freight rates adopted by the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk railways. Several instances were given where these rates operated against the interests of Toronto and in favor of those of Montreal.

The towering form of ex-Policeman Jarvis, clad in citizen's dress, was the centre of observation at the Police Court yesterday morning. The ex-policeman was at Court to answer to the charge of aggravated assault preferred against him by Mr. Frank Johnston, whom Jarvis is alleged to have assaulted on St. George-street on Monday evening last. The charge was read and Jarvis asked to be allowed to plead guilty to a charge of common assault. This plea the Crown Counsel declined to receive. The magistrate adjourned the case until Oct. 25.

The Central Bank affairs are being gradually wound up. So far one dividend of 33 1-3 per cent. has been paid and another of 33 1-3 per cent. will in all probability be paid on Nov. 1. It is expected that a third and final dividend will be paid.

At yesterday's meeting of the Executive Committee of the City Council an investigation of the City Treasurer's Department was ordered in consequence of charges of mismanagement made by Ald Gillespie.

Wm. Laughlin, a sailor, was arrested yesterday evening by Detective Davis, charged with being concerned in the burglary at Madoc reported a few days ago. Chas. Porter, another of the supposed burglars, was arrested by the Toronto detectives last week.

The Senate of the University of Toronto met last night and appointed examiners for 1889 in medicine, arts and agriculture.

The first meeting in connection with the Unitarian Church Conference was held last evening in the First Unitarian Church, Jarvis-street.

At the American Gaslight Association convention yesterday officers were elected, W. H. Pearson of Toronto being chosen as a member of the council, and at the Humane convention, J. J. Kelso of Toronto was placed on the Executive Committee.

SUPPOSED TO BE IN CANADA.

A Rochester Forger Disappears—His Factory in the Sheriff's Hands.

ROCHESTER, Oct. 18.—Hamlet S. Briggs, of the firm of Briggs & Son, manufacturers of safes, of this city has disappeared, and charges of forgery to the extent of over $15,000 have been preferred against him. The safe factory is in the hands of the sheriff, and Briggs is believed to be in Canada.

The President and the Cash Gone.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 18.—The Atlantic Cigar Company of Westfield has failed with liabilities of $70,000. President W. A. Abbott has disappeared and is supposed to be in Canada.

A Petty Thief.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 18.—J. T. Kingsbury was given charge of about $500, the proceeds of an auction sale at Gouverneur Tuesday after the banks had closed. He is now missing with the money. It has been learned that he has gone to Canada.

Bosworth Was a Gay Deceiver.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 18.—In rummaging through Defaulter Bosworth's desk in the Stafford Mill office the directors found a great many letters on tinted and delicately perfumed note paper. The directors read them all. One was from a dashing widow, who describes her trip on board the steam yacht Nouna and wishes the young mill treasurer had been along. There was also a batch of letters all evidently written by one guileless little girl, who did not know Bosworth's true character, nor his name either, inasmuch as her missives are addressed to Mr. Daggett. The directors gathered all of the young lady's letters together and directed them back to her with this laconic note: "Daggett and Bosworth, the defaulter, are one and the same person."

A Boy's Attempted Suicide.

MIFFLINBURG, Penn., Oct. 18.—"Goodbye, mother; you won't whip me any more," said Johnny Gutelius, a 13-year-old boy. He had just received a whipping at the hands of his mother and was sent to bed. Soon after he had gone up stairs his mother heard the report of a revolver. Going to her son's room she found the boy lying in a pool of blood with a bullet wound in his forehead. The revolver was aimed too high and the ball grazed his forehead and buried itself in the wall. He is now improving.

AN ELOPEMENT EPIDEMIC.

NINE CASES REPORTED RECENTLY AT MONTREAL.

A Persistent Couple—Count Premio-Real's Suicide—A Verdict of Temporary Insanity—Canadian Barley in Buffalo.

MONTREAL, Oct. 18.—No less than nine cases of elopements have been reported to the city detectives within the last two weeks. The most curious one is that of Edwin Granger, a young married man of St. Boniface, Man. After the first two months of his marriage Granger met his first love, and after numerous interviews took the girl with him and started for Toronto. All preparations were completed for the marriage when on the morning of the day fixed for the union of the two lovers the runaway husband's Manitoba wife appeared on the scene. The faithless husband escaped to St. Thomas that night and the girl followed, but before they could register at the hotel the wife stepped from the hotel bus. The two lovers on seeing her left by another door and came to Montreal on the next train. The marriage license was applied for and the day again fixed, but the marriage once more was spoiled by the appearance of the wife. Before she could have them arrested, however, they again disappeared and as the wife's funds are low she can no longer continue the chase.

THE CONSUL'S SUICIDE.

A Verdict of Temporary Insanity in Count Premio-Real's Case.

QUEBEC, Oct. 18.—At the inquest on the body of Count Premio-Real the jury rendered a verdict of suicide during temporary insanity. Three or four days ago Mr. Lluch, Vice-Consul at Halifax, claimed to have been ordered here to relieve the Consul-General. The latter declined to recognize his authority and cabled the Spanish Government, while Mr. Lluch returned to Halifax. A peremptory reply was received by the Count on Tuesday evening from Madrid.

It is claimed that he sunk no less than $90000 in alterations and repairs to the old Government House, now the Cavalry School officers' quarters, and he had previously met with many losses, including some $20,000 from the seizure of an American vessel alleged to have loaded arms and ammunition, at this port, for Cuba.

Canadian Barley in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Oct. 18.—The steambarge Niagara arrived here yesterday with the first cargo of Canadian barley of the new crop. It came from the Bay of Quinte, graded choice No. 2 and consisted of 26,042 bushels. It was shipped here by C. H. McLaughlin of Toronto, and was sold through George Sandrock to V. Loewer, proprietor of the Gambrinus Brewery, of New York City. The price was equal to 90 cents cash. This is the most important barley deal yet consummated here this fall. Maltsters have been holding off, claiming that the prices asked for barley have been higher than the malt trade warranted.

MR. DEMMERT AND MISS ACKERMAN

The Girl's Mother Has Him Arrested in a Suit for Loss of Services.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Mrs. Annie S. Fuller, of Brooklyn, has sued Henry Demmert, a manufacturing jeweler, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, for the loss of her daughter's services. Mr. Demmert was arrested by a deputy sheriff on Oct. 4, and was released by Justice Barnard on $5000 bail. Mrs. Fuller's complaint is on file in the Supreme Court. Demmert is in partnership with his father. They have a factory in Newark, and salesrooms in Jersey City and at 20 Maiden-lane, this city. He is married and lives in Jersey City. He ran for Alderman in Jersey City last year. He is reputed to be very wealthy, is handsome, and about 35 years old.

Lucy Ackermen is the name of Mrs. Fuller's daughter. She is described as a very lovely girl of 18. She was only 16 when she first became acquainted with Mr. Demmert. She was then a typewriter in the employ of Simon Dessar, a John-street jeweler. Mr. Demmert, it is said, sold goods to Dessar, and in that way came in contact with Miss Ackermen. She says she supposed Demmert was single and that he had matrimony in view. He would accompany her to the bridge in the evening, and was frequently with her at other times. The complaint alleges that the first and following offences were committed in New York.

TWO ACTORS AS PUGILISTS.

Nestor Lennon and William G. Beach Fight on the Sidewalk.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Two actors had a little disagreement up town last night. As is usual in such cases, the argument ended by one theatrical gentleman punching the other's head. The participants were Nestor Lennon and William G. Beach. The trouble began in a well-known cafe near Broadway. Mr. Lennon remarked to Mr. Beach that, in his own opinion, he was able to whip Matt Snyder at any time, place or manner that Mr. Snyder might choose. Mr. Beach is a friend of Mr. Snyder's and politely informed Mr. Lennon that he was mistaken, and the conversation turned upon the latter's pugilistic powers.

"You are guying me, sir," said Mr. Lennon.

"I am not guying you, sir," retorted Mr. Beach, with dignity, "and, what's more, when I want to guy I will first secure some object that is worth guying."

There was an immediate adjournment to the pavement, where the gentlemen rolled up their sleeves, advanced and proceeded to demolish each other's personal beauty. At intervals one of the gladiators would lie down upon the sidewalk while his opponent sat on his head and sparred for ozone. A painful lack of pugilistic skill was apparent. By way of a final round Mr. Beach gathered a bouquet of Lennon's ambrosial locks for mementos. Somebody yelled "Police!" and the fighters fled.

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 18.—When Buckley passed through here on his way to the Penitentiary a little boy looked in the window of the train and said: "Is that the man who killed a woman in Toronto?" and Buckley replied: "Yes, and if you come in here I'll kill you."

"ALL A PACK OF LIES."

"Old Hutch's" Opinion of Newspapers—He Wants to be Let Alone.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—"Old Hutch" called upon the Board of Trade yesterday morning looking sour and crusty. A humorous morning paper had printed a despatch from New York saying he was getting up a big deal on Wall-street, and several other things. A reporter approached the great man deferentially and asked him about it.

"Now, get out of here!" roared "Old Hutch" at the first question. "What do I care about what the newspapers say? They're all liars. They lie about me all the time. Suppose they do say I'm in Wall-street. I don't care. That's worse than the rest of the lies they tell. I can't spend my time correcting such things. I wish you'd let me attend to my business. Nobody believes the newspapers, so what's the use? My time is money. I can't waste it talking to you. Now, will you go away and leave me alone?"

A little later, when he had time to cool off somewhat by swearing at his brokers and visiting the Century Club once or twice, the reporter approached him again and tried to get him to talk about the cartoon in Sunday's World representing him as the evil genie of the wheat-pit, whose shadow darkens every home. At this the old man broke out in a torrent of bad words. He would not look at the picture nor listen to a word about it.

"Now, get out of here and leave me alone. I ain't bothering any newspaper, am I? I don't want to be bothered. Will you get away from here? Get out, or I'll"—and there Mr. Hutchinson delivered himself of several dreadful threats.

THIS BOY COULD BEAR PAIN.

He Would Not Tell His Mother His Arm Had Been Crushed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Frank Protomann, 11 years old, and his brother, three years younger, wandered along the Pennsylvania Railroad track in Jersey City Monday afternoon, picking up coal. They walked beyond Westside avenue, crossing where the track embankment is ten feet above Newark avenue. Then they got on a train, not noticing the engine at one end. When the cars began to move the smallest lad jumped off safely, but Frank was thrown and fell, his right arm lying across the track. The wheels crushed it, and turning round, entangled him in the brake shoe. He was dragged along and released by a spike catching his thigh. It cut an ugly gash six inches long across his thigh and hip.

The boy finding himself free, coolly got up, threw his jacket over his injured arm and walked to his home, No. 174 Van Siela. It was shipped here by C. H. McLaughlin of Toronto, and was sold through George Sandrock to V. Loewer, proprietor of the Gambrinus Brewery, of New York City. The price was equal to 90 cents cash. This is the most important barley deal yet consummated here this fall. Maltsters have been holding off, claiming that the prices asked for barley have been higher than the malt trade warranted.

Winkle-street, about half a mile away. The little brother carried the pail of coal and encouraged Frank. Not realizing how badly he was injured ana unwilling to tell his mother he had climbed on the cars, Frank kept away from her and bore the pain for a quarter of an hour. Then his sobs attracted her attention and the little brother told what had happened.

A physician was quickly called. He advised that the boy be taken to the City Hospital. The surgeons there decided that it was necessary to amputate the arm. The flesh and bones were crushed and for ever useless. Frank maintained the same coolness during the work of amputation and while the gash in his thigh was being sewed up. It is believed that he will live.

A ROMANCE FROM OVER THE SEA.

The Hero Threatens to Fry the Heart and Liver of the Heroine.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—A romance which began in Antwerp six years ago had its denouement in Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday. In 1882 Christiana Mentyen, a comely Belgian girl, with rosy cheeks and sixteen summers to her credit, formed a liaison with a dashing young fellow named Frederick Laurenson after he had solemnly promised to make her his wife. They lived together as man and wife for six years and had several children, of whom but one survives, a 4-year-old boy, who is a cripple.

Wishing to put an end to the liaison, Christiana left Antwerp for New York and arrived here last Saturday. Frederick followed her on another steamer, and, after diligent search, found her on Sunday evening. He implored her to return to him; but as she remained obdurate, he then threatened, so Christiana swears, to carve her heart and liver out and fry them in a pan. Christiana had him arrested. Laurenson denied Christiana's statement in court yesterday, and said he only came here to obtain her consent to the amputation of one of their child's legs, an operation the doctors refused to perform without the consent of both parents. Justice Gorman extracted from him a promise not to go near the girl again and a $10 bill as a fine for his conduct.

Mad for Love.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18—A case of "gone mad for love" came to light at New Brunswick, N. J., yesterday, when Miss Gertrude Holman, residing on Livingstone-avenue, that city, detailed her story in the Recorder's Court. Miss Holman said that one Joseph King, a respected resident of the Second ward of New Brunswick, had a few moments before threatened to kill her if she did not marry him. King, she said, had been a boarder at the Holman residence and had made several proposals of marriage to her. On one occasion he had written out a proposal and had thrown it at her through her sitting-room door. Miss Holman had repulsed King's advances and endeavored to keep out of his way, but he continued to send her love missives, and on Monday night, when she was sitting beside her invalid mother, he had suddenly entered the apartment and attempted to assault her. She screamed and King ran out of the room. Subsequently he returned and asked the girl to marry him, and upon her refusal swore he would kill her. Recorder Houslett instituted an investigation and ordered King to be arrested. He is still at large, however.

Rivals in Love.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 18.—Lawton Collins, farmer, of Montgomery county, was brutally murdered by Leonard Williams a few days ago and his body has just been discovered. The two men were rivals for the hand of a young lady and Collins won the girl. It is claimed, by some duplicity. When Williams learned of the trick that had been played on him he called on Collins and took him out riding in a buggy, and while passing through a wood, suddenly attacked Collins with a razor, cutting his throat. Great excitement prevails in the community.

MISS WILSON GETS $5000.

Her Suit for Breach of Promise Against Eddy T. Thomas.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The suit of Miss Sarah Wilson of 279 Drigg-street, against Eddy T. Thomas, the manager of a sewing machine company, for $5000 damages for alleged breach of promise of marriage, was called for trial yesterday before Justice Pratt in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn. The defendant did not answer, and an inquest was taken. Miss Wilson testified that she became acquainted with Thomas in 1879, that he promised to marry her in January, 1880, and repeated the promise each week until November of the same year.

"I frequently asked him to fulfil his promise," she said, but he always refused, and he always assigned some excuse or other. Once when I urged him to go at once to a minister, he said he had forgotten his gloves and couldn't get married without them. On other occasions he said he wanted to accumulate more money. Finally I learned that the real cause was that he was keeping company with other women.

"The defendant told me he had been married but that he had been divorced, and he showed me what purported to be the divorce papers. I understood that he was getting a salary of $250 a month. The defendant is the father of my child, which was born in March, 1881."

Justice Pratt gave judgment for the amount asked and 5 per cent. extra allowance.

Abducting Two Girls.

PHILLIPSBURG, N. J., Oct. 18.—This town was thrown into a ferment of excitement this afternoon when it became public that two girls of good reputation had been enticed away by Mason Houtzman. He is the same man who was drummed out of Park Ridge, N. J., about two weeks ago. He first appeared in Newark claiming to be a preacher, and induced Mrs. Eliza Berry to believe that it was sinful to live with her husband. She then moved to Park Ridge, living in a house owned by her husband, where she was soon joined by Jane Howell. Houtzman soon took up his abode with them, and their scandalous conduct caused the people of Park Ridge to take him out of the house, cut off his whiskers and long hair, horsewhip him, and drive him out of the town.

He came to this town Thursday last with the two women, having a letter of introduction to Mrs. Mary Ricker, of 210 Harris-street, in which he was represented as a minister and the two women as his colaborers. Houtzman was very attentive to the two daughters of Mrs. Ricker, Lizzie and Jennie, aged 19 and 22. Saturday morning Houtzman quarrelled with Mrs. Ricker, telling her that she was not fit to have charge of her two daughters. He was ordered to leave the house, and did so, taking the two girls with him while Mrs. Ricker was out. Monday morning Lizzie returned for her clothing and was detained by her mother. Later on the two women came for her, and, using abusive language, were arrested. To-day Jennie and Houtzman were arrested in Easton as they were taking a train for Park Ridge.

Restrained from Increasing Their Rates.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 18.—An advance in the charges for natural gas was recently made by all the companies, and a number of the consumers of gas furnished by the Ohio Valley and Alleghany Heating Companies refused to pay the increase, and brought suit to restrain the companies from cutting off the supply. To-day Judge White rendered a decision restraining the companies from collecting the increased rates and from shutting off the supply to consumers pending a decision from the Supreme Court of the State. The President of one of the companies said to-day that if the appeal should be sustained by the Supreme Court the natural gas companies would be compelled to go into liquidation and quit business, owing to the largely increased cost of production over what it was formerly.

Chinamen Try Another Dodge.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—The Duke of Westminster sailed for China via Victoria yesterday evening. When off Meigg's wharf she anchored for some time. She had on board 200 coolies who had not been allowed to land there. The cause of her unusual delay was said to-day to be to give the Chinese here a chance to put $2600 on board. This sum is necessary to land fifty-two coolies in Victoria. The laws of British Columbia limit the number of Chinese which each ship may bring to one for every fifty tons burden, and each coolie has to pay $50. The Duke of Westminster can land fifty-two Chinamen. Once landed in Victoria it will take them about ten days to get back to San Francisco. Collector Hagar has wired the Collector of Customs at Port Townsend and other ports at which the Duke of Westminster may touch, and has forwarded written accounts of the whole transaction. He thinks he will check-mate this move.

Is It Another Murder?

The prisoner was sent up for trial at the Supreme court which is to be held here on the second Tuesday in November. The deputy sheriff says that the prisoner on entering his cell last night remarked that it was evident they were going to find him guilty of murder. Immediately afterwards he burst into tears and cried and sobbed for some time afterwards.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1888.

NOT SATISFIED.

A MIND unsatisfied is not as bad as a guilty conscience, but it is an uncomfortable companion. Mr. Blair, a member of the United States Senate, is not satisfied and the only way in which the void which troubles him can be filled is by the political union of Canada and the United States. Senator Blair's hopes of ever being satisfied rest on an exceedingly poor foundation.

Someone told the Senator that the Canadians were willing to unite politically with the people of the Republic, and adopt the stars and stripes as their emblem, and he thought the information trustworthy. By that he has been buoyed up by false hopes. If he read the Canadian papers he would know that the Dominion has no desire to get under the wing of the eagle. It prefers the lion and the beaver.

There is one way in which the people of the United States, if they are all of the same mind as Senator Blair, might find satisfaction and become politically one with the Canadians. That is by returning to the political fold from which they strayed. If they are willing to become part of the British Empire, and enjoy the glories of the British name, receive the privileges of British institutions and the favor of being subjects of a British sovereign, then we might be politically brothers. A union of all the English speaking people! It would be a mighty empire.

But we fear that Senator Blair did not mean a union of that kind. And he must remain unsatisfied.

After routine and the adoption of by-law and rules of order for the society a debate took place on "Resolved, that Capital Punishment should be Abolished." The affirmative was taken by Mr. E. B. Burt, and the negative by Mr. E. A. Peck. There was good debating on each side, both in the matter and its presentation. Remarks were also made on the subject by the Chairman, the Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, and Mr. F. Saunders. A vote was taken which resulted in favor of the negative. At the next meeting, Nov. 1st, a paper will be read by Dr. Clarke on "Vaccination."

Chemong Lake Railway.

Nothing is known here as to the putting on of a train service, and regular trains will probably not be run until next year.

THE CLIMATE OF SIBERIA

Not All a Barren Arctic Waste—Beauty and Profusion of Siberian Flowers.

It is hardly necessary to say that a country which has an area of five and a half million square miles, and which extends in latitude as far as from the southern extremity of Greenland to the island of Cuba, must present great diversities of climate, topography and vegetation, and cannot be everywhere a barren arctic waste. A mere glance at a map is sufficient to show that a considerable part of western Siberia lies farther south than Nice, Venice or Milan, and that the southern boundary of the Siberian province of Semirechinsk is nearer the equator than Naples. In a country which thus stretches from the latitude of Italy to the latitude of central Greenland one would naturally expect to find, and, as a matter of fact, one does find, many varieties of climate and scenery. In some parts of the province of Yakutsk the mean temperature of the month of January is more than 50 degs. below zero Fahr., while in the province of Semipalatinsk the mean temperature of the month of July is 72 degs. above, and such maximum temperature as 95 and 100 degs. in the shade are comparatively common.

On the Taimyr peninsula, east of the Gulf of Ob, the permanently frozen ground thaws out in summer to a depth of only a few inches, and supports but a scanty vegetation of berry bushes and moss, while in the southern part of western Siberia watermelons and cantaloupes are a profitable crop, tobacco is grown upon thousands of plantations, and the peasants harvest annually more than 50,000,000 bushels of grain. The fact which I desire especially to impress upon the mind of the reader is that Siberia is not everywhere uniform and homogeneous. The northern part of the country differs from the southern part quite as much as the Hudson Bay territory differs from Kentucky; and it is as great a mistake to attribute the cold and barrenness of the Lena delta to the whole of Siberia as it would be to attribute the cold and barrenness of King William Land to the whole of North America.

To the traveler who crosses the Urals for the first time in June nothing is more surprising than the fervent heat of Siberian sunshine and the extraordinary beauty and profusion of Siberian flowers. Although we had been partly prepared, by our voyage up the Kama, for the experience which awaited us on the other side of the mountains, we were fairly astonished upon the threshold of western Siberia by the scenery, the weather and the flora. In the fertile, blossoming country presented to us as we rode swiftly eastward into the province of Tobolsk, there was absolutely nothing even remotely to suggest an arctic region. If we had been blindfolded and transported to it suddenly in the middle of a sunny afternoon, we could never have guessed to what part of the world we had been taken. The sky was as clear and blue and the air as soft as the sky and air of California; the trees were all in full leaf; birds were singing over the flowery meadows, and in the clumps of birches by the roadside; there were a drowsy hum of bees and a faint fragrance of flowers and verdure in the air; and the sunshine was as warm and bright as that of a June afternoon in the most favored part of the temperate zone.—George Kennan in The Century.

$10,000 Stock of Boots at 40c. on the Dollar.

An upheavel taken place in leather and the boot and shoe trade shattered to pieces. On Saturday we are going to run a special Boot Sale. Good Goods and Low Prices have gained for us the admiration of close buyers. Our 25c. Boots have completely demoralized the high priced dealers. One man says Goughs are selling below cost, so we are! That is we sell lots of Goods below the first cost of manufacture and still make a living profit. Some people would naturally like to know how we do it. "Here is the Secret." A wholesale man gets hard up, wants money, must have it. He knows Goughs are spot cash buyers. They send for the Wonderful Cheap Men. They arrive on the scene. The wholesale man says, Gough what will you give for 300 cases of these boots; Goughs look them over carefully, find them good desirable selling lines and make a bid of 40c. on the dollar; after hard fighting we get them. They arrive in Peterborough, are sold at 50c. on the dollar, we therefore sell them at half price and make a living profit for ourselves. These are a few of the many reasons why posterity has raised up and christened us GOUGHS, the Tirele s, Sleepless, Wide-Awake Boot Men, GOUGHS, the Kings of Clothiers, GOUGHS, the Original Agitators of Small Profits, GOUGHS, the Wonders of the 19th Century. For roaring value in Clothing, Boots, Shoes or Furnishing Goods don't buy until you see the far famed

NO USE DRAGGING A HERRING ACROSS THE TRAIL!

We are carrying the war into Africa. Our Solid Brigades of Overcoats, Regiments of Suits and Battalions of Pants with Companies of Vests and Underclothing, which we have deployed on the field so skillfully during the month, have terrorized the enemy, routed him at all points and carried the fortifications on the run. Our Guns, double-shotted with Low Prices have thrown cannister and grape into their ranks and scattered their forces which only existed on paper.

Our Victory is complete. An agonized wail sent up is a token of Surrender to the inevitable fortunes of war. WYATT & TURNER have carried the day and our enterprise has forever broken the yoke of High Prices that has held the County.

We hurl back defiance at the Clothing Sharks who would grasp at the right of an Honest and Pushing Firm to live and do Trade. The man who wants to buy Clothing don't care a continental whether it is bought wholesale in Montreal, Toronto, Omemee or Pontypool. What the purchaser wants is value. It don't interest him whether the Goods are sold from a plate glass palace or from a clapboard shanty with 7x9 windows. What he wants is Value and Low Prices. It does'nt concern the buyer to know whether the Goods were brought in by rail, steamboat, waggon, oxcart or on foot. What he wants is Value, Low Prices and Square Dealing. He does'nt care whether its rain or shine, hot or cold, late or early as long as he gets he Best Value, the Best Goods, the Best Treatment, the Best Satisfaction and he gets all these at WYATT & TURNER'S.

Our Stock is our own, bought with honest money and we sell for as low a profit as we can do trade and live. Our competitors may howl and squirm, twist and wriggle but they may as well submit to the inevitable that WYATT & TURNER are doing, and will keep doing, the Clothing Trade of the County.

See our Stock before buying. Look at some of our Prices which will be found to be Lower than the Lowest.

TEA!

A Chinese writer says: "To make good tea it is an old custom to use running water boiled over a lively fire. That from springs in the hills is the best, and river water next, while well water is the worst. Do not boil the water too hastily; as, first it begins to sparkle like crab's eyes, then, somewhat like fishes' eggs, and lastly it boils up like pearls innumerable springing and waving about. This is the way to boil the water."

If you like a splendid cup of tea try one of the many brands in stock. The price varies with the quality. Splendid Teas at low prices. Better Teas a trifle higher. The best not dear and well worth the moderate price asked.

WORK OF MANY HANDS

ON VIEW AT THE INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION.

The Modern and Beautiful Side by Side With the Old and Odd—A Varied Display—The Enterprise a Success—The Prize List.

"Mix reason with pleasure and wisdom with mirth" was Goldsmith's advice. Had he given it with reference to the pleasant enterprise of the Industrial Exhibition undertaken by the ladies and young people of George-st. Methodist Church, it would have fitted the fact exactly. For not only was the occasion an instructive one but a pleasurable event as well, taking it from a social point of view. The cheerful spirit of emulation that prevailed spiced the occasion with interest to the fair competitors, who were n the majority, and their friends, and brought out the best work in the several departments.

During the afternoon the skating rink was in possession of the committee who received the exhibits and arranged with care, and as far as possible classes of articles together. This duty was well carried out by Misses Irwin, Sanderson, Pearson, Owens, F. Rutherford, and Messrs. Wesley, A. Mason. Brown, Savigney, Armstrong, Carter and others who cheerfully rendered assistance. On the centre floor of the rink temporary tables had been made along the east and west sides on which articles and specimens were placed, while a background held such things as were hung up for inspection. The display was an excellent one and made a unique exhibition, although it was felt that the resources had not been drawn on for anything like what could be had were a more general effort made. The judges took up their duties late in the afternoon and finished shortly before four o'clock. During the hours before six a large number visited the rink. At six o'clock tea was served in the dining room of the rink. It was a good old fashioned tea. It did credit to the culinary skill of the ladies of the congregation and there was a plenty for all. And no meagre bill of fare either, but a solid substantial lot of viands, that almost provoked on to overstep the bounds of prudence. The tea was in charge of Mesdames Parnell, Glass, Owens, Robinson, Nugent, F. Mason. W Mason, Fitzgerald, Green, Wrighton, Bird, Dixon, Kendry, Shortly and Hall.

The varied character of the exhibits deserves a more extended notice than our limited space will permit. In art work and many branches of ladies' work the specimens shown were excellent, the wide range of feminine skill having sent examples alike creditable both in design and execution. In fact one half the exhibits were included under this heading. The wonderful art of fine needlework had scores of deftly executed samples. Really admirable examples of sketching, painting and decorative work graced the tables and walls. The sections devoted to rare articles, antique and in some instances venerable fabrics, drew crowds of interested observers. The space given to boys' and girls' work was an attractive feature and older heads looked with interest at the articles displayed. The culinary exhibit was not too large—considering the personal interest generally felt in this direction, but the dainties were good, a telling endorsement of the skill of the ladies competing.

East Northumberland.

A telegram from Colborne to the Empire says:—"A most astounding phase of the East Northumberland election matter was developed to-day. Sheriff Proctor, the Returning officer, had named to-day as that on which he would make a statement of the votes cast. Nevertheless he refused to make a declaration, putting it off for a week, and without giving the slightest reason for his action. This most extraordinary proceeding is the cause of grave comment."

Lakefield's Fire Protection.

The by-law submitted to the freeholders of Lakefield on Wednesday to raise the sum of $10,000 for the purpose of buying a site for erecting a fire hall and council chamber, and also for the purchase of a first class steam fire engine, hose reels and for the sinking of tanks throughout the village was carried by a majority of 31. The vote stood 46 for and 15 against the by-law. The Council, no doubt, will commence work at once and push things to an early completion.

Thanks from Philadelphia.

The family of the young man Farley, now under sentence of death evidently have many friends in Philadelphia, where his father lives. This afternoon Mayor Stevenson received the following telegram:—

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19, 1888.

Mr. James Stevenson, Mayor.

At a large meeting of Mr. Farley's friends held here last night a vote of thanks was passed to you and the Town Council for your kind efforts on behalf of James Farley.

LOUIS J. BURNS,
Chairman.

Take It Easy.

Reporters in Cobourg evidently take things coolly at exhibition time. The World says:—"This week we fully expected to be able to present our readers with the list of prizes awarded at the union exhibition of the Agricultural Societies of West Northumberland. But the industrious Secretary, in a moment of abstraction, carried off the prize list to Camborne without furnishing a copy to the press. We haven't heard from him since; and it has caused us much perplexty to accent for his strange failure, but we do soon the theory that when he reached home he was taken unawares by threshers, and in that event, we are sure the Agricultural Society will forgive him."

The Petitions Presented.

Yesterday Mayor Stevenson, M.P., Councillor Kelly, ex-Councillor Denne and Messrs. Crevier and Phelan had an audience at Ottawa with Sir John S. D. Thompson, Minister of Justice, and presented him with the Town Council's memorial, the workingmen's petition and the other petitions asking for a commutation of Farley's sentence. Mayor Stevenson explained the case to the Minister and Mr. Denne presented the petitions. After the deputation had expressed their views and the opinions of the signers of the petitions, Sir John Thompson said he would look thoroughly into the case and give it his best consideration. The deputation was favourably received. The judge's report with the verdict and evidence had not been received at Ottawa at the time of the audience, but it was received later in the day, Justice Street taking it to the capital.

Wedding Bells.

The Lindsay Watchman says:—"A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Thomas Greaves, of Eldon, on Wednesday afternoon, the 10th October inst. The Rev. Mr. McDonald, the pastor of the Presbyterian church at Glenarm, performed the marriage ceremony. The happy couple were Miss Emma H. eldest daughter of Mr. Greaves, and Mr. Adam Hall, eldest son of Mr. William Hall, of Fenelon. Miss Mary Greaves, sister of the bride, was bride's maid and Mr. R. R. Hall, barrister of Peterborough, acted as his brother's best man. After the ceremony was performed the many friends present joined in rendering them their heartiest congratulations and in giving them their best wishes for a prosperous future with long and happy lives. The presents were numerous and costly and well chosen."

Toronto Views of Farley's Case.

The Toronto Mail in an editorial paragraph says:—"Buckley, after all, got off easily; for Farley, the American who, also while intoxicated, slew a fellow-creature at Peterborough, has been sentenced to death. The demand for a severer sentence on Buckley was answered. The Peterborough people are now agitating in the other direction with regard to Farley. They think, and apparently with reason, that if Buckley has to serve but fifteen years, Farley should not be hanged. The Minister of Justice is to be invited to advise the exercise of Executive clemency." The News commences an editorial on the subject as follows:—'Farley, the young man who is under sentence of death at Peterborough for shooting and killing a fellow-employee with him in a circus, will be lucky if he escapes the penalty of the crime of which he has been convicted. Had he been tried in Toronto, he might have got off with five years, but the Peterborough judge and jury seem to be made of sterner stuff. Yet there is more room for a light sentence in Farley's case than there was in Buckley's."

At Mr. Chapleau's Banquet.

Last night the Hon. J. A. Chapleau, Secretary of State, was entertained at a banquet in Ottawa by the workingmen. A number of working men from Montreal and other places were present, and about 800 persons attended. Mayor Stevenson and Messrs. Kelly, Crevier and Phelan, of Peterborough, were present and described it as being a great success.

A pleasant event took place at Mr. J. D. Baptie's residence on Wednesday evening, when his sister, Miss Mary Baptie, and Mr. Joseph Tully, of North Monaghan, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Andrew Tully, brother of the groom, assisted by the Rev. E. F. Torrance, M.A., of St. Paul's Church. The bride was attended by Miss Coon and Miss Stella Foy, and Mr. W. H. Casement, Reeve of Lakefield, was groomsman. The happy couple will reside in a fine new residence erected by Mr. Tully in North Monaghan, whither the best wishes of numerous friends for a happy life go with them.

Adobe Mansions of Santa Fe.

The adobe house, or "doby," as it is called, is familiar to all western tourists, but it is seen at its very best here. The wealthiest people live in structures which from the outside seem scarcely habitable, but within are cozy and, in many instances, luxurious. Judge Thornton, a wealthy mine owner, has a "doby" house near the plaza, or public square. In the center of the building is a square courtyard filled with magnificent flowers, with a fountain in the center. The doors of each apartment in the house open on the wide veranda which runs around the courtyard, and the effect is very charming. The walls of the building are nearly three feet in thickness, giving opportunity for deep, cushioned window seats. These thick walls keep out cold in the winter and heat in the summer, and there are, therefore, but two fireplaces in the whole house—for use in the event of extraordinary severe weather.

The decorations of the dwelling are such as one finds in Atlanta's Peachtree street homes—beautiful pictures and statuary, imported carpets and rugs, rare bric-a-brac and potteries—everything that money can buy. Of course, all this makes the change from the outside atmosphere of squalor the more marked. Judge Thornton's home is but the type of hundreds of others owned by wealthy Spaniards, Mexicans or Americans, who have settled here because of this incomparable climate.—Atlanta Constitution.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL

SETTING THE VOTERS' LISTS AT THE PRINTING BUREAU.

It is Thought That a Saving of $90,000 Will be Effected by the New Plan—Asking Clemency for Farley.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—According to the progress made thus far in setting the voters' lists under the Franchise Act, the indications are that $90,000 will be saved by having the work performed at the Printing Bureau. Over 1,000,000 names have to be set and to each name has to be added the voter's qualification, residence, postoffice address and other particulars. The cost of the Franchise Act in 1886 was $408,977, of which over $180,000 was for printing the lists. After they are once set up the cost of each subsequent revision, annual or otherwise, will be about $7,800.

A deputation from Peterboro is here asking Executive clemency for Farley, who is sentenced to be hanged Nov. 8, for murdering the Indian, Simon Elijah, who provoked him.

It is Understood.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 17.—It is understood here that Sir John Macdonald will shortly proceed to England, where he will remain for some time and have consultations with members of the Imperial Government on questions connected with the Fisheries dispute.

FIRES OF A DAY.

KINCARDINE, Oct. 18.—About 7 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the carriage works of Fisher & Co. The flames were speedily under control but Mr. Fisher's eldest son, while making his way through the burning building to the office, was suffocated and when reached life was completely extinct. Mr. Fisher was a popular young man and leaves a wife and three children.

Saw-mill Burned.

ALGOMA MILLS, Oct. 18.—Buzwell's saw-mill, on Spanish River, was destroyed by fire on Monday. Loss, $40,000. No insurance.

$500 REWARD.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 18.—The authorities have been authorized by the local Government to offer a reward of $500 for information that will lead to the apprehension and conviction of the murderer who ruthlessly butchered Jonathan Robinson, an inoffensive old bachelor, some time ago. As will be remembered, the murdered man was found by some neighbors stretched upon the floor of his house, mutilated in a horrible manner, about three miles from Strathroy.

The Ulunda's Narrow Escape.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 18.—The steamer Ulunda, on her last trip from Halifax to London, had a thrilling escape from destruction on the Newfoundland coast. A couple of days after leaving port a dense fog was encountered. Late one evening when the passengers had all left the deck and were below preparing to retire—some being in their berths and others half undressed—suddenly there was heard above the cry, "Breakers ahead!" and the engines were immediately reversed. A man employed on the steamer rushed below and called out to the passengers to get ready to leave the ship, as she was expected to strike rocks at any moment. Excited men and women rushed on deck and found themselves face to face with almost inevitable disaster. Roaring breakers and a rocky shore were clearly discernible a short distance ahead of the Ulunda. But after some time the steamer was skilfully worked out of her perilous situation and proceeded slowly on her voyage till the fog lifted.

The Sunday School Convention.

KINGSTON, Oct. 18.—At to-day's session of the Sunday School convention Rev. Mr. Ainsley, of Ogdensburg, fraternal delegate of New York state, was accorded a cordial reception. He said that he hardly thought the government at Washington represented the people of the States. If a fancied difficulty about the fisheries had arisen it did not interfere with the fraternal relations of co-workers in moral and religious education.

R. S. Gourlay of Toronto was a strong advocate of adult Cible classes.

Hon. S. H. Blake conducted a teachers' meeting.

A Singular Fatality.

MONTREAL, Oct. 18.—A fatal accident of a singular nature has occurred at Berthier. Mr. Smith, a leading resident, had been out shooting and on coming in laid his gun loaded and cocked on the table. A favorite dog jumped on the table and while stepping over the gun touched the trigger with its foot. The gun went off, lodging a bullet in the breast of Mrs. Smith, who fell forward on her face. She struggled to her feet and feel dead on the floor.

Their Hounds Killed by Wolves.

HALIBURTON, Oct 18.—Gunsolus, a guide to a Toronto hunting party, comprising Messrs. J. B. Reid, Capt. J. A. Murray, S. G. Beatty, A. M. Croil, H. P. D. Armstrong and W. R. Kees, arrived here this afternoon and reported that during the first night in camp wolves had killed their entire pack of hounds. The party's first day's bag consisted of four deer and two bears. Gunsolus purchased several hounds and returned to camp.

In Aid of Father Laboureau's Church.

PENETANGUISHENE, Oct. 18.—A very successful entertainment was given last evening in McCrossen Hall in aid of the Memorial Church by the well-known Canadian poet and elocutionist, Mr. Thomas O'Hagan, M. A., of Toronto and Miss J. C. Strong, the popular concert singer of Mount Forest.

C. P. R. Earnings.

MONTREAL, Oct. 18.—The traffic returns of the Canadian Pacific Railway, not including earnings on the Southeastern and Intercolonial, from Oct. 7 to Oct. 14, were:

Increase for 1888	$ 4,000

THE MARKETS.

British Grain Trade.

The London, Eng., Mark Lane Express in its weekly review of the British grain trade says:—The values of native wheats are maintained. The sales of English wheat during the past week were 61,230 quarters at 30s 11d; against 66,931 quarters at 29s 3d during the corresponding week last year. Flour is quiet. Foreign wheats are steady, though there have been large arrivals. At Liverpool prices are 1d per cental higher. Grinding barleys are down 3d. Linseed is 1s dearer. At to-day's market wheat was slow but steady. English wheat was a turn dearer. Corn and oats were 3d cheaper.

Live Stock.

Since our last week's review of the cattle market, says the Montreal Gazette, there has been no improvement in the export trade as far as local business has been concerned, in fact as the season is drawing to a close trade is becoming quiet. The demand in the country and on spot from regular exporters has been slow. The offerings of export stock have been very light, and the bulk of the cattle now being shipped is by farmers. Private cables received through the week and to-day are discouraging and export trade bad, but with prices ruling about steady. The market here on the whole has ruled weak on account of heavy supplies and values generally are lower. Latest sales reported on the other side show a big loss to exporters both on cattle and sheep, and the indications are that there will be no improvement as the shipments from the United States will likely continue heavy, but the prospects here are that the shipments will steadily decrease from now till the close of the season.

Montreal Horse Market.

There has been a considerable improvement in the horse market at Montreal, there being a good enquiry from American buyers and all the suitable animals obtainable have been bought up at good prices and several lots have been shipped. Advices have been received at some of the sale stables that several car loads are on the way and the prospects for business this week look brighter. The shipments of horses to the United States for the past week were 47, which cost $5,120 50, or an average of over $109 each.

Cheese.

Although there has been no further change in cheese the market has continued firm, but actual business here has shown no animation, while country accounts continue to report that full prices are being bid. At Buffalo on Tuesday 3,400 boxes sold at 11½c., and at Utica transactions were 14,363 boxes at 9¾c@10½c., the ruling being 10c. A despatch from New York on Wednesday reported that market firm at 11c. Cable 50s. At Ingersoll on Wednesday buyers offered 11c. for some fancy lots, but no sales were made.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger airl passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

THE POPULAR VERDICT.

ETNA, PA., June 11, 1888.

GENTLEMEN—I am well pleased with your Ideal Felt Tooth Polisher. After using it my teeth are smooth and have a lustre which cannot be obtained by the use of bristle brushes. Please send me two more, cost enclosed, as my family wish to try them.

Truly yours N. SPANG.

After satisfactory trial, I can safely say that the polish obtained from the Felt is superior to that which is obtained from the bristles.

I can cheerfully recommend it as being superior to any other in the market. I intend to recommend it to all my patrons. Respectfully. G. P MALONEY, D.D.S

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies, at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what in ducements may be offered we never allow our selves to be undersold.

DARK FRIDAY ON 'CHANGE

A Decline of 7½ Cents Per Barrel—No Failures Reported—A Panicky Market in the Oil Regions—Corwith's Failure.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—There was great excitement in the petroleum market yesterday on a decline of 7½ cents per barrel. It was reported that the oil was forced down by the failure of Nathan, Corwith & Company, of Chicago, organizers of the lead trust. After the noon hour fresh selling by the Wall-street houses forced the market down, and reached many stop orders. Although there was great excitement, no failures were reported.

In the Oil Regions.

BRADFORD, Pa., Oct. 20.—The oil market was wild and panicy yesterday and made a disastrous break from 92½ to 85, but it reached and closed 85¾, seven cents below yesterday's close.

Metal Firms Hard Pushed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—There was activity unprecedented in the metal market yesterday forenoon and attention was concentrated in the gyrations of white lead. The afternoon session brought many more members and all thoughts were for the time on the lead market. Altogether 480 tons of October and November deliveries were sold. The larger part of this was for the account of Corwith, but several tons were the holdings of other prominent New York houses. More than one metal man, it is said, is embarrassed by the Corwith failure, but no suspensions were announced on 'Change, though it was no secret that several houses had been given 24 hours to cover their margins.

Corwith & Co.'s Failure.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The failure of the attempt by the biggest lead firm in the world, Nathan Corwith & Co., to corner the lead market by purchasing the surplusage of the output of lead produced in the smelting works of this country was the main topic to-day in financial circles here. The attachments filed in the local courts to cover assets of Corwith & Co. and the Corwiths individually amount to over $300,000 and in a general way it is known that the liabilities of the firm are at least two millions. This amount, however, has reference solely to the recent purchases, including the October delivery, and merchants interested in the trade believe that even the amount of $2,000,000 will be exceeded. The firm of Corwith & Co. was started 30 years ago, and Nathan Corwith, sr., has been identified with the lead interests of the United States during his entire business career. Last year the firm met with heavy losses owing to a rise of $7 a ton in lead. Their losses there are said to have aggregated $400,000. This year prior to the beginning of the present disastrous deal, their losses, it is estimated, figured up $250,000. The futile purchases for the corner are thought to exceed $2,000,000 and to carry this load the firm paid higher rates of interest for loans than the usual quotations for commercial paper.

THE GALT POISONING CASE.

Prof. Ellis' Evidence at the Inquest—Another Adjournment.

GALT, Oct. 20.—The inquest in the poisoning case was resumed last night and the attendance was much larger than on any previous occasion. Prof. Ellis, who was the only witness called gave his report as to the analysis of the viscera of Meta Cherry which went to prove that death was doubtless caused by strychnine poisoning. All the candies analysed also contained strychnine in varying quantities.

The inquest was adjourned again until Nov. 2.

The Sunday School Convention.

KINGSTON, Oct. 20.—The Sunday School convention completed its work yesterday. A number of addresses were made congratulating the delegates on the success of the session. These officers were appointed: Chairman of the Executive Committee, L. C. Peake, of Toronto; Honorary Secretary, Rev. John McEwan of Lakefield; Minute Secretaries, Rev. Mr. Field of Green River, and A. W. Clark of Millbrook; Corresponding Secretary, J. J. Woodhouse of Toronto; General Secretary, Alfred Day of Toronto.

The Horse Shied.

HAMILTON, Oct. 20.—Last night a young man with his best girl and a livery rig met with a bad mishap on the road through Beasley's Hollow. He was driving, probably with the lines around his neck, when the horse shied and plunged over the embankment into a barbed-wire fence. The girl was knocked senseless, but recovered after being extricated from the buggy. The horse was badly cut on the fence. The parties refused to give their names to those who rescued them.

The Third Victim.

OSHAWA, Oct. 20.—W. G. Gibson, the third victim of the traction engine explosion at Whitby on Oct. 1, was buried Thursday.

Bank of Montreal Dividend.

MONTREAL, Oct. 20.—At a meeting of the directors of the Bank of Montreal, held to-day, a half-yearly dividend of 5 per cent. was declared.

SMALLEY'S GOSSIP.

An Interesting Cable Letter on the Topics of the Day.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—A little lecture to Americans on their treatment of the Chinese may be found in yesterday's Times, should you happen to care for it, Americans who value justice must, in the opinion of this writer, feel greatly ashamed at what is going on. If, however, they reside in districts much frequented by Chinese they are not expected to have a sense of shame. The rejection of the Washington convention at Pekin is not here thought justification for the arbitrary exclusion of the Chinese in violation of the existing treaty. Englishmen in Australia have troubles of their own with the Chinese, and are as eager as the Pacific States in America to keep out the celestial. "But," says The Times, "public opinion in England would not sanction an attempt like that now making in America to override treaty stipulations by domestic legislation. The courts in Victoria, unlike the courts in California, upheld the rights of the Chinamen and decided against their own government, which claimed the prerogative to prohibit the landing of immigrants. The Australian press and public accepted this judicial decision. America is invited to go and do likewise, let Pekin, which is capable of quiet obstinacy, in the end prove more than a match for Washington."

The week produces the usual number of speeches, including one from Balfour, whom his neighbors of Haddingtonshire have been dining, and one from Sir Michael Hicks-Beach at Plymouth. Much more remarkable is Balfour's discourse at Manchester. There he is reported as saying that the Irish party, and, by implication the Gladstonian party, were supporting politics by crime. But a really important contribution to home rule literature is the letter from Davitt on the Irish land question. Once more that irreconcilable patriot is at issue with the other Irish leaders. He has put a question which must sooner or later be answered: "Who is to settle the Irish land question—parliament at Westminster or Parliament at Dublin?" If the former, Davitt stands ready to repudiate it. If the latter, what becomes of the Liberal declarations that security for the landlord's property must precede home rule?

Davitt puts another alternative: If the English are going to settle the Irish land question they are welcome to do it if they will foot the bill, but if Irishmen are to be taxed to buy out landlords they must fix the terms of payment, and he repeats his view often before now expressed, that the Irish landlords are not entitled to one farthing of compensation. The Irish people are to have the land for nothing.

Few things have of late brought more odium on the home rule cause than the advice alleged to have been given to blacksmiths by Finucane, M. P., to shoe the land-grabbers' horses, but to drive the nails into the quick. Finucane, after a long delay explained by absence, now denies this story, which he calls "an infamous falsehood."

In a Berlin dispatch to the Times there is, if not news from Stanley, an opinion about his safety worth noting. This comes from Lieut. Wissman, who has twice crossed the dark continent and is to be one of the leaders of the Emin Pasha relief expedition. Lieut. Wissman is convinced that Stanley is now at Wadelai with Emin. The reason he gives for his belief in Stanley's safety is a reason of common sense, namely, that if Stanley had been killed the news of his fate would certainly have reached the coast long before this. Anxiety is felt here on other African questions than those connected with Stanley's fate, perhaps upon none more than the fate of the Nile. Whether the Mahdi really intends to deflect the course of the river, or has even begun such an attempt, nobody knows. But that the river can be turned is fully believed. Sir Samuel Baker sums up the case in the statement that Egypt depends upon the Nile, which is now commanded by an enemy.

It is now said to be doubtful whether the confiscation of the Mackenzie book in Germany can be permanently maintained. The Mulheim judge's mandate issued Sunday proceeded on two grounds—insult to the emperor and to the chancellor, and libels on Drs. Bergmann and Gerhardt, who, as professors, are deemed state officials. Of the first there is no trace; and though there are plenty of libels on the two German doctors, it is held that the government cannot prosecute unless the professors themselves take the initiative. The leading German papers all have copies of the book and comment on it. An influential section of the radical press sustains Sir Morell.

The unveiling of a statue to the most heroic Englishman of his time took place in Trafalgar square without ceremony, and the event attracts little attention from the general public. The government would gladly have made it an occasion of due homage to General Gordon's memory, but had not the courage of its opinions. It has rightly closed Trafalgar square to the mob. It was afraid to open it to the public lest the anarchists should have seized the opportunity for another demonstration, or the anarchist press have taunted them with inconsistency. So the shroud was pulled off by the first commissioner of works without a word.

W. C. T. U. Convention.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—In the W. C. T. U. convention yesterday a report was read showing that there are 958 unions with a membership of 164,213. There are 958 young ladies' unions with a membership of 21,278, 3427 loyal legions with 163,743 members and 433 coffee houses. The money received from the local unions amounted to $227,948. There are now 21 states having prohibitory laws in one shape or another. The greatest increase of membership was in New York where 8751 new members were enrolled. The report of the treasurer shows a balance of $4549 on hand. The committee on credentials reports 372 delegates, 29 superintendents and 8 organizers present.

Labor Federation.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—General Master Powderly yesterday made the first movement towards securing the fraternal cooperation of all labor organizations of the country by sending telegrams to the Convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers at Richmond and the Brotherhood of Railway Brakemen, which is in session at Columbia. The despatch to the Engineers was as follows:

"Will your convention consent to fraternal co-operation with other labor organizations to the end that all disputes may be properly and equitably adjusted? The time is now at hand when all labor organizations on this continent, forgetful of the past, should cooperate on essentials for the welfare of all. Our hand is extended in friendship."

That to the Brakemen's Brotherhood is couched in similar terms.

Count Premio-Real's Funeral—Denied Burial in Consecrated Ground—Terrible Accusation Against Nine Well-Known Montrealers.

HAMILTON, Oct. 20.—The Jaynes brothers—John and Elijah—whiskey informers, closed a successful engagement under Licence Inspector Mackenzie yesterday. The only case in which any evidence was taken at the police court was against Peter Colvin, who was charged with selling liquor on two occasions without a license. Colvin pleaded guilty to one charge, but he did not remember selling any whiskey on Oct. 7. The charge was proven by John Jaynes, and Colvin was fined $50 for the first and $80 for the second offence or three months in jail. The old man is very poor and will likely be committed to prison. Thomas Armstrong, Carl Blaaze, John J. Bain, Charles Drew, Hugh Daly, William Dryden, Samuel Green, Matthew High, Andrew Ruthven, Thomas Maxwell, P. Meegan and Smith & Findlay, who each pleaded guilty to selling liquor on two occasions, were each fined $40. W. J. Brush, Charles Egener, Samuel Lawlor and Daniel Sullivan were fined $20 each. Harry Bryant, John Hunter & Son and Andrew Roach, grocers, were each fined $50 for selling liquor contrary to law. Hannah Broderick, Hannah Bradfield and Crooks & Stroud were each fined $50 or three months for selling liquor without a license. The total amount of fines imposed aggregated $1090.

FUNERAL OF PREMIO-REAL.

The Late Spanish Consul at Quebec Denied Burial in Consecrated Ground.

QUEBEC, Oct. 20.—By order of the Cardinal religious rites and sepulture were refused yesterday to the body of the late Consul-General of Spain on the ground that deceased, though a Catholic, was not in communion with the church, not having performed his Easter duty since his arrival in Quebec fourteen years ago. It is said that some of his friends could have disproved this if they had known the objection would have been made. The incident has created a painful impression. Many seem to think that even if it was the case that the deceased had not approached the sacrament at Easter during his whole sojourn in Quebec the ecclesiastical authorities might have stretched a point in his favor on account of his irreproachable life and his many public and private charities. It is only fair to Cardinal Taschereau to say that he offered to withdraw his ban if it could be shown to his satisfaction that deceased had ever performed his Easter duty at Quebec, but this either could not be done or was not done for the reason already stated. The body was accordingly interred in the unconsecrated ground of the Roman Catholic cemetery at St. Foy, four miles outside the city. It was followed to the grave by all the Consular bodies and a large crowd of friends, to whom when the interment was completed Mr. Luch Y. Diase, Vice-Consul of Spain at Halifax, returned thanks in the name of the Spanish Government and of the deceased's family, as well as in his own name, asking them at the same time to join him in prayer for deceased. Though they knew he had died by his own hand, he said deceased was not responsible for this rash act, and was gone where he would be judged according to his merits.

A FIENDISH CRIME.

Terrible Charge Against Nine Well-Known Montrealers.

MONTREAL, Oct. 20.—Nine well-known residents of St. Cunegonde, a suburb of Montreal, are charged with outraging in a most brutal manner a young and prepossessing French-Canadian girl named Perrault, who, it is alleged, died from the effects. She was buried last Saturday, but on the facts of the case leaking out, the coroner has ordered the body to be exhumed. The case promises to be very sensational. The doctor who issued the death certificate will also be arrested.

TORONTO TOPICS.

University Convocation—The Law Faculty—A Cannibal Fined—The Conventions.

TORONTO, Oct. 20.—The organization of the law faculty in connection with Toronto University has been completed. The following gentlemen among others compose the faculty: Dean of Faculty, Hon. Chancellor Boyd; Lecturers, Hon. Edward Blake, Hon. David Mills, Dalton McCarthy, Hon. Justice Proudfoot and Prof. Ashley.

Convocation Hall was filled when President Daniel Wilson and Governor Campbell ascended the dais to open the proceedings of the annual convocation of University College yesterday afternoon. The scholarships, medals and prizes, won last spring, were duly presented. The Minister of Education, in the course of a lengthy speech, congratulated the president on his recent recognition by Her Majesty, and also the University on acquiring the services of such an able professor as Mr. Ashley, who has recently been appointed to the chair of political science, referred to the approaching federation of the college, and entered largely into the proposed law faculty. Rev. Dr. Potts made a few remarks on the question of Federation and Sir Daniel Wilson made his address.

Yesterday morning the Convention of Humane Societies resumed their deliberations in the Normal School. A paper prepared by Mrs. Ellen Snow of Hartford, Conn., on "The Use of the Check Rein," was read by Mr. E. Burnham. On motion of Mr. J. G. Shorthall a resolution was passed condemning the cruelty of docking the tails of horses.

At the Unitarian Conference Rev. A. T. Bowser of Toronto dealt with the necessity for aggressive mission work in this city. Rev. Pitt Dillingham of Buffalo, Rev. Grindell Reynolds of Boston, Rev. Thomas R. Spicer of Providence, Rev. A. Horton of Boston, Rev. Dr. Bixby of Yonkers, N. Y., delivered addresses on the practical work of a Unitarian Church. Rev. Geo. Batchelor of Boston delivered an address on "Our Bases of Authority in Religion," and "Our Belief About God."

At the Police Court yesterday Harry Hill found guilty of biting Joseph Sirois, was fined $30 and costs or 60 days. George B. Cullen, city traveller for Rolph, Smith & Co., pleaded guilty to embezzling from his employers. Mr. Rolph stated that the prisoner's peculations would aggregate nearly $200. He was committed to the Central Prison for three months.

Thomas Casey, a convict, after being liberated from the Central Prison, where he had been doing 23 months for burglary, returned to the prison and annoyed the guards. For this he was sentenced to 30 days' imprisonment. On Thursday Casey completed this short term, and again went back to the prison grounds. On being ordered away he drew a long knife on Guard Vaughan, and threatened to rip him up. The Magistrate sent him to the Central Prison for six months as a vagrant.

M. Clemenceau's Opinion.

PARIS, Oct. 19.—M. Clemenceau to-day implied that the assembly charged with the revision of the constitution should have all the powers of a constituent assembly. He affirmed the necessity of the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate coming to an understanding before the meeting of Congress.

A BRAKE ON THE WHEEL.

When the Liberals were in office they acknowledged themselves to be flies on the wheel, and now that they are out of office they are brakes on the wheel of progress. In office the policy they carry out, and in opposition the advocacy of the policy they support, hinder the development and progress of the country.

The Mail's correspondent with the Mining Commission thus reports the opinions of Mr. Wm. Rattle, of Cleveland, Ohio, a mining expert and engineer:—

"Mr. Rattle has had a great deal of experience in smelting ores and thinks that the ores of this district can be smelted profitably and economically in this locality. Pig can be manufactured in Ontario for $12 a ton, in Cleveland it costs $15. The great difficulty is the element of uncertainty as to what action might be taken in the event of a change of Government in reference to the altering of the tariff."

Exactly. The element of uncertainty caused by the persistent efforts of the Liberal party to abolish the National Policy prevents the people from reaping the full benefit from that policy. There has been other pointed evidences of this fact. The Kingston Whig, a Liberal paper, stated not long ago that iron men had told it the same thing, and an iron firm which was written to about starting an iron industry in Peterborough replied that they believed the present conditions favorable, but that the uncertainty as to whether the National Policy would be maintained deterred them from embarking in the enterprise.

There is this satisfaction, that while in opposition the Liberal party cannot do as much harm in this way as if it had control of the Government, for it has not prevented the National Policy from being a success, although if all Canadians had united to give it a fair and honest trial the benefits to the country would undoubtedly have been greater.

The discussion of the question, "Is marriage a failure?" is still kept up. Judging by the number of divorces it is considerably more of a failure in the United States than in Canada.

The 4th of November will soon be passed. Then the United States politicians will be too busy trying to count in their nominees to pay so much attention to Canada.

Mr. Ferris, ex-M. P., is to be condoled with on account of Mr. Cochrane being unseated, as the Ontario Government will probably make no appointment to the registarship until after this Dominion election is over also. If Mr. Ferris has to wait until there is no election pending in East Northumberland before getting the appointment, he and the deputy-expectant may become weary.

It is said that President Cleveland intends to throw another retaliation bomb before Congress adjourns, one that will give him an advantage in the elections. The last made noise enough, but was harmless. Whether the coming message, supposing the rumor to be correct, will effect Canada or only the elections cannot be told with certainty till it appears. The President might decide to use the retaliation measure passed at the previous session of Congress.

A line of customs houses three thousand miles long is necessary to prevent Canadians ruining themselves by trade with their neighbors. That is the doctrine of Canadian Restrictionists. It takes for granted that the people of this country are born fools.—Toronto Globe.

The doctrine of the opponents of commercial annexation is not correctly stated. But if a government that maintains customs houses takes it for granted that the people are born fools, what opinion did the Mackenzie Government have of the people? That Government maintained customs houses along the frontier.

EXHIBITION AT APSLEY.

A Successful Show by the Burleigh and United Townships Society.

The sixteenth annual exhibition of the Burleigh and United Townships Agricultural Society was held at Apsley on Oct. 12th, and was the most successful held by the Society. There was a large increase in the number of entries over previous years. A large number of visitors were present from different parts of the county, among whom were Messrs. John Lang, M. P., John Hall, D. Rose, D. McLean, A. Smith, H. C. Garbutt, and many others. All expressed surprise at the progress made by the settlers in this part of the county. The horses on exhibition would compare favorably with those in any other part of the county. A large number of cattle were shown, as well as sheep, pigs and poultry. The hall was filled to the doors with grain, roots, vegetables, ladies' work both useful and ornamental; apples and home made bread. A good deal of interest was felt in the butter competition, for which Mr. John Lang, M. P., had offered a special prize of $6 to be given in three prizes for the three best tubs or crocks of butter, in prizes of $3, $2 and $1. Mrs. D. Anderson carried off the first prize, Mrs. William Tucker the second and Mrs. John Young the third. The $5 contributed by Mr. Thos. Blezard, M. P. P., arrived too late to be competed for this year.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

$10,000 Stock of Boots at 40c. on the Dollar.

An upheavel taken place in leather and the boot and shoe trade shattered to pieces. On Saturday we are going to run a special Boot Sale. Good Goods and Low Prices have gained for us the admiration of close buyers. Our 25c. Boots have completely demoralized the high priced dealers. One man says Goughs are selling below cost, so we are! That is we sell lots of Goods below the first cost of manufacture and still make a living profit. Some people would naturally like to know how we do it. "Here is the Secret." A wholesale man gets hard up, wants money, must have it. He knows Goughs are spot cash buyers. They send for the Wonderful Cheap Men. They arrive on the scene. The wholesale man says, Gough what will you give for 300 cases of these boots; Goughs look them over carefully, find them good desirable selling lines and make a bid of 40c. on the dollar; after hard fighting we get them. They arrive in Peterborough, are sold at 50c. on the dollar, we therefore sell them at half price and make a living profit for ourselves. These are a few of the many reasons why posterity has raised up and christened us GOUGHS, the Tirele s, Sleepless Wide-Awake Boot Men, GOUGHS, the Kings of Clothiers, GOUGHS, the Original Agitators of Small Profits, GOUGHS, the Wonders of the 19th Century. TELL THAT TO THE MARINES!

NO USE DRAGGING A HERRING ACROSS THE TRAIL.

We are carrying the war into Africa. Our Solid Brigades of Overcoats, Regiments of Suits and Battalions of Pants with Companies of Vests and Underclothing, which we have deployed on the field so skillfully during the month, have terrorized the enemy, routed him at all points and carried the fortifications on the run. Our Guns, double-shotted with Low Prices have thrown cannister and grape into their ranks and scattered their forces which only existed on paper.

Our Victory is complete. An agonized wail sent up is a token of Surrender to the inevitable fortunes of war. WYATT & TURNER have carried the day and our enterprise has forever broken the yoke of High Prices that has held the County.

We hurl back defiance at the Clothing Sharks who would grasp at the right of an Honest and Pushing Firm to live and do Trade. The man who wants to buy Clothing don't care a continental whether it is bought wholesale in Montreal, Toronto, Omemee or Pontypool. What the purchaser wants is value. It don't interest him whether the Goods are sold from a plate glass palace or from a clapboard shanty with 7x9 windows. What he wants is Value and Low Prices. It does'nt concern the buyer to know whether the Goods were brought in by rail, steamboat, waggon, oxcart or on foot. What he wants is Value, Low Prices and Square Dealing. He does'nt care whether its rain or shine, hot or cold, late or early as long as he gets the Best Value, the Best Goods, the Best Treatment, the Best Satisfaction and he gets all these at WYATT & TURNER'S. Our Stock is our own, bought with honest money and we sell for as low a profit as we can do trade and live. TEA!

A Chinese writer says: "To make good tea it is an old custom to use running water boiled over a lively fire. That from springs in the hills is the best, and river water next, while well water is the worst. Do not boil the water too hastily; as, first it begins to sparkle like crab's eyes, then, somewhat like fishes' eggs, and lastly it boils up like pearls innumerable springing and waving about. This is the way to boil the water."

If you like a splendid cup of tea try one of the many brands in stock. The price varies with the quality. Splendid Teas at low prices. Better Teas a trifle higher. The best not dear and well worth the moderate price asked.

The Boys Threw Stones.

William Downer, a boy about thirteen years of age who lives in the north ward, appeared at the Court this morning to answer to a charge of assault. A few evenings ago when Mr. Wm. Harper, of Lakefield, was driving up the street on his way home, he was struck on the head by a stone, which cut him and nearly knocked him out of the waggon. He had been annoyed that way before by, apparently, the same boys and he went back and found out who they were. Their names were given to the police with the result that Downer was summoned. He acknowledged having thrown a stone, and after Police Magistrate Edmison had given the boys a lecture he was allowed to go to appear for sentence when called upon.

A Climatic Reflection.

So much rain falling, so much wet weather turning our streets into mud, making the crossings almost impassable, force the reflection that if about 65 per cent of the quantity of water had fallen during July last that the harvest would have been a splendid one. The short crop is balanced to some extent by high prices for grain and by the chance to buy cheap which are offering at Gough's. Particularly is this the case in boots and shoes, and so great is the rush that sometimes a difficulty is experienced in serving all promptly. This is the place for boots and shoes. They are cheap and good, cheaper than the cheapest and as good as the best. When you want cheap boots and shoes, at less than half wholesale cost, a bargain in every pair and thousands of bargains—in a $7,000 stock—go direct to Gough Bros., 375 George-st. 1d93

Prof. Dorenwend's Visit.

Prof. Dorenwend, the noted hair goods manufacturer, announces a visit on Oct. 24 and 25, at Phelan's hotel. This is the opportunity for ladies to get the very latest styles in head-dresses. As is well known the Prof. does not only supply pieces for those who are bald but for persons who may have good crops of hair. A fine dress, costly jewellery and expensive bonnets and hats are all right in their place, but their is nothing that adds to the beauty of the face so much as a nicely dressed head of hair. During his business career the Prof. has made many a heart glad by giving them the means to hide the loss of the hair. Go and see his variety of styles in frontpieces, bangs, waves, wigs, switches, gents wigs, toupees, and you will be sure to find something that will suit you and that will add to the beauty of your face. Don't let this opportunity slip. Remember at Phelan's Hotel, Simcoe-st on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 24 and 25. 1w42-1d93

Matrimonial.

From the London Advertiser we take the following notice of a wedding in that city on Oct. 17th:—"About nine o'clock this morning a large number gathered at St. Peter's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Mr. Wm. A. Hurley, bookkeeper in John Scandrett's establishment and formerly of Peterborough, and Miss Mamie Spearman, of this city. Mr. John Spearman, brother of the bride, stood up for the groom, while Miss Teresa Hurley, of Peterborough, performed the same office for the bride. Mr. James Spearman, of the Inland Revenue Department, Waterloo, gave the bride away. The ceremony was followed by mass, Rev. Father Tiernan officiating, and the full choir assisting. As the happy couple left the church Dr. Verrinder rendered the 'Wedding March.' The bride was the recipient of a number of beautiful and costly presents. Mr. and Mrs. Hurley left on a trip west by the 11.40 train, followed by the congratulations of their many friends."

ANNUAL REPORTS OF THE SECRETARY AND TREASURER.

Review of the History of the Institution by the Secretary—Suggestions as to Needs—Receipts and Expenditure.

The following is the report of the Secretary of the Peterborough Protestant Home, Mrs. Hall, read at the annual meeting:—

"In May, 1865, Mr. R. A. Morrow generously gave the use of one of his buildings in the south end of the town for a Protestant Home. In July, 1870, the inmates were moved into the present building, purchased by the late Sheriff Hall for that purpose, the intention being only to admit destitute old women and children; but as cases were presented of homeless and deserving old men, it was agreed to admit them. There being no endowment the Home was, consequently, entirely dependant on the charity and liberality of the benevolent. About two years ago Mr. Carnegie kindly used his influence with the Local Government, securing a grant of seven cents per day, supplemented by two cents per day for children over ten. This has indeed proved a boon, but the Government required certain improvements, and seperate wards for the men and women. After considerable delay a small allowance was given by the Town Council, and the necessary changes and repairs were made inside, and completed on the 1st of November, 1887, and in December a new fence was put up. In February, 1888, a concert was given under the auspices of Mesdames Lewis and Dunsford, realizing, after deducting expenses, $39.85. On the 4th of April a calico ball took place and Mr. F. J. Lewis sent our treasurer a cheque for the proceeds amounting to $70. We much appreciate their great kindness and the trouble they took on behalf of this charitable work. On the 5th of the same month we took in five little motherless children; two of them were with us but a few days, the eldest going to relatives in England and the other was adopted by a kind lady in Quebec. The others, after being with us for some time, were admitted into the Orphans' Home in Toronto. We also admitted on the 9th of April, an old man from the township of Chandos, aged 83 years. The Home has been nearly full during the entire year, but the largest number, twenty-four, was during April. Our aged men have been quite feeble, and required the utmost care, the eldest having attained the ripe age of 91. Our paisied inmate, Peter Whittock, aged 85, is still with us, but more helpless than a child. On the 8th of September we agreed to give shelter for a time to a married woman with three children. Her baby was sick, and her case an urgent one, worse than widowhood. We had three deaths during the year, Charles Portsmouth, an old soldier aged 87, a native of Andover, Hampshire, England, quietly passed away on the 17th of March, and twin babies admitted in July, after their mother's death, died after suffering for a time from cholera infantum. One died on the 29th of August and the other on the 6th of September. In August the outside of the building was painted and the necessary repairs made and in the following month a small corner of land next the railway fence was enclosed and made fit for cultivation. Although much in a small way has been accomplished, still more remains to be done. May we look for encouragement and help from our old friends and many new ones? To those who know nothing about this charity we extend an invitation to come and see the work being done and we should be glad if the Town Council would pay us a visit. Our excellent matron, Mrs. Dillon, has everything in the best of order and scrupulously clean, and her kindness to the little ones under her care is beyond all praise. The inmates sustained a serious loss in the departure of General Haultain for England. He ever, as well as his deceased brother, took a special interest in their spiritual and temporal welfare. As the worthy and the noble and the good pass from our midst, who is willing to fill up the gap? The quality of donations this year has been superior to former years, in many cases new things being sent instead of old ones, giving the Home a more respectable, comfortable and presentable appearance, worthier our progressive town. The December donations were liberal and thoughtful, displaying a kind desire to give pleasure and happiness to old and young at that joyous season. We are anxious to have a mangle before summer, the washings being so large; and a new sewing machine, there being a great deal of sewing required for old and young. Our treasurer will gladly receive contributions towards their purchase. We beg to remind visitors that there is a 'poor box' in the hall, and in former years the grand jury used to pay a yearly visit, dropping a coin into it as well as inspecting the premises. That good custom has, however, fallen into disuse; may we request them to renew it and see by oecular demonstration the happy change the Home presents? It would afford our inmates delight, if anyone during the long winter evenings would exhibit a magic lantern; a pleasant hour or two of recreation would do them all good. To all donors, public and private, we extend our heartfelt thanks, and our grateful acknowledgments to the clergy and laymen who hold services regularly, also to our physicians who are ever ready to attend the cry of distress free of charge, and to the urbane gentlemen of the press, who always treat our requests for insertions with the utmost courtesy, at the same time supplying the Home with the local news. In concluding I again commend to your kind consideration one of Christ's most precious legacies, the poor, the fatherless and the needy.

'Each sweet Ebenezer
We have in review,
Confirms His good pleasure;
He'll help this work through.'"

At the annual meeting of the Ontario Sunday School Association, the Rev. John McEwen, of Lakefield, was elected Honorary Secretary. Messrs. Sheriff Hall and H. B. Griffin, of Peterborough, were appointed members of the Executive Committee.

Mortuary Statistics.

The mortuary statistics issued from Ottawa show that there were 14 deaths in Peterborough during September. Of these five were from developmental deseases, three from local and two from constitutional diseases. Three were from diarrhœal affections and and one from remittent fever. In Montreal the number of deaths was 526, Toronto 236, Ottawa 71, Kingston 22, Belleville 18.

Explosion of Benzine.

This afternoon Lee Dunsford, a boy employed in Messrs. Geo. A. Schofield & Co.'s drug store, went to an outhouse for benzine and while there lit a match to see if the can was full. The benzine became ignited and an explosion followed. The boy was burned on the face, but not seriously. The flames blazed up, but the firemen were soon on hand and extinguished them. Before the firemen had left fire was noticed on the roof, and while cutting it out the benzine again ignited and the flames roared furiously for a short time, but were again quickly overcome. The woodwork of the building was burnt inside, but the damage did not amount to much.

The Railway Extension.

Mr. Alex. Dawson's solicitors, Messrs. Hatton & Wood, have written to the town that the embankment proposed by the C.P. R. railway will injure his property on Hunter-st. and that he will hold the town and railway company responsible. He also calls attention, as a ratepayer, that the gravel on the island might be used by the Council and that, as the island is an asset of the town, it should not be taken by the railway. The Street Inspector estimates that there is three feet of gravel on the island, an acre and a half in extent, which would go a long ways towards filling in at the river bank for the long talked of market square, or could be used to good advantage otherwise.

The Market.

There was a very large attendance at the market this morning, and good prices were realized. A quantity of pork and tub butter was bought up by the shippers. There was a large amount of poultry, which was readily bought at the following figures:—Turkeys each, 80 cents to $1.00, geese 55 to 75 cents, ducks per pair 60 cents, chickens 30 to 40 cents per pair. 23 cents to 25 cents per lb. was asked for roll butter. Eggs were scarce and the price remained about the same as last week. Apples were sold at from 40 cents to 45 per bag. Potatoes, parsnips and carrots were offered at 60 cents per bag. What little wheat is coming in is being bought up at $1.20 per bushel for fall, and from $1.17 to $1.18 for spring. Barley has fallen to 60 and 65 cents per bushel and large quantities are being brought in.

Personal.

The Rev. B. N. Grant, of Orillia, will occupy the pulpit at the anniversary services in St. Andrew's church, on Sunday, November the 4th.

Rev. Alex. Allen, son of Rural Dean Allen, has been selected as rector of Emily and Omemee, subject to the approval of the bishop.

Mr. Frank Sanderson, of Toronto, the actuary for the Manufacturers Life Insurance Company, is in town. He is the guest of Mr. Geo. A. Morrison, of the firm of Wilson & Morrison.

The Bobcaygeon Indipendent says:—"On Sunday next, Mr. Munt is to preach his farewell sermon. The Baptists, and their friends in the Kelly settlement, gave Mr. Munt a farewell social on Thursday evening, and a pleasant time was spent." Mr. Munt was formerly with the Saved Army here.

PRICES AND PROSPECTS.

COMMERCE DULL OWING TO THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

The World's Wheat Crop—Bradstreet's Estimates the Yield to be 75,000,000 Bushels Under the Average Annual Crop for Ten Years—Money Easier.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Special telegrams to Bradstreet's indicate that at the large eastern and at some western cities, notably St. Louis, the movement of staple merchandise has been sensibly checked, mainly owing to the conservatism usually noticeable just prior to the presidential elections.

The rice crop in Louisiana will be 35 per cent. short.

At the chief packing centres hogs are weaker and 20 and 30 per cent. lower.

Collections are generally easier, the draft for funds on the larger eastern and western cities is weaker, and funds generally are easier.

Owing to unusually heavy exports of wheat on the Pacific coast, 962,000 bushels, against 546,600 last week, the total exports of wheat, both Coasts, including flour as wheat, amount to 2,337,916 bushels, against 1,878,172 bushels last week. No wheat was shipped from New York, New Orleans or Tacoma this week. The total flour exports increased 21,000 barrels from last week or about 12½ per cent. The aggregate of wheat, including flour, exported from July 1 to Oct. 20, is 37,366,000 bushels against 53,750,000 bushels in the like period last year. The speculative wheat market has weakened at Chicago and New York falling 3 to 5 cents per bushel. At San Francisco spot wheat is about 97 cents. Corn has fallen 2 cents in sympathy with wheat. The stubborn resistance of foreign markets to New York, Chicago and Duluth prices, almost stopping Atlantic seaboard wheat shipments, hints at further reactions, unless domestic holders prove unexpectedly confident.

Iron and steel are quieter at all points than for six weeks, and the outlook is for no special activity or change of prices for thirty days. Steel rails are $28 per ton, within $1.40 of the lowest price ever quoted.

A depression in the Southwestern stocks caused some bearishness in the New York Stock Market, though speculation assumed a stronger tone later on with a notable advance in Union Pacific shares.

Money at New York is easier, call loans, 2 to 2½ per cent. Foreign exchange has been strong on the scarcity of bills against grain shipments, demand sterling $4.87½ to $4.88.

Our revision of the estimates of The London Miller indicates a total wheat crop of the world of about 2,206,000,000 bushels, about 75,000,000 bushels under the world's average annual crop for ten years. The requirements are calculated at 2,229,000,000 bushels, showing only about 23,000,000 as the probable deficiency. The probable net importations aggregate 337,000,000 bushels, and the calculated aggregate of net exportations is 311,000,000 bushels, showing an apparent deficiency of 25,000,000 bushels.

The Week's Failures.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The business failures occurring throughout the country during the past seven days, as reported to Dun, Wiman & Co., number for the United States 24 and for Canada 22, or total of 226 as compared with 227 last week, and 211 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 201, made up of 172 in the United States and 29 in the Dominion.

WAS MRS. WILLRUTH KIDNAPPED.

While Ill and Unconscious a Stranger Removed Her in a Cab.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—A singular case of disappearance was reported at Police Headquarters yesterday, which has all the elements of kidnapping for the purpose of robbery. Mrs. Frederick Willruth left her home, No. 125 Thorn-street, Jersey City, Wednesday afternoon and came to this city to shop. While on her way to call upon her husband, Henry Willruth, who is engineer in a large building, No. 419 Broome-street, she was stricken with paralysis, to which she is subject, and two men carried her into a paint shop on Park-street near by. The woman recovered sufficiently to give her husband's name and place of business and relapsed into unconsciousness.

Two hours afterwards Mr. Willruth received a call from a strange man, who informed him that his wife was sick in the paint shop. He hastened to her assistance, and was thunderstruck to learn that a well dressed man, whom noone knew, had driven up to the paint shop in a cab, and saying that he was a relation of the woman and he would take her home, he placed her in the cab and drove away. At this point all traces of the woman is lost. Mr. Willruth spent yesterday searching the hospitals and the Morgue, but nowhere could he learn anything concerning his wife. He said that she was fifty years old and sickly, and he discarded promptly the idea that she was kidnapped for immoral purposes, but he feared that some thief had resorted to this bold move for the purpose of robbery, as his wife wore jewelry of some value.

The police theory is that Mrs. Willruth is in the home of some friends of the family, who have neglected to inform the husband of the fact. They agree that if a thief had removed her in the cab he would have released her after obtaining her valuables. Mr. Willruth fears she may now be held awaiting the offer of a reward.

The Awful Avalanche.

FELLWIDE, Col., Oct. 20.—Yesterday while Charles and William Wells, miners, were digging their way through the snow from La Junta basin a snow slide came down the mountain, carrying them down the side of the mountain for 1500 feet and burying them under twenty feet of snow and rocks. Williams managed with the aid of a pocket knife to dig himself out and though wounded made his way to town. A rescuing party started and after two hours' hard work found the body of Charles underneath several hundred tons of snow and rocks, crushed to a shapeless mass.

HYMEN'S QUEER MESHES.

A Curious Divorce Case, With Unusually Strange Complications.

BOSTON, Oct. 20.—Of all the queer divorce cases that of Sarah W. Guy against George Ewer, which was heard yesterday, is entitled to the premium. Mrs. Guy (nee Walton) was married in Gloversville, N. Y., twenty years ago to Eugene Guy, who was then a glove manufacturer. After several years of married life his luck got down and they set up for themselves, he in Denver and she in Boston.

Several months ago she opened a lodging house here. Ewer, the present defendant, was one of her first lodgers, and he fell in love with her, but she told him that she was a married woman. A few days after she had told him this an acquaintance of hers, Mrs. Minnie Baker, gave her a pressing invitation to make her a call. She went and was treated to gin. Ewer was there.

"I drank some," Mrs. Guy told the Court, "and soon my head began to swim. I remember that they stood me up before a mirror and then everything seemed dark. The only other thing I can recollect is that I fell with my head in a bowl of oyster stew and that I was in a dark room, but where this was I can't tell. The next day Ewer called on me and said he wanted $2. I asked him what he meant. His reply was 'Don't you understand that you are my wife?'

"I answered:—'You know that's not fair; I am a married woman already.' He replied that he would make my marriage to him lawful, and said so much that, to get rid of him, I gave him the $2, and he went away."

The alleged marriage took place in January of last year, and since that time Mrs. Guy has been engaged, she says, in eluding the emorous Ewer, with whom, she protests, she has never behaved as a wife.

"I don't know," she continued, "who the man is that married us. I heard afterward that his name is George Everett. I recently went to police headquarters in Pemberton-square and identified George Ewer's picture in the Rogue's Gallery. He has followed me about from place to place and has threatened to kill me if I will not live with him. One day he struck and abused me on the street and attracted a crowd of people."

Blanche Guy, the nineteen-year-old daughter of the libellant, testified that Ewer had told her that he was drunk at the time of the pretended marriage, and he knew that the only way to get her mother's consent was to get her drunk too.

The Court at this point wanted to know who the George Everett was who performed the ceremony. Blanche was of the impression that he was a South End gambler, but in the absence of definite information the judge decided to continue the case until this important question could be settled.

WHERE Should I Buy PROPERTY?

This is the question that confronts the citizen who is thinking of getting himself a home,—Where to buy.

Common sense will tell that citizen that the best lot he can get is none too good for him, and why?

Because well located property is always worth its price. Because it is conducive to health and happiness to live in the midst of good surroundings; because if you want to sell you can always find a buyer: because such property is becoming scarce and is therefore rapidly increasing in value. I am prepared to offer a special bargain of a few such Lots, one exceedingly good Lot on Dublin-st. 54x196 feet, high and dry, south front east of and adjoining Mr. Bogue's fine new residence, This is a Bargain. A beautiful Lot on Water-st. opposite St. Paul's Church. This Lot should suit any person wanting a beautiful and central location. It is a recognized fact that the hair is the great essential part of beauty. Where is the effect of wearing fine clothes, dresses, jewellery, bonnets, etc., if the hair is not in keeping?

A thing of beauty is a joy forever, and a nicely dressed head of hair is a joy hard to discount.

A nice head-dress is the only thing that has a direct improving effect upon the expression of the face. I have taken great pains this fall to produce a stock of Hair Goods that will eclipse anything I have yet offered and I feel confident the ladies and gentlemen who patronize me will be well satisfied with my efforts to supply them with coverings for the head which rival nature in perfection. Yarns and Hosiery

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies; at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what inducements may be offered we never allow our selves to be undersold.

THE FATAL CHOCOLATES.

A GIRL CHARGED WITH PARTICIPATION IN SENDING THEM.

Detective Murray Arrests Hannah Boyd at Thorold—She Denies All Knowledge of the Galt Poisoning Case.

THOROLD, Oct. 22.—The mystery surrounding the now celebrated Galt poisoning case was broken in upon Saturday afternoon, and strong hopes are entertained that it will be speedily dispelled and the perpetrators of the crime brought to justice.

The first arrest was made on Saturday. Detective Murray, of the Ontario Government detective staff, has been working on the case ever since the time of the poisoning, except four days which he spent on an extradition case in Buffalo. On Saturday his investigations led him to this place and to the house of a prominent citizen. He stated to the lady of the house that he wished to see the servant girl and explained the nature of his mission. The girl was called into the presence of her mistress and the detective. She said her name was Anna Bond. When the officer told her her name was Hannah Boyd and that she was charged with being implicated in the Galt poisoning case she trembled and nervously denied that her name was Hannah and that she knew anything about the case.

The circumstance, as may be imagined, caused quite a sensation in the family. Anna is a lively, good looking girl, with bright brown eyes, banged hair and a good figure. She has been serving in the family for some months and not the slightest suspicion was entertained that she was connected with any wrong doing.

Detective Murray made the arrest and taking his prisoner with him drove to Merriton and took the train there to Berlin. The prisoner was brought before D. Spiers, J. P., charged with being implicated in the poisoning of Meta Cherry of Galt, and was remanded for a week. She is now in Berlin jail.

Miss Boyd was a servant girl, it is said, in the Lowell family at Galt, for some time. She has not been in Galt for several months until recently. A few days before the poisoned chocolates were sent from Toronto to Galt she asked leave of her mistress to go to Galt. She stated that she had received a telegram from her sick sister, that she wished to visit her and that she would return to Thorold the next day. Her mistress allowed her to go and she kept her word, returning next day. What her real motive in going to Galt was is not known, and the mere fact of her going there at that time counts for little. In connection with other facts, however, and her actions while there, it may count for a good deal.

Her reputation in Galt is not that of an honest, upright girl, but rather that of one whose pretty looks and indiscreetness mutually contributed to her way of life. It may be that an affaire d'amour is at the bottom of the insidious attempt on the lives of three families and the death of little Meta Cherry.

The authorities will give little information concerning the case, and decline altogether to state what evidence is going to be brought against the prisoner. They say that a statement of the facts in their possession at present would prejudice the case. The only thing they care to say is that Hannah Boyd is arrested and that the preliminary trial will take place on Monday next.

THE EXCLUSION ACT.

Chinese now Avoid Canada When Crossing the Frontier.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Chinese exclusion bill will take some revenue from the Michigan Central and Grand Trunk Railways. As both these lines cross the Canadian frontier, the Chinese dare not take them when bound for Western points. When Chinamen now go into railroad offices to purchase tickets they insist upon going by way of Pittsburg and cannot be induced to change their route. The New York Central, West Shore and other lines which run in connection with the Grand Trunk and Michigan Central Road are losing the trade of these people, nearly all of whom went that way. The Canadian Pacific, it was claimed a short time ago, shipped on an average 25 Chinese each day to Pacific coast points, but the Exclusion Act has put a stop to this also, the Chinese wishing to keep as far away from Canada as possible in crossing the continent.

He is Probably in Michigan.

SARNIA, Oct. 22—The Chinaman who was enroute from Maine to the Western States over the Grand Trunk Railway and who was prevented from crossing here, disappeared during Friday night and there has since been no sign of him. He is supposed to have crossed the line. The customs claim $50 from the Grand Trunk Railway as duty on the Chinaman or that the company must show that he is out of the country.

Should be Arrested.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 22.—A woman is now traveling through the villages between St. Thomas and Windsor, inducing girls to go to Detroit, and from there they are taken to the north woods of Michigan for immoral purposes. She holds out as an inducement lucrative positions as saleswomen in Detroit, and so far has secured a large number of respectable girls.

The Train Despatcher to Blame.

FREEPORT, ILL., Oct. 22.—The wreck on the Chicago, Kansas City and St. Paul Road has been investigated by a coroner's jury, which holds the train dispatcher at Dubuque responsible for the accident. Railway officials blame the conductor of the second section of the train.

CURRENT LONDON TOPICS.

RESULTS OF THE KAISER'S TOUR THROUGH EUROPE.

M. Floquet's Revision Scheme—The Parnell Defence Fund Languishing—Coal Trade Troubles

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The German Emperor has left Rome amid popular demonstrations of enthusiasm, which undoubtedly represent the feeling of the Italian people toward the German people, and the alliance of the two nations rests on a broader foundation than it did before this visit. The German Emperor, moreover, will return to Berlin a more powerful monarch than when he left his capital. He has made himself better known throughout Europe. No sovereign's movements ever were followed more carefully or more critically. The impression he has made, alike in St. Petersburg, Vienna and Rome, is the same. The German Emperor is now known throughout Europe as not merely a soldier, but a clear-sighted, capable man of affairs, with strong political views of his own and courage to act on them.

Neither in France nor in England has M. Floquet's scheme for the revision of the French Constitution met with a cordial welcome. In neither is it deemed practicable. In neither is it regarded as much more than a political manœuvre, meant to dish General Boulanger, very much as Mr. Cleveland's Retaliation scheme was meant to dish his Republican opponent.

I do not think the Gladstonian leaders are well satisfied with the course recent political discussion has taken, or with the effect of it on public opinion. The Unionists began earliest in the autumn, and on the whole have had the best of the debate. Mr. Balfour, whatever may be said of him as Irish Secretary, is admittedly a success as a platform speaker. The ablest of the Gladstonian papers, The Manchester Guardian, refers regretfully to his extraordinary popularity. Lord Hartington's Belfast campaign makes an impression on the English public, because it is in Ireland and amid the cheers of great multitudes that he argues against Irish Home Rule.

The Gladstonians, except at Leeds, have made no very great demonstration. They reserve their strength for Birmingham, next month, when Mr. Gladstone will once more put his voice to the hazard in Bingley Hall before 15,000 people. Parliament meets that week also, and before the following week is over the case for Mr. Parnell may probably be opened before the Commission. Those, in fact, are the two events to which all good Gladstonians are now looking hopefully forward. They are confident enough in this near future to contemplate with some indifference what they consider the entirely temporary and delusive success of their Unionist opponents. Meantime they protest vigorously against Mr. Balfour's assertion that they are undermining the principles of public morality. Mr. Morley, at Dumfries denounced this view with great energy. But at the same time Lord Hartington was saying to the Unionists of Belfast: "This struggle began as a struggle between union and separation; but in its progress it has become a struggle of honesty against dishonesty, of order against disorder, of truth against falsehood, of loyalty against treason."

The Parnell Defence Fund makes apparently little progress. Its organizer publishes announcements of a Liberal association which have agreed to raise funds, but of funds as yet only raised nothing has of late been heard. No Liberal leader has subscribed, nor ex-Minister of Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule Government, no man of high position in the Gladstonian wing of the Liberal party. All preparations have been made for the Commission, which resumes sitting on Monday.

There is a question as to a Coal Trust as well as a coal strike. The colliery owners are so hard pressed that they may think any strategy justifiable to improve their position. Some of them are known to favor in theory the formation of a trust. The practical difficulties are probably too great to be overcome, chief among them being the magnitude of the business to be controlled. Authorities consider that they have a better remedy within reach. Not only the railways, as I said the other day, but the middlemen absorb a great proportion of the profits. There is already a Coal Trust in London in the shape of a permanent coal ring which settles the price of coal to consumers. Its profits are enormous, and no successful attack on them has yet been made.

Germans are standing by Germans in this Mackenzie business much better than English stand by English. Professors Virchow and Waldeyer have now come to the rescue of Doctors Bergmann and Gerhardt. Those eminent analysts agree in discrediting Dr. Mackenzie's story about the abscess caused by Dr. Bergmann, on the ground that the post-mortem showed no traces of it. Their testimony covers other points, and is thought damaging, because Dr. Mackenzie relied upon both for his diagnosis. But the English doctor is not to be disposed of so easily. True, he says, no signs of the abscess were visible after death. That was because the abscess, instead of being limited, as it might have been in a healthy patient, was diffused. He deals not less positively with other technical points, Dr. Lovell supporting him. People here do not take sides strongly on technical points, but they ask: If Dr. Mackenzie were the charlatan you now try to make him out, why did you all—Dr. Bergmann, Dr. Gerhardt and all—agree to his being called in as a consulting physician? To this the Germans appear to have no good answer ready. G. W. SMALLEY.

SATISFACTION IN LONDON.

Over Sir John Macdonald's Speech—Valuable Stock for Canada.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Sir John Macdonald's emphatic statement of Canada's position is most opportune and entirely disproves many statements widely published here from the United States that the Canadian Ministers were growing timid under United States threats, and that they were about to adopt a less resolute attitude.

The steamer Toronto has sailed with a very valuable shipment of horses, ponies and sheep. One hackney stallion has the highest British record. The Welsh ponies are destined fur Hon. Mr. Pope's farm, also the best Cheviot ram ever exported.

Eighteen Seamen Drowned.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The Russian steamer Archangel and the Glasgow steamer Neptune came into collision in Christiana Bay and both sank. The crew of the Neptune and eight of the crew of the Archangel were saved. The captain and seventeen of the crew of the Archangel were drowned.

Lieut. Graydon's Invention Sold.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The Graydon Dynamite Projectile Company, operating the invention of Lieut. J. W. Graydon, relating to firing dynamite shells from powder guns, has sold the right to use the invention to the French Government for $500,000, the offer coming from that government through the company's agent, Col. James Irwin, now in Paris.

Compositors Refused an Increase.

JACKSON, Oct. 22.—The proprietors of the Jackson dailies refuse to grant the demand of compositors for an increase to 30 and 33 cents. The reasons are that what they ask for is more than is paid in like sized cities anywhere.

THE W. C. T. U.

Business Transacted at the Second Day's Session of the National Convention.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The convention of the W. C. T. U. resumed its session Saturday morning. Mrs. E. B. Ingalls, of Missouri, submitted a report upon the crusade against the use of narcotics. She reported that Congress had been approached on the subject of a bill regulating the sale of tobacco. The New York Legislature, at the last session, passed a bill regulating the sale of tobacco to minors under 16 years of age, but Gov. Hill declined to sign it. Mrs. Ingalls became quite excited and roundly denounced the Governor. There are now thirteen states, said Mrs. Ingalls, having laws relating to the sale and use of narcotics.

A printed report on labor and capital, prepared by Mrs. Augusta Cooper Bristol, of New Jersey, showed that great progress had been made in the work in the factories throughout the country.

Miss Willard introduced Miss Ella Ackerman, of Alaska, who came, she said, as a fraternal delegate. Miss Ackerman made a short address.

The afternoon session was mainly taken up by addresses. Among them was one by Mrs. Hannah J. Bailey, of Maine, on "Peace and International Arbitration." She deplored the consequences following the rapid growth of the Roman Catholic Church in this country. She said that the church had now gained a foot-hold on the public schools, and urged the convention to give the matter careful consideration.

Mrs. Foster of Iowa, sent up a memorial which, in accordance with the motion adopted yesterday, was referred to the executive committee without being read. It is understood, however, that it is a request that the convention endorse the Republican party's platform.

When reports for adoption were called for, Mrs. Woodward of Nebraska, requested that Mrs. Bailey, of Maine, read the clause in her report referring to Roman Catholics. When this had been read, Mrs. Foster moved that it be stricken out saying that many members of that church were fast friends of the W. C. T. U. This called forth some applause. The motion was seconded and quickly adopted.

RIOTING IN CHICAGO.

Sunday Witnesses a Recurrence of the Street Car Disturbances.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Judging from the experience of Sunday afternoon and Saturday night, the imported conductors and drivers in the employ of the North Chicago Street Railway Company will continue indefinitely to have a hard road to travel. Fully 300 of the old hands are now out of work, mainly owing, they claim to an unfair construction placed by President Yerkes upon the agreement of last Sunday. All these men and their sympathizers are intensely bitter in denunciation of the new men. Clybourne-avenue and Halsted-street were the scene of disorder yesterday. At this point huge timbers and loads of brick were thrown across the street forming a series of obstructions resembling in some respects regulation barricades. The neighborhood is densely populated with working people, and these being idle on Sunday filled the sidewalks, windows and housetops.

All women passengers and several men on the first car to approach had been frightened off by crowds of yelling boys before reaching the obstructed corner. A couple of strangers in the city, a reporter, the conductor and driver and the two policemen acting as guards were the only ones who remained. When the car was brought to a halt the air became black with missiles flying from house tops and windows. The car was literally bombarded, the lead in this part of the affair being taken by women mixed in the mob. The riot virtually ended with the arrival of the patrol wagon filled with police. The crowds were dispersed without serious trouble. The mob reassembled immediately, however, when the wagon departed. A prisoner was rescued from two officers who were left behind and the pair of policemen were being roughly handled when the wagon returned again in the nick of time. No one was seriously injured.

The Largest Telescope in the World.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 22.—Negotiations are going on between the President of the University of Southern California and Alva Clarke of Cambridge, for the construction of a 42-inch lens for the biggest telescope in the world, to be erected on one of the lofty mountains near Los Angeles. Clarke says he can make such a lens in five years for $100,000. It will be eight inches larger than the Lick telescope and will bring the moon within sixty miles of the earth. The university designs to secure the co-operation of Harvard in astronomical work. The university has a large landed endowment, and there is much local pride here to have the largest telescope in the world.

An Actor Arrested.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Charles L. Davis, the actor, was arrested and held for trial Saturday at the Tombs Police Court for having alleged indecent pictures in his possession. Mr. Davis acknowledged having the pictures stowed away in his trunk, and said that they were given to him by a friend. He claims that the arrest was made out of spite because he had Edward P. Myerson arrested for stealing his jewelry. Myerson, he said, told the authorities about the pictures.

Successful on His Third Trial.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 22.—Lee Ford, aged 18 years, committed suicide Saturday by taking morphine. He had made three previous attempts on his life, giving him considerable notoriety. When asked why he had taken the drug, he replied: "I want to die, and I guess I'll make it this time." His first attempt was due to the fact that a brother received a costlier Christmas present than he. Another attempt was made because his parents moved from a large house into a small one.

EXCITEMENT IN WINNIPEG

TROUBLE ANTICIPATED OVER THE PORTAGE CROSSING.

Both Railways Send Out Bodies of Armed Men to the Scene—The Militia Kept Under Arms in the Barracks.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 22.—The wildest excitement prevailed here on Saturday when the news spread round the city that the Northern Pacific and Manitoba Railway proposed crossing the Canadian Pacific Railway's southwestern line with the Portage extension and were to be prevented.

Things looked extremely serious when the Northern Pacific and Canadian Pacific send out train loads of men to the scene of the crossing. The city police were ordered to the spot and a large number of citizens followed. The Local Government had about seventy special constables sworn in, many prominent citizens being among the number.

On arriving at the scene they found a Canadian Pacific engine on the spur right across the site of the intended crossing and a train standing on the main line, both of which must be removed before the crossing could be effected.

The Canadian Pacific train was filled with their special police sworn in by magistrates and hose was attached to the engines to squirt hot water on the crowd if an attempt was made to interfere with the train.

Owing to an accident to the track-laying car, the rails were not laid to within an eighth of a mile of the crossing and nothing was done. The Canadian Pacific sent out another special train last evening laden with men to repel any trespass on their property, which they say they will do to the bitter end.

The military were kept in the barracks all Saturday and Sunday, prepared to leave for the scene in case of disturbance, on a moment's notice.

The Local Legislature is summoned to meet on Oct. 29, to consider what action will be taken in case the interim injunction, which will be argued to-day, is made perpetual.

The Militia Called Out.

OTTAWA, Oct. 22.—The Militia Department was notified yesterday that the local authorities in Manitoba have called out the militia in connection with the railway trouble

TORONTO TOPICS.

Charged with Seduction—A Suicide at Midnight—A Cold Day for a Swim.

TORONTO, October 22.—A plasterer named John Paley was charged at the Police Court Saturday with seduction under the Charlton Act. His alleged victim is a girl who is not yet 15 years of age. Paley has, it is alleged, been living with the girl's mother on Elm-street on immoral terms, and he is now charged by the girl's aunt with the above crime. He was remanded until Friday next and bail was fixed in two sureties of $1000 each.

For some time past a gang of house-strippers has been operating among the unfinished houses of the city. Detective Davis arrested John Bengeffer, Henry Williamson and William Morton on suspicion of being the guilty parties. They were arraigned at the Police Court Saturday, when Morton pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 60 days in jail. He then entered the box and gave evidence which convicted Williamson, who was remanded for sentence until to-day. Bengeffer's case will also be tried. The gang have during their campaign despoiled seventeen unfinished houses of their lead pipe. Morton told Detective Davis that they had sold one-quarter of the pipe stolen for $70.

At a late hour last night a man named Montgomery was found insensible in a lane that runs from Charlotte to Peter-street. He was taken to a house adjacent and Dr. Watson of Brock-street speedily summoned. He used his utmost efforts, but the man died in ten minutes from the effects of poison. He boarded with his brother on Brock-street.

Last week Minnie Snider, alias, Minne Sinclair got five days for a petty theft. She was released on Saturday, and before leaving carried away a pair of boots belonging to another female prisoner. She was arrested for the second theft yesterday.

On Saturday night in response to a telegram from Hamilton, the local police arrested two boys named John Tucker and James McKay as vagrants. They had run away from the Boys' Home in the Ambitious City.

On Saturday afternoon two gentlemen while standing on the Credit Valley wharf saw a man disporting himself in the bay some 50 yards from the shore. They pulled out to him in a boat and induced him to land, when he fainted and had to be taken to his home, 489 Queen west in the police ambulance. He had no clothes on when picked up, having left them on the wharf.

A RAILROAD HORROR AVERTED.

An Alleged Train Wrecker Captured in Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Springfield, Mo., says: Detective Davis, of the St. Louis and San Francisco Railway Company, has captured and lodged in jail at Van Buren, Ark., W. R. Centers, charged with attempted train wrecking. Centers' home is in the Boston Mountains, and at one point in this locality the track of the Frisco runs within four feet of a precipice 200 feet in depth. The place is known as Devil's Curve. The charge against Centers is that he had a grudge against the company, placed a steel rail across the track right at the turn, and waited for the night passenger to plunge on the rocks below. Fortunately the obstruction was discovered in time to avert an awful horror.

An engine went over this precipice some months since, and was totally destroyed, the engineer and fireman being mangled beyond recognition.

Locomotive Engineers Elect Officers.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 22.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers on Saturday decided to hold their next convention at Denver, Col., Oct. 27, 1889. The following grand officers were re-elected: Third grand engineer, S. R. Spragge, of Toronto, Canada; first grand assistant engineer, Henry C. Hays, of Cleveland, O., and second grand assistant engineer, A. M. Cavener, of San Francisco. Executive Committee—Edward Kent, of Jersey City; R. M. Clark, Denver, Col.; Edward Tinsley, Hamilton, Ont.; Wm. Johnson, Rock Island, Ill., and J. F. Regard, Atlanta, Ga. Chairman Hoge, of the Engineer's Committee, who managed the C., B. & Q. strike, presented his report, giving a detailed account of the strike from the engineers' standpoint.

Indicted for the Murder of Her Husband.

CLARION, Ia., Oct. 22. The grand jury of Wright County has returned an indictment against Mrs. Bertha Diggle for the murder of her husband, George Diggle, on May 24. Mrs. Diggle was playing with a dramatic company at the time of the alleged murder. Her husband was very much averse to her continuing on the stage, and came here to urge her to return home. After much persuasion she consented to quit the stage, but a little later recanted. It is asserted that they quarreled over the matter, and that she administered morphine to her husband in a glass of beer. Mrs. Diggle has been arrested and her case will come up for trial next Tuesday.

The Daily Review.

A CONTRAST.

Sir Richard Cartwright at Ingersoll did what the chief Liberal organ calls some "plain speaking." Sir Richard was arguing in favor of unrestricted reciprocity. His line of argument was peculiar. He claimed, but his evidence was not strong, that the people of Great Britain would and could not aid Canada in case of serious trouble with the United States. These are his words:—

"I say frankly that it would have been no kindness, but rather a cruel mockery, to have allowed us to suppose that they could render us any considerable aid or assistance, when they knew that it would in all probability be beyond their power to afford it. But that being so, it follows as a necessary consequence that when a paramount state has ceased to be able to protect a dependency, it is not in a position to exact obedience from that dependency, at any rate so far as regards the dealings of that dependency with another state from which the superior will not undertake to defend it. And that, in plain English, is the precise position which we now occupy towards England and the United States. That is the exact state of the case; that is the logic of the case; that is in accord with international law and common sense."

Sir Richard's language is plain. England, he says, could not render assistance, and that being the case it is not in a position to exact obedience from Canada. Therefore Canada should secure the good will of the United States by forming a commercial combination with it against Great Britain. Do the people of Canada like that programme? Of course Sir Richard does not pronounce in favor of annexation, but with the step he advocates taken—with all reliance on Great Britain thrown aside and a bond of union formed with the Republic—how long would it be before similar arguments would be used to coerce Canada into complete political union?

It might be pointed out that Sir Richard's logic is not so conclusive as he seems to think. Suppose his premise that England could not aid Canada were true (and it is absurd), would it follow that it could not exact obedience from Canada? Great Britain might be weaker than the Republic, and yet be stronger than the Dominion. Then it could exact obedience from Canada, unless Canada was assisted against England by the States. Is that the contingency Sir Richard looks forward to? Perhaps, however, the knight was of opinion that England would not try to force Canada into obedience and spoke of a moral right to exact obedience.

The argument of Sir Richard leads to this, that only those who believe that Great Britain could not render assistance to Canada in case of trouble, who believe that the United States is going to take action that will make aid necessary, and who are of opinion that the only way to save ourselves is to submit to the Republic's terms—should follow Sir Richard's advice.

How different is the position and language of Sir John Macdonald. Speaking at the workingmen's banquet to Mr. Chapleau the Premier said:—

"Our course as a Government, the course of Parliament, the course of our people in approving the action of Parliament and the Government will be to say 'we have made a fair treaty with you, we have ratified the treaty by the vote of our Parliament. We are anxious to extend our intercourse within the reasonable lines of that treaty. If you do not accept it we cannot help it, the responsibility rests upon your shoulders and the consequence must be that we must retire and rest on the law as it now stands on the Treaty of 1818. We demand nothing more than under that treaty we have a right to demand, because the treaty admits that the pretensions of Canada and of England were well founded. We will rest on the convention of 1818, and if you won't make a treaty, then let the law take its course; but if there be any difference as to the construction of that treat we must find some tribunal by arbitration or otherwise to settle what the treaty legally means, what the convention of 1818 is. (Loud applause.) That will be the course of the Canadian Government, and I believe it will be approved by the vast majority of the people of Canada. (Renewed cheers.) But, gentlemen, I have no fear that there will be any difficulty with the United States. It is out of the question that people almost of the same lineage, the majority of them speaking the same language, and with Christian principles actuating the majority of the people on both sides of these great lakes and inland waters. It is out of the question I say that we can go to war, that we can really have hostile action against one another in this enlightened nineteenth century—(applause)—when we can do as we did before if there be any question of law, any question of the construction of the treaty, that is, leave it to some tribunal selected by both sides to settle what these points are. (Applause.)"

A Liberal M. P. P. says that Cobden's policy of free trade in England has been very beneficial to Dakota. And he might have added that the trade policy advocated by his party would be beneficial to the United States, but injurious to Canada.

Speaking of the choice of the people of the United States for the Presidential offices, who is the man? (Perhaps we should follow the style of the Kingston News and put in an italic guide to the point of that joke.)

A recent speech in which a gloomy opinion of the future of Canada was expressed was made at Ingersoll, not by Ingersoll, as some might think. Sir Richard Cartwright was the speaker, and his doubts of the future are political, not theological.

THE JESUITS' ESTATE.

It is Said the Pope Has Decided on the Allotment of the $400,000.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—It is related on very good authority that Hon. Mr. Mercier has received a communication from Cardinal Rampolla, Papal Secretary of State, saying the Pope has given a decided answer on the allotment of the $400,000, voted by the Legislature for the settlement of the Jesuits' estate questions; that about three-fourths is to revert to the Jesuits themselves, Cardinal Taschereau and Laval University receiving but one-fourth.

The Montreal Sensation.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—The coroner's jury in the inquest on the body of the young French Canadian girl, Emma Geneau, supposed to have been outraged by eight men, was sworn in Saturday morning, and, after viewing the body the inquest was adjourned till to-day to allow a post mortem to be made. There were marks of bruises on each side of her body and her breasts are black and blue. On the left side the bruises are very pronounced, as if someone had handled her violently.

The C. P. R. Detroit Extension.

Windsor, Oct. 22.—The meeting between the council and the Canadian Pacific Railroad officials will be held some day this week. The general opinion is that the road should be offered every reasonable inducement, but that fifteen years' exemption from taxation is too long. If a bonus is granted it will be with the agreement that the division shops be located here.

A Convicted Murderer Attempts Suicide.

Jersey City, N.J., Oct. 22.—Patrick Coffey, the recently convicted murderer, Saturday morning obtained a pocket-knife and severed an artery in the left arm. He lost about two quarts of blood. His condition is critical, but he will probably recover. He wrote a long letter, calling the witnesses against him perjurers, and declared that he did not kill Agnes Smith wilfully.

Murdered by Deserters.

St. Louis, Oct. 22.—Two soldiers at Jefferson Barracks, under arrest for desertion, escaped last night after making a deadly assault on Sentries Kennedy and Welch. The deserters were Thomas F. Lynch and a recruit named McCurdy. Sentry Kennedy was cut down with an axe in the hands of Lynch, while McCurdy beat Welch into insensibility. The men will die.

The Rand-Avery Company Goes Under.

Boston, Oct. 22.—The Rand-Avery Company, the largest printing house in this city, assigned Saturday to Nathaniel A. Bradlee. Their liabilities are about $140,000 and their assets are estimated at over $400,000.

In Brief and to the Point.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

$10,000 Stock of Boots at 40c. on the Dollar.

An upheavel taken place in leather and the boot and shoe trade shattered to pieces. On Saturday we are going to run a special Boot Sale. Good Goods and Low Prices have gained for us the admiration of close buyers. Our 25c. Boots have completely demoralized the high priced dealers. One man says Goughs are selling below cost, so we are! That is we sell lots of Goods below the first cost of manufacture and still make a living profit. Some people would naturally like to know how we do it. "Here is the Secret." A wholesale man gets hard up, wants money, must have it. He knows Goughs are spot cash buyers. They send for the Wonderful Cheap Men. They arrive on the scene. The wholesale man says, Gough what will you give for 300 cases of these boots; Goughs look them over carefully, find them good desirable selling lines and make a bid of 40c. on the dollar; after hard fighting we get them. They arrive in Peterborough, are sold at 50c. on the dollar, we therefore sell them at half price and make a living profit for ourselves. These are a few of the many reasons why posterity has raised up and christened us GOUGHS, the Tirele s, Sleepless, Wide-Awake Boot Men, GOUGHS, the Kings of Clothiers, GOUGHS, the Original Agitators of Small Profits, GOUGHS, the Wonders of the 19th Century. THE PUBLIC WON'T BE DECEIVED BY THE HIGH PRICE CLOTHING CORMORANTS.

We are carrying the war into Africa. Our Solid Brigades of Overcoats, Regiments of Suits and Battalions of Pants with Companies of Vests and Underclothing, which we have deployed on the field so skillfully during the month, have terrorized the enemy, routed him at all points and carried the fortifications on the run. Our Guns, double-shotted with Low Prices have thrown cannister and grape into their ranks and scattered their forces which only existed on paper.

Our Victory is complete. An agonized wail sent up is a token of Surrender to the inevitable fortunes of war. WYATT & TURNER have carried the day and our enterprise has forever broken the yoke of High Prices that has held the County.

We hurl back defiance at the Clothing Sharks who would grasp at the right of an Honest and Pushing Firm to live and do Trade. The man who wants to buy Clothing don't care a continental whether it is bought wholesale in Montreal, Toronto, Omemee or Pontypool. What the purchaser wants is value. It don't interest him whether the Goods are sold from a plate glass palace or from a clapboard shanty with 7x9 windows. What he wants is Value and Low Prices. It does'nt concern the buyer to know whether the Goods were brought in by rail, steamboat, waggon, oxcart or on foot. What he wants is Value, Low Prices and Square Dealing. He does'nt care whether its rain or shine, hot or cold, late or early as long as he gets the Best Value, the Best Goods, the Best Treatment, the Best Satisfaction and he gets all these at WYATT & TURNER'S. Our Stock is our own, bought with honest money and we sell for as low a profit as we can do trade and live. Our competitors may howl and squirm, twist and wriggle but they may as well submit to the inevitable that WYATT & TURNER are doing, and will keep doing, the Clothing Trade of the County. TEA!

A Chinese writer says: "To make good tea it is an old custom to use running water boiled over a lively fire. That from springs in the hills is the best, and river water next, while well water is the worst. Do not boil the water too hastily; as, first it begins to sparkle like crab's eyes, then, somewhat like fishes' eggs, and lastly it boils up like pearls innumerable springing and waving about. This is the way to boil the water."

If you like a splendid cup of tea try one of the many brands in stock. The price varies with the quality. Splendid Teas at low prices. Better Teas a trifle higher. The best not dear and well worth the moderate price asked.

Apples! Apples! Apples!

Messrs. Elliott & Tierney have purchased the entire choice crop of apples, the product of Mr. G. W. Hatton's "Walkerfield orchard" consisting of Snow, Spitzenburgh, H. Pippins, Northern Spy, Beauties of the West, etc. All hand picked and in prime order. Call and taste. Prices reasonable. d89

Levelling up the Road.

A gang of men with teams and scrappers were at work to-day levelling up the road at the corner of Smith and Benson-sts., which has been in a bad state from the building of the Chemong Lake road. A sidewalk will be laid and pedestrians will find the walking slightly improved when this is done.

Death at the Hospital.

Mrs. Bell, wife of George Bell, a colored man residing in the north end, died rather suddenly at the hospital last night. The deceased woman was admitted to the hospital in August last and was suffering from heart disease, which was the cause of death. The body was removed to the vault by the husband and was interred to-day.

Not a Common Sight.

The unusual spectacle of a respectable looking woman, probably about forty years of age in a most beastly state of intoxication was witnessed on George-st. this afternoon. During her walk down the street she fell several times, and at the corner of Hunter and George-st. she collapsed entirely. Constable Adams took her in charge, and, as she has no home in town, he was obliged to lock her up.

A Pleasant Event.

A pleasant event will take place at St. Luke's church Ashburnham this evening, when Rev. Mr. Bradshaw, the rector, will be presented with an address by his congregation. Mr. Bradshaw has been given a leave of absence as he is in poor health and will leave for an extended trip shortly, and the members of his church wished to express their high esteem and appreciation of his labors among them before he takes his leave, which he will do on Wednesday

It Should not Have Been.

Two females in a state of semi-intoxication gave a most unseemly exhibition on George-st. yesterday afternoon. They drove a livery rig and seemed to be experimenting as to how near they could come to upsetting the buggy without actually accomplishing that feat. They are both known around town and do not bear very enviable reputations. They were out on the rampage again in the evening.

The marvellous results from the use of St. Leon Water in Rheumatism, Constipation and all diseases arising from a torpid liver is testified to by hundreds of grateful drinkers of the water. Courage Recognized.

When Officer Stewart, of the police force, came on duty on Saturday he found a good overcoat waiting to be donned, with a memorandum attached explaining that it was a present to him from the Messrs. Gough Bros. Constable Stewart's courage in driving the burglar out of their store, and his earnest endeavor to arrest him, were recognized by Goughs, and as a token of their appreciation of his devotion to duty the wonderful cheap men asked him to accept the overcoat.

has not been held for some time as the clearing out sale at J. Best's stand, George-st. Everything is cut down in price as a clearance must be effected. You will miss many bargains if you delay. Take the opportunity. Winter underclothing at cost. Dress goods at low figures. Skeletons and Bones.

The men who have been engaged in opening a ballast pit about two miles the other side of Hastings on the Grand Junction, have been making some ghastly finds. They had only been digging in the pit about three days when they began to unearth human bones. Quite a number of skeletons were struck and a dozen or more human skulls were were dug out, together with the other bones which compose a human frame. Many speculations have been advanced as to how this colony of skeletons came to be where they were found.

Talking 500 Miles.

The Buffalo Evening News reports that the new long distance telephone, which is soon to be put in operation there, was tested by the officers and directors of the Bell Telephone Company on the 14th inst. The connections had been put up at 5 p. m., and communication was at once opened between Boston, Springfield, New York, Troy and Buffalo. The wires worked well, and conversations between the most distant points could be as easily carried on as if both parties were within a block or two of each other in the city. The line belongs to the American Telephone and Telegraph Company of New York, and is 800 miles in length, going through Troy down to New York thence to Boston via Springfield, Mass. This test shows that the problem of long distance telephoning has been solved and all interested were congratulated on its success.

A Chapter from Elijah's Life.

Mayor Stevenson to-day received a letter from Mr. E. W. Murphy, senior Protestant teacher in the Ontario Reformatory for boys. Mr. Murphy says that since the conviction of Farley for the murder of Simon Elijah he wished to write to some one desirous of having the severity of Farley's sentence mitigated and place him in possession of certain facts in Elijah's life which might have some effect in procuring the exercise of executive clemency. Seeing the Mayor's name mentioned in connection with the deputation to Ottawa, he wrote to him. The murdered man, Mr. Murphy says, was an inmate of the Reformatory, but proving totally incorrigible he was sent to the Penitentiary to serve the balance of his sentence. It was either, he thinks, in the fall of 1879 or the beginning of 1880 that Elijah left for Kingston. He knew nothing of Elijah's career after leaving Kingston, but judging from his character as shown in the Reformatory he thought it would not be a good one.

ZION.

Correspondence of the Review.

ROOTS.—The root crop appears to be very good this season, especially potatoes, which is not a poor sign for the winter.

BUTCHER.—A new butcher has appeared about Zion. All orders will be delivered correctly.

SOCIAL BALL.—A very social time was had in the Ashburnham hall by the farmers of this side, which was given by Mr. R. Hallihan, our very energetic chairman, the committee all having a badge to represent their responsible position. Another one may be expected at any time on the same principle.

WEDDING BELLS.—We congratulate Mrs. R. Lang and Mr. Jas. Ruthford, of Zion, on their wedding, which occurred on Tuesday, Oct. 2nd. The presents were of a very fine quality, and costly. A chirivari was the next on the programme. A large number of the boys disguised themselves and proceeded to show him the road home.

ROADS.—If the Keene correspondent is afraid of getting blockaded with snow in the fall, caused by those fences south of Mr. Jos. Redmond's, we will have to remove them, so the snow will get a clean sweep. The fences are left in that position to keep intoxicated people out of the stumps.

It is palatable, efficient, and can be tolerated by almost anyone, especially where cod liver oil itself cannot be borne." Put up in 50 cent and $1 size.

THE BLUE VASE.

By S. BARING GOULD.

CHAPTER I.

HE year 1744 found Frederick the Great of Prussia in Bohemia, and Prague capitulated to him. In November he fought a battle against the Saxons at Hermansdorf, beat them, and marched to Dresden, and on Christmas day, in the year 1745. Austria and Saxony made peace with him, and Silesia was given up to Frederick.

Now we have nothing to do with the political history of the time, but we have been obliged to mention the above facts to explain how it was that Frederick the Great came to Dresden, and how the chain of circumstances ensued connected with the Blue Vase that gives its title to our tale.

When the Prussian king was at Dresden he went to Meissen to see the porcelain factory. This factory belonged to the king of Saxony, and the secret of the art was hedged about with the most severe, even Draconian, laws, and the most cruel punishments were threatenend against such as divulged the secret. The secret had only been discovered in 1710 how to make pure white transparent porcelain, and the royal factory was established in 1711. The prices paid for the articles that issued from it were high. In 1720, the court of Vienna, by bribery, induced one of the workmen to escape from Meissen and carry the precious secret to the capital by the Danube. And now, in 1745, Frederick, as conqueror, entered the factory and watched the workmen engaged in modeling, burning, painting, gilding.

Frederick was not a man to neglect his opportunity, and he at once made a demand that some of the master workmen and of the best artists should be delivered over to him, that he might establish a royal porcelain factory of his own at Berlin. Among the former was Wegeli, who became the actual master and founder of the Berlin porcelain, and among the latter was a young girl named Sophie Mansfeld. While Frederick was going over the factory at Meissen, he was shown some beautiful vases painted with landscapes and pastoral subjects, so fresh, charming and quaint that he asked the name of the artist, and when told it, stipulated that she—for the painter was Sophie Mansfeld—should accompany the detachment which he engaged to come to Berlin, and make and paint porcelain for the replenishing of his private purse.

At this very time, 1745, the Chelsea pottery works were established, and one of the makers, or foremen, of the Chelsea works, a man called Aldbury, was then in Berlin. He had been sent over, perhaps, to endeavor to secure some of the workmen for the English establishment. In this he failed. Frederick knew he was in Berlin, and had his movements watched. He went further; he endeavored to bribe Aldbury to divulge some of the secrets of the Chelsea factory. Whether he succeeded in this cannot be said, but Aldbury remained in Berlin longer than he needed, and on very good terms with the king, and was allowed to visit the royal factory. One day the king determined to inspect the establishment, and he invited Aldbury and others to accompany him. Among these others was a young Polish nobleman, Augustus Lazinka, who had been educated in the Prussian military school at Potsdam and had entered the service of the king; another was the Count des Louragais, who was interested in the Sevres manufacture. Any one who knows much of china, and has seen some of the earliest productions of the Berlin factory, will know that they were not the less or other kind, not by any means equal to those turned out at Meissen. The king saw this, when he looked at what had recently been burned, and he was angry. He hated Wegeli, scolded the workmen, the painters, the burners; nothing pleased him; he was vexed to have such poor results to show to the Count des Louragais and Aldbury.

When he came to the table where Sophie Mansfeld was painting, "Hein!" said he roughly, "what is the meaning of this? Do you suppose I will put up with daubs? Has his majesty of Saxony paid you to supply me with bad work?"

"Perhaps, your majesty," suggested Louragais, "the girl has left a sweetheart behind her, and so is working here without her heart."

"What, what, sweetheart!" exclaimed Frederick; "a workwoman has no business to lose her heart. What do you mean? That a good artiste is to abandon her profession in which she excels, to run after a man, and become his wife, and slice sausages, and stir sauerkraut, and have babes, and wash and mind the babies, for a husband! I won't hear of it. It is nonsense. Go on with your painting, and do it better, or I will dock your salary, and—if I find your lover—have him shot, or shut up in Spandau."

The king was talking with Louragais, and young Lazinka was behind. The girl was pretty, she was in distress, and he had a heart to admire beauty and pity affliction; so he ventured to take her hand and say a word of encouragement.

"His majesty did not want to be unkind. His majesty is peremptory. Was mademoiselle very unhappy?"

She was away from home, her relations, her friends. Her voice faltered as she spoke.

"But," said Lazinka, "you can return, if you are unhappy in Berlin."

"Pardon," she answered, raising her beautiful eyes; "I cannot return. The gracious sir does not remember that I am a porcelain worker."

"How can I forget it, when I see you engaged on painting a vase?"

"But the gracious sir forgets that porcelain artists are not free. They cannot go where they like, they cannot call themselves their own. They are like the old serfs—absolutely under the control of their master, the crown."

"Do you mean, mademoiselle, to say you cannot seek your home and see your relatives?"

"No, sir, I am bound to remain here. If I attempted to leave I should be imprisoned."

"But, why?"

"The secret has to be preserved. I might carry it elsewhere."

"Then Berlin is your Siberia!"

"We are under perpetual police supervision. If the least suspicion be aroused that we are meditating escape; if we meet with persons suspected of seeking to draw the secret from us, we are arrested and severely punished."

"Good heavens! And you can never leave?"

"We know the secret, and as long as life lasts are dangerous. We might betray it. No, we can only leave for our graves."

"This is slavery, rank slavery!" exclaimed the young Pole. "Did the king bring you here?"

"His most gracious majesty? Yes."

"But this tyranny. To act thus is—is to act the tyrant."

He spoke incautiously, he was carried away by his feelings; but he was startled by the king's harsh voice: "What, what! Who is tyrant. Eh, eh!"

Lazinka stood silent, covered with confusion.

"Sire," said the Count des Louragais, with promptitude, "Love is a tyrant who lays hold of a young and inflammable cavalier and draws him from his duty to your sacred majesty to cast him in chains at the feet of mademoiselle; who—see, your majesty—with her inimitable pencil, has put a touch of fire into his eyes, and a brushful of carnation into his cheek."

"Humph!" said Frederick, and went on. Lazinka followed, thankful to the Frenchman for his timely intervention.

CHAPTER II.

Young Lazinka could not forget the pale, sad face of Sophie Mansfeld; and when, a few days later, he met the Englishman, Aldbury, he asked him about the girl. Aldbury had some acquaintance with the circumstances, as he had made friends with Wegeli; and a good deal of talk had been roused in the factory by the king's visit, and his reprimand of the maiden. Sophie was a girl of irreproachable character, the daughter of a pastor in the Erz Gebirge, the eldest of a large family, and as the parents were not well off, she had been constrained to earn her own livelihood.

"It is too cruel that Mlle. Mansfeld should be retained here in enforced exile," said Lazinka, who thought more of the girl's sorrows than of the diffusion of porcelain works and the profits that flowed into princely pockets.

"There are lots of cruelties that can't be helped," said Aldbury.

"I think," said the young officer, "if she were to draw up a humble petition to his majesty, stating the hardness of her case, he might listen to it. He is good at heart, and just."

"Who would present it?"

"I would."

A few days later the inconsiderate, hot headed, warm hearted young man actually did present to Frederick the Great a memorial from Sophie Mansfeld, entreating permission to be allowed to return to her home in the Saxon mountains. The king took it from his hand, grunted, cast a glance down the page, turned an angry eye at the youth and put the paper in his pocket.

That evening there was a reception at the house of the Countess Lazinka, who was in Berlin, and the king graciously attended. The countess possessed some fine china and some specimens of the Russian manufacture. The king was curious about these latter, and took them up and looked at their marks.

"Humph!" he said, "unless my men work better I shall not allow any figure on their productions—not the Brandenburg eagle—no, nor a B crowned, nothing but Wegeli's initial; perhaps, if our porcelain becomes famous, I may allow the orb and scepter to stamp it, not otherwise. I don't know," he said, roughly, "but that Wegeli's W may pass for badly drawn crossed swords, as on certain Dresden pots." He looked sulkily at some fine Meissen china. "When my factory is in working order," he said, "I shall put a prohibitive duty on all Dresden and other china, and every one who is a good citizen and a patriot and loves his king will buy Berlin porcelain."

As the king spoke no one else uttered a sound, all remained in respectful silence and attention. Frederick looked round, and saw the young man, the son of his hostess, and said, with a significant glance, "I cannot understand how any one with respect for the country and his sovereign can wish to deprive them of the services of the best artists and workmen." Then with his elbow, accidentally, he knocked over a magnificent and enormously costly vase, which fell on the floor, and was dashed to a thousand pieces. The king was himself a little disconcerted; not so the countess, who, with perfect readiness, said: "Sire, you do me too much honor."

"Honor, how so?"

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies; at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what inducements may be offered we never allow our selves to be undersold.

NEWS OF THE DOMINION.

THE RAILWAY TROUBLE IN THE PRAIRIE PROVINCE.

The Galt Poisoning Case—No one but Officers of the Law Allowed to Visit the Boyd Woman—The Christian Conference.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 23.—No attempt was made to cross the Canadian Pacific Railway track yesterday, the Northern Pacific and Manitoba men, evidently acting under instructions, merely laying the rails up to the other company's right of way. Here they found a long high fence erected and a second locomotive planted directly in their way. If they had attempted to cross the Canadian Pacific Railway had 200 men on guard, but the best of good nature prevailed on both sides, it being understood that nothing would be done.

It is stated that this action was caused by Governor Schultz advising the members of the Government not to commit illegal acts.

It is also learned that while the Government contemplate calling the Legislature together it has not been actually decided upon as reported, nor will a decision be reached until the judgment of the court, which is expected to-day, is ascertained.

The case was argued before Justice Taylor yesterday.

The troops are still under orders, but it is evident they will not be needed, at least at present.

Attorney-General Martin, who is charged by The Free Press and The Call with being the cause of the trouble, said yesterday that it was thoroughly understood with Sir John that the road should be built. He maintains a firm stand and suggests an appeal to England with a request, if necessary, that Manitoba be made a Crown Colony.

CLOSE IN THE BERLIN JAIL.

Hannah Boyd Will be Strictly Watched Until Trial Day.

BERLIN, Oct. 23.—There are no later developments in the Galt poisoning case. Miss Hannah Boyd is in the jail here and will remain there till Monday next, when she will be brought before the magistrate for preliminary trial.

The evidence against the prisoner is not such as to prove that she sent the poisoned chocolates or that she had a hand in their manufacture. The arrest is, however, considered important in view of its being believed that the prisoner knows something about the mystery, and that through information she can give the guilty parties may be brought to answer for their fiendish crime.

In the meantime the closest watch is being kept over the prisoner. The sheriff and jailer have received strict instructions to allow no one but officers of the law to visit her.

Miss Boyd formerly lived in Hamilton, and her parents live in Cannon-street east of that city.

THE CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE.

Opening Meeting at Montreal—A Number of Addresses Made.

MONTREAL, Oct. 23.—The general Christian conference under the auspices and direction of the Montreal Branch of the Evangelical Alliance met last night in Crescent-street Church, Sir Wm. Dawson presiding. Addresses were delivered by the president, Rev. Dr. Shaw of Wesleyan Theological College, Rev. Dr. Burns of Halifax, Wm. E. Dodge, President of the Evangelical Alliance of the United States and Rev. J. Wilkie, missionary from India.

After the meeting a largely attended conversazione was held.

Attempted Suicide.

HAMILTON, Oct. 23.—On Saturday a tramp from Toronto by the name of McKay, who is minus all his fingers save two, and is the happy possessor of 1¼ feet and 1½ ears, decided to offer up all that was left of him to the tender mercies of the Hamilton and Dundas Railway juggernaut, and proceeded to dispose of himself upon the track with his head upon the rail. When the train came along the cowcatcher attached to the engine brushed him off, and his suicidal intentions were rewarded only with a severe cut on the forehead. His wound was dressed and he was then taken before the Mayor, who sent him down for 60 days.

A Safe Cracked.

HARROWSMITH, Oct. 23.—Early Sunday morning the store of Chas. Stewart was entered by burglars, the safe blown open and about $300 in cash and postage stamps obtained. The robbers are supposed to be a band of ex-convicts who have been living around this locality as tramps. There are good prospects of effecting their capture.

Look Out for Counterfeits.

WINDSOR, Oct. 23.—A number of counterfeit $10 bills on the Bank of Commerce are in circulation. They are said to be clever imitations, but the shading of the letters comprising the word "Ten" on the face of the note is unlike that of the genuine one.

The St. Catharines Mystery.

ST. CATHARINES, Oct. 23.—The inquest on the body of the colored infant found some days ago in the woods by the edge of the canal was resumed here yesterday, and the jury returned a verdict that they were unable to determine whether death occurred before or after the child was placed where it was found. Mrs. Brown, who was held in custody as the mother of the child, was discharged and stated her intention of bringing an action against Truman Pier for seduction.

THE WHITECHAPEL FIEND.

What the Bloodhounds Have Done—The Little Reporter and His Small Dog.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—While big bloodhounds and policemen have been practising and doing nothing, a very small dog from Tilbury has been gaining glory for himself and a little local reporter who owns him. The reporter confident in his dog, took him to the cellar in Whitehall where the trunk of the murdered woman had been found, and together they soon unearthed one of the woman's missing legs. The police, very jealous, succeeded after much trouble in getting one of their bloodhounds in the dark cellar, but there he would only lie down and howl, so he had to be dragged out again as a failure. But though they have failed as detectives, there is reason to believe that the bloodhounds have succeeded in frightening the criminal, which is more than Scotland Yard can boast of. The wildest fairy tales are daily told of what bloodhounds can do in the way of tracking. A murderer, particularly if an ignorant man, though ready to defy an army of policemen, might tremble at the picture of a bloodhound cantering slowly but surely behind him on a race to the gallows. The three weeks' interval of rest which the murderer has hitherto allowed himself between murders has just expired and there has been no fresh feed of blood to keep up the fiend's reputation.

THE WORK OF TRAIN WRECKERS.

ELMIRA, Oct. 23.—The Third Ward Literary Club, a social organization of this city, went on an excursion to Park Station on the Elmira, Cortland, and Northern Railroad, leaving this city Sunday morning at 8 o'clock. When eleven miles north of this city, and while running about thirty miles round a curve, the engineer, Thomas Durant, discovered an open switch, but before he could do more than reverse his engine the locomotive and baggage car plunged into a creek. Durant was found clinging to the lever. He received a bad shaking up. P. Butler, the fireman, escaped with slight bruises by jumping. D. Herrick, the baggage master, and John Travers, in charge of a number of beer barrels, clams, and other edibles, went down with the car and were buried under its contents. They were taken out and found to have received several cuts and bruises. The four passenger cars were not derailed, but the passengers were thrown about and bruised. Another train was made up and most of the excursionists resumed the trip. The switch was left open by a train wrecker, and the company will spare no pains to find the guilty party.

STABBED HIS SCHOOL TEACHER.

Eleven-Year-Old Albert Lange Attacks Miss Lena Smith.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 23.—Miss Lena Smith, a teacher in the colored public school at Flushing, L. I., is confined to her home in the village suffering from the effects of wounds inflicted upon her by a colored pupil in her class named Albert Lange. Miss Smith was unable to attend school yesterday. Lange, who does not bear a very good reputation, although only 11 years old, attacked his teacher with a cheap pocketknife while she was in the act of chastising him.

He thrust the blade twice in her right leg, inflicting one ugly deep gash, and then in the endeavor of Miss Smith to ward off the attack, he drove the knife blade into her hand. Her screams brought the other pupils to her assistance, just as Lange was lunging at her throat. The boy then rushed out of school. Miss Smith's wounds were at once attended to.

"RETRACT OR DIE."

A Slanderer Shot by Irate Editor Congrove in Texas.

CISCO, Texas, Oct. 23.—J. L. Congrove, editor of The Cisco Round-Up, has shot J. G. Thomas, City Marshal, in the left arm, shattering it so badly that amputation was necessary. Thomas had, it was alleged, circulated slanderous reports concerning the editor's wife.

When accused of this he assaulted the husband, who is a small man, and chased him to his office.

Yesterday Congrove procured a pistol, sought out Thomas and gave him his choice of retraction or death. Thomas refused to retract and was at once shot.

STRIKERS SEEK REVENGE.

They Break Every Window in a Kansas City Man's House.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 23.—A number of striking switchmen, formerly employed on the Kansas City, St. Joseph and Council Bluffs Railroad, surrounded the house of Edward Dore, at No. 1314 Liberty-street, yesterday afternoon, and broke every window in the house. Several pistol shots were fired. Dore was injured by a rock that struck him on the arm.

A squad of police arrived on the scene, but too late to make any arrests. Bad feeling was engendered by Dore's having employed a number of switchmen who have taken the places of the strikers.

150 Dead and Wounded Identified.

ROME, Oct. 23.—A despatch from Potenza says that there were 400 passengers on the train which was crushed by a land slide a few days ago. One hundred and fifty dead and wounded have been identified. Many of the victims are unknown.

Scores continue to be unearthed. Soldiers are working hard at the wreck. The work is impeded by cold and snow. An entire theatrical company was killed. Several headless and armless corpses have been found in the neighboring river.

A mother who had been driven mad by the catastrophe refused to release from her embrace two dead children. A young priest was buried for two hours and when extricated it was found that his hair had turned white. An entire family consisting of six persons was killed.

Two carriages in which were thirty carabineers sustained no damage. The carabineers were able to assist in extricating the victims. All the officials attached to the train were killed. It is estimated that 200,000 cubic metres of earth fell upon the line. Many of the passengers who escaped with their lives left the scene immediately after the accident. It is therefore impossible as yet to tell the exact number of the killed.

Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Weds Dr. Ward.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 23.—Miss Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, authoress and poetess, was married very quietly at Gloucester to the Rev. Dr. Herbert D. Ward, who is connected with The New York Independent. The ceremony took place at Miss Phelps' summer cottage, and was performed by her brother, Prof. Austin Phelps, of the Andover Theological Seminary. The fact of the marriage was known only to a few, and there were no guests present. Mr. Ward is an enthusiastic yachtsman, owner of the sloop Siva, and spent the summer months at Gloucester.

It Was J. A. Turcotte.

OWEN SOUND, Oct. 23.—It has been discovered from letters in the trunk of the man found dead on the beach last week that his proper name was J. A. Turcotte, and it further appears that he had been in the employ of the Manitoba Government in connection with the Public Works Department up to August.

THE CASE OF THE TIMES.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL WEBSTER BEGINS HIS OPENING.

An Impression Said to be Left by the Speech That There is no Absolute Legal Proof of the Charges.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—In opening The Times' case yesterday before the commission appointed to investigate the charges against the Irish members of Parliament, Attorney-General Webster said it would be shown that many of the men mentioned in The Times particularly had personally taken part in crimes of the worst kind, while with scarcely any exception the persons mentioned had never denounced outrages or crimes. Owing to the failure of the National League to comply with the commissioner's order regarding the discovery of bank books The Times' counsel had been unable to shape their case as they had expected to, still even without the bank books they would prove that money had been paid by the league to men appointed for the actual commission of acts of violence and crimes. Some of the men thus appointed were connected with the American league and some were provided with money from funds obtained in Ireland. From the outset of the Land League's existence and since the formation of the National League, Mr. Parnell and his colleagues had been intimately associated with Irish-Americans who were advocates of dynamite. Remarkable evidence would be produced to prove this connection and to show also that an extraordinary number of untraced crimes were due to the incitement of the league.

Referring to letters implicating Mr. Parnell and others in crimes, Mr. Webster promised to produce before the commission all the letters which had been mentioned in the trial of the O'Donnell case. He then went on to recount the history of the league's connection with agrarian agitators and showed how they were related to Fenianism. He recited instances where Davitt, Devoy, Walsh, Egan, Brennan, and Matthew Harris had held communication with the Parnellite party and declared that they were linked to that party by common aim and interests.

Here a recess was taken for luncheon.

When the court reassembled the Attorney-General resumed, quoting from speeches of Nationalist leaders made from the year 1879 onwards.

When the court adjourned for the day Mr. Webster was apparently only a small way advanced in the presentation of his case. The vagueness and general character of his statement left an impression that The Times has no absolute legal proof of the truth of its charges. Instead of producing evidence that Mr. Parnell and his associates were accomplices before or after the fact, with the Phœnix Park murderers, he will attempt to justify The Times' accusations by raking up outrages attributed to members of the league and trying to connect them with Parnellites.

Mr. Webster seemed to be hampered by a dread of committing himself beyond the most cautious statement. He spoke in his worst form, prosing along in dreary monotone without the least display of rhetoric. There was an utter absence of points in his statement, and his exposition of The Times' case was a generally disconnected one.

The Trouble In Hayti.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Stephen Preston, the Haytian Minister here, has received a cable despatch dated Port au Prince, Oct. 17, announcing the election on that day by the National Assembly of General Francis Denys Legitime as President of the Republic. Cape Hayti, Gonaives, and St. Marc having revolted against the Government, have been closed to foreign commerce and a naval force is before said ports to enforce the decree of the Government against all vessels endeavoring to evade the same.

Mrs. H. B. Stowe's Condition.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 23.—A private letter received in this city from Mrs. Isabella Beecher Hooker, sister of Harriet Beecher Stowe, says: "I have been at my sister's house for two days, watching by her bedside. Mrs. Stowe rallied Wednesday and, though feeble again, it is quite possible she may continue with us for some days longer, perhaps even weeks, as her hold on life is remarkable."

YOUNG MRS. BLAINE TO SUE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Gen. Martin T. McMahon, Gen. Roger A. Pryor and Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, counsel for Mrs. James G. Blaine, jr., are about to begin a suit at the instance of their client against her husband's parents, ex-Secretary James G. Blaine and Mrs. Blaine, for damages in the sum of $100,000 for alienating her husband's affections. Young Mrs. Blaine does not sue for divorce for she is a rigid Catholic, and her ideas on the subject of divorce are in accordance with the well-known rules of the church. Besides, those who have the authority to speak for her say that she is still attached to her husband, and, above all things, desires a reconciliation with him. She says that her husband's parents have come between herself and him, so that he has deserted her and refused to answer her letters and telegrams imploring him to send her some token of his affection, and, in a word, he cast her off.

MURDERED AT THE CHURCH DOOR.

COLUMBIA, S.C., Oct. 23.—At 11.30 o'clock Saturday night people living in the vicinity of Trinity Episcopal Church heard three pistol shots. That part of the city is orderly and the moon made it as bright as day. No significance was attached to the shooting until Sunday morning when the sexton, going to open the church, found the dead body of Claudia Harris, a degraded woman, at the church door. Three bullets had entered the breast, one penetrating the heart. The powder had ignited the bosom of the woman's dress and burned it away.

The murder was committed within ten steps of the street corner and within twenty yards of occupied houses. There was no outcry of any kind and the first shot must have been fatal. The police are utterly at sea. There is no clue to the murderer and no motive for the crime can be conjectured except possibly a desire to imitate the Whitechapel murderer.

BIG JAIL DELIVERY.

Three Murderers and Nineteen Thieves Escape From Prison.

SPOKANE FALLS, W.T., Oct. 23.—A big jail delivery occurred here last week by which twenty-one out of twenty-eight prisoners escaped. The cells in the large cage were left unlocked and the prisoners cut a hole in the cage, seized and bound the guard, gagged him and locked him in the jail.

Seven prisoners confined for petty offences declined to escape. Among the escaped are three murderers and the others are thieves.

The Shelburne Election.

HALIFAX, Oct. 23.—Gen. John Wimburn Laurie (Con.) was elected in Shelburne to fill the vacancy in the Dominion House caused by his unseating, by 45 majority over Mr. Congdon (Lib.)

THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

MR. THOMAS SHAW, who has been appointed professor of agriculture and manager of the Ontario Experimental Farm, was publisher of an agricultural paper and published a valedictory in a recent issue. Mr. Shaw's appointment has generally been conceded to be a good one, but has he not been guilty of treason to Liberal policy in this valedictory? He actually has the hardihood to say that the farm should be made to pay its way! And more, that if those in charge do not make it do so they should step down and out! Why have the Liberal papers refrained from slaughtering Mr. Shaw? We have been told that anyone who criticized the management of the experimental farm was an enemy of agricultural education. When it was pointed out that the farm was not paying its way, that the accounts were not kept as they should be, and that there was a screw loose somewhere, the answer was that only an enemy of agricultural education and of the farmer would want to investigate the affairs of the college. Yet the new professor comes forward and says the farm should pay its way, though it did not; that it should be a model farm, though it was not. Has the Ontario Government appointed an enemy of agricultural education to the vacant professorship? Or was the answer to former criticism all buncombe?

WHEN DOCTORS DISAGREE.

WHEN doctors disagree books and pamphlets are published and hard names and serious charges are hurled at each other. That has been the case in the disagreement among the physicians of the late Emperor Frederick of Germany. The dispute has become so fierce, and such ill-will is being engendered by it, that fears have been expressed that it may lead to strained relations between the two nations, England and Germany. Surely that is nonsense. It is true that Sir M. Mackenzie has been attacked; it is very probably true he has been libelled. But that is a personal matter between him and German associates in the case. The suggestion that the doctors should meet and fight a duel was approved of by Dr. Bergmann, but Englishmen have dropped that savage habit of settling differences by shooting or slashing each other, and this unseemly quarrel will not be made more unseemly by a duel being fought by the two physicians. The German people are said to be strongly on the side of the physicians of that nation in the quarrel. No doubt many in that country are. But are the people taking any side in the dispute? Scarcely. The pamphlets and the books were not written for the people. Ordinary mortals would retire weary after wrestling with a few pages of medical terms and what they do not understand they will hardly be enthusiastic about.

Great Sport and Fine Game.

One of the hunting parties who went out last week returned this morning, and the fine trophies of the chase which they brought back with them are evidences of the great sport they enjoyed. The party was composed of "Capt." R. M. Roy, and Messrs. T. Fitzgerald, T. E. Fitzgerald and M. O'Brien. They had four days and a half hunting and show for the sport three handsome buck, which are beautiful deer, and averaged 214, 191 and 112 pounds respectively. The party also had great luck with the hook and line and succeeded in hooking 170 fine mountain trout. The party are jubilant over their great luck, which will probably not be beaten by any of the larger parties now out.

About a Case of Diphtheria.

Dr. Halliday was summoned to appear at the Police Court this morning charged with having neglected to report to the authorities a case of diphtheria which he was attending. The case in question was that of a little child of Mr. George Flack, of Edinburgh-st. The doctor explained at the day Court this morning that on Thurslast he had pronounced it a case of diphtheria, had told the neighbors and intended to report the case to the police, but on Friday he saw the house placarded, and he thought that was all that was necessary or that could be done. However, he intended to see the police on Saturday, but he was so much engaged with his business that it slipped his memory. The magistrate dismissed the case. Acting under orders from the Ontario Government, it is the intention of the health officers to prosecute all offenders against this law.

Shall the C.P.R. Pay?

The question as to whether the C.P.R. authorities shall be allowed to use for their own use and emolument one of the islands in the river will have to be settled. If it was a case that they proposed to scoop out and fill up the embankment with one of the sawdust accumulations no dissenting voice would be raised. But gravel is gravel. Filling is filling, as the citizen who proposes to raise the level of his lot can easily find out. It is not often that something of value can be had for nothing but as near to it as the phenomenon can occur is the way gough bros. are selling boots and shoes. That newly bought $7,000 stock is just melting away, positively dissolving. Everybody remarks, as he sees the procession of customers, retiring from gough bros., "got 'em again"—not snakes in the boots, but bargains in boots and shoes. Rock-bottom prices and mountain-high bargains. These are what every mother's son and daughter get at gough bros., 375 george-st. If you want to rob your neighbor by proxy, send him to the high price dealers; if you want to put half the ordinary price of a prime pair of boots and shoes in his pockets send him to gough bros.

The Latest Phase.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—It is really laughable to see the snub the Hospital Trustees have received. Some of the influential members of this community have been taught a lesson that may do them good. The domineering policy will not work. However, we may rest satisfied. Whatever the Board of Health or the Town Council may do the health of the people is safe in the hands of the Government.

In Brief and to the Point.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order. Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

$10,000 Stock of Boots at 40c. on the Dollar.

An upheavel taken place in leather and the boot and shoe trade shattered to pieces. On Saturday we are going to run a special Boot Sale. Good Goods and Low Prices have gained for us the admiration of close buyers. Our 25c. Boots have completely demoralized the high priced dealers. One man says Goughs are selling below cost, so we are! That is we sell lots of Goods below the first cost of manufacture and still make a living profit. Some people would naturally like to know how we do it. "Here is the Secret." A wholesale man gets hard up, wants money, must have it. He knows Goughs are spot cash buyers. They send for the Wonderful Cheap Men. They arrive on the scene. The wholesale man says, Gough what will you give for 300 cases of these boots; Goughs look them over carefully, find them good desirable selling lines and make a bid of 40c. on the dollar; after hard fighting we get them. They arrive in Peterborough, are sold at 50c. on the dollar, we therefore sell them at half price and make a living profit for ourselves. These are a few of th many reasons why posterity has raised up and christened s GOUGHS, the Tirele s, Sleepless, Wide-Awake Boot Men, GOUGHS, the Kings of Clothiers, GOUGHS, the Original Agitators of Small Profits, GOUGHS, the Wonders of the 19th Century. We are carrying the war into Africa. Our Solid Brigades of Overcoats, Regiments of Suits and Battalions of Pants with Companies of Vests and Underclothing, which we have deployed on the field so skillfully during the month, have terrorized the enemy, routed him at all points and carried the fortifications on the run. Our Guns, double-shotted with Low Prices have thrown cannister and grape into their ranks and scattered their forces which only existed on paper.

Our Victory is complete. An agonized wail sent up is a token of Surrender to the inevitable fortunes of war. WYATT & TURNER have carried the day and our enterprise has forever broken the yoke of High Prices that has held the County.

We hurl back defiance at the Clothing Sharks who would grasp at the right of an Honest and Pushing Firm to live and do Trade. The man who wants to buy Clothing don't care a continental whether it is bought wholesale in Montreal, Toronto, Omemee or Pontypool. What the purchaser wants is value. It don't interest him whether the Goods are sold from a plate glass palace or from a clapboard shanty with 7x9 windows. What he wants is Value and Low Prices. It does'nt concern the buyer to know whether the Goods were brought in by rail, steamboat, waggon, oxcart or on foot. What he wants is Value, Low Prices and Square Dealing. He does'nt care whether its rain or shine, hot or cold, late or early as long as he gets the Best Value, the Best Goods, the Best Treatment, the Best Satisfaction and he gets all these at WYATT & TURNER'S. Our Stock is our own, bought with honest money and we sell for as low a profit s we can do trade and live. Our competitors may howl and squirm, twist and wriggle but they may as well submit to the inevitable that WYATT & TURNER are doing, and will keep doing, the Clothing Trade of the County. TEA!

A Chinese writer says: "To make good tea it is an old custom to use running water boiled over a lively fire. That from springs in the hills is the best, and river water next, while well water is the worst. Do not boil the water too hastily; as, first it begins to sparkle like crab's eyes, then, somewhat like fishes' eggs, and lastly it boils up like pearls innumerable springing and waving about. This is the way to boil the water."

If you like a splendid cup of tea try one of the many brands in stock. The price varies with the quality. Splendid Teas at low prices. Better Teas a trifle higher. The best not dear and well worth the moderate price asked.

IN PHILADELPHIA.

A Meeting of Friends of Farley, sr.—Ask for Mercy for a Neighbor's Son.

The Philadelphia, Pa., Press of October 19th says:—"The men or Fairmount one and all have united together to save James F. Farley, the son of one of their fellow-citizens, from the Canadian gallows. He lived at 803 Norwood-st., and is now in the death cell of the jail at Peterborough, Canada, sentenced to be hanged on November 8. Luke Farley, father of the boy, arrived home yesterday from Canada completely crushed by his son's conviction, but hopeful in the assurance that Peterborough's citizens, Town Council and Mayor, with their sympathies moved by the interest taken in Philadelphia, had sent delegations to the Minister of Justice at Ottawa asking that his son be shown mercy. Last night a big meeting of Fairmount's representative citizens was held at the Ranelle Hall, Twenty-Fourth and Spring Garden Streets, and it was decided if their present appeal should fail to engage eminent counsel and bring pressure to bear on the Secretary of State of the United States to intercede with the Governor General of Canada for reconsideration of the case. Thus Fairmount may introduce an international case.

"Luke Farley, the condemned boy's father, has held for many years a responsible position in the Knickerbocker Ice Company, where his son was also employed. The boy since when he wore knickerbockers has been frantic on the subject of horses, and when not quite two years ago he was offered a position with Forepaugh's circus to drive six stallions, his wildest hopes were realized. He drifted around with Forepaugh's until this season, when he became attached to Howe's show, an American circus, which was traveling in Canada."

The Press then decribes the murder and the trial, and continues:—"As soon as the news of the sentence reached here on Saturday there was a stir in Fairmount. A public meeting was immediately held, at which a committee on finance was appointed, consisting of James McHugh, Lewis J. Burns, John Donahue, Michael Lynch, John Kane, Samuel Faith, Thomas Sernendinger, Michael McGeehen, Andrew Campbell and others, to start a movement on behalf of the prisoner at once. The committee telegraphed Mr. Farley in Canada, notifying him of the interest here, and asking what could be done. He showed the telegram to Peterborough's Mayor, James Stevenson, M. P., who had done him every kindness possible. The proceedings taken here to secure a commutation of the sentence are referred to and the account proceeds:—"Mr. Farley returned home yesterday at noon with his heart full of gratitude to the people of the town where his boy was convicted. He said the kindnesses shown him were beyond conception.

"Mr. Farley stayed away last night from the big meeting in Raedle Hall, but sent his expression of feeling through Lewis J. Burns, who acted as chairman. Beside the committee these representative citizens were present:—Peter J. Tierney, John Murray, James A. Mahoney, John McGinley, John Kerwin, Anthony McGrann, John Fleming, Peter Roddy, John Donahoe and John Monks. Mr. Burns stated that the people of Peterborough, in their interest for the prisoner, had sent word to the Philadelphians through Luke Farley to do nothing that would be considered aggressive while their own plea was before the minister of justice. Mr. Farley expects to hear every hour some news of what may be expected from that official, and if it admits of no hope, then the United States officials will be asked to intercede with the Governor General. The Finance Committee reported collections of nearly $400 already to defray expenses that may arise. On motion of Mr. Donahue it was decided to send a vote of thanks to the Mayor, Town Council and people of Peterborough for the interest they have taken. The meeting adjourned until Monday. Furman Sheppard has already been consulted by the committee, and should the Minister of Justice refuse to intervene he will be asked to act with Lawyer O'Meara, of Peterborough, in further intercession. Mr. O'Meara may be summoned by telegraph to this city at any time.

"If ever a family was stricken, the Farley family is at this time. Besides the peril of the eldest son, which is a horror to the mother and father always, a younger son is lying at death's door with pneumonia. They bear their grief with quiet fortitude, and the kindness of the people of two nations has been a source of great comfort to them."

For Gentlemen who are Bald.

Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, has arranged to be here on Oct. 24th and 25th, at Phelan's hotel, with a large stock of his fine hair goods, among which he will have a special stock of his unequailed wigs and toupees for gentlemen. It is a real blessing that such natural looking articles as the Professor's can be had. If a gentleman loses his hair he can have the deficiency replaced by one of these pieces. The effect on the personal appearance is perfect and the protection afforded to the scalp is as complete as the natural growth itself. Thousands of the Prof's wigs and toupees are in use and they give the best of satisfaction. The Prof. is to be congratulated on his most successful career and to be complimented for the energetic way in which he has pushed his goods forward. He will be here on Oct. 24th and 25th, at Phelan's Hotel, Simcoe-st. 2d94

St. Peter's Literary Society.

The Literary Society of St. Peter's Cathedral held a meeting last evening when a very happy time was spent. His Lordship Bishop Dowling and several members of the clergy were present, and there was a good turnout of members. Dr. Brennan occupied the chair, and before entering upon the programme he read and presented to His Lordship, on behalf of the Society, a very flattering and complimentary address. His Lordship made a very fitting reply, and, as usual, made some happy remarks. After this pleasing feature the debate "Resolved, that capital punishment should be abolished," was commenced. The affirmative was led by Mr. J. D. McIlmoyle, while Mr. J. J. Sheehy supported the negative side of the question. The chairman decided the debate in favor of the negative. The meeting was a great success and most enjoyable.

MILLING ENTERPRISE.

THE OTONABEE MILLS WITH AN OUTPUT OF 250 BARRELS.

One of Peterborough's Growing Industries—The Dickson Company Expend a Large Amount of Money on Building and new Machinery—A Well Equipped Elevator.

Forty years ago how different were the modes of operating our various industries, how inferior were the machineries employed and the facilities enjoyed by the manufacturers than those of to-day. Every year almost has seen the adoption to general use of some new invention of an ingenious mind in the shape of a piece of machinery intended to save labor or increase the manufacturing capacity of certain enterprises. In milling great changes have been made and different systems of machinery for the grinding of the grain into flour have been adopted, worked for a time and then succeeded by a more improved system. An example of the improvements which forty years have seen in the miller's trade is afforded in the Otonabee Mills which stand on Elizabeth-st. on your left hand side just after you cross the bridge to Ashburnham. It is perhaps forty years since this spot was first selected as the mill site, and the walls of the building then erected still remain as part of the present structure. The millers who have operated the mill since its erection have, of course, been compelled to keep up with the times and put in the more improved machinery as it came to be generally used, until with the new system of machinery and increased facilities which have just been put in the output of this mill has been brought up to 250 barrels per day.

THE BUILDING OF TO-DAY.

The buildings are now owned by the Dixon Company and for the past three years have been operated by Mr. H. A. Mulhern. Realizing that the system of machinery that was in the mill was not by any means equal to that which could be placed in the building and that the output could be almost doubled by new machinery and increased facilities the Dixon Company decided to take out the old machinery, thoroughly repair and refit the building, and place in position the latest and most improved machinery now made for the manufacture of flour by the roller process. Last June operations were commenced and the end of this week will probably see the work completed. All that remains of the original mill are the walls, while along side and attached to the east side a new elevator has been erected. The mill proper has now one of the finest equipments of machinery that could be placed into a flour mill, the expense of which to the Dixon Company has been immense. None of the old machinery remains in the building except a couple of cleaning machines. A new flume has been constructed and new water wheels put in. The old floors were torn up and new joist and floors put in throughout the entire building, while the ground floor has been raised three feet. The roof has been newly shingled and the building outside tuck pointed. A cupola has been built on the roof which adds to the appearance of the building and gives light to the fourth storey. Mr. Wm. Martin has had charge of the carpentering work and his great experience and practical knowledge have made him a most useful man in proposing improvements in the plan of construction. Mr. Hazlitt, manager of the Dickson Company, has had the superintendence of the work. Mr. James A. McGill, who came from Toronto about three years ago to take charge of the milling for Mr. Mulhern, will continue as head miller and will undoubtedly with his new and improved machinery turn out a flour of a higher standard than before. Mr. McGill was for many years with McLaughlin & Moore, of Toronto, and is a gentleman who thoroughly understands his business.

THE MACHINERY.

Beginning at the basement a mention of the machinery will be given. Here there are a Hercules scourer and a cockle separator, both new machines of the most improved make. In the basement also are the two new water wheels, which supply the power to run the machinery throughout the building. They were manufactured by Kennedy & Sons, of Owen Sound. On the ground floor are a separator, a smutter, a brush machine and two trains of the Cochrane roller mills. The latter is a fine piece of mechanical art and is the most improved roller mill made to-day. It is is all neatly coupled together and is driven by a single belt at one end.

On the second floor will be found four scalpers, which were built by Runciman Bros in the mill. They are fitted with the round reels which are a great improvement over the hexagon which were formerly used. There are also on this flat four centrifugal reels, three of which are new, while the other one has been in the mill but a short time. The new ones were manufactured by the Geo. G. Smith Middlings Purifier Company, of Stratford, and the one that has been used is the make of Messrs. Wm. and J. G. Greey, of Toronto. These machines have also been improved by having the round substituted for the octagon reels. Here also are three purifiers manufactured by the Geo. G. Smith Company and three packers. The latter machines were in the old mill, but have been repaired and made as good as new.

The third floor has two more centrifugal reels, one of which is new and of the Smith manufacture, and the other is known as the Silver Creek and has been used in the mill for some little time. There are also four more round or elevating reels, two new purifiers, also of the Smith make, and one old one which has been thoroughly repaired and refitted. A shorts duster of Smith manufacture and one Eureka bran duster and four Cyclone dust collectors, made by Inglis & Hunter, Toronto, are also on the third floor. Three bins are on this floor which receive the flour as it comes from the dressers.

On the fourth floor are six more of the round and elevating reels. On this flat are the heads of all the elevators, which run from the top to the bottom of the building. The shafting and gearing of the mill is most complete. An upright shaft runs from the water wheel to the top floor of the mill, with shafting and gearing on each floor to supply the power to drive the different machines.

THE ELEVATOR.

The new building which has been erected on the east side is not completed at present. It is built of stone as far as the first storey, and then the elevator which is above is built of boards laid flat upon each other as is usual in the construction of elevators. The water wheel out of the old mill will supply the moter power for the elevator. In this building is a three-high roller chop mill, manufactured by the Smith Company, and the weight scales. There will be two stand elevators, one to feed the choper and the other to carry the ground chop to the bins. There are twelve bins in the elevator, ten of which will be used for grain. These give a capacity of 30,000 bushels. The other two will be for bran and shorts with a capacity of twenty tons each. Running along underneath these bins will be conveyors to carry the grain to the scales.

A siding from the railway runs close to this building and the cars will be loaded without any difficulty. There are some other new pieces of machinery which may be brought into use by the Dickson Company and Mr. Mulhern, to facilitate the handling of the grain. Altogether the equipment of both mill and elevator is most complete and with these increased facilities and improved machinery there is no doubt but that Mr. Mulhern will reap the benefit in an increase of business which such enterprise as this almost insures to him and, at least, to which he is entitled.

Arranging for an Assembly.

The committee of the Knights of Labor who were appointed to consider the holding of a ball on Thanksgiving Eve met in Labor Hall last evening. It was decided to hold the assembly on the evening named, the 14th November, in the Opera House and sub-committees were struck to take charge of and perfect the various arrangements. The committee will meet again on Thursday evening next when the sub-committees will report and final arrangements will be made. The committee intend to do all that within them lies to make the ball a grand success, and the auspices under which it is to be held almost insures this.

FAREWELL OFFERING.

St. Luke's Parishioners give Rev. Mr. Bradshaw Evidence of their Esteem.

Last evening the parishioners of St. Luke's Church, Ashburnham, gathered in the Sunday school room to take part in a ceremony which aroused feelings of pleasure and regret—pleasure from the fact that they were able to show in such a magnificent and tangible manner their appreciation of faithful labors among them and regret that the connections and association as priest and people must be severed for a time. Rev. Mr. Bradshaw is not enjoying good health, and under the doctor's orders has been compelled to take a rest for a time from his labors and his congregation have granted him a leave of absence. The rev. gentleman leaves on Wednesday and will return in the spring. The meeting last evening was held for the purpose of presenting the rev. gentleman with a farewell address, which was accompanied by a cheque for $200.

Shortly after eight o'clock Mr. John Burnham took the chair. He made a few opening remarks and then called upon Mr. H. T. Strickland to read the address and make the presentation. The address read as follows:—

To the Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, Rector of St. Luke's Church, Ashburnham, Ont:

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—It is with deep regret that we, the members of your congregation, have learned that your health has become so impaired by your earnest and self-sacrificing labors in the service of the church that it has become necessary for you to leave us for a season to seek its restoration.

We cannot allow you to depart even for a short period of time without expressing our deep sympathy with you and our hope that a sojourn in a warmer clime will speedily restore you to your wonted health and vigor.

In your going out and coming in amongst us during the twelve years of your incumbency, you have shown yourself worthy of the reverence and respect in which you are held. It cannot be said that you have laid burdens upon us which you would not touch yourself, as in all things you have been an example for us to follow.

Coming as you did to us when we were "no people," you have, by the blessing of God, been enabled through your untiring energy and devotedness to the cause you love, built up one of the most flourishing parishes in the Diocese.

We shall not soon forget your earnest calls to repentance, your warnings of danger, your words of comfort to the afflicted, your encouragement to those who were pressing onward, and your rejoicing with those who rejoiced. Our regret is that we have not given better heed to your advice, which has ever been for our own welfare.

We wish also to give expression to the feelings of respect and esteem which we have towards your wife, and hope that the good influence she has been quietly exerting amongst us may be productive of lasting good.

Desiring to give material expression to our sympathy we ask you to accept the accompanying gift as a freewill offering from your loving parishioners.

In bidding you farewell you may rest assured that our prayers will ever go up for your restoration to us again in perfect health, so that we may yet spend many happy years together as pastor and people.

Signed on behalf of the members of St. Luke's church,

JOHN BURNHAM,
H. T. STRICKLAND,
Church Wardens

Ashburnham, Oct, 22, 1888.

Mr. Strickland, after reading the address, followed with a few remarks in which he assured the rev. gentleman that the interests of the parish would not suffer during his absence, and said he thought the feelings of the congregation were such that they would do all they could to support his representative in his absence. Allowance would be made for any apparent shortcomings arising from his being a stranger amongst them. Mr. Bradshaw, he said, had been instrumental in getting the handsome organ in the church, and it might give a feeling of satisfaction to know that the Temperance Society had given assurance that the balance would be wiped out.

REV. MR. BRADSHAW'S REPLY.

Rev. Mr. Bradshaw appeared deeply moved several times during his address and seemed to feel keenly the severance, although only for a short period, of the tie existing between himself and his parishioners. The rev. gentleman asked to be allowed to say a few words to them before he read his reply to the address. He had received so many tokens of their appreciation and esteem that he was not surprised at this. They had upheld his hands, shown sympathy and given tangible evidence of their esteem, but he was exceedingly astonished that any such steps had been taken. He could not complain of salary. They had not only done their duty in that respect, but had been enabled to take part in special work. During his twelve years amongst them there had been no brick in that building he had not seen put up and they had enabled the wardens and himself to accomplish this work, but what could they have accomplished without their support? He had only been the leader under God. He would have to go far, he said, before he could get such an earnest congregation as St. Luke's. He would like to speak of his successor. He thought it was one of the most touching instances of their esteem in allowing him to make a choice of his successor. He hoped when he returned next spring that they would consider that his choice had been a good one. Nothing would give him more pain than to find that it had not been so. He thought they would find in Rev. George Warner one whom would do all he possibly could for the advancement of the church and parish. There would be the same difficulties at first and it would take some little time for him to become acquainted. There were now 240 communicants, while twelve years ago, in 1876, when he came there, the communicants were about one-tenth of their number. During these twelve years there had been 460 baptisms, and nearly 350 persons confirmed. He had strenuously tried to visit each parishioner and say farewell, but had been compelled to give up what was to him in his state of health a great effort on account of the bad weather. Those whom he had failed to visit must take the will for deed. Every fibre of his heart, the reverend gentleman said, was moved by the touching address which he would ever cherish. He did not feel the slightest doubt but that the temperance organization would wipe out the indebtedness on the organ which would give him great pleasure. He referred to this organization in St. Luke's which had been a great prower in bringing young men into the church, and which had raised $800 to further the work. It had been said by some that he was going away not to return again. Need he tell them this was false? Need he tell them that he had his house here and his library, furniture, &c? Previous attempts had been made to draw him away, when the condition of the parish was not so flourishing and when he might have had brighter prospects for progress in his profession, but they had conspicuously failed although often repeated. He closed with the words that his wish was "to live and die among his own people." He then read the following reply:—

My Dear Friends and Parishioners:

I thank you most cordially for this address couched as it is in terms of affectionate sympathy and regard for me and mine, and pregnant with earnest wishes, which I am sure come from the heart, for my speedy restoration to health and vigor.

It needed not this additional proof of your kindness to convince me of the fact that my labors among you have been much appreciated—indeed far beyond their deserts, for I have ever experienced in the past your hearty co-operation and forbearance, your sympathy and esteem, your good will and unfailing generosity.

Much more than I can possibly express it gives me pain to be compelled to sever, even for a time, those strong ties of affectionate regard and mutual good will which have bound us together so closely as priest and people for more than a decade of years. But I look forward hopefully under the blessing of God to resuming my work among you with renewed vigor in the coming spring, and I shall ever pray that this and indeed all other trials and sorrows which beset us here may work together for our good.

To me it would be a most painful disappointment and constant grief if my enforced absence should in any way affect the work of the parish, and I therefore in these last moments most earnestly beg that every office bearer, every baptized member of the church, every attendant in our services may be hopeful and zealous and labor this coming winter even more earnestly, strenuously and faithfully than they have ever done for the welfare and prosperity of our beloved Zion and for the glory of its gracious Head, Christ Jesus.

On Mrs. Bradshaw's behalf, I sincerely thank you for your kind and thoughtful words, and I can assure you she very fully and cordially reciprocates them.

I feel how utterly inadequate are any words of mine to express as I should wish my surprise and astonishment at the munificient and unexpected gift which accompanies your too flattering address. That it is, as you say "a free will offering," and that it comes from "loving parishioners" greatly enhances such a tangible token of regard. I can only say, may God Himself bless and reward you for it as He only can do. Please convey the assurance of my gratitude and regard to all who have signed this address and who have contributed to the purse which accompanies it.

And, my brethren, I commend you to the Lord and to the word of His grace which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. "And the very God of peace sactify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." In these stirring words of the great apostle I bid you good bye for a time and remain, ever your devoted servant for Jesu's sake,

W. C. BRADSHAW.

After the reply those present took a farewell of the rev. gentleman and the meeting dispersed.

A Perfect Fit.

It is very hard sometimes for ladies to decide where to leave their orders for mantles, so many garments spoiled by careless cutting and work. H. S. Griffin & Co. are doing a rushing trade in mantles made to order and they give a perfect fitting jacket, dolman or ulster at close cash prices.

Duncan Clarke's Company.

Duncan Clarke's company of "minstrels" faced a fairly well filled house at the Opera House last night. The audience was a good natured one—as evidenced by the fact that the company were allowed to finish the performance and leave the stage in peace. There was no acting, and there was almost no singing, though there were attempts at both. The audience laughed alternately at the local hits or "gags" and at the company until the final scene closed, when it rolled out of the hall and kicked itself down stairs.

THE VACANCY ON THE SUPREME COURT BENCH.

It is Thought that an Appointment Will be Made Within a Few Days—The Kingston Graving Dock.

OTTAWA, Oct. 23.—It is believed that the vacancy in the Supreme Court bench caused by the death of Judge Henry will be filled in the course of a few days. A large number of names have been mentioned in connection with the position; one the Chief Justice of Manitoba and another Chief Justice Haggerty, but as the vacancy occurs in the Maritime Provinces it is most probable that it will be filled from that section.

Plans and specifications for the Kingston graving-dock are now nearly ready and tenders will shortly be called for. It is not probable that stone from the penitentiary quarry will be used, but the contractor will supply the stone.

Land Commissioner Smith returns to Winnipeg this week. During his stay here he adjusted various matters in connection with the Dominion Lands Department.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell returned to town last night.

A recommendation has been made to the Government by Captain Holmes, of the revenue cutter Cruiser, that a customs house be established on Horse or Fitzwilliam Island, Algoma District, to collect revenue from the large lumber business being developed in that region.

Commander Gordon, of the fisheries protective steamer Acadia, passed through here on Saturday on his way to his home in Cooksville. He reports the season's catch as below the average, mackerel being scarce. The modus vivendi has worked admirably, there being no friction whatever with American fishermen, who showed every disposition to comply with the Canadian laws, and not a single seizure was made during the season.

There are a number of cases of typhoid fever in Ottawa and vicinity at present, amongst them being Mr. Thomas Fuller, chief architect of the Public Works Department, whose condition is somewhat critical.

A brakeman on the Canadian Pacific Railway named Wm. Wright was killed near Mackey's Station Sunday. The deceased was leaning out of a car while passing a bridge, when he was struck and instantly killed.

The memorial window presented by Lady Macdonald to St. Alban's Church in memory of her mother, will be dedicated by a special choral service on All Saints' day, Nov. 1. The window was manufactured in England from a Canadian design, is understood to be very handsome, and cost about $1500.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Pastor Jeffery Exonerated—Death of Jockey Cook—The Collectorship.

TORONTO, Oct. 23.—The jockey Cook injured at the Woodbine on Saturday, died at 9 o'clock last night.

Wm. Blythe, while under the influence of liquor, misconducted himself at the Parkdale station of the Northern Railway on Saturday afternoon, and in a scuffle with P. C. Mulhall threw himself between the platform and a moving train. The constable, to save him from injury or death under the revolving wheel, was obliged to hold him down on the ground.

Frederick Tostel, the crank who created a sensation in the Metropolitan Church Sunday by climbing into the pulpit and declaring to the astonished congregation that he was the "lion of the tribe of Judah," promised to leave the city forthwith, and Mr. Baxter liberated him.

The argument on the validity of the warrant sent from here for the arrest of James Baxter in connection with the Central Bank trouble will be heard to-day at Montreal.

W. B. Scarth, M. P. for Winnipeg, is in the city and is said to be a hot candidate for the vacant collectorship.

Hon. S. C. Wood, J. Herbert Mason and H. C. Hammond will investigate Ald. Gillespie's charges against the City Treasurer's Department.

At last night's meeting of the City Council Ald. John Jones was appointed Street Commissioner at a salary of $1500 per annum.

At a joint meeting of the Trustees and the Quarterly Board of the Northwestern Methodist Church last night resolutions were passed to the effect that after full investigation of the rumors affecting the character of Rev. T. W. Jeffery, the charges were found to be entirely without foundation, and unsubstantiated by any evidence.

At 1.45 this morning fire broke out in James Richardson's confectionery warehouse, causing a considerable loss.

The journeyman harness-makers met last night and discussed the demand recently made regarding their wages and hours of labor. The dispute may probably end in a strike.

BRANTFORD BYLAWS.

The Citizens Vote $185,000 for Water-works and $10,000 for Drill Shed.

BRANTFORD, Oct. 23.—The bylaw to raise $185,000 for the city to take over the water-works and make extensive enlargements of the same to supply pure water for the city was voted on yesterday and carried by 471 majority.

The bylaw to raise $10,000 for the new drill shed was also voted for at the same time and carried by 321 majority. All the polling divisions in each ward gave a majority for the bylaws.

FIRES OF A DAY.

Loafers Kindle a $1500 Blaze in a Montreal Stable with Their Pipes.

MONTREAL, Oct. 23.—About 1.30 o'clock yesterday morning an alarm from Box 30 brought out the western division of the brigade for a fire in the hayloft and stable of Pierre Cloutier, No. 77 Common-street. There was a big blaze, and for a time it was feared that the fire would spread, but four streams were quickly laid on and the premises deluged with water. Notwithstanding the efforts of the brigade, six valuable horses were burned to death. The Salvage corps saved several coal carts, some of which were badly scorched. The damage will be in the neighborhood of $1500, mostly covered by insurance. During the evening a crowd of loafers were hanging around the stable, and it is supposed a spark from one of their pipes set the place on fire.

A Farmer's Serious Loss.

UXBRIDGE, Oct. 23.—At about 11.30 p.m. Saturday Mr. Alex. Oxtoby's barn and outbuildings near Udora were burned to the ground. In the barn was all of this year's grain, five valuable horses and a threshing machine belonging to Messrs. Moore & Scott of Udora, and in the outbuildings were eleven pigs, all of which were consumed. The fire is supposed to have originated from some flying sparks from the threshing engine. Mr. Oxtoby's loss is estimated at $3000 with only $200 insurance. Messrs. Moore & Scott's loss on separator is $500, no insurance.

A $500 Blaze at Kingston.

The Bear Got One of His Toes.

KINGFIELD, Me., Oct. 22.—William Nickerson was hunting partridges about half a mile from his house when hearing his dog bark and hastening in the direction of the sound, he found that the dog had encountered a large bear. As soon as the latter saw Mr. Nickerson he made for him, growling fiercely. Nickerson started to climb a tree, taking his gun with him. He had climbed six or eight feet when the bear caught him by the trouser-leg and tried to pull him down. The trousers gave away. The bear then pulled off Nickerson's shoe, and at his next trip up the tree carried down one of Mr. Nickerson's stockings and one of his toes, badly lacerating two more. As the bear was climbing the tree again Nickerson gave him a charge of shot.

Eleven Conductors Bounced.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Eleven conductors on the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad received blue envelopes containing notice of dismissal yesterday morning. No reason is given for their discharge but it is known that detectives have been riding over the road for two or three weeks past and it is supposed that they have given information against the ousted men. There is much excitement among railroad men, and in view of the fact that a majority of the men discharged are considered upright, those who remain feel very uneasy.

WHERE Should I Buy PROPERTY?

This is the question that confronts the citizen who is thinking of getting himself a home,—Where to buy.

Common sense will tell that citizen that the best lot he can get is none too good for him, and why?

Because well located property is always worth its price. Because it is conducive to health and happiness to live in the midst of good surroundings; because if you want to sell you can always find a buyer: because such property is becoming scarce and is therefore rapidly increasing in value. I am prepared to offer a special bargain of a few such Lots, one exceedingly good Lot on Dublin-st. 54x196 feet, high and dry, south front east of and adjoining Mr. Bogue's fine new residence. This is a Bargain. A beautiful Lot on Water-st. opposite St. Paul's Church. This Lot should suit any person wanting a beautiful and central location. Also Two Very Desirable Building Lots in most respectable ocalities on Stewart-st. Cheap Lots and a few Good Houses to be closed out during the next few days.

EPPS'S COCOA BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack whenever there was a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies; at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what in ducements may be offered we never allow our selves to be undersold.

THE MORMON MINOTAUR.

SHOCKING CONDITION OF THE WOMEN IN UTAH.

A Vivid Portrayal of Life Among the Saints —Mrs. Newman Stirs up the W. C. T. U. Convention in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The convention of the W. C. T. U. was stirred up to a high pitch when Mrs. Argie Newman, Superintendent of the Mormon mission, began her address yesterday afternoon. She gave a well prepared history of her experience in Utah Territory. Her graphic description of the shocking condition of the Mormon women in Utah elicited horrified exclamations from all parts of the Opera House. She told of two sisters, Mormon girls, one 16 years old and the other 14, whom she saw in a squalid condition, both with babies in their arms and both girls the wives of their own father. Another case mentioned was that of a man who had married, besides a wife outside his family, his own mother, his grandmother, his daughter, and his granddaughter. All these wives were living at the same time.
The National Union will take steps to ameliorate the condition of the Mormon women as far as lies in its power.

THOUSANDS GONE UP IN SMOKE.

A Big Conflagration in a Wholesale Hardware House at Toronto.

TORONTO, Oct. 24.—At 7.30 last night fire broke out in the warehouse of M. & L. Samuel, Benjamin & Co., No. 56 and 58 Yonge-street. Before the flames were extinguished No. 58 was entirely gutted and the stock in No. 56 was badly damaged. The loss will reach $100,000 and the insurance is $110,000 divided among several companies. During the progress of the fire many thousand cartridges stored in the building exploded.
Wm. Doyle, the suspected burglar from Rochester, was remanded for another week.
Yesterday morning shortly after 10 o'clock a lather named Wm. Watts fell from the fourth floor of the new building at No. 57 King-street west. His back struck the rafters of the fourth story, which turned him sideways. In that position he remained until he struck the floor of the second story. He suffered no serious injury further than the displacement of a couple of ribs and some more bruises. The ambulance was called and he was removed to his home at No. 110 Bond-street.
Acting under instructions from Mr. Badgerow, County Crown Attorney, Detective Inspector Stark has handed over the money which he held belonging to Knight and Vance, the pair of counterfeiters, to the assignees of the insolvent estates of the prisoners. When arrested Knight had $320.55 and Vance $140.20.
Ald. R. J. Fleming and Miss Lydia Orford were married at the residence of the bride's mother, 265 Parliament-street, last night, Rev. A. C. Curtis officiating; and at Knox Church Barrister T. C. Robinette and Miss Jennie B. Carruthers were made one.

CAUGHT AT LAST.

The Alleged Betrayer of Emma Genereux in the Toils.

MONTREAL, Oct. 24.—In connection with this case it was reported that one Alfred Belanger, the alleged betrayer of the girl Emma Genereux, had been arrested with another by Detective Gladu last Sunday. This was an error. It appears that there are two brothers Belanger, one called Frederick and the other Alfred, but both are known by the name of "Fred," and on the detective going to the house and enquiring for Fred Belanger, the one called Frederick Belanger being excited by the charge, simply answered "Yes," and was immediately conveyed to the Central Police Station.
Yesterday from enquiries made elicited the fact that he had "bagged" the wrong man. He at once journeyed out to Seigneurs street, and after waiting some three hours, succeeded in arresting the real Alfred. He brought him to the Central Police Station last evening, where he was locked up. The prisoner treated the charge with the greatest of levity, exclaiming that he was glad he was arrested, as it would give him a chance to clear himself. He would show the people that he was not guilty. The papers had published rumors which were utterly false. The prisoner, on his way to the station, purchased a lot of eatables, part of which he shared with the other prisoner. The young man, who styled himself a laborer, was exceedingly well dressed for one in that station of life, having a well-fitting suit of broadcloth on, as well as a gold watch and chain.

IN STATU QUO.

No Developments Yesterday in the Manitoba Railway Difficulty.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 24.—Chief Justice Taylor didn't declare judgment on the railway crossing question yesterday, but it is expected will do so to-day.—In the meantime matters remain in statu quo, the C. P. R. keeping a small guard at the point of crossing.
The Northern Pacific's slight reduction in rates has been met by the C. P. R.

In the Railway Committee.

OTTAWA, Oct. 24.—A private meeting of the Railway Committee of the Privy Council was held yesterday with reference to the difficulty between the Manitoba Government and the Canadian Pacific Railway. Ex-Judge Clark represented the Canadian Pacific Railway, and Mr. Gormully the Attorney-General of Manitoba. It is understood that it was arranged that Messrs. Clark and Gormully should prepare a case to be submitted to the committee on Friday next.

TOPICS FOR CHRISTIANS

INTERESTING ADDRESSES AT THE MONTREAL CONFERENCE.

"Current Unbelief," "Capital and Labor," and "National Perils" Discussed Yesterday.

MONTREAL, Oct. 24.—The morning session of the Christian Conference opened in the American Presbyterian Church, under the presidency of Rev. Dr. McRae of St. John, N.B., who opened the meeting with an address on "Current Unbelief."
Principal Burwash of Victoria University followed with a paper on the same subject, "What it is and how to meet it."
Rev. H. J. Vandyke, D.D., of New York, made a brilliant address and indicated the lines modern scepticism followed.
The afternoon session was devoted to "Capital and Labor" and was presided over by Rev. Dr. Hale who introduced the question, explaining the difficulties lying in the way of an amicable settlement.
Rev. Dr. Gleason of Columbus, O., read a paper on the application of the Gospel to employers and employed and showed how a settlement could be effected only on the basis of Christian principles which inculcate partnership and co-operation instead of rivalry and competition. Workingmen must cultivate a sweet reasonableness and a quality of temper that will induce employers to think such an alliance possible.
Hon. Senator Macdonald of Toronto viewed the question from a Biblical standpoint and held that in the Divine utterance of Christ there were ample rules for the industrial world.
George Hague took an employer's view. The law of supply and demand was as inexorable as the law of gravity, and any amelioration of the condition of the working classes must come from individual improvement of character.
The evening session was presided over by Archdeacon Evans and was devoted to "National Perils." Dr. Hall, of New York, spoke on "Sabbath Desecration" and defended the high origin of the day, its necessity and objects.
Right Rev. Bishop Fallows, of Chicago, made a fine rhetorical effort in favor of "Temperance," and Rev. Dr. Robertson addressed the conference on the "Evils of Promiscuous Immigration.

A DARING ROBBERY.

Sad Experience of a Jewelry Pedler on an Intercolonial Train.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 24.—John Williams, who travels through the country selling watches and jewelry, tells a stirring story about how he was robbed on the Intercolonial express from Pictou on Saturday evening. It was about 5 o'clock and the train was nearing Valley station, the next station to Truro on the Pictou branch. Williams was in a second-class car, the occupants of which were two men, a woman and a girl. The two men were at the other end of the car from the pedler. Suddenly a third man, who had just entered, walked over to a seat on which Williams' valise was lying, wrapped in brown paper, and picked it up. Williams rose to look after his property, and said, "That is mine." "You're a liar," came the answer, quick and fierce, and the stranger began to tear off the paper wrapping of the valise. As he did so, Williams grasped the handle. It was a two-handed affair, and the unknown grabbed the other and a tug ensued, which resulted in a few moments in the valise bursting. A small coat in which were enveloped eight silver watches and a box of gold-filled rings fell out, and these articles were strewn on the floor. As the valise burst the car door was pushed open and two accomplices of the robber rushed in, one of whom covered the peddlar with a revolver and commanded him not to move at the peril of his life. Williams fell back into a seat, while the first man of the three, assisted by one of the new arrivals, hurriedly picked up the fallen watches and jewelry and crammed them into their pockets. Then they made a hasty search through Williams' pants and coat pockets, evidently looking for his money, but failed to find it, and running out on to the car platform leaped from the moving train. He says his wallet which contained about $75 in cash, was in the outside breast pocket of his coat, and this pocket happened to be overlooked by the robbers. The other occupants of the car were too frightened to help him.

THE FISHERIES CATCH.

High Prices Ruling—Fresh Trouble in the G. G. F. C.—Hon. Mr. Tupper's Illness.

OTTAWA, Oct. 24.—Although the fisheries catch this year will fall below the average, the high prices at which fish have ruled will largely compensate the fishermen. Canadian hook-and-line men as a rule did well but other fishermen were paid poorly. About 100 American fishing vessels took out licenses under the modus vivendi, which was more than half the number of American vessels in Canadian waters, If the mackerel had shoaled inshore to any extent, as they did last year, most of the American fishermen would probably have taken licenses.
There is trouble again in the Governor-General's Foot Guards, this time with the band, most of the old members of which have sent in their resignations and swear they will not toot another note unless Bandmaster Bonner is dismissed and a new bandmaster appointed.
Hon. C. H. Tupper, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, is confined to the house but his illness is not considered dangerous.

THE BAXTER WARRANT.

Nothing Done Yesterday at Montreal With Reference to the Writ.

MONTREAL, Oct. 24.—The argument on the writ of prohibition to restrain Judge Dugas from endorsing the warrant issued by Magistrate Denison of Toronto for the arrest of James Baxter, in connection with the Barnett case, was to have taken place yesterday, but nothing was done and it is expected that the whole thing will now be allowed to drop.

NOT GUILTY.

Jane Doyle Acquitted of Complicity in Her Husband's Murder.

HALIFAX, Oct. 24.—The trial of Jane Doyle, on the charge of complicity in her husband's murder, was concluded last night. The jury returned a verdict of "not guilty," which was received with loud applause by a crowded court-room.

A Wife Murder in Church.

FULTON, Mo., Oct. 24.—A sensational wife murder occurred here last night. Jackson Emerson entered the Pilgrims' Rest Church and without a word of warning drew a revolver and fired at his wife Nina, missing her. A second shot entered the back of her head, coming out over the right eye and she fell dead. The congregation stampeded and the preacher jumped out of a second story window. Emerson is in jail and there are strong threats of lynching him. The parties were colored.

Berlin Journals a Trifle Slow.

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—The Post charges that M. Urnsoff, the Russian Minister at Brussels, forged the letters alleged to have been written by Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria to the Czar and which caused the Czar's suspicion that Prince Bismarck had unfriendly designs upon Russia.

THE PARNELL COMMISSION.

Attorney-General Webster Continues His Presentation of The Times' Case.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The Parnell Commission resumed its investigation yesterday. Mr. Joseph Biggar, who is one of the Irish members of Parliament mentioned in The Time's charges, made a personal request to be supplied with copies of those speeches read from by Attorney-General yesterday, which referred to him. The Attorney-General promised to supply them and then continued the presentation of The Times' case. He referred to the Kilmainham Jail anti-rent manifesto which was signed with the names of Messrs. Parnell, Davitt, Brennan, Dillon, Sexton and Egan. He pointed out that Mr. Davitt was then confined in Portland Prison and could not have signed the paper. Whether Mr. Dillon was responsible for his signature would be shown. It was a matter of importance as the manifesto disclosed the fact that the policy of the league involved the punishment of tenants for paying rents. The supporters of Mr. Parnell had recently been trying to exhibit him as a man who stood aloof from the anti-rent and plan of campaign agitators. The fact was, however, that as far back as 1880, Mr. Parnell had led the anti-rent movement. In a speech made in County Kerry in 1880 he told his hearers that out of 600,000 tenant farmers 400,000 were unable to pay their rents, and he added that the Land League had plenty of money to defend those who refused to pay. Mr. Biggar also at the same period denounced takers of evicted farms and advocated the League's defending men who were to be tried for shooting these takers or for other agrarian crimes.
It was impossible to exaggerate the wickedness of the advice given by Boyton, Timothy Harrington and Father O'Leary at the Barryclough meeting in February, 1881. They had urged their hearers to the worst forms of criminal violence for the purpose of intimidating the opponents of the league. At that time Mr. Parnell and his colleagues did not conceal their sympathy with the league's emissaries in crime, nor did they take any pains to disavow the outrages which had been committed. As a proof of the Parnellite party's connection with the no-rent movement the Attorney-General quoted from a telegram dated at about the time the anti-rent manifesto was issued. It was from Patrick Ford to Patrick Egan and read:
"Communicate with Parnell and consult with your colleagues. Then issue manifesto."
The reply of Egan was:
"Your suggestion approved. Prompt measures are in progress to procure general rent strike."
If access had been obtained to the books and papers of the Land League, continued the Attorney-General, detailed evidence would have been procured to show the relation of the Parnellites to the criminal actions of members of the league. The book had vanished since they had brought the league's officers to Westminster. The Times had secured two batches of documents which showed the system of communication between the head office and the branches of the league, how men were supported who refused to work for boycotted persons and how others were paid for committing outrages. Continuing the review of the history of the league the Attorney-General quoted from the letter alleged to have been written by Mr. Parnell which appeared in The Times. He said he would not now mention names but before the case was over all the circumstances under which The Times became possessed of the letters would be explained. The names of the persons from whom they were obtained and the sums paid for them would also be made known. He might say in the meantime that not a penny was paid or promised for the documents until they had been in the possession of The Times for several months and until they had been examined by perfectly independent persons and the hand-writing tested by comparison with undoubtedly genuine specimens of Mr. Parnell's penmanship.
The court here adjourned until to-day.

The Murderer Took $100,000.

HAVANA, Oct. 24.—The Inquisidor-street crime is still a mystery. The police, with the help of the press, are doing all that is possible to investigate the matter. The murders were no doubt committed for robbery, as account books found on the premises which were kept by Mrs. Sanudo, compared with what money was found in the house, show a shortage of nearly $400,000 in bank bills. The editor of La Lucha received an anonymous letter by mail signed M. Javert, which was published yesterday, in which the unknown person says if Juan Munoz, the son-in-law of the victims, is willing to pay $25,000 in gold, he will inform the court confidentially who murdered millionaire Samudo and wife, also giving sufficient evidence to convict the murderers. This letter, together with nearly 3000 others received through the mails by La Lucha, has been placed in the hands of the judge who has charge of the case. These letters are said to contain important details connected with the crime.

Axworthy's Big Boodle.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 24. — Treasurer Axworthy's shortage amounts to $429,437. The police pension fund and the firemen's relief fund, which were unsecured by bond, are gone and over $192,000 of the board of education fund goes into the shortage. This last item is secured by a separate bond of $250,000.
It is believed that AXWORTHY'S vessel property and real estate will inventory nearly $500,000, and the bondsmen are secured. The city will probably lose nothing as the bonds are good. It is said Ackworthy lost heavily in the recent wheat squeeze, and that he was in the Gogebic iron crash for a large sum.

Trade with Africa.

PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 24.—The brig Charles E. Sparks cleared yesterday for St. Louis, on Senegal River, west coast of Africa, with a cargo of sawed lumber, 362 tons of ice, and provisions. She is sent by Hamlen & Son, who have the contract to supply the French settlements, and they intend to develop a New England trade in that hitherto untried region.

Opium Smuggling from Canada.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—A telegram from the Acting Secretary of the Treasury says the Chinese in transit cannot land. The purser of the steamer Wilmington, from Tacoma, was arrested for smuggling $500 worth of opium. Special Agent of the Treasury Ames, now here, says he can prove the drug was smuggled from Canada to Tacoma.

Who Builds the President's Breeches.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The rumor that the Tailors' Union here would boycott President Cleveland and fight his re-election because his clothes are made by a firm who employ non-union workmen, is denied here by union tailors, although they acknowledge that the firm does employ non-union men as well as unionists.

The Plague-Stricken South.

A Riot in Dublin.

DUBLIN, Oct. 24.—A riot broke out at the Moy yesterday between Orangemen and Nationalists. The police were reinforced and charged the mob with bayonets. Several policemen were injured with stones thrown by the mob.

HE WORLD OF LONDON.

TRAVELS, HUNTS AND SPEECHES OF THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Preparation for the Gladstone Meeting at Birmingham—The Liberals not Altogether a Happy and United Family.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The Prince of Wales returns from Vienna highly pleased with his visit, which he has enjoyed immensely. Perhaps his sporting experience are those which he has enjoyed most, for in spite of his late hours and being a heavy man, the Prince is wonderful active, a very good shot, and the sport he has enjoyed is very different from what he usually gets. So it was to him what must be a great recommendation, a perfect novelty. He has lost weight since he went abroad, and is now a stone lighter than in August.
There is a report that Murray is going shortly to publish the Prince of Wales' speeches. He has now spoken in public for a quarter of a century. Many people believe that his speeches are written for him, the Prince only putting on the finishing touches. It is obvious that he must have an immense deal of assistance, for the subjects on which he speaks are so varied that it would be next to impossible for him to prepare the materials for himself. It will be interesting to see if there is any natural development in them, or if they show the work of different hands.
I believe there has been no question on which the Prince of Wales has had stronger views than concerning Ireland. His opinions on the desirability of having a royal residence there are perfectly well known. His feelings on these matters are not shared in higher quarters, and to the Prince's great credit he has never allowed his opinions, if they were in opposition to the Queen's, to become known. He is the first heir apparent in England who never allowed whatever differences may have arisen between him and the crown to become public gossip.
That Gladstone's power has not disappeared is evident from the enthusiasm shown by the preparations which are being made for the meeting at Birmingham next month. It is ten years since he attended a meeting in Bingley hall, at which no fewer than 15,000 persons were present. It looks very probable that nearly the same number will attend on Nov. 7. While there is no charge for admittance to the hall, which can accommodate 10,000 persons standing, the committee is charging prices varying from five shillings to two guineas for platform seats. Political enthusiasm must be very pronounced when it will induce thousands of men to stand for perhaps some hours in a hot hall. Such an occurrence was not unusual in the hey-day of Gladstone's power and popularity in the country. Though this is waning, many people will be attracted by the sight of an old man of 80 with the courage to run the risk of such an undertaking for the cause with which he has identified himself.
Some importance is attached to the meeting at Hawarden on Oct. 11 of Lord Rosebery, Morley, Sir William Harcourt and Gladstone. There was something important in it, for I hear that one of the party was summoned to Hawarden by telegraph. Those who know are inclined to believe that there is some idea of Gladstone making a political manifesto at Birmingham. It is no secret that the Gladstonian party is by no means the happy and united family they would have the world believe. The official managers are not satisfied with the prospects. They are dismayed by the open dissatisfaction displayed by the less advanced of the rank and file. The conduct of Gladstone and Morley in attacking Justice Day did not commend itself to many who are among their most influential supporters. This, added to personal jealousy, which is honeycombing the party, is being conveyed to Gladstone, who, it is believed, is now recognizing the fact that abuse of Mr. Balfour and his policy is not enough to consolidate and unite his party. At all events the Hawarden meeting is regarded among the followers as the possible inauguration of a new line of policy and action.
The sale of "Frederick the Noble" does not seem appreciably to have suffered from the premature disclosures of the pirates. During more than one day last week the bookbinders found it impossible to keep pace with the constant demand of the sellers for fresh supplies. Within an hour of its being placed on the book stalls of the city two well known vendors each disposed of 400 copies. The New York Sun published the entire work after all, notwithstanding the smartness of its rival, The Herald, but the contract between the proprietors and Sampson, Low & Co. was so very comprehensively drawn that it is very doubtful whether the payment of the stipulated price can be enforced. Counsel have advised the publishers that they have a valid right of action in several cases, but it is not likely that Sir Morell, whose main object was to defend himself from the gratuitous attacks and aspersions of his enemies, will join in these proceedings.
There are pirates and pirates. An American free-booker has sent Mrs. Humphrey Ward a check for $500 on account of the profits of a filibustered edition of Robert Elsmere. This is golden balm for unprotected authors. EDMUND YATES.

No Cause for Alarm.

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—The Post says there is no reason for alarm over the reported preparations for the transfer of Russian troops towards the Austrian and German frontiers. It asserts that the Russian Government decided upon these movements last spring. It also says the probability of Russian warlike action towards the west is entirely out of the question in view of the present general European situation. Russia's relations with Germany have continued to be of a satisfactory nature since the Emperor's recent visit to St. Petersburg.

British American Association.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—The national convention of the British American Association resumed its deliberations yesterday morning. After some unimportant preliminaries, it went into committee of the whole to consider a declaration of principles and a constitution and bylaws. The declaration of principles of the British American Association of Pennsylvania was used as a model. It was decided to call the new organization the National British American Association of the United States.

Steamship Collision.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Oct. 24.—The steamship Atlas, of the Atlas line, collided with another craft, said to be a ferry, while coming up the bay shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The starboard bow of the Atlas was stove in. She proceeded until she was off the Barclay-street ferry when she went down nose first. Tugs rescued the crew. The Atlas had just arrived from the West Indies.

Detained at Quarantine.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The steamer Ells from Bremen is detained at quarantine with several cases of smallpox among her 515 steerage passengers. The sick immigrants have been removed to Hoffman Island.

Declared Off.

VIENNA, Oct. 24.—The New Free Press says that the idea of a marriage between Prince Alexander, of Battenberg, and Princess Victoria, a sister of the German Emperor, has been abandoned.

IN MANITOBA.

SINCE last session of Parliament the Canadian Pacific railway has no special or extraordinary rights in the Northwest. Before that time it had the special privilege of monopoly granted in the bargain to build the road made with the company. The only rights it now has are those given to it or any railway by the law applying to and governing all railways. It is under the provisions of the general law that the Canadian Pacific is trying to keep the Red River railway from being built across its line. It appeals to the courts for an injunction preventing the crossing being made. The injunction was granted for a time, and the question as to a permanent injunction is before the courts. If the promoters of the Red River road force a crossing in opposition to the the orders of the courts they will act illegally. If in the dispute blood is shed a tremendous responsibility will rest upon those who cause it to be spilled. In allowing matters to rest until the courts decide the legal question the Manitoba Government has acted wisely.

The Manitoba Government and the the Liberal press are trying to throw the responsibility for the trouble upon the Government. Premier Greenway applied to Sir John Macdonald to interfere, but Sir John does not, perhaps unfortunately, control the Canadian Pacific or the rival road. Mr. Greenway wrote:—

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 18, 1888.

To the Right Hon. Sir John Macdonald, Ottawa:

This government is committed to a complete railway from the boundary to Portage la Prairie this fall. We have a large amount of material ready and tracklaying outfit at work. Track-layers will reach the first crossing of the C. P. R. branch tomorrow. The C. P. R. have a dead engine derailed across over the grade where it crosses their branch. They also have a force of men stationed at the crossing day and night, who have frequent communication with the C. P. R. officers in the city. They undoubtedly propose to forcibly resist our crossing. The people of Manitoba will not brook this interference, nor will the government be responsible for the consequences if the obstruction be persisted in. We ask you to arrange with the C. P. R. to have their force removed, that our tracklaying may go on peaceably.

THOMAS GREENWAY.

Sir John Macdonald's reply to this communication was as follows:—

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct, 18, 1888.

To Hon. Thos. Greenway, Winnipeg, Man.:

The Dominion Government have no control over the Canadian Pacific railway company. The administration of law and the preservation of peace belong to the Provincial Government. If the Canadian Pacific railway company are acting illegally they can be punished. If acting within their rights the courts and, if necessary, the provincial authorities will doubtless protect them in the maintenance of such rights.

JOHN A. MACDONALD.

FAKIRS AT FAIRS.

THIS fall few of the agricultural exhibitions in this neighborhood were visited by fellows who operate gambling games. At one fair there were a couple of gamesters who should not have been allowed on the grounds, but the Central and other fairs were fairly well free from them. It is satisfactory to see them shut out more than they were a few years ago, and the directors of exhibitions should be careful not allow questionable games on the grounds.

Upon this subject the London Advertiser says:—"The Welland Tribune puts in a good word for the fellows who run skin gambling games at fairs and such like gatherings, on the ground that they teach fools a lesson never to be forgotton. This bit of cynicism is neither sound morality nor sound reasoning. The same 'sucker' will bite over and over again. We once saw, at Port Stanley, a man beaten out of a dollar by a device by which it was simply impossible he could ever win unless the operator chose to let him. A friend of his took him to one side and showed him how it was mathematically impossible he could win. Was he convinced? Not a bit of it. In less than an hour he was losing other dollars hoping to get the first one back. Such fakirs should not be permitted to ply their trade anywhere. It is not gambling at all—it is simply stealing."

In Brief and to the Point.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order. Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites

is sold all over the world. It is far superior to plain Cod Liver Oil, palatable and easily digested. Dr. Martin Miles Stanton, Bury Bucks, London, England, says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion, and taken it myself. It is palatable, efficient, and can be tolerated by almost anyone, especially where cod liver oil itself cannot be borne." Put up in 50 cent and $1 size.

WON IN THE LISTS OF LOVE.

Boston Knights Prove That the Days of Chivalry are not o'er.

BOSTON, Oct 24.—"I've got her, and what are you going to do about it?" This was the triumphant crow of George Cowley, a young East Bostonian, last evening as, with his sweetheart on his arm, he promenaded Meridian-street. It was addressed to Howard Wheeler, and was heard by a large crowd of spectators. The indications were that a lively altercation was to take place. Each principal was surrounded by his friends, some urging one method of fight and others another. The two pulled off their coats to have a scrap in Maverick-square, but were prevented.

It seems that both Cowley and Wheeler had been courting the same girl, and that she had accepted their attentions with impartiality. In order to settle the question both appealed to her. She declared that she did not know which she loved the best. A most ludicrous scene then ensued. Cowley asked the girl, "Do you love me?" and she answered, "Yes." Wheeler exclaimed in an angry voice, "Don't you love me?" She answered, "I do, I do." Naturally the spectators laughed. The fiery youths then agreed to settle their love dispute by fighting it out. The girl agreed to accept the man who should be the victor. Between eleven and twelve o'clock, therefore, the rival lovers stripped to the skin and fought seven rounds. Wheeler was declared the winner. He had so completely knocked his opponent out that he was unconscious for nearly half an hour. Both principals were badly injured, but the victor was able to dress himself and escort the young woman who had been the cause of the battle to her home. She had been waiting within gunshot during the whole of the fight. The loser declares that he will live to fight another day.

CAPTURED ACROSS THE SEA.

Detective Heidelberg Finds Forger Sambalino in Belgium.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Adolph Sambalino, the confidential clerk of David Spere of 606 Broadway, who last summer swindled his employer out of $20,000 and disappeared the day his peculations were detected, was arrested yesterday on the Red Star Line pier in Antwerp by Detective Sergeant Heidelberg, who had followed him across the ocean.

Sambalino is a Belgian about 43 years old. At the time of his theft he had a wife and family living in Brooklyn. During his employer's absence Sambalino was the recognized head of the firm. He destroyed the books of the concern, and it was only after a long investigation that his peculations were discovered. His wife would give no clue, and was closely watched. She received letters from Europe postmarked Belgium, and the police made a shrewd guess as to who the writer was. Finally she sailed for Europe on a Red Star line steamer, and Detective Heidelberg sailed the same day by another steamer.

The detective knew Sambalino and met him at Antwerp before he went on the dock to meet the steamer on which his wife was to arrive in. Detective Heidelberg took his prisoner before the Antwerp magistrate, and he was securely housed to await the extradition papers, which are ready and will be sent on as soon as Secretary Bayard has attached his signature.

He Wasn't Accustomed to Gas.

ST. CATHARINES, Oct. 24.—Rev. Mr. Burkett, an aged delegate to the Baptist convention, turned off the gas in his room at the Welland House last night and in trying to make sure that he had accomplished his purpose probably turned it on again. A watchman detected the odor and found the old gentleman and the occupant of the adjoining room, Mr. Manning of Toronto, insensible. They were resuscitated with difficulty.

A Brutal Outrage.

NEW HAVEN, Ct., Oct. 24.—Geo. Williams, colored, and Charlie Crandell, white, at 2 o'clock this morning dragged Mrs. Scharkowski, aged 67, from her bed and brutally outraged her on the roadside. Her husband, who is 77 years old and who went to his wife's assistance, was hit on the head with a club and rendered unconscious. The fiends have been arrested.

A Farm House Burnt.

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 24.—Edward Travers' farm house in Sidney was burnt to the ground on Monday morning. The family had a narow escape.

Yorkshire Miners on Strike.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Several thousand Yorkshire miners have gone on strike. It is expected that many others will join the strike to-day and Thursday on the expiration of the notices to their employers. Coal has advanced from 30 to 40 per cent. in price during October.

A New Inman Liner.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The Inman line steamer City of Paris, a sister ship to the City of New York, was launched yesterday.

An upheavel taken place in leather and the boot and shoe trade shattered to pieces. Good Goods and Low Prices have gained for us the admiration of close buyers. Our 25c. Boots have completely demoralized the high priced dealers. One man says Goughs are selling below cost, so we are! That is we sell lots of Goods below the first cost of manufacture and still make a living profit. Some people would naturally like to know how we do it. "Here is the Secret." A wholesale man gets hard up, wants money, must have it. He knows Goughs are spot cash buyers. They send for the Wonderful Cheap Men. They arrive on the scene. The wholesale man says, Gough what will you give for 300 cases of these boots; Goughs look them over carefully, find them good desirable selling lines and make a bid of 40c. on the dollar; after hard fighting we get them. They arrive in Peterborough, are sold at 50c. on the dollar, we therefore sell them at half price and make a living profit for ourselves. These are a few of the many reasons why posterity has raised up and christened us GOUGHS, the Tirele s, Sleepless, Wide-Awake Boot Men, GOUGHS, the Kings of Clothiers, GOUGHS, the Original Agitators of Small Profits, GOUGHS, the Wonders of the 19th Century. TELL THAT TO THE MARINES!

NO USE DRAGGING A HERRING ACROSS THE TRAIL.

We are carrying the war into Africa. Our Solid Brigades of Overcoats, Regiments of Suits and Battalions of Pants with Companies of Vests and Underclothing, which we have deployed on the field so skillfully during the month, have terrorized the enemy, routed him at all points and carried the fortifications on the run. Our Guns, double-shotted with Low Prices have thrown cannister and grape into their ranks and scattered their forces which only existed on paper.

Our Victory is complete. An agonized wail sent up is a token of Surrender to the inevitable fortunes of war. WYATT & TURNER have carried the day and our enterprise has forever broken the yoke of High Prices that has held the County.

We hurl back defiance at the Clothing Sharks who would grasp at the right of an Honest and Pushing Firm to live and do Trade. The man who wants to buy Clothing don't care a continental whether it is bought wholesale in Montreal, Toronto, Omemee or Pontypool. What the purchaser wants is value. It don't interest him whether the Goods are sold from a plate glass palace or from a clapboard shanty with 7x9 windows. What he wants is Value and Low Prices. It does'nt concern the buyer to know whether the Goods were brought in by rail, steamboat, waggon, oxcart or on foot. What he wants is Value, Low Prices and Square Dealing. He does'nt care whether its rain or shine, hot or cold, late or early as long as he gets the Best Value, the Best Goods, the Best Treatment, the Best Satisfaction and he gets all these at WYATT & TURNER'S. Our Stock is our own, bought with honest money and we sell for as low a profit as we can do trade and live. Our competitors may howl and squirm, twist and wriggle but they may as well submit to the inevitable that WYATT & TURNER are doing, and will keep doing, the Clothing Trade of the County. See our Stock before buying. Look at some of our Prices which will be found to be Lower than the Lowest.

Suits from $1.75 up to $15.00. See our Big Mens' Suits for $1.75. It is a Marvel of Cheapness. Pants for 39c. (not overalls.) A Lot of Odd Vests to be sold at a trifle. Mens' Overcoats, commencing in price at $2.25 and ranring up to $15.

Mens' Knitted Top Shirts at 29c. and up, Mens' All Wool Under-Shirts and Drawers, All Wool remember, for 41c.

Fine Flannel Shirts for 35c, Home-made Socks and Mitts at 22½c. Heavy All Wool Cardigan Jacket for 75c. A Special Line of Mens' Canadian Tweed Pants to be sold Saturday, and Saturday only, at 75c.

Ties, Collars, Cuffs, Handkerchiefs in an endless variety; a Lovely Line of Wool Carriage Rugs cheap. Come early and avoid the rush.

TEA!

A Chinese writer says: "To make good tea it is an old custom to use running water boiled over a lively fire. That from springs in the hills is the best, and river water next, while well water is the worst. Do not boil the water too hastily; as, first it begins to sparkle like crab's eyes, then, somewhat like fishes' eggs, and lastly it boils up like pearls innumerable springing and waving about. This is the way to boil the water."

If you like a splendid cup of tea try one of the many brands in stock. The price varies with the quality. Splendid Teas at low prices. Better Teas a trifle higher. The best not dear and well worth the moderate price asked.

Port Hope Knitting Works.

The Port Hope Knitting Works finding their branch store on Simcoe-st. entirely too small to handle their rapidly increasing business, have arranged to occupy the store lately in possession of Mr. A. McNeil. Call and see their goods at manufacturers' price.

The Trouble with the Railway.

The C. P. R. teams continued until six o'clock last night taking the gravel from off the island in the river. To-day work was discontinued until this afternoon, when it was recommenced at about two o'clock. Mayor Stevenson communicated with the solicitor in Toronto in reference to the matter, and if an answer is received in time it is probable a Council meeting will be held this evening to consider it.

Next Tuesday night, October 30th, will be the last night that new members will be allowed to join the Peterborough Vocal Society.

A Gunning Accident.

An old man named Edward Hardy, of Norwood, while out shooting yesterday afternoon met with an accident of such a serious nature that he will have to lose his arm and perhaps his life. He had a muzzle loading double barrelled shot gun, one barrel of which hung fire, but went off when he was reloading the other barrel. The charge entered his shoulder just above the right arm, making a hole as large as a man's hand. The gun was loaded with ordinary sized shot. Mr. Hardy was driven to Norwood and had his wound dressed. He is very weak from loss of blood. Some effort will be made to send him to Peterborough to the Nicholls Hospital.

The Laying of the Corner Stone.

The corner stone of the St. Joseph Hospital is being laid this afternoon with the usual interesting and solemn ceremony by His Lordship Bishop Dowling. The members of the clergy who will assist His Lordship were:—Vicar-General Laurent, of Lindsay; Vicar-General Browne, of Port Hope; Rev. Father O'Connell, Douro; Rev. Father Conway, Norwood; Rev. Father Keilty, Ennismore; Rev. Father Murray, Cobourg; Rev. Father Larkin, Grafton; Rev. Father Casey, Campbellford; Rev. Father S. O'Connell, Brighton; Rev. Father McCloskey, Victoria Road; Rev. Father O'Brien, Fenelon Falls; Rev. Father Feenee, (Hamilton diocese), Priceville, Ont.; Rev. Father Davis (Kingston diocese), Madoc; Rev. Father Doherty, (Hamilton diocese), Arthur; Rev. Fathers McEvay, Rudkins and Doupe, of Peterborough.

Council Meeting.

A special meeting of the Town Council is called for this evening at 8 p.m. It is inferred that the question of the appropriation by the C.P.R. of material from the island in the river will come before the meeting.

Press Broken.

The press in the Times office was broken by an accident last night. We are requested to state that in consequence of the accident the paper will be no issue of that paper to-morrow and the day after, the broken parts having to be replaced by duplicates from New York.

The Beautiful Rain

Has worked havoc with the shoddy man's boots. The soles have come off and the counters have folded gracefully down over the heel. King's make of boots never do this. Try a pair or so from Kidd, the man who keeps only good boots. No shoddy!

YOUNG HY SON is in great demand at M. R. KIDD'S. Call and C.

A Fine Calendar.

The first calendar for 1889 to hand is one issued by the Chicago and Northwestern Railway company, and it is a beautiful piece of work. It is an excellent engraving of three children wading in the sea shore, and the positions, attitudes and expressions are as natural as life. Owing to the great call for the calendars the company offer them for 25 cents.

Enlarged.

The Port Hope Times has been considerably enlarged. A column has been added to the width of each page and the columns lengthened. The Times is a bright daily and has been steadily improving. We are pleased to see this last evidence of its prosperity and hope that increased patronage will support the enterprising proprietors, Messrs. Trayes & Laird, in their additional expense.

Sadly Afflicted.

The Gebbie family, says the Hastings Star, have been afflicted by death in a measure which few are called upon to bear. Within seven years father, mother, and four or five children have fallen victims to the fell destroyer, consumption. On Monday last two of the family, Thomas, aged 21 years, and Bella, aged 24 were laid side by side in the Norwood cemetery, the former died on Saturday, and the latter on Sunday.

Such a Rattling Sale

has not been held for some time as the clearing out sale at J. Best's stand, George-st. What brings customers is the fact, so well known, that the stock is one of great value, real regular lines of new goods bought for the fall trade. Everything is cut down in price as a clearance must be effected. You will miss many bargains if you delay. Take the opportunity. Winter underclothing at cost. Dress goods at low figures. Buy at once. d93tf

Another Philadelphia Meeting.

A despatch from Philadelphia on October 23rd says:—"More than $600 has been subscribed by the residents of the northwestern section of this city to be used in an effort to save James Farley, a Philadelphian, who has been sentenced to death in Canada for the killing of an Indian. At a meeting last night resolutions were passed requesting Governor Beaver to ask the Canadian Government to show the condemned clemency and give him a new trial."

A Very Sudden Death.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. George Savigny, who resided about seven miles down the river, at Savigny's Point, died very suddenly. He went out in the afternoon to help his sons to kill pigs. Afterwards he sat down by the fire and told his sons that he felt sick. He then walked to the house, and just as he entered the door he sank down and at once expired. Mr. Savigny was about 50 or 55 years of age, and was much respected. He had lived for years at the same place and was well known. He was a son-in-law of Mr. Thomas Armstrong, McDonnel-st., and two of his sons live in town.

"Spook Pit."

In reference to the bones found in the gravel pit near Hastings the Star says:—"Spook Pit," is the ghostly name by which a gravel pit about 1½ miles down the railway, east of the village, is known by the train hands. It received its name from the quantity of human bones—whole skeletons, quite frequently—which the navvies meet with. Muscular fellows the original owners of the bones, must have been, for the greater portion are of an unusually large size. Great, massive, finely formed skulls, well preserved, with the teeth firmly embedded in the flashless sockets occasionally roll down the bank, as new ground is broken, and the navvies, when detained in the pit, employ themselves adjusting the fragments into skeletons. Evidently, the spot had been an Indian camp-ground and cemetery."

Before the Magistrate.

John Sullivan, "laboring John," was run in last night by Officer McGinty for being drunk. At the Police Court this morning Magistrate Dumble fined him $2 or ten days in gaol. John went up on the hill for ten days.

Edmund Larmer, a resident of Rawdon township, was found asleep on a verandah by the police last night and was given the use of one of the sleeping apartments for the night. At the court this morning he was discharged as he stated he intended taking the first train for home.

Thos. Ritchie was again placed in the tolls yesterday by Constable Adams for being drunk and disorderly. Ritchie had been engaged in some kind of a row on Simcoe-st., but at the court to-day he pleaded not guilty and denied that he was drunk. The case was laid over until to-morrow, so that witnesses could be examined. The man with whom he was said to have had the fight pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk and disorderly and paid a fine of $2 and costs.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

CONFIRMATION SERVICES.

Thirty-three Young People Identify Themselves with the Church.

Confirmation services were held at St. Luke's church, Ashburnham, last evening, when Bishop Sweatman, of Toronto, officiated in the solemn ceremony, confirming nineteen young ladies and fourteen young gentlemen. This was a total of thirty-three persons, which must be most encouraging to the rector, Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, as evidencing the fact that his labors among his parishioners have not been in vain, and that the Divine Being has blessed the seed which he has sown throughout the past quarter.

The church was filled by a large assemblage of parishioners, who had come to witness the interesting and solemn ceremonies. Rev. Mr. Bradshaw conducted the opening service, and the choir lead the singing. His Lordship Bishop Sweatman then commenced the solemnization of the confirmation. In beginning the reading of the preface, he took occasion to address a few words to those who were about to attach themselves to the church. He exhorted them to make this ceremony a real thing. They were about to attach themselves to the church where they had been baptised. They should make their membership a real thing by selecting some sphere, no matter how small, where they could do some work for God. They were consecrating themselves wholly to Jesus Christ and should see that the surrender of their hearts was real and no empty profession. They would be sure to find out that the warfare against the world, flesh and the devil was a reality, and they would have to give themselves wholly to God, and not come in any half-hearted manner. They were, he said, to cheerfully take His yoke upon them and serve him with all their hearts. He spoke of the solemn impression that such a ceremony must have upon them, especially at such a time when they were about to part for a time with their beloved pastor, and said they all hoped that this holiday would, with the help of God, restore him to health and vigor. He knew that their rector's wish was that they should make this service a reality and devote their lives to the Lord's work. He referred to the blessed consciousness of the relationship to God—that of father to children—and closed his remarks by impressing upon them the power of the Holy Spirit to sustain and strengthen them at all times.

The usual service or preface was then gone through with by the Bishop, and then followed the laying on of hands by His Lordship as each one of the young ladies and gentlemen knelt before him.

A hymn was sung and a prayer offered and the Bishop closed the meeting with the benediction.

A Perfect Fit.

It is very hard sometimes for ladies to decide where to leave their orders for mantles, so many garments spoiled by careless cutting and work. H. S. Griffin & Co. are doing a rushing trade in mantles made to order and they give a perfect fitting jacket, dolman or ulster at close cash prices.

Marvellous Views.

"Paris, the Magnificent," will be Mr. Ragan's subject Monday evening. The Harrisburg Telegram says:—"Entertainment's more enjoyable and profitable cannot be imagined. The views are simply marvellous, and the descriptions fit them completely. Mr. Ragan is a fluent speaker, his wordpainting is masterly, and the tours have never been surpassed in interest and real merit." 1d96

Personal.

Dr. E. Spilsbury, of Toronto, will be at the Grand Central Hotel, Peterborough, on Saturday, Oct. 27th, for consultation. See card.

The REVIEW desires to acknowledge the receipt of British Columbia papers from Mr. J. J. Lundy, who is visiting the Pacific slope.

Mr. R. Sherlock, of Peterborough, has been appointed a foreman on the C.P.R. elevators at Fort William, and has supervision of thirty-six men.

Mr. D. W. Dumble, who left for Texas a few weeks ago on a business trip, returned home last night, and wielded the wand of justice at the Police Court this morning.

Mr. C. W. Hawley who has been for some time in the Ontario Bank here, has been moved to the branch of that bank at Aurora, where he will fill a higher position than he has here, he having received promotion.

The two nephews of Mr. T. Cavanagh, of the Balmoral, sons of Mr. John Cavanagh, of San Francisco, who arrived here on a visit to their uncle last week, left for home this morning, having received word that their father was dying.

Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, of St. Luke's, leaves on the 5.50 train this evening on his extended trip for the benefit of his health. It is the hope of his many friends here that he will return in the spring renewed in health and vigor. Rev. Geo. Warren will have charge of the parish in his absence.

HAVELOCK.

Correspondence of the Review.

GENERAL.—Things in Havelock at the present are flourishing. Several buildings are already nearing completion. The flour and feed store, which is in course of erection, will soon be ready for use.

NEW CHURCH.—The Presbyterian congregation are taking steps towards the erection of a new church to be built on the lot immediately adjoining the drug store.

A GOOD PROJECT.—A petition is already in circulation for raising a sum of money for the purpose of building a sidewalk from the railroad crossing at the west end of the yard to the church. The idea is a good one and we hope all will feel interested in it and have it completed before winter sets in.

CIRCUIT AFFAIRS.—From some cause the result of the Harvest Home Festival held on the lawn of Mr. P. J. Garrison a few weeks ago has not as yet been made public. The interest that Mr. and Mrs. Garrison take in the maintenance of Methodism at that appointment is not in any way to be despised. And it affords us great pleasure to mention the fact that the effort put forward by them to help the financial standing of the circuit was in every way a success. Bounties were provided by the ladies, all of which were bountifully partaken of, after which, on account of the coolness of the atmosphere, the crowd adjourned to the school house, where a programme consisting of music, speeches and recitations was quickly arranged by the pastor, Rev. W. B. Seccombe, who in his usual pleasant and agreeable manner acted as chairman for the occasion. A very sociable afternoon and evening was spent, after which the crowd dispersed, all being well pleased and fully satisfied with the entertainment of the afternoon. We would not forget the aid Miss Wilson (sister of Mrs. Seccombe) rendered us on that occasion in the absence of our organist. We are dilighted to make known the fact that we have at last succeeded in making Havelock the home of our minister, Rev. W. B. Seccombe. Part of the house owned by Mr. John Johnston has been secured and already Mr. Seccombe and his family are quite comfortably settled in it. Certainly the advantages of having our minister with us are innumerable. Then, too, we have the additional assistance which Mrs. Seccombe is willing and able to give us. In Mrs. Seccombe we have a magnificent singer, her's being a well cultured voice, and besides that she is a beautiful organist. The services which she will be able to give to the choir will be highly appreciated.

PERSONAL.—Miss Nellie Wilson, of Hastings, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Seccombe.... Miss Ella Jeffs, sister of Dr. Jeffs, is at present visiting with him.... Miss Dugan, of Toronto, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Shipman. We are pleased to know that Miss Dugan intends to spend the winter with us. If the Misses Wilson and Jeffs could be induced to do the same I am sure the friends whom they are visiting would be delighted.... Messrs. Connaughty and Primrose are visiting friends in Murray.

HIGH WATER.—Owing to the rains we have had lately, the water has risen enough in the canal here to allow the Esturion to come into the wharf since the 17th inst. It makes it much more convenient for the public to have her land at the wharf.

Mr. C. E. Riggins, Beamsville, writes: "A customer who tried a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery says it is the best thing he ever used; to quote his own words, 'it just seems to touch the spot affected.' About a year ago he had an attack of bilious fever, and was afraid he was in for another, when I recommended this valuable medicine with such happy results."

THE CHEDDAR FAIR.

THE BLUE VASE.

By S. BARING GOULD.

The vase was precious before; it is inestimably more precious to me now!"

Frederick grunted, and went away.

The guests looked at the countess, then at the young man. A moment before they thought him lost; now, by his mother's readiness, they trusted he was saved.

Next morning, the young Count Lazinka was again in attendance on Frederick. The king came to him from his cabinet, holding a piece of paper in his hand; he had a frown on his face, and spoke gruffly.

"There," said he, "take it."

The paper was Sophie Mansfeld's petition. On the back was written in the king's own hand:

"Whoever of the artists in the porcelain factory at Berlin de dato in one month shall paint a vase as beautiful as that we broke yesterday evening at the Countess Lazinka's palace, shall have our gracious permission to marry or not to marry, to go back to Saxony or to stay at Berlin, as shall best please him or her; and we further promise that we will graciously give that person an annual salary of $500 should it content him or her to remain in our service, in our royal manufactory. Given at Sanssouci, this March 28, 1745. FREDERICK."

The offer of such a salary was liberal for Frederick the Great.

No sooner did Sophie Mansfeld receive the answer to her petition than she was fired with hope, and her enthusiasm for her art rekindled. She asked permission, and received it, to see the fragments of the vase the king had broken. When shown them, a light smile played over her lips.

"It was superb," said the countess. "Never was the equal seen, in delicacy of execution, or beauty of invention."

"Gracious lady," answered Sophie with a smile, "it was of my own painting, and I can excel it. Buoyed with hope of revisiting my home, and with desire to acknowledge my obligation to your son, I shall certainly surpass it."

CHAPTER III.

The appointed day arrived on which the vases were to be exhibited. The king's promise and offer were not limited to Sophie, and some rivalry existed among the artists in the royal factory.

During the month Lazinka had visited the workshop repeatedly to inspect progress, and he was confident in the success of his fair protege. The vase stood eighteen inches high without its cover; it was gracefully shaped. Sophie had herself sketched its outline. It was painted a deep purple blue, of the most superb richness, over which rococco ornaments in gold, part dull, part burnished, were etched with extraordinary ease and delicacy. On each side was a space where the white porcelain showed, and on the one side which was to be the back was a beautifully painted view of Potsdam, and on the other, the front, was Frederick the Great seated on his charger, waving his sword, wearing his cocked hat and coat of dark blue with cuffs and lining of scarlet. His waistcoat was yellow. He wore high boots, and on his breast a star. In the rear were the Prussian soldiers charging, and the smoke of battle. Beneath the picture was a scroll on which was inscribed:

"A l'eternelle gloire de Frederic le grand."

The vases had been brought to the palace at Potsdam, and were unpacked and placed on shelves for exhibition by the sub-director, Hirsch.

Hirsch was not a pleasant man; he was a Jew, and he had caused Sophie much annoyance by his attentions. He scowled at the young count whenever he entered the factory, and Lazinka had once remarked on his ill humor, to Sophie, without in the least guessing the occasion for it.

When the king and the company he had invited to attend him came into the gallery where the porcelain was on show, Hirsch and Wegeli were present, as were also the exhibitors, standing at a respectful distance. The king looked critically at the pieces shown him, but was specially struck with that painted by Sophie.

"Here?" said he, "Hirsch, fetch me that vase. It is as good as any turned out of the Saxon factory. Here—let me look at it."

"Majesty!" said Hirsch, "I fly to obey."

But instead of immediately doing what the king commanded, Hirsch proceeded to draw a silk handkerchief from his pocket, and to wipe the vase.

"Pardon your majesty," he said, "before I offer it into your august hands. Some dust has settled on it. So many persons are in the gallery."

"Come, come, never mind the dust; I like it—in battle."

But Hirsch wiped and rewiped the vase, and then, with a profound bow, handed it to the king.

Frederick was pleased at the shape of the piece, and the graceful sweep of the handles. "It is good, classical," he said. "There I am," he laughed. "That, I suppose, is intended for me at Mollnitz. I think I recognize the fortifications. But—I never went into battle so snug and smart as that; and whoever painted this has forgotten the sneeze of snuff that adorn my gracious nose. I ask any of my officers if I ever wore cloth with the gloss on it given me by the glaze on this porcelain? I have not so dapper a coat in my wardrobe; and my boots—Hein! at Mollnitz—were splashed. It was a muddy day! What is this inscription? To the eternal glory—Ah, there is dust, or smudge, or something there. Take the vase, Hirsch, wipe it again, and hand it to me once more."

Then the sub-director again received Sophie's beautifully printed piece, and now, kneeling at the king's feet, he proceeded to rub, and rub hard, at one portion of the surface. As he did so he cast a malignant glance at the count.

Sophie was surprised, and looked at Count Lazinka, who stood behind his majesty.

"That is all right; that will do," said the king. "Now give me the vase once more."

He held it up before his eyes, and studied the scroll below the picture of himself. Then, suddenly, his face changed; his cheeks dyed themselves crimson, and his eye flashed fire.

"Who painted this vase?" he shouted in a voice of thunder.

"Sire," said Lazinka, "it was designed and drawn entirely by the Demoiselle Mansfeld."

"And she painted the inscription to the eternal memory of Frederick the Great, eh!"

"Your majesty," said Lazinka, again bowing and coloring, I must admit an indiscretion. It was I who wrote that inscription in characters of gold. I was one day visiting the demoiselle to inquire after the progress of the vase, when she had her gold paint mixed, and, sire, I was unable to conceive that the red paint she used could burn to gold. Then she invited me to write the words, and, sire, I with her quill inscribed [illegible]

"Ha, ha! The tyrant; yes, I hear you say as much."

The young count looked at the king in surprise.

"Ho!" shouted the king. "Where is the guard? Arrest them both—both Lazinka and the girl. They are both guilty of treason."

"Treason, sire!"

"Treason—yes," shouted the angry king. "You know what you wrote. You know; but you thought to conceal it from me, with a dab of paint, and when the vase reached your mother you would show it and laugh, 'A l'eternelle gloire de Frederic le grand tyrant!'"

Count Augustus Lazinka looked with perplexity at the vase and started, and the color died out of his cheek.

Thereon stood the words the king had uttered. The inscription was to the eternal glory of Frederick the great tyrant. One reproachful glance he cast at Sophie, but saw that equal amazement was pictured in her expressive face. Certainly, he had written there the legend, "To the eternal glory of Frederick the Great." Hirsch, in wiping the vase, had wiped away a little blue paint at the end of the scroll, and, in so doing, had disclosed the last word, a new conclusion, which altered the whole character of the in-

THE MOST DESPERATE IN YEARS.

Roughs Try to Carry Off a Woman in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—There was a big uproar in the East Sixty-seventh-street police station last night. Yesterday afternoon Capt. Gunner learned that August Hackenburg, a painter, of No. 1686 Avenue A, and his sweetheart, Rosina Gropel, a dressmaker of No. 337 East Seventy-fourth-street, had been attacked by a gang of roughs at the foot of East Seventy-fifth-street Saturday night.

Shortly after 8 o'clock last night Capt. Gunner called his reserve force, and with Detectives Martin and Campbell marched to the foot of East Seventy-fifth-street and arrested all who were loitering there. The prisoners were taken to the station house and placed in line.

The Captain then called Hackenburg and Miss Gropel from his private office. Miss Gropel picked out John Dwyer, of No. 1545 Fourth-avenue; Matthew Kelsh, and Dennis Kilroy as her assailants. The couple went down to the river front Saturday and were conversing when the crowd of roughs assaulted them. One grasped Miss Gropel around the waist and carried her to a vacant lot, while the others pushed Hackenburg towards the river. He would have fallen overboard had he not grabbed a pile. The roughs, thinking that he was in the river, followed their companion who had carried away the young woman. Hackenburg lost no time in grabbing a big club that some of his assailants had dropped and started in pursuit. He arrived just in time, for the ruffians were trying to assault his sweetheart. He used the club freely, and finally the men ran away.

Miss Gropel is positive that Dwyer is the man who carried her away. She is not so positive about the other two men. She says that one of the men stole her pocketbook, which contained $1. The three men identified by the women were locked up and the other fifteen were allowed to go.

Capt. Gorman cannot account for the couple's action in not reporting the case at once. The assault is the most desperate case that has happened in the precinct in years.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger airl passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

Yarns and Hosiery

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland, Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies, at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You shou'd ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what in ducements may be offered we never allow ourselves to be undersold.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1888.

THE MANITOBA MUDDLE.

CHIEF JUSTICE TAYLOR DISSOLVES THE INJUNCTION.

A Public Meeting in Winnipeg Last Night at Which Some Wild Suggestions are Made—Better Counsels Prevail.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 25.—Chief Justice Taylor delivered judgment yesterday morning dissolving the interim injunction restraining the Northern Pacific and Manitoba road from crossing the Canadian Pacific Railway branch, and holding that the Railway Commissioner's proceedings were regular. The opinion states that the building of the line is under authority conferred on the Commissioner by the Legislature, and doubts whether under the circumstances the Court can interfere to prevent him. The Court holds that the balance of convenience is in favor of defendant and, though he regards the question as one of great constitutional import which could hardly be decided on a motion for an injunction, he does not discuss the point whether the Local Legislature had the power to pass the act authorizing the building of the road, as the matter is now before the Supreme Court.

It was expected in consequence of Chief Justice Taylor's decision that an effort would be made to force a crossing to-day and the greatest excitement prevailed. Placards were issued by the Government, calling for special constables, and a public metting to discuss the situation was held in Trinity Hall.

It however degenerated almost into a farce, the character of the majority of the speakers not being such as to impress anybody with their importance. A Chicago tea dealer named Labloude wanted to borrow two fire engines to squirt water on anyone who would oppose them in making the crossing. This was carried hurriedly but milder counsels prevailed and it was lost, to Fablonde's discomfiture.

Another resolution endorsing the Government and offering moral and physical aid was adopted and the meeting broke up both in confusion and darkness, the gas having been suddenly turned off.

The Canadian Pacific Railway officials on hearing of the Chief Justice's decision at once sent 225 men out on the line where they are now stationed expectant of a row to-day, and in this they are sadly mistaken as the Government intend to await the decision of the court on the second injunction granted the Canadian Pacific Railway by the Chief Justice in the matter. The injunction is returnable Friday, until which time nothing will be done.

The Canadian Pacific Railway officials are apparently satisfied. No crossing will be made if they can prevent it, and they will place 2000 or more men on the ground if necessary to defend what they claim to be their rights.

THE POPE TO THE PILGRIMS.

His Holiness Says God Predestined Rome to be the Church's Capital.

ROME, Oct. 24.—The Pope received the Neapolitan pilgrims yesterday, and made an address to them. After condemning the Italian Government and stating that the hatred of all foes of the Papal See was concentrated in Rome, the Pope said: "In this city they do not hesitate to confirm by new insults, even on solemn occasions, the usurpation and violence which are within the remembrance of the whole world, degrading Rome to the simple position of the capital of the kingdom, while God predestined it to be the See of the Vicar of Christ, and it shall ever remain the Capital of the Catholic World." In concluding the Pope expressed perfect faith in the triumph of his cause.

Boulanger on Revision.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—Gen. Boulanger yesterday attended a meeting of the committee of the Chamber of Deputies which is considering the Government's bill for the revision of the constitution. Gen. Boulanger expressed himself in favor of the dissolution of the Chamber of Deputies and the convoking of a constituent assembly which should be independent of the executive power and responsible to the country. It should be the duty of the assembly to prevent abuses which might lead to the establishment of a dictatorship. Gen. Boulanger was pretty sharply handled by the Revision Committee, but he declined to be drawn into what he called the details. He adhered to his former opinions in regard to the senate and the presidency. He regarded the restoration of the monarchy as a sheer impossibility. Two-thirds of France, he said, would rise against it. The country ought to decide the religious question. Politics must be prohibited in the army.

Milan Gets His Divorce.

BELGRADE, Oct. 25.—The Official Journal publishes a pastoral prepared by the Metropolitan Theodosius, in which he says that in the exercise of his power as leader of the Servian Church, and by virtue of rights consecrated by precedents, he dissolves the marriage of King Milan and Queen Natalie, and declares that it is no longer existent. King Milan, in a letter to the Metropolitan, written previous to the issuance of the pastoral, after pointing out that the ordinary laws of the country could not be applied to the sovereign, who stood above them, demanded that the Metropolitan avert the danger threatened for the Servian state and dynasty by dissolving His Majesty's marriage with Queen Natalie.

IS MARRIAGE A FAILURE?

Fanny Davenport Gives Her Views on This Great Question.

TORONTO, Oct. 25.—The topic which is now agitating England and a great portion of the civilized world—"Is Marriage a Failure?"—was presented to the American Bernhardt, Fanny Davenport, yesterday, with the request that she furnish her opinion. This is her reply:

I have been hourly expecting my opinion would be asked upon this momentous question now upon the tapis, and so fully criticised and discussed by ministers, lawyers, artists, singers. I do not believe any one who can give an opinion should hesitate to do so; but I am certain were the average taken among my own profession as to whether marriage is a failure, the answer would be "No, it is not." Marriage, the joining of two people by a minister to live together through weal and woe, joy and prosperity, is one thing, and, so long as it is looked upon as this sort of contract, can never bring but failure. But two people mated with love and forbearance at the helm, a proper degree of consideration before marriage, looking at the life before us with the man we love, taking him under all and every circumstance and saying to ourself, "now 'tis well enough, but in time to come, when youth, passion, beauty, all are things of the past, is there that in him to still hold my respect and confidence and make him before all men in my opinion." There can be no lasting happiness without respect and a certain amount of dependence upon a woman's part. A woman who marries upon the stage requires in a husband love enough to ignore the world's petty opinions, and above all consideration for the woman he marries, for he must remember no woman in public life—a servant of the public—can be as a woman who has no tie but her home life and her husband. I cannot believe that once married, no matter what misery and wretchedness it brings, two people should drag out their lives together because married. It must kill the soul as well as body in time. Where there are children a man and woman should suffer death of every hope and ambition rather than part for their children's sake, and to keep the fathers and mother's name honored for them; but where there is no such bond, I think marriage lived together in the flesh, when the soul, the heart, the mind are two, a wrong to both and to God. Marriage is not a failure, but its abuse is. A French artist when given this question the other day, replied: "No. An actress should never marry; she cannot amuse the public for three hours and then come home and amuse her husband." This is where the mate, and considerate man, would smart and kill such an opinion. FANNY DAVENPORT.

An Epidemic of Smallpox at Keswick—Contractor Cathro's Boodle.

TORONTO, Oct. 25.—Dr. Bryce, Secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, returned yesterday from Keswick, a village of a little more than a hundred souls on the east shore of Lake Simcoe, where an epidemic of smallpox has broken out. The Provincial Board of Health was notified of the presence of the disease late on Friday night, and instant measures were taken to isolate the infected houses. On Saturday there were five cases, and since then the number has swelled to eleven.

ALLEGED FALSE PRETENCES.

A Toronto Piano Agent Arrested at Hamilton—Wanton Vandalism.

HAMILTON, Oct. 25.—A. W. Graham, a well-dressed and slick-looking piano agent from Toronto, was arrested on the street yesterday on a charge of false pretences preferred against him by John Prior. Graham is a young married man about 26 years old. He sold a piano to Prior on Oct. 4 for $423, receiving at the same time four promissory notes of $100 each at different dates. Graham explained that the piano was in bond and that he would pay the duty the following day and deliver it immediately. The piano hasn't been delivered yet, and Prior has reason to believe that Graham never intended to deliver it. He also suspects that the defendant has discounted the notes. Graham told the detective that his partner held the notes. Before Prior decided to prosecute he saw the prisoner several times, and the latter always had some excuse for not sending around the piano.

PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE PARNELL COMMISSION.

Attorney-General Webster Continues His Presentation of The Times' Case—Imperial Federation Meeting at Glasgow.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Attorney-General Webster informed the Parnell Commission yesterday that the other side still continued to ignore the order for the production of the league's bank books. Justice Hannen intimated that if the refusal to produce the books was final, the court would have recourse to its powers to compel their production.

Attorney-General Webster then continued the presentation of The Times' case, making a further review of the articles on "Parnellism and Crime." He quoted from a letter of Patrick Egan, in which the writer sent $50 for the payment of men who had committed outrages, and said that evidence would be adduced to prove that Mr. Parnell knew that Egan had supplied Sheridan and Boyton with funds to enable them to promote outrages. He would not suggest that Mr. Parnell knew the particular individuals who were to be attacked but he did know that outrages were a part of the league system. Prior to the Phœnix Park murders Mr. Parnell neither did nor said anything in condemnation of the crime committed by members of the league. When Mr. Parnell appeared in the witness box he would ask him what he had done to put down acts of violence before May, 1882, the month in which the Phœnix Park murders occurred. The issue after the murders of the manifesto reprobating them, signed by Parnell, Dillon and Davitt, was only done under necessity. It would be proved by Captain O'Shea that Mr. Parnell objected to signing the manifesto and that he signed it with reluctance.

The Attorney-General further accused Mr. Parnell of possessing criminal knowledge regarding the use of vast funds by the league for criminal purposes. Accounts published by The Dublin Freeman's Journal gave the receipts of the Land League from October, 1879, to October, 1881, as £144,890, only £42,877 of this sum was accounted for. How were the remaining £100,000 used?

The Attorney-General was then proceeding to expand upon the support received by the Parnellites from The Irish World when the court adjourned for the day.

LABBY'S LETTER.

The Failure of the Royal Bear Hunt—The Kaiser and the Vatican.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The real cause of the failure of the royal bear hunts in Transylvania was that the peasants had carefully driven the creatures away from the places where the Crown Prince of Austria and the Prince of Wales were to shoot. There were a large number of bears on the ground only a few days before the royal hunt, but when the sportsmen arrived on the scene all had departed to the recesses of the neighboring mountains. The people of Transylvania detest both the Austrians and Hungarians, and whenever a great hunt is announced they deliberately drive the bears and deer to a distance, so that, as a rule, the sporting arrangements of the territorial magnates are kept secret.

Emperor William's visit to the Vatican was certainly not a success, for a well-informed person writes to me from Rome that directly the Pope and the Emperor were left alone his holiness abruptly commenced to discuss the temporal power question, and would not be diverted from it, so that the young Emperor, who is acknowledged, even by the pontifical entourage, to have displayed much cleverness and tact in answering the Pope, was obliged to stop the debate by asking permission to present Prince Henry, who at that very instant suddenly entered the room. It was noticed that the Emperor drove direct from the Vatican to the Quirinal, which was a plain proof of his displeasure, as arrangements had been made, in order to soothe the papal susceptibilities, for His Majesty to change carriages at the Palazzo Capranica. Two of the principal telegraph officers were almost exclusively occupied the day after the Emperor's visit to the Vatican in transmitting cipher messages to and from Prince Bismarck at Friedrichsruhe.

King Humbert's gift to Emperor William was quite unique, being a series of models of the remains of the men, women, children and animals in the famous Pompeiian museum, which have been taken by the well-known sculptor, Achille Dorsi, who has been engaged several months on the work, and the museum has been closed to the public in consequence. These are the first models that have been taken of the bodies in the museum.

I have learned, in a rather round-about way it is true, but still from a thoroughly trustworthy source, that Empress Frederick is greatly pleased with Sir Morell's vindication, and that she has written a letter of nearly twenty pages to tell him so.

THE COUNCIL AND C.P.R.

A LONG DISCUSSION RE THE REMOVAL OF GRAVEL.

The Councillors Talk two Hours and Finally Allow the Railroad to go on With the Work—Some Opposition to the Railroad.

A special meeting of the town Council was called for last night, to consider the matter of difference between the C.P.R. and town with reference to the former taking the gravel from the island in the river. Mayor Stevenson was in the chair and there were present Councillors Cahill, Davidson, E. H. D. Hall, A. Hall, Langford, Moore, Douglas, Yelland, Kendry and Hartley.

The MAYOR stated why the Council had been called together. He said that several of the councillors had called on him and stated that the railway was carrying away the gravel from off the island. He had, in company with them gone to see Mr. Edwards, town solicitor, and that gentleman had sent the company a letter ordering them to stop taking away gravel and threatening them with a writ if this was not done. He had been called on by the superintendent of the work, who had told him that the company could not bring in material until they had cars running, and the superintendent had also stated that if the council prevented them from taking the gravel, the work would be stopped entirely. His Worship thought the extension should be built as it was in the general interests of the town.

On motion reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

THE DISCUSSION COMMENCED.

Councillor YELLAND asked who had power to stop the work without consulting the council.

The Mayor replied that several councillors had complained of it to him and he had gone up to see Mr. Edwards. That gentleman sent them notice to stop the work or a writ would be issued to-day.

Councillor MOORE asked if the C.P.R. solicitor was not to have been present at that meeting?

The MAYOR said he had received a telegram from him stating that he would be present but he had failed to arrive.

Councillor E. H. D. HALL explained that the resolutions of the Council gave the railway the right to run over the island but not to take away any of the gravel. They had taken the liberty of running the gravel from off the island without consulting the Council. There was no authority to remove earth but just to run over it.

Councillor MOORE said he believed this action was assuming, as the road only had been given the privilege of using over the island and not removing the earth. Interference would now throw a number of men out of work. He did not think they should interfere with the extension of the work which was in the interests of the town. The island was only worth $200 and he should not like to see the construction of the work stopped for such a consideration. The C. P. R. had never received any great benefits from the town, and the road had saved thousands of dollars to manufacturers by giving Peterborough a competing railroad and a two hundred dollar island should not stand in the way of the interests of the town. If Mr. Dawson or any other person sustained injury to their property from the construction of the road they could get compensation for the same. He urged that the Council should not stand in the company's way.

OPPOSITION TO THE RAILROAD.

Councillor DOUGLAS did not think that the road should have the island. They had got over fifty millions of dollars from the country and many men had made independent fortunes out of the road. The company should be able to pay for what they wanted and he thought it was rather a small thing for them to come begging to any council.

Councillor HARTLEY thought, considering the interests of the town, it was a small matter to quarrel over. The line would be raised some fifteen or sixteen feet above the island and he could not see what value the property would be to the town. He had no interest in the C. P. R., but he had an interest in the town, and he thought it a small affair to stand in the way of this enterprise for the sake of $100. If they were going to do this it was about time they took all the advertisements out of the papers and ceased asking any manufacturers to locate here. What better inducement could be offered manufacturers than that they would have a railroad running past their door? He would not oppose any enterprise of this kind.

Councillor KENDRY thought the Bridge and Street Committee should not have taken the action they did without a Council meeting. The members of the Council should encourage any enterprise, and he thought this extension would be a great addition to our railway facilities which were always considered by manufacturers. They were expending $150 to advertise the town and then they were going to stop this road from bringing manufacturies here. The road was in the interests of the town and should be supported. If any damage had been done to any property there was the proper course open for those interested. He thought the committee had acted too hastily and he hoped the Council would give the company what they want. If it was $1,000 he would be in favor of giving it to them. He had not received notice of the meeting of the Bridge and Street Committee and knew nothing of the action taken.

WHO HAD TO ACCOUNT FOR IT.

Councillor MOORE said that all the Bridge and Street Committee were not present at the meeting, and he did not approve of their action in going to Mr. Edwards.

Councillor E. H. D. HALL—it was not the committee, it was the Mayor.

Councillor MOORE—Who asked the Mayor to go?

Councillor HALL—Street and Bridge Committee.

Councillor MOORE—Well, perhaps Mr. Langford can tell us who spoke of going first.

Councillor LANGFORD—The Mayor spoke of it first.

Councillor MOORE said the Council should have been consulted. The two railroads were competing for every dollar and the C. P.R. would never have gone up to Dickson's only for the competition.

Councillor E. H. D. HALL thought the Mayor had only done his duty in protecting the property of the town and Mr. Moore should not blame His Worship.

Councillor YELLAND thought the railway was foolish to take any notice of a lawyer or Mayor, and he did not think the action was legal. He thought the understanding was that the road was to have the island if they left an outlet either below or above. He thought the road were doing a good work in clearing the watercourse. He was of the opinion that it would benefit Mr. Dawson's property. The road had cut down rates on freight and it was a a benefit to all.

THE MAYOR'S OPINION.

Mayor STEVENSON then called Councillor Hartley to the chair while he addressed the Council. He said yesterday morning he was called upon by members of the Street and Bridge Committee and told that the railroad men were digging away the island and destroying the property. He did not want to take any action himself and suggested that they go to see Mr. Edwards. Messrs. E. H. D. Hall, Langford and Douglas had done so and instructed Mr. Edwards to write the company that they were not to continue the work. He thought it would be an advantage of the town if the island was taken away entirely. One of the largest ratepayers had been asking the railway to run their line up to their mills, and were the Council going to stand in the way of the interests of the manufacturers? Outside of Peterborough people say that the people of Peterborough were the meanest set they knew of, as they never offered any inducement in the way of bonuses to manufacturers. They had a few years ago granted $150,000 to build a road from Toronto to Ottawa, and here they had everything, stations and all, at their doors without paying a cent. They had been benefitted by this road, and if the country had spent fifty millions of dollars there was no place that had been more benefitted than the town of Peterborough. He thought it was a paltry thing altogether. The superintendent had said that if a disagreement of this kind came up he could not settle it, the solicitor in Toronto could not and a settlement would probably not be arrived at this fall. From his conversation with C. P. R. some time ago he understood that eventually they would get two or three lines along there as it was convenient for their freight. The island was wearing away and nobody said a word and Ashburnham could take away gravel without a word being said. He thought in a few years the river between the line and the embankment would be all filled in and four acres of land made. He thought it was an outrage that the Council should stand in the way of these manufacturers for the paltry island. Their mill companies were paying more to-day for wheat than was paid in any place in Canada. They paid $1.24 for wheat and could do this as they made a first class flour. The farmers were getting the benefit of it and the town got the benefit also. If he had given it his consideration yesterday morning he would never have sanctioned the action that had been taken.

Councillor LANGFORD said the night before last at a meeting of the Finance Committee they discussed this matter, and decided to go and see what the railroad was doing. They went down and saw what was doing and went to the Mayor's office. The Mayor said it should be stopped and they went and saw Mr. Edwards and instructed him to write the company and, if they did not stop the work, to issue a writ. Why did not Mr. Stevenson say that he would not do it at once?

THE MAYOR.—I would have had I thought over it.

Councillor LANGFORD continuing, said he did not think they should give away the island.

Councillor KENDRY gave figures showing that the C. P. R. had been the means of causing a fifty per cent. drop in rates.

A MOTION AT LAST.

Councillor E. H. D. HALL thought they should not put any impediment in the way of this railway running up to the Dickson Company. He would move as follows:—That if the C.P.R. will give an undertaking binding on them to replace the same quantity of material that they remove from the island in the Otonabee river on the west side of the siding now being built to the Dickson race, at such time and place as the Council may require, that they be allowed to remove the island.

Councillor KENDRY objected to the motion as there was a clause blocking the work of the company.

On motion Mr. Hazlitt, manager of the Dickson Company, was allowed to address the Council. He said he would speak strictly for the interest of the town in this matter. He explained that he had given the C.P.R. no control of the line at the race. He had taken this precaution so that the G.T.R. or any other railway could have the same privileges as the C.P.R. As regarded the matter before the council it appeared to him to be an extraordinary thing that at the time the preliminary steps for the construction of the line were taken this matter had not been considered as so important. The removal of the island was in the interests of the town. He was satisfied that if the motion of Mr. Hall was carried that the road would not be built, at least not this winter. It was a question of success or failure with his tenants. Men were thrown out of work as he could not go on with his work until he saw whether the C. P.R. would be allowed to go on or not. Every siding built by the railway meant additional taxes to the town, and this extension would probably cost eight or ten thousand dollars. He spoke of the treatment of the council as discouraging and said if the council was in such straightend circumstances as to be compelled to attach such importance to $100, he would give them $100 for the island.

MR. DUMBLE SPEAKS.

Mr. DUMBLE, on motion, addressed the Council. He had been very glad when he heard that the railway was going to build this extension. He thought it was in the interests of the town and would lead to the filling in of the river between the line of railway and the embankment. Mr. Hazlitt might float his sawdust down to this place and the work of filling it in would be easy. He was ashamed of the Council, usually so level headed talking as they had on this matter. He would never have shown his teeth for $100 in a matter like this, as the good will of a railroad company was too valuable. He was glad to hear the sound, liberal views of some of the Councillors in regard to manufactures. Peterborough was a little behind other places, which were pulling up by a liberal policy towards manufactures. He would not like to have it said that they had a magnificent water power and did not know how to use it. Give the company all the islands in the river before they interfere with the interests of the manufactures.

Councillor DOUGLAS did not think the C. P.R was so liberal in their policy. The talk of stopping work was only for a purpose and he did not put much reliance on it.

Mr. R. E. Wood was on motion allowed to speak. He was present on behalf of Mr. Dawson. He spoke of the action of the railroad in taking the gravel, and said that Mr. Dawson's property would be affected and he had been asked to lay the matter before the Council for discussion. If the island was removed the water would be allowed a straight course down the river, and matter would accumulate in the trestle work and be a cause of disease and make a filth hole of it, as there would be no current except in the middle channel.

THE RAILWAY TO USE THE GRAVEL

Councillor MOORE spoke again saying that the work of the railway should not be blocked and finally moved in amendment seconded by Mr. Kendry, that the Ontario and Quebec railway be permitted to take gravel and soil from the island in the river Otonabee at Peterborough for a road bed or embankment without charge for their railway at or near that point, the company taking the gravel on on the eastern side of the river in a proper manner and with a clean cut so as to permit the flow of water at low water mark, but that nothing in this resolution shall be understood or construed as giving the said railway company any right, title or interest in the said island except the right of way."

SELL THE ISLAND.

Councillor DAVIDSON favored the selling of the island as he thought as they represented the people they should not give away their property for nothing. He gave his views, which he embraced in a motion seconded by Councillor DOUGLAS. The motion read:—"That the Corporation sell the island in the Otonabee river next to their proposed siding to the C. P. R. Co'y. for the sum of $600, provided they take the gravel or earth one foot below water mark."

Councillor CAHILL thought they should keep the island at least what was left of it. He might say that the chairman of the Bridge and Street Committee was not accountable for the action taken as all had favored it. He thought it would be an advantage if the river was filled in between the line and the embankment, and he favored giving the island if Mr. Hazlitt would undertake to fill this in.

Mr. Hazlitt wanted to state that if Mr. Davidson's resolution was carried the road would not be built this fall. He would not favor the selling of the island as it would be esplanaded before many years. If they wanted to let the road go on they should allow the company to continue to take the gravel. He would pay $100 for the gravel used if they required it and he would go so far as to give them material to do the filling in with if they would carry it down. The Council could do it with little expense.

Councillor DAVIDSON'S amendment was put and supported only by the mover and seconder. Councillor MOORE'S amendment was then put and carried.

The Council then adjourned to meet at call of the Mayor.

$10,000 Stock of Boots at 40c. on the Dollar.

An upheavel taken place in leather and the boot and shoe trade shattered to pieces. On Saturday we are going to run a special Boot Sale. Good Goods and Low Prices have gained for us the admiration of close buyers. Our 25c. Boots have completely demoralized the high priced dealers. One man says Goughs are selling below cost, so we are! That is we sell lots of Goods below the first cost of manufacture and still make a living profit. Some people would naturally like to know how we do it. "Here is the Secret." A wholesale man gets hard up, wants money, must have it. He knows Goughs are spot cash buyers. They send for the Wonderful Cheap Men. They arrive on the scene. The wholesale man says, Gough what will you give for 300 cases of these boots; Goughs look them over carefully, find them good desirable selling lines and make a bid of 40c. on the dollar; after hard fighting we get them. They arrive in Peterborough, are sold at 50c. on the dollar, we therefore sell them at half price and make a living profit for ourselves. These are a few of the many reasons why posterity has raised up and christened GOUGHS, the Tirele s, Sleepless, Wide-Awake Boot Men, GOUGHS, the Kings of Clothiers, GOUGHS, the Original Agitators of Small Profits, GOUGHS, the Wonders of the 19th Century. For roaring value in Clothing, Boots, Shoes or Furnishing Goods don't buy until you see the far famed

We are carrying the war into Africa. Our Solid Brigades of Overcoats, Regiments of Suits and Battalions of Pants with Companies of Vests and Underclothing, which we have deployed on the field so skillfully during the month, have terrorized the enemy, routed him at all points and carried the fortifications on the run. Our Guns, double-shotted with Low Prices have thrown cannister and grape into their ranks and scattered their forces which only existed on paper.

Our Victory is complete. An agonized wail sent up is a token of Surrender to the inevitable fortunes of war. WYATT & TURNER have carried the day and our enterprise has forever broken the yoke of High Prices that has held the County.

We hurl back defiance at the Clothing Sharks who would grasp at the right of an Honest and Pushing Firm to live and do Trade. The man who wants to buy Clothing don't care a continental whether it is bought wholesale in Montreal, Toronto, Omemee or Pontypool. What the purchaser wants is value. It don't interest him whether the Goods are sold from a plate glass palace or from a clapooard shanty with 7x9 windows. What he wants is Value and Low Prices. It does'nt concern the buyer to know whether the Goods were brought in by rail, steamboat, waggon, oxcart or on foot. What he wants is Value, Low Prices and Square Dealing. He does'nt care whether its rain or shine, hot or cold, late or early as long as he gets the Best Value, the Best Goods, the Best Treatment, the Best Satisfaction and he gets all these at WYATT & TURNER'S. Our Stock is our own, bought with honest money and we sell for as low a profit s we can do trade and live. Our competitors may howl and squirm, twist and wriggle but they may as well submit to the inevitable that WYATT & TURNER are doing, and will keep doing, the Clothing Trade of the County. See our Stock before buying. Look at some of our Prices which will be found to be Lower than the Lowest.

TEA!

A Chinese writer says: "To make good tea it is an old custom to use running water boiled over a lively fire. That from springs in the hills is the best, and river water next, while well water is the worst. Do not boil the water too hastily; as, first it begins to sparkle like crab's eyes, then, somewhat like fishes' eggs, and lastly it boils up like pearls innumerable springing and waving about. This is the way to boil the water."

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Dewart, and the attendance of guests was very large. Gough Brothers on Deck.

The latest move of gough bros. the wonderful cheap men is to take hold of a bankrupt stock and undertake to run it off for the benefit of the community. They have bought the "Sheppard" stock at the figure of 60c. on the dollar. Hold your horses, if you are a farmer, until you see what the next two weeks will bring. With wheat at $1.20 and dry goods and clothing at 60c. on the dollar the extremes meet. you never had such a chance to get big money by your selling and to make big money by your buying. Half a dozen hands are at work preparing the goods for slaughter. The concussion will come presently. Gough's have a plum and will share the benefits with their customers. When the sale gets fairly started the roads won't hold the rigs driving to town. The wear and tear from vehicles carrying customers to the big sale will wear out the planking of half the bridges in the county. Pass the word to your friends. Don't be churlish. Tell others the luck in store. Talk it over with your relations, and make up your minds to share in the bonanza. Mind you, this same stock has been selling all along through the last three months at 100 cents on the dollar. Now for a big, swinging, swooping, strapping sale, that will benefit every family in the county if the heads have sand enough to know a good thing when they see it.

Keep in mind the date, Wednesday, Oct. 31st. for the Fisk Jubilee Singers! Admission 50c. and 75c.

CORNER STONE LAID.

OF THE ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL BY BISHOP DOWLING.

A Large Crowd Witness the Solemn Ceremony—Names of the Assisting Clergy—The Ceremony—His Lordship's Address—Addresses by Several Prominent Men—Liberal Subscriptions—The Building.

Yesterday afternoon saw the corner stone of St. Joseph's Hospital placed in position by His Lordship Bishop Dowling with most solemn and impressive ceremony. The weather was a cause of much uneasiness to those interested all morning, as the dark clouds which obscured the sun gave prospects of a wet afternoon. About noon, however, the clouds broke and the sun appeared. There was a cold wind blowing and the large concourse of people, half of whom were ladies, who had assembled to witness the ceremony found it rather chilly standing in such an exposed place. Their interest in the proceedings, nevertheless, made them patient and long-suffering and the greatest attention was given to the ceremony and addresses. The wait before the arrival of His Lordship and the clergy was enlivened and made endurable by the popular airs discoursed by the Fire Brigade Band. The presence of so many of our leading citizens and prominent men evidences the deep interest that is taken in the erection of this building, in which the sick may be healed, the suffering relieved and the afflicted attended to, by citizens of all creeds. It is intended that this hospital shall be open to all invalids, without distinction of creed or nationality and, therefore, the general public can most becomingly take this interest in the institution and support it.

THE PREPARATIONS.

A platform, trimmed with evergreens, had been erected at the south-west corner of the foundation, and here suspended by a rope attached to a derrick hung the stone. It was about three o'clock when the procession composed of His Lordship and the assisting clergy made their appearance and moved towards the platform. Two acolytes proceeded the procession carrying candlesticks and then followed His Lordship preceded and followed by the clergy and attended by acolytes, one of whom carried the crozier. The names of those who took part in the ceremony are:—Vicar-General Laurent, of Lindsay; Vicar-General Browne, of Port Hope; Rev. Father O'Connell, Douro; Rev. Father Conway, Norwood; Rev. Father Keilty, Emilsmere; Rev. Father Murray, Cobourg; Rev. Father Larkin, Grafton; Rev. Father Casey, Campbellford; Rev. Father T. O'Connell, Brighton; Rev. Father McCloskey, Victoria Road; Rev. Father O'Brien, Fenelon Falls; Rev. Father Feene, (Hamilton diocese), Prince'ville, Ont.; Rev. Father Davis (Kingston diocese), Madoc; Rev. Father Doherty, (Hamilton diocese), Arthur; Rev. Fathers McEvay, Rudkins and Dube, of Peterborough, and Rev. Father Sweeney, of Burnley. His Lordship wore his mitre and Bishop's robes and all the priests appeared in suitane and surplice.

ON THE PLATFORM.

Mrs. Dr. O'Sullivan occupied a seat on the platform and among the gentlemen noticed were:—

Messrs. James Stevenson, M.P., Mayor of Peterborough; John Burnham, ex-M. P., Reeve of Ashburnham; J. R. Stratton, M.P. P., J. E. Belcher, the architect of the building, Councillor Cahill, Councillor Kelly, Hon. R. Hamilton, Dr. Kincaid, President of the Medical Association, Drs. Halliday, Boucher, King, Fife, Brennan, Caldwell and McGrath, Messrs. John Hackett, J. W. Fitzgerald, C.E., E. D. Gough, E. Phelan, L. M. Hayes, T. Dolan, J. McKee, T. Hurley, John Sullivan, J. M. Irwin, J. D. McIlmoyle and others.

Mr. J. E. Belcher, architect of the structure, assisted by contractor Carlyle, handled the stone for the Bishop. The trowel which His Lordship used was the gift of Mrs. Dr. O'Sullivan, and was of silver, beautifully engraved, with a handle of ivory. It bore the following inscription:—

Presented by Mrs. Dr. O'Sullivan
to Mgr. Dowling,
Bishop of Peterborough,
As a souvenir of the laying of the corner stone of St. Joseph's Hospital,
Oct. 24, 1888.

THE CEREMONY.

His Lordship having taken his position in front of the stone, supported by the Vicars-General and surrounded by the priests, services were read in Latin during which His Lordship sprinkled the stone with holy water. A box was placed in the cavity under the stone containing copies of the three local papers and the following document written in Latin:—

"On the 24th day of October, A.D., 1888, being the Feast of the Archangel Raphael, the first stone of the chapel of St. Joseph in the Hospital of the same tituiar Saint was laid by me, Thomas Joseph Dowling, D. D., Bishop of Peterborough, assisted by my Vicars-General, P. D. Laurent and J. Browne, together with a great concourse of diocesan and neighboring clergy and of the faithful and benefactors of the institution—Leo VIII gloriously reigning as Supreme Pontiff, Her Majesty Queen Victoria ruling over the British Empire, Lord Stanley of Preston being Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada, Sir Alexander Campbell, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, James Stevenson, Mayor of Peterborough, John Burnham, Reeve of Ashburnham, John Belcher the architect of the structure.

In testimony whereof we the undersigned have subscribed our names.

(Signed) THOMAS JOSEPH DOWLING,
Bishop of Peterborough,
[and all the clergy assisting in the ceremony.]

The stone was lowered into position, His Lordship making the sign of a cross on each side and blessing it. He then declared the corner stone truly laid.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

His Lordship then addressed himself to the assembled crowd. He would take this occasion to thank them all for the interest they were taking in the institution. He wanted it understood that in no sense were there to be any sectarian distinctions. The institution would be open to all without distinction as to creed or nationality. This was a notable event in the history of the town as showing the benevolence and generosity of its people. The building would remain, he said, in after years as a monument to the benevolence of the church and clergy and all those who had aided. He thanked those gentlemen who had accepted the invitations sent to them—the Mayor, members of Parliament, reeve of the corporation and other prominent men. The institution was one of charity. What, he asked, do we mean by charity? Charity meant first, the love of God with the whole heart and soul, and, after God, to love our neighbors as ourselves. Who was their neighbor? Fellow beings of every description without distinction as to color, creed or nationality. True religion was founded on love. He closed with the hope that the building would long remain as a monument of their piety and benevolence. At the close of his eloquent address His Lordship said he would call upon some of the public men present to deliver addresses.

MR. JOHN BURNHAM

was the first speaker called upon. He made a short address in which he said it afforded him great pleasure to have been present at such an important ceremony. This was a benevolent institution which interested all and he could foresee the good work it would accomplish. The opening of the doors of the hospital to everyone was as it should be. If a man required assistance it was no time to ask what his religion was or what his nationality. He closed by thanking His Lordship for the invitation.

MAYOR STEVENSON, M. P.

was then called forward. It gave him great pleasure to be present at the opening of an institution which he thought was destined to be so useful. It had given him pleasure to listen to the eloquent remarks of His Lordship, and said this institution would stand as a monument to His Lordship and as a record of the benevolence of the people when they were all dead and gone. No matter what was the church, an institution of this kind simply for the benefit and relief of the afflicted would redown to their credit. He was there as Mayor of Peterborough, and he was sorry that the building was not in the town, but he hoped some day it would be. (Cheers.) He was satisfied that everyone in Peterborough, no matter what was his color, religion or nationality must respect this institution, and he would give his best support to one of such a kind. His Lordship deserved great credit for undertaking this work, which required much exertion on his part. (Cheers.)

followed in a short address. He spoke of the pleasure he felt at being present and said he was sure all those present realized the importance and impressiveness of the ceremony. If the Divine Lord had sent the afflicted amongst us as a legacy, it was all the more imperative that such institutions should be established. He hoped that thousands of his fellowmen, if afflicted, might be relieved of pain and suffering through this institution, and said the building which would be raised up from this stone would long stand as a monument of their benevolence and piety.

was next called upon. He said this occasion was an extraordinary one There were two principal reasons for this—first, that as a medical man he considered the institution necessary, and, second, because the interests of all would be considered in an institution of this kind. He felt that it was in the interest of the entire community that this grand work was being done. The building would do credit to them and all people of Peterorough should take an interest in this. He was strongly in sympathy with the foundation of an institution of this kind and he was going to give his services freely, and back it with his money. (Cheers.)

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

His Lordship called on Father McEvay to read the subscriptions which had already been given towards the building. Father McEvay said the first and most generous donations was that of $2,000 by Mrs. Dr. O'Sullivan. A lady in Lowell, Mass., had contributed $1,000 and the Boyle estate had given another $1,000. He was now ready, he said, to take the names of any who wished to cover any of these subscriptions. The total subscriptions by private individuals on the grounds amounted to over $1,000.

The following is a list of the subscriptions:—Mrs. Dr. O'Sullivan $2,000; proceeds of the Boyle estate $1,000; private benefactor in Lowell, Mass., $1,000; Dr. Kincaid $100, J. W. Fitzgerald $100, James Nevin $100, Jas. Stevenson $50, Friend $50, John Lynch, sr., $50, E. D. Gough $50, John Garvey, London, $50, Francis Garvey $25, Father Davis, Madoc, $20, John Belcher $20, Friend $20, John Burnham $10, Very Rev. Dean O'Connor, Perth, $10, Peter Hamilton $10, M. H. Lehane $10, Mrs. A. Letellier $10, Father Mcintee, Oshawa, $5, Hon. R. Hamilton $5, J. H. Burnham $5, J. Toumey, Fenelon Falls, $5, Jas. Sullivan, Ashburnham, $5, Father Towhey, West Point, $5. The clergy of the diocese and several members of the congregation also contributed liberally and as many others intend to subscribe the names will be deferred until some future time.

THE BUILDING.

The building stands on a slight eminence on what is known as St. Leonard's, in Ashburnham. The situation is a magnificent one for such an institution, possessing many advantages as a site which are not inconsiderable when the character of the building is considered. The view received by the elevation of the land is a splendid one, while the air is of the purest. The plans for the building were designed by Mr. J. E. Belcher, C.E. The building will be a three storey structure with a basement, and will be of the Gothic style of architecture. The front elevation, which will face Stewart-st., presents a most handsome appearance as it appears on the plans. The building will cover an area of 86 feet 6 inches by 62 feet 6 inches and will contain four general wards—two for males and two for females—and twelve rooms for private patients, as well as a chapel, surgery, dispensary, kitchen, rooms for accommodation of nurses, etc. There will be accommodation for fifty-two patients altogether. Cases of a contagious character will be confined to the upper storey, and those attending to such patients will also have rooms in this storey. At each end of the building are wide verandahs where the patients when approaching convalescence can sit and enjoy the pure, fresh air. The architectural appearance of the front elevation of the building is greatly enhanced by a tower in the middle, and altogether the institution will have a striking appearance and will be an ornament to the village and town as well as a haven for the afflicted and suffering.

SHE SET THE DOGS ON HIM.

Mr. Martin's Experience with an Insane "Squatter" Tenant.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Mr. Thomas F. Martin, of No. 257 Jay-street, Brooklyn, owns the English basement apartment house at No. 304 Madison-street, which was lately constructed. On Saturday an insane woman named Ellen Hardy, who is 55 years of age, moved into the dwelling without permission from any one and took possession of the second flat. Her family consisted of thirteen cats, four dogs and a parrot.

Mr. Martin visited the unwelcome tenant yesterday morning and had such a rigorous reception that he was glad to make his visit a brief one. He told Mrs. Hardy to move out, but she set the dogs on him, and the parrot bade him begone in very strong language.

The aid of the Ninth precinct police was invoked, and a squad of men took Mrs. Hardy and her family to the station house. She was placed in a cell, the dogs were shot and the cats were consigned to a watery grave. The parrot spent the night in Capt. Ennis's room.

Some weeks ago Mrs. Hardy lived at No. 846 De Kalb-avenue. The premises were burned, and she is supposed to have set the fire. About two years ago her dwelling on Lexington-avenue was also burned, and the fire was evidently of incendiary origin. To-day she will be arraigned before Justice Kenna.

In Brief and to the Point.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

SETTLING OLD ACCOUNTS.

AN IMPORTANT CONFERENCE AT THE CAPITAL.

To Adjust Long-Standing Matters Between Old Canada, the Dominion and Ontario and Quebec.

OTTAWA, Oct. 25.—Hon. A. M. Ross, Treasurer of Ontario, and Hon. Joseph Shehyn, Treasurer of Quebec, met Hon. G. E. Foster, Minister of Finance, and Mr. Courtney, Deputy Minister, yesterday morning for the purpose of trying to arrange the outstanding accounts between the old Province of Canada, the Dominion and the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, which have been unsettled since Confederation. There are a large number of accounts pending between the different Governments, amounting altogether to several millions, and although many efforts have been made by the Dominion Government to have the matters straightened out no satisfactory arrangement has so far been arrived at. This time it is hoped that the greater number if not the whole of the items in dispute will be disposed of. Besides Treasurer Shehyn, Quebec is represented by Premier Mercier and Messrs. H.J. Machin and F.X. Gosselin of the Treasurer's Department, and Ontario by Mr. C. H. Sproule, Provincial Auditor, and Premier Mowat is expected here today or Friday. The conference will probably last to the end of the week. It is understood that yesterday the claims relating to the old Province of Canada were taken up and provisional arrangement made for the settlement of all of them except one item, amounting to about $500,000, for Indian annuities.

Hon. Mr. Dewdney, Minister of the Interior, emphatically denies that there is any truth in the report that Mr. Burgess, Deputy Minister of the Interior, is to be superannuated and H. H. Smith, Land Commissioner at Winnipeg, appointed in his place.

John Ross Robertson and C. W. Bunting are here for the purpose of arranging for an interview with the Government by a deputation of the Copyright Association with a view to legislation at the next session of Parliament on the copyright question.

It is understood that one of the results of the recent visit of Mr. Miall, Commissioner of Inland Revenue, to the Pacific coast will be the division of the Province of British Columbia, which is now one Inland Revenue district, into two districts.

Mr. P. J. Mackie of the firm of Mackie & Co., distillers of Glasgow, is in the city. Speaking on the subject of Crofter immigration, he said that there will be a considerable emigration of Crofters from North Scotland next year.

Mr. Mowat, Fisheries Inspector for British Columbia, is here for the purpose of assisting the Fisheries Department in the preparation of new regulations for salmon fishery on the Pacific coast. It is probable that the new regulations will be more stringent than those now in force.

Owing to the state of his health, Hon. Mr. Chapleau will be unable to attend the political demonstration at Sherbrooke to-day.

THE CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE.

Second Day's Proceedings at Montreal—Roman Catholicism in Canada.

MONTREAL, Oct. 25.—The second day of the great Christian conference opened under the presidency of Rev. Principal Barbour, and the session was devoted to Roman Catholicism in Canada.

Rev. Principal MacVicar read a brilliant paper of one hour's length on "Its Present Attitude and the Best Way of Meeting It." From statistics he showed that the Catholics of Quebec enjoy a revenue of $18,000,000 and have property worth $61,000,000.

Addresses were delivered by Rev. S. N. Jackson, M.D., of Kingston, and by Rev. E. B. Ryckman of London.

In the afternoon Rev. T. Lafleur presided over a discussion on "Romanism in Relation to Education."

A paper was read by Rev. Dr. King of New York, and addresses given by Rev. Dr. Moxom of Boston, and Rev. Dr. Saunders of Halifax.

A committee was appointed to prepare resolutions in connection with the recent legislation regarding the Jesuits' estates, to be submitted at to-day's session.

In the evening "Romish Dogma" was considered as a source of religious, social and national peril. Rev. Dr. Williams of Toronto presided and introduced Rev. G. M. Milligan of Toronto.

He was followed by Rev. Dr. Lathern of Halifax, who spoke of the practical uses of the conference.

Rev. Dr. Hale of Halifax closed the address with a temperate, conciliatory speech.

THE GALT MYSTERY.

Hannah Boyd Closely Guarded—Her Lawyers not Allowed to see Her.

GALT, Oct. 25.—Yesterday Tommy Boyd of Hamilton, a brother of the girl Hannah Boyd, who is under arrest in connection with the poisoning of little Meta Cherry, came here on his way to Berlin to visit his sister. He met the lawyers who have been retained by Lowell to defend the girl, Messrs. Milligan and Bell. They told him it was useless to go to Berlin, as the authorities there would not let anyone communicate with his sister, not even her lawyers.

The intention of the prosecution is evidently to keep the girl away from anyone who might try to influence her, in the hope that she may make a confession or give the names of her accomplices.

The prisoner's friends have written to her elder brother, Robert Boyd, who is in Boston, and he will probably come home to look after his sister's defence, especially as her father is old and deaf and her other brother is too young to be of much importance.

A Significant Visit.

BERLIN, Oct. 25.—The Politische Nachrichten comments on the significance of the Emperor's decision to honor Prince Bismarck with a visit to his own home to receive a report on public affairs.

It is stated that Emperor William and the Pope gave their consent to the publication of a semi-official report of their interview.

FATAL QUARREL OVER DICE.

Two Brother Bartenders Beat a Customer With Clubs.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—John and Larry Dwyer, brothers and bartenders in their father's saloon at Stapleton, S. I., were arraigned in court yesterday and held for trial on a charge of homicide. Early Friday morning, John Cummings, a builder of Elizabeth, N. J., was in the saloon and threw dice with John Dwyer. A dispute arose, and it is charged that Dwyer knocked Cummings down with a club. Then his brother helped him beat the man and threw him into the street. Cummings was able to reach his boarding house, a block away. The next morning he felt quite well. He went to work, but was taken suddenly sick, and on Friday night he died. His assailants were arrested Sunday at midnight. They deny the assault.

A Thief For 18 Years.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—In the trial of Emerson & Goss, the policy dealers who got a good deal of the $295,000 which James E. Bedell stole from Shipman, Barlow, Laroque & Choate, Bedell after figuring up from policy slips and account books that were put in evidence, testified yesterday that he had paid to the defendants about $30,400 and had received about $16,177 in winnings. On cross-examination Bedell admitted that before going into the employ of the law firm he had stolen $1000 from Rev. Mr. Huntington. Bedell also admitted that he began to steal 18 years ago. His salary for the last four years had been $4000 a year, having been increased year by year to that figure from $1000, which he received in 1873, the first year he worked for them.

A Philadelphia Boodler.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—Max Ehrlick, of the firm of Ehrlick & Petrowsky, who have been carrying on a banking and steamship ticket office in this city, has absconded with quite a sum of money belonging to his own countrymen. The firm made a business of Asuing prepared tickets for people in Austria and Russia and also did an exchange business in these countries.

A Kentucky Affray.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 25.—At Mount Vernon yesterday John Proctor put on a marshal's badge and asked to be admitted free to Robinson's circus. An altercation followed which grew into a fight. Wm. Parker, town marshal, was fatally cut; James Jones, sheriff-elect, was shot through the right shoulder and John Brewer was shot in the head.

A Big Mortgage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—The Southern Pacific Company filed in the recorder's office yesterday a deed of trust to the Central Trust Company of New York, conveying to the latter, for the purpose of securing the payment of a mortgage of $38,000,000, all the property of the railroad company and also the property of branch roads which have been amalgamated with it.

Switchmen on Strike.

PUEBLO, Col., Oct. 25.—The strike of the Rio Grande switchmen at this point is still on. No work has been done in the yards since Monday and the track is crowded with freight cars. An attempt was made yesterday to send out freights, but the engineers and firemen refused to pull the trains because they were made up by non union switchmen.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

WHERE Should I Buy PROPERTY?

This is the question that confron the citizen who is thinking of getting himself a home,—Where to buy.

Common sense will tell that citizen that the best lot he can get is none too good for him, and why?

Because well located property is always worth its price. Because it is conducive to health and happiness to live in the midst of good surroundings; because if you want to sell you can always find a buyer: because such property is becoming scarce and is therefore rapidly increasing in value. I am prepared to offer a special bargain of a few such Lots, one exceedingly good Lot on Dublin-st. 54x196 feet, high and dry, south front. east of and adjoining Mr. Bogue's fine new residence, This is a Bargain. A beautiful Lot on Water-st. opposite St. Paul's Church. This Lot should suit any person wanting a beautiful and central location. Also Two Very Desirable Building Lots in most respectable ocalities on Stewart-st. Cheap Lots and a few Good Houses to be closed out during the next few days. apply at once to

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies; at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way: We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what in ducements may be offered we never allow our selves to be undersold.

THE CHRISTIAN CONGRESS

A DOMINION EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE ESTABLISHED.

The Headquarters to be Located in Montreal—Senator Macdonald of Toronto Chosen President.

MONTREAL, Oct. 25.—At the morning session of the Christian Conference to-day the subject under discussion was the establishment of a Dominion Evangelical Alliance. Rev. Wm. Jackson read an admirable paper on its objects, needs, and possibilities, after which a draft of the constitution of the proposed alliance was adopted.

On behalf of the special committee appointed to prepare the details of the constitution Dr. Torrance brought up a report recommending that the headquarters be located in Monfreal and that Sir William Dawson be elected its first President. This was received with loud applause, but Sir William explained that it was quite impossible for him to accept the responsibility of such a position, in view of the heavy work which now overburdened him.

The committee then retired to hold a special session and on their return these officers of the Dominion Evangelical Alliance for the coming year were elected:

President—Hon. Senator Macdonald of Toronto.

General Secretaries—J. J. Woodhouse of Toronto, R. Murray of Halifax, Rev. A. B. Sager of St. John's, Rev. F. McF. McLeod of Victoria, J. A. M. Aikins of Winnipeg, and W. Brown of Quebec.

Recording Secretary—Rev. W. Jackson of Montreal.

Treasurer—George Hague of Montreal.

A long list of Vice-Presidents was presented, among whom was Sir William Dawson, and a general committee was also appointed.

A lengthy letter from Mr. Arnold, sent by the English Alliance in lieu of the addresses of Sir R. Phayre, was then read.

At the afternoon session "Co-operation in Christian Work" was discussed.

In the evening Hon. Senator Macdonald presided, and Rev. Dr. Macpherson delivered a masterly address on the "Home Benefits of Foreign Missions." Rev. Dr. Sims, Chancellor of Syracuse University, spoke on "The Elements of Personal Character in Christian Usefulness."

A resolution was adopted to-day on the Jesuit grant, recording disapproval of the recent legislation.

SMALLPOX AT KESWICK.

The Authorities at Gwillimbury Vigilant and Taking Every Precaution.

SUTTON, Oct. 26.—The reports in the papers about the smallpox epidemic in North Gwillimbury are in some cases greatly exaggerated. David Sprague, ex-Reeve of the township, was ill with inflammation of the lungs. In the midst of it his son who had been on a visit to the fair in Toronto became ill and the doctors did not at first discover what his ailment was. Unfortunately in the meantime a number of neighbors came to assist at the threshing and with those who had volunteered to sit up with Mr. Sprague a larger number than usual came in contact with the boy whose ailment proved to be smallpox.

A Board of Health has been formed and every one who is known to have been exposed to the contagion is isolated; inspectors have been stationed at all roads leading from the township, public meetings of all kinds have been stopped, compulsory vaccination is being enforced and every precaution taken to stamp out the foul disease. Sutton is now completely free of it, and as the only approaches are across the different bridges over the Black River, the men stationed on them have instructions to keep out all who are in any way supposed to have had connection with it. So far as known there are only eight cases, the nearest to Sutton being six miles away.

Vaccinating Grand Trunk Employes.

TORONTO, Oct. 26.—In view of the smallpox outbreak the Grand Trunk Railway Company are taking great precautions that their employes shall not suffer, and that the disease shall not spread through them. Especially is this the case with regard to the car cleaners who daily come in contact with cushions which are likely to be fruitful beds of the germ.

A few days ago Dr. Riordan vaccinated forty-five car cleaners on the main line and yesterday he operated upon eight of the Northern division cleaners. The men as a rule do not relish the idea and would like to be excuse, but they must either submit or lose their jobs; they have been alarmed by unfounded stories about arms becoming so swollen as to make amputation necessary.

To-day Dr. Riordan will tackle the arms of all the men employed on the passenger trains of the Midland and Northern divisions, because of the outbreak at Keswick, on the east shore of Lake Simcoe. Trains on the Midland have been forbidden to stop at Sutton, which is the station nearest to Keswick.

An Ottawa Girl Missing.

OTTAWA, Oct. 26.—A girl named Lough, 28 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches in height, with dark eyes and hair, has disappeared under peculiar circumstances. The girl was employed as a domestic servant up to last Thursday night, when she went out and never returned. She wrote a letter to her mother stating that she would be seen no more. Miss Lough was most respectable. The police have made diligent inquiries but no trace of her can be found. She left her wages unclaimed at the house in which she was employed and did not take any of her wearing apparel save what she wore.

THAT POLITICAL PITFALL

INTO WHICH MINISTER WEST SO SURPRISINGLY TUMBLED.

Secretary Bayard's Opinion—"A Petty Scheme to Break the Fall of Despairing Politicians"—Cleveland's Burchard.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Secretary Bayard, who returned to Washington Wednesday night, made the following statement yesterday to a representative of the Associated Press in regard to the letter of Mr. Murchison of California to the British Minister, on the subject of the pending Presidential election, and the British Minister's reply:

"Yes, I have read both letters. I have not seen the British Minister since he went to Europe last spring until he called on me this morning at the Department of State. Lord Sackville has no other or better means of knowledge of the intention of the President than any one of the 65,000,000 of the American people. His personal opinion is worth no more than that of any one of them, on the ground of knowledge, and much less on the ground of interest in the subject.

"While there must be a consensus of opinion as to the impropriety of the expression of individual opinion by anyone holding the position of foreign envoy, it is still to be hoped that we will be able to settle the issues involved in the pending canvass without the importation of foreign interference or inter-meddling in our domestic affairs.

"The American people will be prompt to resent and repel as impertinent any such attempts, but they will easily recognize the political pitfall arranged by the California letter, with its object so plainly stamped upon its face and addressed to the British Minister, into which he has so surprisingly tumbled. Such petty schemes to break the fall of despairing politicians will be held in proper estimation by popular intelligence."

The Talk in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—There is a good deal of talk over Lord Sackville's letter. The Sun continues to demand that Lord Sackville be given his passports, but the other papers speak more temperately.

Congressman Boutelle of Maine said he thought it would lead to Mr. West's ultimate recall.

Mr. Blaine expressed the opinion that the British Minister had committed an indiscreet act, which might impair his usefulness as the representative of Her Majesty in this country.

A San Francisco special to The Tribune says the publication has created excitement there and is regarded as the Burchard incident of the campaign. For the time being the letter has knocked the Chinese question out of sight. A leading Republican says; "We were sure of carrying the state by 6000 or 8000 before this letter appeared. Now I see no reason why the figures should not be increased to 10,000."

THE PARNELL COMMISSION.

Attorney-General Webster Continues His Interminable Statement.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—On the re-assembling of the Parnell Commission yesterday, Attorney-General Webster resumed his address in behalf of The Times. He dilated on the relations between the Parnellites and members of the American League, contending that the league originated in America, and declared that it was a conspiracy hatched in America and effected by American money. Members of the league in America were dynamiters and advocates of murder, and they had the Parnellites as accomplices. He denounced Finerty, Redpath and Rossa as dynamiters who had plotted for the most villainous forms of outrage. He said it was absurd to say that Parnell had no relations with Patrick Ford, as a host of facts proved an intimate connection between the two.

The Attorney-General then proceeded to quote from articles and communications taken from The Irish World to prove the connection of the Parnellite party with the extreme section of the Irish party in America. He continued to dwell on the misdoings of the league in America and the Chicago, Philadelphia, and Boston conventions until the court adjourned for the day.

The Attorney-General did not hit upon a single new point and his speech exceeded in dullness his efforts of the preceding days.

THE FEDERATION QUESTION

Discussed by the London Newspapers—Mon treal's Civic Loan.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The question of Imperial Federation was again the leading topic of newspaper discussion yesterday, in consequence of the speeches of Lord Rosebery and Lord Brassey at Glasgow yesterday.

The Times devotes its first editorial to it, and says there is no present danger of a repetition of the blunders which caused the American revolt, yet England ought to be prudent, and avoid giving jealousy and discontent the material on which to work. There is no assurance that the colonists have yet agreed in asking for a definite scheme of federation, or offering to bear the consequent financial burdens, but federation may make its way safely and surely through small beginnings.

Imperial co-operation and a similar desire for practical co-working animates other press criticism.

Ottawa telegrams detailing the facts of the Manitoba dispute, have calmed the public mind. What opinion has been expressed inclines to the view that Manitoba should await the decision of the Supreme Court. Canadian Pacific shares are recovering.

Lord Lansdowne has appointed Captain Streatfeild his acting private secretary while in India.

The Montreal civic deputation quickly completed their plans. The Barings to-day issue a prospectus for the sale of £840,000 of Montreal 3 per cent. permanent debentures at a minimum price of 82½. The announced object of the issue is to meet the amount of the bonds redeemable in 1888 and 1889 to provide funds for important permanent works. A memorandum signed by Messrs. Abbott, Grenier and Black will give full details of the financial status of Montreal. There is little doubt felt regarding the success of the issue. The Barings name almost insures that. The tenders are due on Wednesday.

An Incorrigible Thief.

BROCKVILLE, Oct. 26.—Seymour, the ex-convict who was arrested here last week on a charge of stealing a horse owned by Banks, a Kemptville liveryman, and who escaped through failure to prosecute, went to Gananoque, and there fell in with another ex-convict and the two hired a team at a livery. Not returning when agreed upon, the livery-keeper began making enquiries, and learned that they had driven to Napanee. He at once started in pursuit, and on reaching Napanee found his horses and vehicle, but could obtain no trace of Seymour or his pal.

La Patrie Sued for $25,000.

MONTREAL, Oct. 26.—An action for $25,000 damages was instituted yesterday by La Minerve Printing Company against the publishers of La Patrie. The action is based on an article which appeared in La Patrie of Monday night, in which it is stated that La Minerve was bankrupt.

A Few Broken Heads.

OTTAWA, Oct. 26.—There was a big row last night at one of the mills here between the Irish and French employes. There were a few broken heads.

LAUDANUM AND THE KNIFE.

Determined Efforts of Chauncey Goodrich to End His Own Life.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Chauncey Goodrich, a boarder at No. 383 Twelfth-street, South Brooklyn, did not appear at the breakfast table yesterday morning, and a domestic who went to his room on the third floor heard him groaning. Opening the door she saw him, bathed in blood, on the floor. A large sheath knife was beside the man, and it was ascertained that he had cut his throat, nearly severing his windpipe. He was removed to the Seney Hospital. It is believed he will die. He is 63 years of age, and was formerly in the clock business at No. 32 Warren street, New York, with George W. Brown. For nearly six months he has done no business. Recently he separated from his wife. It is believed that he also swallowed some laudanum, as two empty bottles which had contained the poison were found on a table in his room.

He Was Better off Dead.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—"I am better off dead than alive, Georgie, and I'm going to kill myself," said Robert McLeod, of No. 29 First aveuue, to his 10-year old son yesterday. As he spoke he threw some oxalic acid powder into a cup of boiling water and hastily drank the mixture. Georgie tried to prevent him, but the powerful man easily put the lad aside until he had drained the last drop of the scalding poison. Then the boy ran for his mother, who was working in a dressmaker's shop. She arrived just in time to see her husband writhing in his last agonies. Dr. Bishop was hastily summoned, but when he arrived the man was dead. The poison was taken at 2.50 p.m., and he died at 3.30. McLeod had been using both liquor and tobacco to excess for some time past, and was under the influence of liquor when he took his life.

GAGGED AND ROBBED.

A Farmer Overpowered in Broad Daylight in New York City.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Ten armed desperadoes, comprising a ring of the notorious Stable Gang of the First Ward, yesterday committed a most daring daylight robbery. Farmer August Therman, of No. 121 Macon-street, Brooklyn, was driving slowly along Greenwich-street with a load of produce when two young men climbed quietly into his wagon and seized him from behind. They gagged him before he could get out, while eight other robbers helped themselves to his property and disappeared with their arms full. When released the farmer seized one of his assailants and called for help. The fellow drew a loaded revolver and threatened to take the farmer's life and he released him. The other robber was captured by Detective Flynn, of the Second Precinct, and described himself as Daniel O'Connell, aged 19. Subsequently Michael Sullivan, aged 23, was arrested with some of the stolen property in his possession. Justice O'Reilly held the prisoners in $1000 bail each for trial.

Policeman Cohen's Shot Was Fatal.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—James Farley, the young man shot by Policeman Morris, Sunday night, while the officer was defending himself from an attack by a crowd of roughs, died at the Presbyterian Hospital yesterday. The examination in the case of Farley's confederates, Chas. Dunleavey, Edward Buggie, George Kohler and E. Farley, charged with feloniously assaulting the officer, was begun in the Harlem Court in the afternoon. Policeman Cohen testified that he arrested Farley and was assaulted by the crowd, who rescued his prisoner. He broke his club in giving an alarm, and then the crowd began to stone him. Believing that his life was in danger he drew his pistol and fired into the crowd. Help arrived and the four other men were arrested. The further hearing was adjourned to Friday. The other four prisoners were admitted to bail in $1000 each.

The Orillias of Orillia and Excelsiors of Brampton Suspended

ST. CATHARINES, Oct. 26.—Yesterday President Dan A. Rose of the Canadian Lacrosse Association visited St. Catharines and discussed with Secretary O'Laughlin the charges made by the Thistle Club of Fergus against the Orillia club of Orillia and Excelsior Club of Brampton, in connection with the Intermediate Championship matches. As the Fergus Club had not made any charge in the formal way provided by the rules no action could legally be taken in the matter, but to secure a thorough investigation into the matter the president has taken advantage of the power given him and suspended both clubs on the plea that they have violated article 6, sec. 6, of the constitution, and the clubs will be summoned to appear before the Judicial Committee and Council at a meeting to be held at Hamilton on Nov. 7.

STOLE A MARCH BY NIGHT

A CROSSING OF THE MANITOBA SOUTH-WESTERN BRANCH MADE.

The C. P. R.'s Men Overpower the Police and Tear up the Diamond—No One Injured but Everybody Excited.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 25.—The railway troubles still monopolize the public mind and nothing else is talked of.

During the night the government stole a march on the Canadian Pacific Railway, and made a crossing of the Manitoba South-western branch at Headingly, 12 miles west. This branch, although under Canadian Pacific control, is a separate corporation.

The Canadian Pacific Railway this morning sent out fifty men, who, overpowering the police, who only numbered twenty-two, removed the diamond and four rails that were on the Canadian Pacific Railway right-of-way. The police stood on the diamond, but were pushed off and no one was hurt.

An engine with a guard of men was left at the spot, and the Canadian Pacific also sent fifty men to Morris to prevent a crossing of the Pembina branch by the Brandon line.

A report is current to-night that an action will be taken against Superintendent Whyte appropriating the diamond and rails at Headingly.

Judgment on the second injunction will be delivered to-morrow morning, and the Government specials are ordered to muster, it being presumed that if the decision is favorable to the Government a forcible crossing of the branch near Winnipeg will be attempted.

Intense excitement prevails, and there is every prospect of lively times.

Preparing the Case.

OTTAWA, Oct. 25.—Mr. Clark, solicitor for the Canadian Pacific Railway, is still here preparing the case to be submitted to the Supreme Court in connection with the railway troubles in Manitoba. It is understood that he will send it direct to Attorney-General Martin, and if he agrees as to the law points it will be submitted at once.

THE TREASURER'S CONFERENCE.

Increasing Traffic on the Intercolonial—The Supreme Court Vacancy.

OTTAWA, Oct. 25.—The Treasurers of Ontario and Quebec, and their assistants, held a further conference with the Minister and Deputy Minister of Finance to-day with reference to a settlement of the accounts between the Dominion and the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, which have been outstanding since Confederation, and a basis of settlement of a number of items was agreed to. The question of Indian annuities seems to be the only one likely to give serious trouble. At Confederation certain annuities were chargeable to the provinces, but the amounts have increased, and the provinces claim the Dominion has no right to charge them with the increase.

The Department of Railways and Canals has called for tenders for the construction of large warehouses for the storage of sugar at the Richmond terminus of the Intercolonial Railway. Traffic on the road is increasing so rapidly that twenty-two new locomotives and a large number of freight cars have been ordered.

The Journal to-night gives currency to the rumor that Judge King of New Brunswick will succeed the late Judge Henry on the Supreme Court bench.

In the Supreme Court to-day on motion the appeal of the Canadian Pacific Railway from the judgment of a Territorial Court condemning them to pay school taxes imposed by the Calgary Board of School Trustees on the company's lands there was quashed with costs.

Mr. John Lowe has rendered a decision in the trade mark case of the J. P. Bush Manufacturing Co. v Hanson & McLaughlin. He decided that the trademark registered by the latter must be cancelled. Priority is therefore awarded to the Bush Manufacturing Company and their claim of right to the trade mark "Bovinine" admitted.

A proclamation will shortly issue fixing Thursday, Nov. 29, as the day for the holdings of the poll on the question of repealing the Scott Act in Richmond county. F. A. Brien, of Danville, is the returning officer.

Milk Inspection.

ST. THOMAS, Oct. 26.—Mr. H. O. Foster of Tiverton, dairy and milk inspector for Perth, Oxford, Middlesex, Norfolk, Elgin and Waterloo Counties, was in the city yesterday. Since Mr. Foster started out on his tour of inspection, he has found over 100 cases of adulterated milk, skimmed milk, and strippings kept back, in 38 different factories. Every one of these cases was proven to the satisfaction of the inspector by making a second test, and in over half of them the defendants admitted the charge and paid the fines, which averaged from $5 to $30 each. There are several cases yet to be tried in Woodstock and other places. Mr. Foster is doing good work for the cause of good cheese, without which Ontario cannot hold her reputation abroad for first class dairy products.

PORT ARTHUR, Oct. 26.—Mr. Lawrie, representing the Greeys of Toronto, is here with flour in his eye. Board of Trade Bowerman is showing him all the water powers in this country. They will build nothing less than a 500 barrel mill. When they start the McVicars will give them a site. The town has promised $8000 and the water power company will either furnish them, or assist them in building a dam and race of their own.

MONTREAL, Oct. 26.—Though the detectives have dug and searched every inch of ground in the cellar and outside and above, of the Boston candy store, no trace of money has been discovered, which the old sharper Fowle claims to have buried there. Detective Scott remains another week to arrange matters with the creditors, he having a power of attorney to do so.

The Cornwall Canal.

CORNWALL, Oct. 26.—The repairs on the Cornwall canal break which occurred on Oct. 12 are progressing satisfactorily and Nov. 1 will see vessels passing through. The whole work will not be complete, as it will have to be tested and only eight instead of nine feet of water can be let in and the test will take till the close of navigation.

THE CANADIAN ATTITUDE.

In a recent speech made at Gloucester, England, Mr. W. H. Smith, the leader of the Imperial House of Commons, referred to the fisheries trouble, and his remarks will be of interest as he occupies a high position in the Government. Mr. Smith said:—

"During the last few weeks we had heard of difficulties regarding the Canadian fisheries. Mr. Chamberlain—(cheers)—he (Mr. Smith) was glad to hear that cheer, because when Mr. Chamberlain was appealed to to render service to the country, he consented to do the best he could to bring about a settlement. He effected an arrangement which was held to be just and fair by all parties, and which the president of the United States admitted to be just and equitable—(hear, hear)—but owing to the fact that there was a presidental election about to to take place in the United States, that just and equitable arrangement had not been ratified. It was completely in abeyance at the present time. The people, government and parliament of Canada had, however, exhibited a moderation in the face of this news which entitled them to the admiration of the world. They had not receded a jot or tittle from what was just and right, but they had made no fuss about it. They knew perfectly well the circumstances; they were willing to bide their time; they knew that this country and Canada would obtain from the United States, after they had got through their presidental election, a just and fair arrangement; and that nothing less than that would be accepted by the people of Canada and England. (Cheers.) The peoples of England and of the United States and Canada were too good friends to quarrel over a question of this kind. Mr. Chamberlain and the United States delegates arrived at a right solution of a difficult and dangerous matter, and the English and Canadians were content to wait for its application, believing it to be perfectly consistent with the honor and interest of the two countries."

Commenting upon these remarks the Hamilton Spectator says:—This is praise from the very highest authority; and it is praise peculiarly gratifying to Canadians. The falling of the weak, when threatened by the strong, is either to cringe to the superior power or to indulge in foolish and dangerous bluster. Canadians have done neither; they camly examined the situation; and, while resolute in asserting their rights, have shown no disposition to presume upon the fact that Britain stands behind them. They have shown their consciousness of having a just cause, and have at the same time been moderate and conciliatory, but firm, in asserting their rights.

It is highly satisfactory to know that our conduct has so favorably impressed the British people. It is no small thing to have assured them that our arrogance will not make a difficult situation more difficult, nor our fears lead to us a surrender of our rights. It is more than probable—it is reasonably certain—that the Canadian High Commissioner in London has kept Imperial ministers correctly informed of the nature of Canada's interests in the fisheries and of the tone of Canadian feeling; that Mr. Chamberlain has certainly been our strong and serviceable friend.

The little breeze, raised to affect United States politics, will assuredly blow over; and there is reasonable certainty that, instead of hurting us, it will help us. It will give the people of the United States a better understanding of Canada's case respecting the fisheries and of Canada's sovereignty over the water routes connecting the great lakes. Our republican neighbors are neither quarrelsome nor unjust. When they learn with some approach to certainty what Canada's rights are, they will assuredly be ready to respect them. And the British people will gain additional admiration for and confidence in their children, who have been able to face a difficult situation with calmness, courage and good sense.

REVIEWS.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.—The November number of Harper's Magazine concludes the 77th volume. The year has been marked by the rare ability displayed in its pages from month to month. Superbly illustrated, ably edited and with the cream of literary work in its columns, its readers have had a monthly treat in its perusal. Additional features are promised for next year, which begins with the December number. It is, however, of the present issue that we wish to write. Among the varied contents is an article on "The Lower St. Lawrence," C. H. Farnham, the author is thoroughly familiar with that region, and his descriptions and anecdotes, together with many excellent illustrations, will give the reader an adequate notion of this wild region of America. "A museum of the History of Paris" is an interesting description of the Hotel Carnavalet in the French capital, long the home of Madame Sevigne. It is written by Theodore Child, who knows Paris as few native Parisians know it. "Elk-hunting in the Rocky Mountains" contains the views of G. O. Shields about this famous sport, together with accounts of several incidents of the chase after elks. The illustrations are two full pages and several half pages. "Boats on the Tagus," by Tristram Ellis, describes the picturesque craft that dot the waters of this Portuguese river and harbor. They are not built after the best yachting models, but they answer admirably the purpose for which they were designed. The fiction in the number comprises the closing chapters of William Black's "In Far Lochaber" and William D. Howells's "Annie Kilburn," both of which end pleasantly. "A Pink Villa" is an illustrated story by Miss Woolson, and ranks with the best of her short stories. "The New Orleans Bench and Bar in 1823" is a sketch of the brilliant lawyers and jurist of Louisiana over sixty years ago, as Charles Gayarre remembers them. "Invalidism as a Fine Art," by A. B. Ward, is a delightful sketch showing how sick people can succeed in making the best of it. Richard Wheatley's article on "The New York Real Estate Exchange" is a careful, trustworthy, and valuable description of one of the great businesses in New York City. It is freely illustrated with portraits of two or three Astors and other prominent real estate owners, and it abounds in statistics and information. "Our Journey to the Hebrides," by Elizabeth Robins Pennel, begun in September, is finished in this third paper. The illustrations, the incidents, and the general effect of the contribution are of equal excellence with its predecessors. The departments are well up as usual and interesting. Harper Bros., Publishers, New York, and for sale by all booksellers.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Annual Meeting of the Baptist Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

TORONTO, Oct. 26.—The annual meeting of the Baptist Women's Foreign Missionary Societies was commenced in the Bloor-street Baptist Church yesterday, Mrs. (Dr.) Castle presiding. The address of welcome by Mrs. Castle was responded to by Mrs. Barker of Whitby. Reports of delegates from different parts of the province regarding the work done by the missionary circles were received. They were on the whole of an encouraging nature. Greetings were received from sister societies. An interesting paper on "Our Foreign Mission Field," was read by Mrs. Barker of Whitby. The financial statement for the year showed a balance from last year of $1941; received from circles, $3587; received from bands, $862; special contributions, $1315; bank interest, $50; total receipts, $7756. The expenses for the year were $4172. The balance in the bank was $1923. The nominations for the Home Mission Board for 1888-9 were: President, Mrs. A. R. McMaster; Vice President, Mrs. H. H. Humphrey; Recording Secretary, Mrs. F. Lobb; Treasurer, Mrs. A. B. Alexander. For the Foreign Board: President, Miss J. H. Castle; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. McLaurin and Mrs. J. H. Yale (Brantford); Corresponding Secretary, Miss Davis, Toronto; Secretary of Bands, Miss Dodson; Treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Elliott.

William Cathro bailed out Annie Pratt, whom he had caused to be arrested on a charge of stealing $500 from him, and when her name was called in the Police Court yesterday she did not appear and a warrant was issued for her re-arrest. Joseph Pratt, her brother and alleged accomplice, was remanded till Monday on bail.

An effort is being made to procure the pardon of Mary Quinn; who was sentenced to twenty-three months in the Mercer Reformatory on Feb. 11 last, by Magistrate Cahill at Hamilton. Her offence was attempted suicide, and as far as can be learned hers is a sad story. It is claimed that the decision was procured by undue influence.

The charge against Richard Jarvis, the ex-constable, of committing an aggravated assault on Fred. Johnston was investigated yesterday. Mr. Boultbee deposed that he saw Johnston struggling with Jarvis, and the latter strike him. The Magistrate held that the evidence established a case of common assault, but as Jarvis ought to have known better he would fine him heavily, and imposed a fine of $10 and costs or 60 days.

The relatives of the young man Montgomery, who was found poisoned in a lane off Peter-steeet, and who afterwards died in the hands of the police, are investigating his movements previous to the night of his death. It is known that a few days previous to the fatal night he had on his person $150, and no trace of the money can be found. Although somewhat unsteady in his habits, his disposition forbids the idea of suicide, and foul play is suspected.

The Ontario Government has come to an agreement with the Baldwin estate respecting the site for the new Upper Canada College. Fourteen acres of land facing on St. Clair-avenue belonging to the Government was traded for 30 acres to the back of it facing on Clinton-avenue. The new college will be built on an eminence, which commands a view of the country and city for miles around. The structure will be a creditable piece of architecture, and will cost about $120,000.

—Detective John Murray took a run to town yesterday from Galt and Berlin, where he is hard at work on the mysterious poisoning case. Of course Mr. Murray has nothing to say to reporters at present about the progress he is making, but he is apparently working on a good "clue." Mr. Charles Lowell and Private Detective Mat Howie of Toronto appear to be taking a very deep interest in the matter, for what reason does not as yet appear very clear.

Bunced Out of $20.

MONTREAL, Oct. 26.—The confidence game has again been worked in Montreal. A young man, a native of a village near Ottawa, was intending to return home. He bought his ticket, and intended to return by the Canada Atlantic train. While at the Bonaventure depot he met a stranger, who asked him where he was going. He at once answered, "To Ottawa." The stranger said, "Why, I am going there," and further said his wife and daughter were residing at the Windsor, and he would have to drive them down to catch the train. He asked the company of the young man. They both drove up to the Windsor, but on getting to the door the stranger said he would go in and bring his wife and daughter out. He went in, and, coming out shortly, said they had gone to the station and taken all his effects with them. He asked the Ottawa young man for the loan of $20 to settle his bill. The young man gave the bill, when the man went into the hotel and has never been seen since.

She Proved to be a Fraud.

ST. THOMAS, Oct. 26.—A young girl, about 17 years of age, claiming to be a dressmaker, called upon Mayor Midgley and Superintendent Morford for assistance last evening. She stated that she belonged to Ilderton and was anxious to get to Hamilton, that she had delivered a dress in London and received payment for the making thereof, and had just enough money to pay her fare to Hamilton. She had accordingly purchased a ticket to come to St. Thomas, but on the trip had lost her ticket and satchel. She had been taking up subscriptions and had secured $1.10. Superintendent Morford instituted enquiries and found that the girl was a fraud.

PORT ARTHUR, Oct. 26.—The trial shipment of ten barrels of Lake Superior salmon from Rossport to Belfast, Ireland, realized 23 cents a pound and met a ready market. A Chinese writer says: "To make good tea it is an old custom to use running water boiled over a lively fire. That from springs in the hills is the best, and river water next, while well water is the worst. Do not boil the water too hastily; as, first it begins to sparkle like crab's eyes, then, somewhat like fishes' eggs, and lastly it boils up like pearls innumerable sprunging and waving about. This is the way to boil the water."

If you like a splendid cup of tea try one of the many brands in stock. The price varies with the quality. Splendid Teas at low prices. Better Teas a trifle higher. The best not dear and well worth the moderate price asked.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

Baptismal Bee.

We learn that the Rev. W. L. Pearson baptized no less than nine babies at Nassau last night. This is certainly a progressive era.

The Faith Cure.

Prof. Seward has returned from a trip to New York, where he attended a convention of the believers in "divine healing," or faith cure as it is usually called. Prof. Seward is enthusiastic in his exposition of the faith of these people, and says he has been greatly benefited and will, as he grows in faith, receive more benefit physically as well as religiously.

His First Offence.

Wm. Dwyer, one of the laborers working on the Chemong Lake railroad, was run in by Constable Stewart about two o'clock this morning in a most hilarious condition. William has "old-rounder" written all over him. He had been in town eight weeks, he said, and would pay any fine "his honor" might impose, if he was only allowed to go. "You may go as this is your first offence," said P. M. Dumbia. "Thank ye, sir, I'm much obliged," said Billy, as he took his departure with a grin on his face.

Camp Scenes.

Mr. R. M. Roy this morning showed the REVIEW a number of views of scenes from camp life, which were photographed during the outing of the Fitzgerald hunting party last week. The pictures are good ones and represent the party fishing, and give the inexperienced a most vivid idea of what camp life is at this time of the year. A way-back farm house is also placed on paper, showing the farmer and his son standing as monarchs of all they survey. In one of the pictures three fine buck hang from the tri-pole, showing the luck of the party in the chase, while in another Messrs. Roy and Fitzgerald loom up with an immense spread of mountain trout at their feet, the result of their angling.

Apples! Apples! Apples!

Messrs. Elliott & Tierney have purchased the entire choice crop of apples, the product of Mr. G. W. Hatton's "Walkerfield orchard" consisting of Snow, Spitzenburgh, H. Pippins, Northern Spy, Beauties of the West, etc. All hand picked and in prime order. Call and taste. Prices reasonable. d89

A Perfect Fit.

It is very hard sometimes for ladies to decide where to leave their orders for mantles, so many garments spoiled by careless cutting and work. H. S. Griffin & Co. are doing a rushing trade in mantles made to order and they give a perfect fitting jacket, dolman or ulster at close cash prices.

Manitoba Wheat.

A fine sample of wheat from Moosejaw, in the Northwest, was left at this office today. It was grown on the farm of Mr. Jas. Franks. The wheat averaged 30 bushels to the acre and Mr. Franks had about 1,500 bushels. It was selling at $1.06 a bushel at Moosejaw, and four storehouses were being erected to handle the grain in that vicinity.

The Best Sale of the Best.

Buy if you want bargains. The sale is absolutely a clearing one. Every line must go. This extremity makes your opportunity. Will you take it? Splendid lines of winter goods being sacrificed. First-class goods, too, bought for the regular winter trade. Flannels and woolens at a large reduction. Do not wait, but come at once while the assortment is good. d93cf

Railway Notes.

The Lindsay Post says:—"The masons and bricklayers are at work on the western extension of the Midland engine house. The new building will be used as offices and store-rooms, and will give more and badly needed room in the main building. The Grand Trunk-Midland pay-roll at Lindsay this month considerably exceeded $10,000. It will be as much more in a year or so when the various works here are completed and the concentration of the system at Lindsay is affected.

Social Ball.

A correspondent writes:—The second of Mr. R. Hallihan's popular balls held in the Ashburnham town hall on Monday evening was a fine success. There were about 300 persons present, and the hall was so full that fifteen or twenty couples from town went away unable to get in. Good music was furnished by Mr. McIlmoyle's orchestra. Mr. Jas. Coughlin was a very efficient floor manager, and the managers did their parts well, all passing off smoothly and pleasantly. The hall is said to have never been so full before at any similar entertainment, and the large attendance speaks well for Mr. Hallihan.

Antiquated Books.

Mr. R. Whitla left at the REVIEW office yesterday two very old books—a family Bible and a book of sermons. The book of sermons is the oldest and was printed 187 years ago. The title page is:—"A sermon preached at the cathedral church of St. Paul, January the 6th, 1701, being the first for the year 1701 of the lectures founded by the Honorable Robert Boyle, Esq.—by George Stanhope, D. D., Chaplain in ordinary to his Majesty. London: Printed for Richard Sare at Grays-Inn-Gate, in Holborn, MDCCI." The family Bible is a large strongly bound book. It was printed in London in 1770, and belonged to the Wolsley estate, the name "J. Wolsely" being written on the blank page. These interesting books may be seen at this office for a few days.

Characters of a Mining Country.

In reference to the comedy drama "Dot" to be produced at the Opera House on Thursday night, Nov. 1st, by Mrs. Emma Franks' brilliant company the London Free Press says:—"Dot" was produced last night for the first time this season. The audience was fairly large and appreciative. The play abounds in border incident, in which the characters to be met in a mining country are ingeniously represented. Miss Florence J. Bindley made herself a great favorite as "Dot," the little heroine, and Mr. James Horne played the double character of the twin brothers with spirit and dramatic talent. To those who like a highly-spiced, sensational western drama, with plenty of exciting situations and grotesque humor, this will do as well as any that has come along. The company is well balanced, and the play runs smoothly. 2d98

Locating Next Year's Meet.

This morning Commodore H. C. Rogers, Mr. J. Z. Rogers, with Mr. J. G. Edwards, of Lindsay, returned from the east where they had gone a day or two ago to spy out the land, or rather water. They had in view a location for next year's A. C. A. meet, under the management of the Northern Division. The party went to Gananoque, where they were entertained as befitted the representatives of the N. D. The Mayor of the town and leading citizens did the honors and ferried the party about. McDonald's Island on the Canadian side of the St. Lawrence, and about one mile north of Grindstone Island, is pronounced an available spot and one that could be easily made use of. The committee considered the requirements of transport in reaching and leaving camp and think well of the place. Having viewed several sites the matter will come up for consideration at the general meeting to be held early in November at Toronto.

An Old Time Minstrel.

Probably no man in the burnt cork profession has so well survived the wear and tear of the past ten years better than Cool Burgess. For years he has dropped out of recollection and now comes to the surface more original than ever. With his new Wonderland Company he gives one entertainment in the Opera House on Saturday evening next, Oct. 27th. The programme includes the greatest of all inexplicable Maxey in his renowned entertainment, entitled "A Pleasing Evening with the Spirits," introducing his wonderful cabinet mystery, a puzzle to scientists. Another wonderful novelty, direct from Orrin Bros.' Amphi-theatre, Havana, Cuba and Mexico, at an enormous salary, Wardell, surnamed the "Prince of Fire Kings," pronounced by both press and public to be the greatest wonder of the present day, has long puzzled the people of America, and they all ask, "Is he Man or Devil." See him and judge for yourself. The first appearance of the serio-comic gem, Miss Lily Cleveland, in her pleasing ballads and budget of the latest songs of the day. First appearance in the Dominion, Prof. Riddles, introducing his world renowned London Shadowgraphs embracing naval and battle scenes by sea and land. Prof. Phillip, cornet soloist and pianist (late Grau's Opera Co.) First appearance in the Dominion, Miss Wardell in her truly representative speciality, entitled "Pastimes on the Levee." Cool Burgess, the Gladstone of comedians, will positively appear at every entertainment in his white and black face specialties, introducing his new stump speech, entitled "Woman's Suffrage." Admission to all parts of the hall, 25 cents. No reserved seats. Children, 10 cents. 2d97

The Beautiful Rain

Has worked havoc with the shoddy man's boots. The soles have come off and the counters have folded gracefully down over the heel. King's make of boots never do this. Try a pair or so from Kidd, the man who keeps only good boots. No shoddy!

The Mechanics' Assembly.

The committee of the Labor men who have charge of the ball to be held on Thanksgiving eve in the Opera House, met in the Labor Hall last night. The sub-committees presented reports, and all the arrangements perfected. The details will be in good hands and the success of the assembly may be spoken of as a sure thing.

Accident in a Saw Mill.

An accident occurred at Hazlitt's saw mill just as the mill was about to shut down at 12 o'clock to-day, the victim of which was Arthur Bryant, of Ashburnham. The unfortunate young man, who had only been employed at the mill two days, got his right hand on a circular saw, and badly lacerated the thumb and first finger. Dr. Clarke dressed the hand, and had to extract several of the bones from the lacerated thumb and finger.

Keep in mind the date, Wednesday, Oct. 31st, for the Fisk Jubilee Singers Admission 50c. and 75c.

Martial Music and Movement.

Preliminary work is going forward to get things into shape for the Battalion concert, to come off on Thursday evening, Nov. 15. The last event of this character proved a brilliant success, and the energy and earnestness displayed by those who are perfecting details will ensure it being up to the mark. The programme has already been shaped and will include the features of manuel firing exercises, fencing bouts, a tug of war, and local selections by members of the battalion as well as a number of selections by the band. Full particulars will be announced, but the public are asked to bear the date in mind.

Personal.

Trial Trot at the Driving Park.

Yesterday afternoon a number of the local lovers of the turf went down to the driving park to witness the trial trot of a stallion, called "Brandy," which had been brought here from Joliette, P.Q., by his owner with the expectation of selling him in town. The owner claimed that the stallion, which was a bay with black points, could do the turn of the track in 1 09 or 1.10, and that he would trot a mile in 2.25 or 2.26. Yesterday, however, he must have been away off as he could not go a little bit, doing the half in 1.29½, which would be about a three minute gait. The track was pretty heavy and the Frenchman claimed that his horse was off in consequence of the thirty-six hours ride from Joliette. It would seem that, although making such poor time yesterday, the animal must have some speed, or else his owner would never have gone to the expense of bringing him away up here for a trial heat. The price set on him was $600 which would have been cheap if the time claimed had been made. Mr. A. P. Morgan was the local man whom the Quebec horseman expected to sell to, as Mr. Morgan wants a horse if he can find one to suit him. The man and horse left for Joliette this morning. The local horsemen who went down yesterday afternoon were rather disappointed at the exhibition.

ARRIVED IN ENGLAND.—Mr. A. I. Wright's many friends will be pleased to learn of his safe arrival in England on the 4th of Oct. A COOL DIP.—Mr. George Cochrane (Scott Act inspector) received a very cold dip near the mouth of Jack's creek, one day last week. The steamer ran on a rock and could not back off, so the Inspector took an anchor out in a canoe so as to warp the boat off. In casting anchor the canoe upset. The anchor caught in Mr. Cochrane's overcoat pocket and nearly anchored him at the bottom. Fortunately he got clear of it on his down trip and came to the surface of the water and was hauled in. A little liquid Scott Act would have done him good just then, but he prefers ague.

THE BLUE VASE.

By S. BARING GOULD.

gend. That word was "Tyrant," the word he had let drop in the hearing of the king, when speaking of the treatment of the potters to Sophie Mansfeld.

He was hardly able to understand the situation. He was unable to account for the amplification, when the guards took him and the young girl into custody, and they were marched off to separate prisons.

CHAPTER IV.

A good deal of jealousy had been roused in Berlin by a trial which had occurred not long before, in which a poor student who gave lessons for his livelihood had been condemned to death, on his own confession, for the murder of a widow in whose house he lodged. One morning the old woman was discovered dead in her bed, strangled, with a cord round her throat. Suspicion rested on the young man, Zimmer, because there was no one else on whom suspicion could rest; and he was taken into custody. According to the Prussian, and, indeed, the general German system, the accused was subjected to secret examination, and even to torture, to wring from him a confession. In his agony on the rack, he promised, if taken off, to admit his guilt. He did so, and, on his confession, was condemned. The chancellor, Cocceji, heard of the circumstances, and ordered a fresh inquiry, especially a re-inspection of the corpse. The Berlin hangman was shown it, when he at once declared that the knot tied in the cord could only have been so tied by a hangman or his apprentice, as it was a special knot only used in the profession. This led to a further investigation, and to discovery of the real murderers, two hangman's apprentices at Spandau, the brothers of the deceased. Whereupon the student Zimmer was discharged. When asked why he had admitted his guilt when he was innocent, he frankly said that the torture to which he was subjected was so unendurable that any innocent man would rather confess a murder than endure it.

Frederick the Great thereupon abolished the use of torture in criminal cases. He was not, however, satisfied that this was the only abuse of the courts and the only means whereby justice miscarried. He was somewhat bitten with the idea of trial by jury as carried on in England, but did not understand exactly the English method. He now sent for Aldbury and questioned him on the subject.

"See here," he said, "these two—this Lazinka and the Demoiselle Mansfeld—are both under accusation of treason. I would have them tried by jury. How could it be done?"

"Your majesty," answered Aldbury, "nothing is easier. Twelve men must be sworn in, impaneled, and after an open trial"——

"A public trial!" exclaimed the king.

"Certainly, your majesty."

"But we never have our trials in public."

"No, your majesty; and, sire, excuse the freedom if I say that this shocks and astounds an Englishman. With you, the accused is secretly questioned, and worried, and tormented"——

"He is no longer tortured," interrupted the king.

"Your majesty is right, and yet—if he will excuse the liberty—is wrong. The body of the accused is no longer put on the rack—only his mind. He is not even told what he is accused of. Everything is wrapped in mystery, and healthy public opinion"——

"Healthy public opinion—fiddlesticks," interrupted the king. "Enough. We will have this trial conducted in the English fashion. Twelve men sworn in, one judge and the whole in public. That would be comical."

"May it please your majesty to allow me to visit the accused in prison?"

"Oh, yes, certainly. You shall have our order."

Furnished with the royal pass, he went to Spandau, where the young count was in prison, and consulted him. From him he could learn nothing. Then he visited Sophie in the prison at Berlin. From her, also, he could gather nothing. His conviction that neither had written the word "Tyran" was intensified by these visits. It was clear to him that the trial must turn upon certain technicalities connected with the manufacture, and he again visited the young count to ask him if he would consent to his—Aldbury's—acting as his advocate. He was not a lawyer, he knew nothing of law; but if there was something to be unraveled in this mysterious case, he, who was acquainted with all the processes of porcelain manufacture, he who was in and out of the royal factory, had special means of observation and inquiry, and would be far more likely to come to the bottom of the matter than another. It was true that he spoke broken German, but nevertheless he had a sound English head, and was possessed of sufficient English self confidence to assure himself he could convince a jury if only he found how the mysterious inscription had come on the vase. Lazinka cheerfully consented to the offer.

CHAPTER V.

The day of the trial arrived. It created great interest, both because of the title and position of the principal person accused, but also because of the novelty of the proceeding. The court—an extemporized one, with place at the side for the jury, was crowded. The king was present; he was interested with this experiment, and desirous of seeing how trial by jury worked. The Countess Lazinka was also there, in a gallery for ladies. The court was formally opened; the jury took the required oath, and Lazinka appeared under conduct of two officers; and Sophie Mansfeld brought from Berlin by the jailer. Count Augustus Lazinka and Sophie Mansfeld both pleaded not guilty. The English system was not followed exactly, because Aldbury was not clear about the mode of procedure, so that it was, in fact, somewhat of a jumble. For instance the judge opened proceedings by an address to the jury and the announcement that if found guilty the count would be sentenced to six years' imprisonment in Spandau, and Sophie Mansfeld to three years' solitary confinement in the prison for female criminals in Berlin. He also informed the jury that their decision must be unanimous. The charge was then read over by the clerk of the court. Then the counsel for the crown rose to state the case for the prosecution. He said that the young count had been received with favor by the king, and had been about his person for two or three years, and from his majesty had received nothing but kindness. In return, he had, if that wherewith he was accused proved true, deserved not merely with gross ingratitude, but with unpardonable ingratitude. He had insulted his benefactor, as well as acted treasonably toward his king.

On the table was the vase, covered with a kerchief. The counsel unveiled this, and pointed out the inscription to the eternal memory of Frederick the Great Tyrant.

The director, Wegeli, was first called. He appeared reluctantly and reluctantly admitted that, on the occasion of his most serene and gracious majesty's visit to the factory, the count had remained behind, talking with the Demoiselle Mansfeld, and on the return of the party through the chamber, he had heard the accused use the word "Tyrant" but in what connection he was unable to say.

"Yes, yes!" shouted Frederick from his seat, "I heard him—he said that we, at least, I think he said we, acted the tyrant."

This interference was a little disconcerting. His majesty was not in the witness box, nor upon oath.

Counsel—Do you know this vase?

Hirsch—Certainly.

C. Where have you seen it? Tell the jury all you know about it.

H. I saw it first in the picture gallery of the Royal Palace of Sanssouci, on the 1st instant, between 10 and 11 in the morning. I cannot fix the hour more precisely. I had to arrange the pieces of porcelain for the exhibition.

C. Tell the jury under what circumstances you saw it, and what happened when it was exhibited.

H. I unpacked the vase with the rest, and placed them on shelves. When his majesty came in, his majesty seemed specially struck with this one vase, and, as I saw that there was some dust on it—that is, as I saw that in one portion it lacked its proper glaze, I took out my handkerchief and wiped it. His most serene and gracious majesty himself noticed that there was a smear where was the inscription, and handed me the vase, which I rubbed again, whereupon I read the inscription on it, "A Peternelle gloire de Frederic le grand tyran." I was so shocked that I hardly knew what to do. I nearly let the vase fall from my hands. But his majesty took it graciously from me, and himself read the legend.

"Yes, yes," shouted Frederick from his seat; "that is all true enough. He speaks the truth."

C. That will do. Stand back.

Then Aldbury rose and said: "I should wish to ask Herr Solomon Hirsch a few questions but not now, later, when the other witnesses have been heard. Will the judge order him to remain ready to be called, not in the hall."

The next witness called was Wageli.

Q. Have you read the inscription on the vase? A. I have.

Q. How does it run? A. A'eternelle gloire de Frederic le grand tyran.

Q. Do you know by whom it was written? A. I believe by Count Augustus Lazinka.

Q. What makes you suppose this? A. Because I was present when Sophie Mansfeld was engaged on the vase, and the count asked some questions about the red powder she was using for the gold. She paints better than she writes, and complained that she dreaded the inscription more than all the rest of the painting. Then the count volunteered to write it for her. He said he wrote a good hand, and that he desired to satisfy himself that the mixture he saw on her palette really turned to gold when burned. Soon after, the workman who attends to these matters was called to remove the vase and place it in the oven. He took it, and conveyed it to the proper place; at least I presume so, for he took it out of the painting room.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

Yarns and Hosiery

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies', at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what inducements may be offered we never allow ourselves to be undersold.

THE VACANT JUDGESHIP.

IT IS SAID JUDGE HENRY'S SUCCESSOR HAS BEEN NAMED.

But No Announcement Has Been Made—Chief Justice Hagarty and Judge Osler Mentioned—The Dominion's Trade.

OTTAWA, Oct, 27.—There was a meeting of Council yesterday afternoon at which it is thought that the vacancy in the Supreme Court bench was filled, but no announcement was made. It is considered pretty certain that the vacancy will be filled from the Ontario bench, and the names of Chief Justice Hagarty and Judge Osler are mentioned, with the chances in favor of the former.

Hon. Mr. Mowat, Premier of Ontario, arrived here yesterday morning and had a long conference with Premier Mercier of Quebec with reference to making final arrangements for the meeting of the arbitrators who are to appoftion the assets which belong to the two provinces as legatees of the old province of Canada, and also to settle up all outstanding accounts between the two provinces.

The Canada Northwest Land Co. and the Canadian Pacific Railroad will, it is understood, jointly enter the courts once more to resist the payment of school taxes upon their lands in the Northwest. The Supreme Court, in refusing to hear their appeal, practically terminates the legal fight on the old issue, but now the company, profiting by recent legislation, can carry their case to Ottawa. The statutes of 1886, chapter 37, which of course is not retroactive in its effect, possesses a clause extending the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court to cases coming from the Supreme Court of the Northwest, even though the cases in question do not originate in the territorial court. Under this section therefore an appeal from a court of revision could lie to Ottawa.

To-day's Canada Gazette contains notice of calling to the Senate James Reid, in place of Hon. Hugh Nelson.

Parliament has been further prorogued pro forma, to Dec. 1.

An order-in-council has been passed approving the new rules and regulations to govern the board of civil service examiners in holding examinations.

Notice is given of application to Parliament for a charter for the Calgary, Alberta and Montana Railway, to build a railway from Calgary in a southerly direction to the international boundary at a point between the Rocky Mountains and the eastern boundary of Alberta.

An order-in-council has been passed approving the by-law of the town of Rincardine imposing certain harbor tolls.

The following notices of bank dividends are given: Niagara District Bank, 5 per cent.; Imperial Bank, semi-annual at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum; Bank Ville Marie, Merchants' Bank of Canada, Ontario Bank, Canadian Bank of Commerce, Jacques Cartier Bank, and Bank of Ottawa, 3½ per cent. for the half-year, and Traders' Bank of Canada at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum.

The Pope and the Kaiser.

BERLIN, Oct. 27.—Government organs are talking of the expected recall of Baron von Schloezer, the Prussian Envoy to the Vatican, in consequence of the Pope's oration to the Neapolitan pilgrims. The Germania (Catholic) asserts that the papal note to the Nuncios at foreign courts will emphasize the fact that Emperor William's visit having led to occurrences that could not fail to wound the Pontiff has made the position of the Pope still more deplorable.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Victoria University and Her Degrees—The Deadly Self-Feeder.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—A deputation waited on Hon. G. W. Ross at the Educational Department yesterday afternoon to ascertain if the Ontario Government would pass such legislation as was necessary to retain for Victoria University her degree conferring power during the interim between the time when the university may go into confederation and the actual removal to Toronto. Mr. Ross promised to give Victoria all the legislation she could desire for the furtherance of federation

John Barnard, familiarly known as Pie John, was found dead in his chamber yesterday morning. Before retiring to rest, he had filled the self-feeder in the sitting-room with coal, but forgot to close the top afterwards. His wife lay by his side unconscious but hopes are entertained of her recovery.

At a meeting of a special committee of the City Council yesterday it was resolved to issue $1,000,000 of the new debentures at 4 per cent. for 40 years and the remaining $500,000 local improvement debentures spread over short dates at 3½ per cent. It was further determined not to sell the 4 per cents, but simply to hypothecate them until the spring, when an attempt will be made to exchange them for 3½'s, it being hoped that by that time the necessary legislation would be secured.

A man named Flemming, of Brampton, came near losing his life while leaving the G. T. R. train yesterday morning at Parkdale. It was in motion and he slipped and fell between the south end of the platform and the train. The spectators fully expected to see him mangled, but when the train was stopped and the man picked up he had escaped injury.

Frederick Adolphus Clarry, a stylish-looking young man, was yesterday arrested on a charge of selling a lottery ticket, the prize in which is a $20,000 residence on the lake shore in Parkdale.

Parkdale votes on the question of whether or not it will annex to Toronto to-morrow.

Yesterday's session of the Baptist Women's Missionary Society was devoted to Home Missions. Mrs. A. R. McMaster, President, delivered an able address, reviewing the work of the past year. A sermon was then preached by Rev. D. A. McGregor, after which reports of Home Mission work were read and an address delivered by Mrs. Yule.

A mandamus was granted yesterday in Jones v. Port Arthur to quash a by-law granting a bonus of $5000 for the erection of a new postoffice in that enterprising town, the ground taken being that there is unjust discrimination in selecting the site. The argument takes place next week.

The girl Annie Pratt, arrested on Thursday at the instance of City Contractor Cathro on a charge of stealing $500, and who secured her liberty afterwards through his efforts, when her name was called in the Police Court yesterday, failed to appear, and neither did Cathro materialize. It was then discovered that the fair Annie had been given her liberty without the proper bonds having been entered into, and there is likely to be an investigation to discover who is to blame for the oversight. Meanwhile the police are looking for Cathro and his mistress.

THE GALT POISONING.

A Change in Tactics—No Evidence Against Hannah Boyd to be Given Just Now.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—The case of Hannah Boyd, the young woman arrested by Government Detective Murray on the charge of complicity in what is called the Galt poisoning mystery, will come before the magistrate in Berlin to-day, when the preliminary examination, which was adjourned for a week, is due to commence.

But the public will be surprised to learn that the expected sensational developments are not to take place—at least not at present. Hannah Boyd's case will of course be called to-day, but she will either be discharged or the case will be enlarged. This is certainly something unexpected, but the statement is founded upon the best authority.

The Crown has something in view, and for this reason the authorities do not intend to expose their hand at present. There is something important ahead, hence the sudden change of tatics. Deputy Attorney-General Johnston said yesterday: "We have the case well in hand and are going to keep working at it day after day."

The Chocolate Crank.

WOODSTOCK, Oct. 27.— Mr. E. Topping of Woodstock received through the post office yesterday morning a box containing four chocolates.

GRAHAM DISCHARGED.

The False Pretence Case at Hamilton Settled by the Parties.

HAMILTON, Oct. 27.—When the case of Peter M. Graham, the young man arrested on Wednesday, on a charge of procuring promissory notes from Fred Prior, of Toronto, by false pretences, came up in the Police Court yesterday, counsel for prosecution stated that the parties had agreed to a settlement and no evidence would be called against the prisoner. By the terms of the settlement Graham agrees to return to Prior the notes which he got from him on the piano and to make good any loss which Prior may have sustained through the transaction.

George Brent, an old man employed at the Oaklands Jersey Stock Farm, was charged by his wife Bridget, at the Police Court, with neglecting to provide the necessary food and clothing for her and her two girls. The Magistrate decided that as the father had no one but himself to keep, and as he got his board in addition to $12 a month, he should pay his wife $8 a month in advance for the support of herself and her two children,

NORTH BRUCE PLOWING MATCH.

The Contest Witnessed by a Large Crowd—The Prize Winners.

PORT ELGIN, Oct. 27.— The plowing match of the North Bruce Plowing Association was held yesterday. There was a large number of contestants in the different classes, and a big crowd of spectators witnessed the match. The prize-takers were as follows in order of merit:

Men's class—David Jefferey, Dugald McLaren, William Hay, John Forrester, Chas. Keitlie, John Cobean.

Young Men's Class—James Cassidy, Edward Forrester, Peter Davidson, Donald McKay, Duncan C. Bell.

Boys' Class—Robt. Begg, Archie Bell, Peter Mitchell, Philip Jefferey, Wm. Forrester.

The Wilkesbarre Case Once More.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 27.—It is reported that two school boys found McClure's satchel in the woods near Taylorville, 12 miles from the place where the murdered paymaster's body was found. The satchel contained some silver.

Drowning Accident.

ORILLIA, Oct. 27.—Word was received here yesterday afternoon that James Quinn, jr., was drowned by crossing from Pt. Severn to Waubashene in a row boat.

A Politician Fined for Treating.

DES MOINES, Oct 27.—United States Swamp Land Commissioner W. C. Forry was arrested at Iowa Falls yesterday, charged with treating a personal friend to a drink of whisky. He was fined $100 for the offense. It is said to have been a political prosecution.

THE MINISTER'S BLUNDER.

SALISBURY DEPLORES SACKVILLE'S INJUDICIOUSNESS.

No Official Communication Touching the Incident Has Yet Passed Between the Two Governments.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—No official communication has as yet passed between the Cabinets of England and the United States with reference to Lord Sackville's letter on the presidential contest.

Lord Salisbury has sent to Lord Sackville several direct despatches deploring the Minister's injudiciousness.

It is expected here that the United States Government will make some demand in order to counteract possible injury to President Cleveland.

Mr. Phelps, the United States Minister here, has already had an interview with Lord Salisbury on the subject.

Neither The Post, The Times, The Chronicle, The Standard, nor The Daily News, touch the Sackville incident. Another daily paper, however, begins an editorial thus: "Her Majesty's minister at Washington has been writing a letter on American politics. The mere announcement of such an act is enough to make our old and departed diplomatists turn in their graves." After scoring the minister pretty roughly for a column, the editorial thus concludes: "As to the issue of the presidental contest, it is no longer of any great interest to the people in this country. Although General Harrison is a protectionist, President Cleveland is not a free trader, while the retaliation message and recent jobs show that in pandering to international jealousness and in the art of political corruption there is naught to choose between the two parties. An Englishman abroad may write a silly letter, but Englishmen at home care very little who enters the White House next year."

There is great disgust here at the mess into which Lord Sackville seems to have got himself. He was slated for Rome after Lord Dufferin had done a brief turn there, but this foolishness probably puts an end to his career of preferment.

A Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—There was another Cabinet meeting yesterday at which Lord Sackville's letter and the complications resulting therefrom was the topic under discussion but it is understood that no action was taken.

At the State Department it was said that Mr. Bayard had not taken any further action and had no statement to make in addition to the one given out yesterday.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

The New York Tribune says Canada's Future Depends on the Result.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—"The Future of Canada—Reciprocity or Political Union—The Elections here to Decide" is the way The Tribune heads the contribution of two correspondents. The writers are F. W. Glen, who will be remembered in Canada, and F. T. Babson, President of the National Fishery Association. The former says that the Wiman policy, or rather, as he (Glen) believes, the Cleveland-Bayard policy, if carried out will secure Reciprocity, indefinitely defer Political Union, and leave Canada an appendage to the British Crown.

THE GENEREUX INQUEST.

Alfred Belanger Charged With Causing the Girl's Death—A $6000 Fire.

MONTREAL, Oct. 27.—The inquest on the body of the French Canadian girl, Emma Genereux, alleged to have been outraged, was concluded last evening, when the jury returned this verdict, two jurors dissenting:

"That said Emma Genereux came to her death from violence and injuries inflicted upon her body by one Alfred Belanger." Coroner Jones will commit Belanger to the Court of Queen's Bench next week.

Fire last night in the building occupied by Robert Mitchell & Co., brass founders, and others, caused the following losses: Robert Mitchell & Co., $2000; Ewing & Co., coffee and spice mills, $1000; C. Aspenwall, blacksmith, $300; a laundry, $1000 and building $2000, covered by insurance.

Daring Robbery at Brockville.

BROCKVILLE, Oct. 27.—A rather daring robbery occurred yesterday, the victim being Mr. Fowler, furniture dealer. A customer went into his shop and wanted to look at a parlor suite, and for this purpose Mr. Fowler accompanied him to the show rooms on the second flat, thus leaving the shop without anyone in charge. Just as he was at the head of the stairs he heard the shop door open and looking around saw a party coming in who was in the habit of frequently coming to the shop, consequently he paid no attention to the matter. On coming down stairs again the party was gone, and shortly after Mr. Fowler noticed that his safe had been opened, and an examination revealed the fact that notes and papers to the value of about $490 had been taken. There was no money, however, in the safe at the time. The suspected party is safe on the other side of the river.

Will Make Votes for Harrison.

BUFFALO, Oct. 27.—Chauncey M. Depew, in an interview yesterday, predicted that the Republican electoral ticket would have 20,000 majority in this State. He said Lord Sackville's letter was the funniest thing he had heard of since Burchard's "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion." It would open the people's eyes to the real truth of the connection between Cleveland and England, and make good votes for Harrison and Morton. The letter substantiated the statement the Republicans had made all along, that the British Government and people were in favor of Cleveland's election.

Thorold's Gas Well.

THOROLD, Oct. 27.—The Thorold gas well is now down over 1800 feet. The drill is working through the second sand bed, which is very hard, although 30 feet in the twelve hours is made. Mr. Cameron, of Westfield, N. Y., the contractor, says the indications are the same here as in Bradford, Pa., and he feels confident of striking gas at a depth of not over 2400 feet.

MARRIAGE.

In the United States the discussion of the question, "Is marriage a failure?" is continued. It is somewhat amusing to see papers asking the opinion of such actresses as Sara Barnhardt, that is, if they are in earnest in the discussion. In Canada little interest is taken in the interviews and articles, because the question does not arise here. Social life in Canada is on such a good foundation that the success of marriage, as an institution, is not a debateable question. It is somewhat astounding to the sober people of the Dominion to read in a United States paper that it is necessary to so adapt the law that the marriage tie may be dissolved at will in order to make married life bearable. What the United States needed was less easier methods of obtaining divorces and not greater facilities for separations. The lax marriage laws have to a great degree been the cause of the numerous divorces in many parts of that country. It is true that there are advocates of a divorce court in Canada, and a court might be established with strict laws that would not make divorces any more easily obtainable, but there is no desire in Canada to do anything to cause persons to feel that the marriage is not a life contract, and rather than do that we believe the people of this country would refuse divorces altogether. So long as this view prevails the question whether marriage is a success or a failure will not naturally come up in this country.

GRIP scores a point when, in answer to Senator Blair's enquiry as to whether Louis Riel was a United States citizen, it asks if the Senator is going to propose that the Republic pay the little bill of expenses its citizen caused Canada to incur.

CANADIANS are pleased to learn that Lord Dufferin has received another mark of favor from his country and has been created a Marquis. His new titles are Marquis of Dufferin and Alva and Earl of Alva. He will still be known as Lord Dufferin.

GEN. BEN. BUTLER has written an article to show how easily the Dominion could be conquered by the United States in winter when the St. Lawrence is frozen and British boats could not get up that river. If Ben's intentions are serious perhaps it would be well to send him the spoons now and prevent the invasion.

LORD SACKVILLE, the British ambassador at Washington, has given new life to the anti-British fulminations by writing a letter favorable to Cleveland. The letter was not written for publication and was marked private, but it found its way into print. The Republican papers see in it evidence that Cleveland is under British influence, and Democratic papers discover in its publications reasons why they should demand that Lord Sackville should no longer remain in Washington in his official capacity. The election will soon be over and the excitement will then cool down.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Mail writing from Peterborough says:—"The company have a continuous line of railway running through the whole of Manitoba, from end to end. They had this when they accepted the $15,000,000, and that money was given for the express purpose of doing away with all their claims. Yet they say they will not allow the people to construct their new roads, and that the company has the monopoly still." There are two mistakes in this. The Canadian Pacific company was not given $15,000,000 and it does not claim the monopoly privilege still. Thecompany did not give up all its claims; it still has the same rights as other railway companies, and no more.

THE Montreal Gazette says:—"Canadian Liberal newspapers are greatly exercised over the Yankee sugar trust in shutting up a Boston refinery and turning some hundreds of workmen into the street to look for employment. Their columns just overflow with sympathy for the unfortunate American wage earner. When fourteen years ago the tariff of the Liberal free trade government, discriminating against this country's sugar refineries, turned hundreds of Canadian workmen out of their homes, the same Liberal press treated them to a dose of maxims to show that whatever produce seeming cheapness, whether it produced work or not, was in the interest of the laborer. The free trader is a great friend of other countries' industries and workingmen."

ELSIE—"What's this, Grandma, I found in the attic?"

ELSIE—"Did you used to clean your teeth with it?"

GRANDMA—"Yes, dear, I tried to, but it hurt my gums, scratched my teeth, and did little else. How delighted I was when I first used the Ideal Felt Tooth Polisher that everbody uses now, and which has done so much to preserve the teeth."

ELSIE—"Isn't it nice? But Grandma, when was it introduced?"

GRANDMA—"About 1886; by the same Horsey M'f'g Co., of Utica, N. Y., who now make the handsome Holder and box of 18 Felt Polishers." dd99

TEACHERS IN SESSION.

TWO DAYS' PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNTY INSTITUTE.

A Large Attendance—The Subjects Discussed and Essays Read—A Most Pleasant Entertainment.

The annual convention of the Teachers' Institute of the County opened in the Model School building, Norwood, on Thursday at one o'clock, and closed yesterday afternoon. About sixty teachers from all parts of the county were in attendance, of whom about thirty were from this riding. The proceedings during the two days proved most interesting, and the entertainment on Thursday evening was a grand success, a most pleasant evening being spent. The teachers from a distance were billited at private houses, arrangements for this having been made by the Norwood teachers, and the treatment the visitors received called forth their loudest praise of the hospitality of the Norwood people.

First Day's Proceedings.

Mr. A. Hutchinson, President, was in the seat of honor and opened the convention with a short and happy address, after which Mr. J. J. Rooney, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were adopted.

The treasurer read his report, and a committee, consisting of Mr. Matchett and Miss McDonald, was appointed to audit the same.

Two other committees were also appointed—one to draft nominations for offices, consisting of Messrs. Anderson and Spence, and the other to report on a uniform examination for the county was composed of Mr. Kelly and Misses Mark and McDonald.

HOW TO TEACH READING.

The first subject taken up was reading, by Mr. J. C. Brown. He dwelt with the first four readers and pointed out several points to be emphasied in teaching this subject. The First Reader, he said, was intended to give the pupils a thorough knowledge of the alphabet, which meant a good deal more than merely teaching the names of the letters—they should know the use of the letters. The word at the margin should be thoroughly mastered by pupils before proceeding to read the lesson. In the second part, he would advise teachers to make an index of the lessons, as none was provided in the book. The difference between prose and poetry should be pointed out and the best pieces of poetry committed to memory. It is a good exercise to have pupils give the substance of lessons in their own words, and pupils will be led to take a good deal more interest if they are led to know something of the authors of the lessons. Mr. Brown also spok on the remaining three books, and in a similar manner showed how they should be taught.

THE ART OF ARITHMETIC.

Arithmetic was the second subject on the programme and was handled by Miss Kate Lewis, of Norwood. This lady thoroughly understands the training of the young minds, and the manner in which she dealt with her important subject was both pleasing and beneficial to her fellow teachers. Among other points she showed her method of presenting short division to a class for the first time.

COMPOSITION AS HE TAUGHT IT.

Mr. K. Mark, of Keene, then followed on composition as he teaches it in his own school. The principal points brought out by the speaker were:—Commence composition first day of school life. Before words must be ideas, and children should use their own language. Statements at first should be simple, but afterwards two or more might be joined in one. To get pupils interested a short story should be read and then the pupils reproduce it in their own words. Business forms of all kinds should be taught, such as making out accounts, orders, drafts, promissory notes, etc.

Miss M. McDonald read an essay on "How to make our Institute more profitable," which closed the afternoon programme. Her suggestions were good and if heeded by the Institute would be followed by the best results.

A PLEASANT EVENING.

The Norwood teachers had made arrangements for an entertainment in the evening, and the audience which listened to the excellent programme was so large that it crowded the town hall to overflowing. The programme was a good one and a most pleasant evening was spent by the teachers and their friends. Several fine choruses were rendered during the evening, and readings were given by Misses Ford, Scott and Lewis, each of whom acquitted themselves in admirable style. Miss Fowles also contributed two very pleasing solos.

Second Day's Proceedings.

The morning session on Friday opened with the consideration of the question, "Are uniform promotion examinations desirable." A lengthy discussion took place, which was entered into by Messrs. Hutchinson, Rooney, Mark, Matchett, Brown, Kelly and Misses Scott and McDonald. From the remarks of the several speakers it appeared that the general feeling was that such an examination was desirable. This examination is intended to take the place of the one which was to be held in November next. The first of the uniform examinations is to be held about the first of December.

Then followed the reading of an essay on "School Discipline" by Mr. A. Hutchinson, the President. He handled the subject in a very masterly style and touched on every conceivable point of difficulty which a teacher is liable to have to deal with in the way of discipline. No teacher could have listened to the essay without having been given many points in this important part of the profession.

"Geography" was the next subject which came before the Institute, and the method of treating the subject by Mr. J. C. Brown, Inspector, was interesting and instructive. In the first place, he said, he would teach the names of the continents and oceans, with their relative positions. Then he would teach the names of the countries and capitals, then the islands, etc., and lastly he would enter upon the Dominion of Canada more minutely. He stated that he believed that if the children were taught from the two maps—that of the world and the Dominion of Canada—they would receive more geographical knowledge than they do at present.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The first feature of the afternoon was the introducing to the Institute of Mr. W. S. Ellis, of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute. The subject upon which he addressed the teachers was "Teaching science incidentally." He showed to a conversational manner how pupils might be led, without receiving any set lessons, to gain a great deal of information on scientific subjects. Mr. Ellis gave his address in a most interesting way and received the undivided attention of the convention.

Miss Scott, of Norwood, showed her method of teaching reading to a class, having a class of pupils whom she employed to practically illustrate. Miss Scott showed that she understood thoroughly the art of teaching reading.

Mr. W. S. Ellis then spoke on the subject of "Developing the reasoning powers of the pupil." He took arithmetic as a means of accomplishing this, and by simple exercises on the black board he showed that all arithmetic could be taught inductively, and should be treated, taking the four simple rules as a basis.

The last hour was spent in answering questions proposed by the teachers. No person's ignorance was exposed as the questions were first on slips of paper, then collected and read out by the President and answered by the teachers.

Votes of thanks were tendered the Executive Committee for the excellent manner in which it had carried out all the arrangements, and to the people of Norwood who so kindly accommodated the visiting teachers during its meeting.

The convention then adjourned, the opinion being expressed that the meeting had been one of the most interesting held for years.

That is we sell lots of Goods below the first cost of manufacture and still make a living profit. Some people would naturally like to know how we do it. "Here is the Secret." A wholesale man gets hard up, wants money, must have it. He knows Goughs are spot cash buyers. They send for the Wonderful Cheap Men. They arrive on the scene. The wholesale man says, Gough what will you give for 300 cases of these boots; Goughs look the mover carefully, find them good desirableselling lines and make a bid of 40c. on the dollar; after hard fighting we get them. They arrive in Peterborough, are sold at 50c. on the dollar, we therefore sell them at half price and make a living profit for ourselves. That from springs in the hills is the best, and river water next, while well water is the worst. THE CLOSED BRIDGE.

Movement to Annex Part of Victoria to Peterborough County.

The Lindsay Post correspondent at King's Wharf, Emily township, writes as follows:—"A largely attended meeting was held at the King's Wharf post office on Saturday at 4 p.m. for the purpose of coming to some conclusion with regard to the Pigeon creek floating bridge which is about to be closed. A motion was put before the meeting to have certain portions of the townships of Emily, Verulam and Somerville annexed to the county of Peterborough, which was carried unanimously. Mr. Charles Millage and Mr. Deyell were appointed delegates to meet the Peterborough county council. The matter is to be left in the hands of Mr. Stratton, M.P.P., for West Peterborough. A meeting will be held on Saturday evening next at 7 o'clock in Gilleece's school house, Verulam. Mr. Fairbairn, Mr. T. H. McQuade and Mr. Crabtree are cordially invited to attend. It is believed that not less than three hundred names will appear on the petition before the house at the next session. We have appealed several times to the County of Victoria with very poor results. Now, what is wrong? Does the county of Victoria believe that we will submit to their decision in the matter? If so they are mistaken. We have paid our share to build roads and bridges away in Muskoka and other places and never squealed. The Pigeon creek bridge is all in the county of Victoria and Victoria county is asked to pay only one half the cost of keeping up repairs, and Peterborough will pay the other half. But Victoria county says no, we will compel you to draw your grain and produce to Lindsay and take what you get for it. Now this is exactly the way the matter stands, and we hope that the sympathizing people of this county will assist us in this matter, and as I have already taken up too much space in your valuable paper I will close for the present." The Post advocates the building of a fine gravel road road from Downeyville and King's Wharf to Lindsay.

The C. I. Literary Society.

A regular meeting of the Collegiate Institute Literary Society was held yesterday afternoon, the President, Mr. H. Fife, presiding. A reading was given by Miss. Annie Cookson. A debate followed on the question, "Resolved, that the thirteen Colonies were justified in Revolting from the Mother Country." Miss Brown and Mr. H. Fitzgerald agued on the affirmative side, and Miss V. Dover and Mr. A. Hurley for the negative. Mr. J. H. Long, the umpire, decided in favor of the affirmative. Mr. Colbeck acted as cirtic of the proceedings.

Boys in Court.

The charge brought by Mr. Henry Pace against five boys, who ranged from a foot and a half to four feet in height, of maliciously damaging his property on Water-st., by breaking his windows, was the only case before the Magistrate this morning. It appears that these boys were in the habit of playing in front of Pace's store and often given him trouble. On the occasion in question he sent his little son out with a stick to drive them away. The boy struck Charles Butler, one of the lads outside with the stick, and the latter in his anger threw a piece of bone through the window, striking young Pace and cutting his forehead. The boys were all discharged by the Magistrate, as he considered that Butler threw the bone under provocation.

Characters of a Mining Country.

In reference to the comedy drama "Dot' to be produced at the Opera House on Thursday night, Nov. 1st, by Mrs. Emma Franks' brilliant company the London Free Press says:—"Dot" was produced last night for the first time this season. The audience was fairly large and appreciative. The play abounds in border incident, in which the characters to be met in a mining country are ingeniously represented. Miss Florence J. Bindley made herself a great favorite as "Dot," the little heroine, and Mr. James Horne played the double character of the twin brothers with spirit and dramatic talent. To those who like a highly-spiced, sensational western drama, with plenty of exciting situations and grotesque humor, this will do as well as any that has come along. The company is well balanced, and the play runs smoothly. 2d98

B. C. Literary Society.

The literary society of the Business College gave a very interesting and successful entertainment on Friday evening in the lecture room of the College. The programme was as follows:—Song, "Sailing Over the Ocean Wave," Girl's Glee Club; reading, "A Prospective Mother-in-law," Mr. Cook; song, "Angels are Coming for me to-night," Miss A. Collings; reading, "Courtship under Difficulties," by Miss Lita Gray, which was so well given that the audience demanded an encore, to which the young lady gracefully responded by reading "Patrick Dolan's Letter." A College Song, Boys' Glee Club; song "The Whip-poor-will," Girls' Glee Club. The officers elected for the coming month are:—

PRESIDENT.—Miss A. Collings.
VICE-PRESIDENT.—Mr. Cook.
SECRETARY.—Miss Dolie Sawyer.
TREASURER.—Miss Britain.
CRITIC.—Mr. Bean.
ORGANIST.—Miss Gray.

The meeting was closed by singing "God Save the Queen."

Fisk Jubilee Singers.

The Ottawa citizen of Oct. 23rd says:—"A genuine treat," was the verdict of the 1,800 lovers of music that atttended the Fisk Jubilee Singers' concert last evening in Dominion Church. That the audience was appreciative, was fully evidenced by the vigorous applause and encores which greeted the various pieces. Many of our most prominent people were present, including Sir John Macdonald. Among the audience was noted Mr. Charles Dudley Warner, the well-known literateur. The programme was as varied as it was interesting. There were pieces solemn; pieces sentimental, and one comic piece. By special request the choir sang "Steal Away to Jesus" and "Go Down, Moses." The encores were rather a heavy tax on the good nature of the singers. The solos by J. N. Caldwell, Miss Laura A. Walls, and C. N. Payne, were admirable. The male quartette, Messrs. Barret, Payne, Thomas and Caldwell, was most effective, and the ladies' trio, "Guardian Angel," melodious and touching to a degree. The peculiarities of the music of these sweet singers, the general quaintness and harmonious effect of the rendition, were delightful to ears satiated with the catchy tunes of the day. The singers scored a noteworthy success, and their visit to Ottawa will be long remembered. 1d99

The Beautiful Rain

Has worked havoc with the shoddy man's boots. The soles have come off and the counters have folded gracefully down over the heel. King's make of boots never do this. Try a pair or so from Kidd, the man who keeps only good boots. No shoddy!

Satisfactory and Creditable.

The joint committee of the Town and County Councils met in the Town Clerk's office this morning for the purpose of taking over the Locks bridge. The committee with the contractors drove down and inspected the structure. The gentlemen who composed the party were as follows:—Town.—Mayor Stevenson, Councillors Davidson and Langford; County.—Warden Walsh, Councillors Stewart, Sanderson, Birdsall, Burnham; Mr. J. E. Belcher, County engineer, and Messrs. Wynne and Law, contractors for the stone and iron work respectively. The bridge was most satisfactory, and the work very creditable to both contractors. It is pronounced the finest bridge in the County of Peterborough by those who have inspected it. The structure was formally taken over from the contractors by the committee.

Personal.

Mr. Sam. Allen, an old Peterborough boy, now of W. Kay & Co., Toronto, is in town.

Ald. Gilbert, of Toronto, formerly of Geo. A. Cox's office here and a young man well known in town, has received the appointment of secretary of the Manufacturers Life Insurance Co. The position is a good one and Mr. Gilbert is to be complimented

The Westwood correspondent of the Norwood Register says:—"Mr. Ryan, our esteemed townsman, with his family, are about moving to Peterborough to live. Mr. Ryan came to this part over forty years ago, when everything was a complete wilderness and has lived here ever since. He has seen the place here in all its different phases—forest, fallow, lumbering, cultivated lands; and now finds himself living in a quiet little village beautifully situated on the banks of the Ouse and surrounded by an excellent farming country. They are a family that will be very much missed in our village, but in leaving us we tender them our best wishes for their future welfare in their new home."

Be a gentleman and take home to the good wife a 5lb. Cady of Tea from M. R. KIDD'S.

Hunters Return.

Three hunting parties who went out last week returned home this morning. Mr. Geo. Fitzgerald's party had fair luck, bringing back with them six very fine buck. The weather, however, has not been favourable to deer hunting. Councillor Winch and his party were in hard luck from the start almost. They were unable to hunt at all this week, as they lost their dogs. They shot four deer, however and had a good deal of sport and fun among themselves which made the outing enjoyable. Two of the party when it was impossible to chase the deer, thought they would try their hand at the bears, which were very numerous. They went out, got lost in the woods and were compelled to spend the night in the branches of a tree. Their experience during the night was not of the most pleasant kind, the greatest fear being of wolves and the greatest arrangements and precautions were taken for the reception of these foes. They were two pretty delapidated and tough looking citizens when found by the rest of the party next morning. They said they would have given $50 in the first part of the night to have been out of the woods and later on it was raised to $100. Bear hunting may be sport—sometimes.

WILL NOT BE HANGED.

FARLEY'S SENTENCE COMMUTED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT.

News that will be Welcome in Philadelphia—Extenuating Circumstances and the Prisoners Youth Saves His Life.

The efforts made to secure a commutation of the sentence of death passed upon James F. Farley have met with success. After receiving the deputation and petitions from Peterborough and giving the case consideration the Governor-General, upon the recommendation of the Government, has changed the sentence to life imprisonment. This afternoon Mayor Stevenson, M.P., received the following telegram from Sir John Thompson, Minister of Justice:—

"OTTAWA, Oct. 27th, 1888.

"Farley's sentence has been commuted to imprisonment for life.

"J. S. D. THOMPSON."

The facts of the case are fresh in the memory of all. Farley and Simon Elijah, an Indian, were employees of Howe's circus, which showed here on Saturday, June 23rd, and remained over Sunday. Farley and Elijah, who had been drinking, quarrelled in an hotel on Sunday, and afterwards meeting on the market square Farley shot the Indian, when he was arrested by Chief Roszel and Officer Stewart. Elijah died at the Nicholls Hospital on June 26th. An inquest was held by Coroner Fife and a verdict returned against Farley, who was committed by Magistrate Dumble. He was tried at the assizes on Oct. 12th, found guilty of murder and sentenced to be hanged. Petitions were sent to Ottawa and the Town Council passed a memorial asking for the commutation of the sentence, which has been granted in view of the extenuating circumstances and the prisoner's youth.

THE NEWS CARRIED TO FARLEY.

This morning gaoler Nesbitt received a report that it was understood that Farley's death sentence would be commuted, and he at once imparted the good tidings to the anxious prisoner. Farley took the news quietly, but was, as can easily be imagined, pleased and showed his pleasure in the expression in his face.

It was not until Mr. O'Meara, his counsel, went up and carried the news as a surety that the sentence of death had been commuted to imprisonment for life, that Farley's anxiety was relieved. He turned pale for a moment upon receiving the joyful tidings and then snatching Mr. O'Meara's hand he shook it most warmly. He then inquired if the news had been telegraphed to his father and was answered in the affirmative. He then asked for writing material so that he could write his friends. He feels most deeply the debt he owes the friends who have worked so hard to save him from the gallows.

The Town Clock.

The following letter, which speaks for itself, has been sent to Mayor Stevenson:—

"To the Mayor of Peterborough:

"DEAR SIR—If the town is not going to use the east face of the town clock, would they sell it to me to put down at Jubilee Park? An early answer will oblige

Yours truly,
H. CALCUTT.

Peterborough, Oct. 27th, 1888.

The Town will pay Half.

The Town Clerk has received instructions to pay half the expenses in the Greenfield extradition case when it is demanded. The total cost, according to word received yesterday by Mr. Edwards, Town Solicitor, from the Ontario Government, will be $250. The Provincial Government will pay the other half. Mr. Edwards received a telegram from the Deputy Minister of Justice this morning stating the warrant of reciplas in the Greenfield case would be forwarded to Mr. R. E. Wood, County Crown Attorney, today. Chief Roszel will go to Buffalo for the prisoner on Monday or Tuesday.

Brace Up!

That's the Idea. Brace Up! Entirely, we mean, in a clothing sense.

Fall weather is on us. Warmer Clothing is a necessity.

Take a look at our Suitings. Worth buying, you say. Right you are, absolutely right.

But it isn't every man that cares to pay the top price even if he gets a tip-top article. Then we catch him with a Canadian Tweed Suit that's a daisy, every time.

And so on down the range of goods and prices. But the fit and finish, mind you, is identical in all cases. You get the style no matter what you order.

PRICES AND PROSPECTS.

MERCHANTS PURSUING A CONSERVATIVE POLICY.

More Confidence in Raw Wool—An Advance in Boots and Shoes—Money Easier at New York—No Gain in Iron.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Considering the near approach to a presidential election, the leading features of general trade throughout the country, as reported by wire to Bradstreet's, indicate an unusual number of favorable features. Merchants appear to be pursuing a conservative policy in all lines, though more confidence is shown in raw wool and boots and shoes than in any other. There is even some speculative buying of wool by those who look for advanced prices after election. Prices of boots and shoes have been advanced by New England manufacturers 2½ and 5c. per pair.

The exports of merchandise for nine months of the calendar year are smaller than in any previous year since 1882, but the imports are larger than in any preceding nine months since 1882. The total exports aggregate $454,832,177 and the imports $544,507,098 against $490,463,612 and $535,824,664.

The New York Stock Market is very dull, but showed a moderately strong undertone in the face of a continuance of unfavorable developments in the Boston market. Money at New York is easier, call loans 1½c. and 2½c. Foreign exchange is easier on a free offering on cotton and loan bills, demand sterling $4.87½ and $4.87½.

The iron trade shows no sign of gains, notwithstanding the repeated reports in large orders for bridge and other structural material, and steel rails are 50 cents lower, or $2750 per ton, only 90 cents above the lowest price ever quoted in the United States. British iron and steel shipments to the United States for nine months of the present year are 486,613 tons against 1,041,750 in 1887, a decrease of 53 per cent.

Calculations by Bradstreet's, based on official reports, indicate that if 50,000,000 bushels of reserve wheat are to be carried over on June 30, 1889, more than the exportable surplus on the Atlantic coast has already been sent abroad, and if we carry over but 30,000,000 bushels we have 16,204,000 bushels yet to go abroad. The Pacific coast, however, with 5,000,000 bushels for reserves, still has 26,278,000 bushels of wheat available for export until June 30 next, having already shipped 11,244,000 bushels. The exports of wheat and flour as wheat, both coasts, amount to 2,387,916 bushels this week. The exports are 610,570 bushels less than last week and 272,434 more than in the like week in 1887.

The movement of cotton goods at Boston and New York with jobbers is disappointing. The woolen mills are fairly well employed.

Prices of raw sugar receded ⅛c, remaining barely steady on increased warehouse deliveries, and meltings and slow movement of both raw and refined. Dealers have also been eager to place new crop of Brazil.

Coffee prices at New York have been irregular in light speculative interest, with a net decline amounting to about 40 points.

The Week's Failures.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number for the United States 222, and for Canada 32, or a total of 254, as against a total of 224 last week and 227 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week last year the figures were 216, made up of 193 in the United States and 23 in the Dominion.

Narrow Escape for the Passengers.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Several persons who were in a Clark-street car had a scare at Addison-street which they will not soon forget. The car was approaching the main track of the Chicago and Evanston road, when the outgoing theater train bore down on it. The driver attempted to get across. The horses were on the track when the engine struck them. The driver managed to apply his break in time to stop the car, and the terrified passengers rushed out. One of the horses was instantly killed, and the other was so badly hurt that it had to be shot.

Deserted Her Child.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Detectives Phair and Ryder, acting in pursuance of information and description received from Stratford on Saturday, yesterday arrested Alice Murray, a young woman who gives her age at 21, of prepossessing appearance, charged with deserting her child, leaving her infant in a chapel at Stratford. Upon being conveyed to the station she admitted the charge, stating that she had endeavored to support the infant, but being unable to longer do so had left it as stated in the chapel. The unfortunate young woman had lived for some time in this city and was admitted to the hospital in a delicate condition under the name of Moore, when, after the birth of the child, she left the institution. She refused to disclose the name of the father.

The Napanee and Tamworth R. R.

KINGSTON, Oct. 27.—W. R. Aylesworth, Vice-President of the Napanee and Tamworth Railway Company, has notified the Mayor that after examining the country and giving the matter full consideration the company has decided to accept the proposal of a bonus of $75,000 and build the connection from Yarker to Harrowsmith, entering Kingston by way of the Kingston and Pembroke Railroad.

Sentenced for Assaulting a Teacher.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 27.—In the Third District Court Maggie Watts was sentenced to the woman's reformatory prison at Sherborne for one year for assaulting with a pistol George H. Tipp, principal of the Middle-street grammar school, in this city. The assault was made because the teacher refused to release from school the woman's brother.

HIS PATIENCE EXHAUSTED.

Justice Hannen Intimates that Atty.-Gen. Webster Has Talked Enough.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The Parnell Commission again listened to Attorney-General Webster's presentation of The Times' case yesterday. The speaker continued to recite a catalog of outrages supposed to be traceable to members of the League, and then quoted from speeches of Mr. Dillon and other Parnellites to prove their support of the plan of campaign. He dealt in succession with a series of utterances made by Messrs. Wm. O'Brien, Cully, Cox, Kenny and Matthew Harris to show their sympathy with outrages, and intimated his intention to deal at length with violent orations of the League, mainly made in County Clare, during the years 1885, 1886 and 1887.

At this Presiding Justice Hannen's patience seemed to be exhausted and leaning forward he asked the Attorney-General if he did not think he had already given sufficient indication of the line of argument he intended to adopt.

Sir Charles Russell, counsel for Mr. Parnell, suggested that the Attorney-General might hand him copies of the speeches he meant to quote from and thus save time.

The Attorney-General replied that he must deal with all the Irish counties he had picked out as affording the most striking proof of the character of the League's agitation. He quite understood Justice Hannen's hint, and he was desirous of adopting any practical suggestion which would enable him to shorten his remarks.

POOR NATALIE.

The High-handed Divorce Proceedings of King Milan.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—King Milan's high-handed action in having his creature, the Metropolitan Theodosius, whom he arbitrarily created a while ago, now as arbitrarily decree his divorce is the most important thing politically which has happened south of Vienna since Battenberg's forcible abdication. While continental opinion is still unheard, no hard and fast views have been adopted here, but it would surprise no one in England if the thing led to a grave disturbance in the delicately balanced Balkan situation.

A Row at a Boulangist Meeting.

PARIS, Oct. 27.—At a Boulangist meeting in the Salle Wagram last night, at which about 600 persons were present, a party of anti-Boulangists headed by Lullier, provoked a free fight. Many persons were carried out of the place with lacrated and bleeding faces. During the turmoil Lullier fired a revolver from the platform into the audience. He was immediately thrown and belabored with sticks, one of which penetrated his neck. He fired again three times, whereupon the gas was put out and a general rush made for the doors. It is not known whether any are wounded by the shots.

Opposed to Floquet's Scheme.

PARIS, Oct. 27.—At a meeting of the Republican Left of the Senate it was shown that a majority of the members of the Senate were opposed to Premier Floquet's proposal for the revision of the constitution. They consider the scheme to be fraught with danger to parliamentary power and at the same time to the liberty of action of the executive.

Give them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

WHERE Should I Buy PROPERTY ?

This is the question that confronts the citizen who is thinking of getting himself a home,—Where to buy.

Common sense will tell that citizen that the best lot he can get is none too good for him, and why?

Because well located property is always worth its price. Because it is conducive to health and happiness to live in the midst of good surroundings; because if you want to sell you can always find a buyer: because such property is becoming scarce and is therefore rapidly increasing in value. I am prepared to offer a special bargain of a few such Lots, one exceedingly good Lot on Dublin-st. 54x196 feet, high and dry, south front, east of and adjoining Mr. Bogue's fine new residence This is a Bargain. A beautiful Lot on Water-st. opposite St. Paul's Church. This Lot should suit any person wanting a beautiful and central location. Also Two Very Desirable Building Lots in most respectable ocalities on Stewart-st. Cheap Lots and a few Good Houses to be closed out during the next few days. apply at once to

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies; at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what inducements may be offered we never allow our selves to be undersold.

THEY HAVE NOT RESIGNED

NEITHER HAS GREENWAY'S GOVERNMENT BEEN DISMISSED.

But Lieut. Gov. Schultz Did Decline to Call the House Together Without Good Reason Being Shown.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 29.—Reports were current on Saturday that the Government had resigned because Lieutenant-Governor Schultz had refused to call the Legislature together as they had advised, and all sorts of sensational rumors were spread about the city. It is learned that His Honor did decline to call the House together without good reasons being assigned, but the ministry neither resigned nor have they been dismissed, as one report stated.

The injunction case was heard before Killam and the arguments were concluded, His Lordship stating he would deliver judgment to day. In case it is favorable to the province the general impression is that an immediate attempt will be made by the Government to force a crossing, which will undoubtedly be resisted by the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The militia are still under orders. The Canadian Pacific have a dead engine at the Morris crossing as a precautionary measure, notwithstanding it turns out that the reported attempt at crossing there was a perfect hoax.

There has been a conflict between bands of Stoney and Blood Indians near Morley, in which two of the former were wounded and several of the Bloods shot.

J. H. Ross will probably be elected speaker of the Territorial Legislative Assembly on Wednesday.

THE FIRE RECORD.

Wiser & Son's Distillery at Prescott Partially Destroyed—Other Losses.

PRESCOTT, Oct. 29.—About 3.30 yesterday morning the distillery owned by J. P. Wiser & Son was discovered to be on fire. The hose from the distillery engine was promptly at work, and was assisted by the fire department and engine of this town. Through the united efforts of both departments the fire was kept under control and confined to the distillery proper, which was destroyed, the boiler-house and engine remaining intact. No spirits were destroyed and the Government receivers adjoining the distillery were also saved. For a time the cattle barns, in which were 750 head of cattle, were in great danger but owing to the roofs being very wet by the recent rains, and the fact of the fire being stubbornly fought, these and the surrounding buildings were saved. It is understood that the loss of property is fully covered by insurance, which will not, of course, compensate the loss for stoppage of works at this season of the year, which is the most important. It is estimated it will take about sixty days to put the works in running order. Owing to the recent change in the excise regulations, causing spirits to be stored in fire proof tanks the firm will experience no inconvenience in supplying the trade. Too much praise cannot be accorded to the local fire department, which, with the appliances of the firm and the construction of the premises and fire walls throughout the building, prevented what would have been the most disastrous fire in the history of Prescott.

Struck by Lightning.

FOREST, Oct. 29.—The barns of Robert Douglas, lot 16, concession 13, Plympton, were struck by lightning Saturday and totally burned, with most of the contents. The loss is about $2500, insured in the East Lambton Mutual for $1000.

JUSTICE PATTERSON APPOINTED.

He will Fill the Vacancy on the Supreme Court Bench.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—The vacancy on the Supreme Court bench caused by the death of Mr. Justice Henry has been filled by the appointment of Hon. Christopher S. Patterson, of Toronto, one of the Justices of Appeal for Ontario. Mr. Justice Patterson has been one of Ontario's justices of appeal since June, 1874, having been appointed to the position by the Mackenzie Administration. His career as a judge has been such as to earn for him the warmest encomiums from the Ontario bar, and it will be generally recognized that his promotion is well deserved. The vacancy thus created in the Court of Appeal has been filled by the appointment of Mr. James Maclennan, Q.C., of Toronto. As one of the leading members of the Ontario bar, and associated in business partnership for many years with Hon. Oliver Mowat, the experience Hon. Mr. Maclennan has gained admirably qualifies him for his new position.

Two Stolen Bodies Found in the Royal Medical College at Kingston.

KINGSTON, Oct. 29.—Recently the bodies of Caleb Smith and Miss Kenny were stolen from the cemetery at Seeley's Bay. Early Saturday morning the police visited the Royal Medical College, took the janitor by surprise and broke into the dissecting room, where they found Smith's body partly dissected.

In reply to a telegram sent by the brother of the late Miss Kenny to Seeley's Bay, stating that her body was here, but could not be recovered without assistance, it was stated that 100 men would start for this place at once.

BAYARD WANTS A CHANGE

A NEW BRITISH MINISTER DESIRED AT WASHINGTON.

To Calm Popular Excitement—The American Minister to England Confers With Lord Salisbury.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Lord Salisbury remained at Hatfield House, his country residence, on Saturday. He received several cipher dispatches from Lord Sackville-West, the British Minister at Washington, admitting the facts in connection with the Murchison letter, and saying that he regretted them.

A number of dispatches from Secretary of State Bayard were forwarded to Lord Salisbury, in which the Secretary of State urged that in view of the coming national election in the United States it was imperatively necessary that there should be a change in the British representative at Washington in order to calm the popular excitement.

Mr. Phelps, the American Minister, and Mrs. Phelps visited Hatfield House Saturday afternoon and were the guests of Lord Salisbury over Sunday.

Mr. Phelps and Lord Salisbury held a long consultation in the library. Mr. Phelps enlarged upon the necessity of prompt action on the part of the British Government in order to repair the evil.

Mr. Phelps made a special point that by treating Murchison as a British subject entitled to advice, despite the fact that he stated in his letter that he was a naturalized citizen of the United States, Lord Sackville-West had disregarded and violated the understanding of September, 1871, when Mr. Fish, then Secretary of State, obtained from the English Government a recognition of the American doctrine of naturalization.

Lord Salisbury admitted that this was a most serious point of view of Lord Sackville-West's conduct.

The matter is more annoying to Lord Salisbury inasmuch as Lord Sackville-West's appointment originally was attributed to the influence of his sister, who was the second wife of the late Marquis of Salisbury, and who has since been married to the present Earl of Derby.

LORD SACKVILLE TO STEP OUT.

The Minister Will be Permitted to Retire to Attend to Private Affairs.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—It is distinctly stated upon the highest authority that Minister West, who recently became Lord Sackville, will at once apply to the Foreign Office to be relieved from his post at Washington for the purpose of attending to urgent private affairs in England. This is an easy way out of the Minister's dilemma, but nobody doubts that Lord Salisbury has suggested the remedy. The Foreign Office officials from Lord Salisbury downward are horrified at Minister West's breach of etiquette and no concealment is made of the fact.

The Premier and Minister Phelps had an interview of an hour's duration on the subject on Thursday, and resumed their conference on Friday, with the result that Mr. and Mrs. Phelps were invited to Hatfield House, where the two gentlemen will continue and, it is hoped, conclude their diagnosis of the unfortunate Minister's case.

The Daily News says: "Lord Sackville-West has done nothing of which an honest man need be ashamed. But there are blunders which are worse than crimes."

The Daily Telegraph says: "Nothing can excuse the incontinence of Lord Sackville-West's pen except his transparent good faith and candor. He cannot, however, after such betise be allowed to embroil the two nations."

The Standard says: "It would be incorrect to say that the American Government has already asked for the recall of Lord Sackville-West, but it has taken a step little short of that extreme measure. It does not follow that expulsion will be resorted to. The matter however is a delicate one. It would be best for Lord Sackville-West to resign in order to avoid further complications."

Bayard Silent.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Secretary Bayard refuses either to admit or to deny that he had demanded the recall of Lord Sackville. He denied himself Saturday to most callers at the State Department. To a pointed inquiry sent into his room in writing, regarding a statement made in a Washington despatch to the effect that Minister Phelps had been requested to ask for the recall of Lord Sackville, Mr. Bayard returned the following answer: "I have no comments to make upon the despatch."

Another inquiry, worded a little differently but to the same purpose, brought out the following: "All the facts upon this case have been cabled to Minister Phelps, but no reply has yet been received from him." This leaves it an open question whether Mr. Bayard has really asked for the recall of Lord Sackville or not. It seems to be his desire to create the impression that he has. It seems equally to be his wish that Lord Sackville should not be treated too harshly.

HOW IT IS VIEWED IN LONDON.

Comments Which are Pleasing Neither to Lord Sackville or Americans.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Mr. G. W. Smalley cables to The Tribune from London: Lord Sackville's astonishing campaign letter attracts less attention here than in America, but more than will be quite pleasing to its author. Rumors are to the effect that Lord Salisbury has already sent Lord Sackville a despatch of remonstrance, if not of reprimand. Whether this be so or not, the Foreign Office is scandalized. There has been no recent date in which diplomatic etiquette has been so entirely neglected. Resignation is freely spoken of as a probable consequence of indiscretion so unaccountable. Lord Sackville's forty-three years' service ought, it is being said, to have been a guarantee against the possibility of such interference with the domestic politics of a country to the Government of which he is accredited.

Public comments on this act are even sharper than private. It serves as a text for an editorial article in the Daily Telegraph offensive enough in tone to America, to have been written, as it probably was, by an ex-correspondent to the Southern Confederacy. "Lord Sackville," this writer suggests, "must have taken leave of his senses. The mere announcement of such an act is enough to make old diplomatists turn in their graves." This may not be agreeable to the British Minister at Washington, but what follows is still less pleasant reading for Americans. We are, it appears, a people preposterous in prejudices and sensibility. Our customs and mannersare such during a Presidential campaign as ought to have put Lord Sackville on his guard. He knows political managers would publish their own or their enemy's most confidential love-letters, and if necessary forge them. He ought to have suspected a trap. I need hardly say, the trap theory is industriously put forward.

The Time Extended.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—President Carnot has issued a decree extending the time for the registration of foreigners to Jan. 1, 1889.

A Smallpox Case at Sarnia.

SARNIA, Oct. 29.—A case of smallpox has broken out here and the Board of Health has gone actively to work in the matter of precautions. A pest house was built yesterday outside the town limits and the patient, a little girl, was removed there last night.

HANNAH BOYD AGAIN REMANDED.

She Pleads Not Guilty to the Charge of Poisoning Meta Cherry.

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—Hannah Boyd, the young woman in jail here charged with causing the death of little Meta Cherry, by what is now known as the famous poisoned chocolate case, was arraigned Saturday before ex-Mayor Spears of Galt.

The girl promptly pleaded not guilty. No evidence was taken and Miss Boyd was again remanded till next Friday. She was not represented by counsel, although there were lawyers present to act for her should the Crown give its consent.

The young woman has not changed materially since her incarceration a week ago.

The detention of Hannah Boyd has assumed a decidedly mysterious air. All the Government detective, Mr. John Murray, will say is: "The Crown does not propose to show its hand at present. We have not allowed the girl to be seen by anyone at all for reasons best known to ourselves. I suppose we understand our business."

The relations between Charles Lowell, the well-known ex-hotel-keeper of Galt, and the girl are still the subject of a great deal of comment, and Mr. Lowell continues to exhibit great interest in the girl's position. The Crown is fully cognizant of what those relations were, and it is said they attach considerable importance to them.

"Developments" and "clues" are therefore in order.

Detective John Murray returned to Toronto Saturday evening.

The girl's brother, Tom Boyd, and her brother-in-law, Rudolph Hynes, both of Hamilton, were in the court-room when she was arraigned.

The excitement in these parts over the matter continues unabated.

One or two freight cars of the G. T. R. jumped the track near Belleville yesterday, delaying the passenger train from the east over an hour and a half.

The Hamilton train due here at 8.10 last night, did not reach the Union Station till 9.20, because of a freight train leaving the track at Oakville.

The Empress of India, which left this port Friday night for Kingston, with a cargo of fish and whisky, was driven across the lake by the strong wind and made Charlotte on Saturday afternoon. The propeller Ocean was also forced to seek shelter at Charlotte.

The annual church parade of the Ancient Order of United Workmen took place yesterday, being the 20th anniversary of the order, which was established at Meadville, Pa., Oct. 28, 1858, with about a dozen members. The order now numbers over 215,000. Of these 16,000 are in Ontario and nearly 3000 in Toronto and suburbs.

SERIOUS RESULTS FEARED.

Attorney-General Blair of New Brunswick Severely Injured.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Oct. 29.—Attorney-General Blair met with a serious accident Saturday night. He was driving at a smart rate from his home to his office in Fredericton and in the darkness was run into by a team coming in the opposite direction. Mr. Blair was thrown from his carriage and received a bad cut on the forehead. He was carried into a house and remained unconscious for a considerable time. Serious results are feared.

St. John, N. B., Notes.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Oct. 29.—Some years ago The Telegraph, of this city, was sued for libel by Brown, the lighthouse-keeper of Quaco, who claimed $10,000 damages by an article in which the loss of several lives by a shipwreck was charged to the failure of Brown to give assistance. On the first trial the jury disagreed; the second found for the defence. This late verdict has been set aside by the Supreme Court, and the case stands for a new trial.

Harding Drummond, well known as a conductor on the Intercolonial railway, went to bed last night at his home in Sussex and was found dead this morning lying on his face in a pool of blood. He had burst a blood vessel.

Found in the Bay.

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 29.—The body of Alexander Dubleau, alias Dixie, who was reported to have turned up safely at Desoronto, after having suddenly disappeared from his home in this city, was found in the bay yesterday afternoon. There are strong suspicions of foul play, as the hip-pocket in the trousers of the deceased has apparently been cut, and no money was found in the clothing of the body.

Judge Monk's Serious Illness.

MONTREAL, Oct. 29.—Hon. Judge Monk is lying at the point of death at the Grey nunnery here. He is not expected to live for more than a few hours. The Judge retired from the Court of Queen's Bench about two months ago on account of ill-health. He was judge since 1854, and previous to that was a partner of Sir John Rose, who lately died in Scotland.

An Alleged Bigamist Acquitted.

PEMBROKE, Oct. 29.—At the Assizes on Saturday in the case of R. J. Jordan, charged with bigamy, as the crime is said to have been committed in 1874 and as the essential witnesses are now dead, the counsel for the Crown instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty.

THE TREASURERS' CONFERENCE.

Negotiations Broken off on Account of the Interest Dispute.

OTTAWA, Oct. 29.—The Provincial Treasurers for Ontario and Quebec left for home Saturday night. It is understood that negotiations with regard to the settlement of the accounts have been broken off for the present on account of a difference with regard to the computation of interest, the Provincial Treasurers claiming compound interest, while the Finance Minister is willing to allow simple interest only.

PARNELL AND THE TIMES.

A DAY DEVOTED TO THE CASE IN THE SCOTCH COURT.

On Motion of Plaintiff the Record Closed—The Case Sent to the Procedure Roll for a Decision on Various Points.

EDINBURGH, Oct. 29.—In the Court of Sessions on Saturday the case of Mr. Parnell against The London Times was again called. Messrs. Strachan and Balfour, Mr. Parnell's counsel, moved that the closure of the record of proof be allowed.

Mr. Murray, counsel for The Times, moved that the question of jurisdiction in this case be sent for determination to the procedure roll. The prosecution had made many alterations in their complaint, they had deleted all reference to the statement that Mr. Parnell had supplied Byrne with money to enable him to escape justice, and it was no longer argued that the statement was false, untrue and malicious.

The judge thereupon said this left the record with only one question.

Mr. Murray said he wanted the question of jurisdiction to go to the procedure roll, because no relevant averment as to jurisdiction had been made. He said that where the defendant's statements were not met, the plaintiffs made a simple denial. The prosecution had taken no notice of two averments concerning English law.

Mr. Strachan replied that the only question of English law referred to the summons taken out of England. Attorney-General Webster, continued Mr. Strachan, spoke in the O'Donnell trial of the instructions which The Times had given him, but The Times had editorially adopted the Attorney-General's alleged slanders.

The court then granted the motion of plaintiff's counsel that the record be closed.

Mr. Murray said the only publication averred in the complaint was that copies of The Times had been mailed to persons in Scotland. This averment he contended was irrelevant. The prosecution, he further said, claimed a right under the registration act to certain funds, to which he was clear the act gave them no right.

The judge decided to send the case to the procedure roll, for a decision on the various points submitted.

The Times' record maintains the whole of its charges. It alleges that the action is an attempt on Mr. Parnell's part to avoid a full inquiry by the Parnell Commission, and to limit the issue of the Commission's work to the sole question of the genuineness of three letters. The defendants do not rely upon the letters for proof of their statements, which are equally true even if the letters were not signed as purported.

On the day before the summons in this case was issued the prosecution secured the issuance from the Court of Queen's Bench of a writ in an action for libel for £50000. As that action is pending other proceedings with respect to the same matter are, by English law, barred. The publication of the Attorney-General's statement in the O'Donnell action and a fair report of the proceedings were privileged by English law, therefore no action can lie. The Times' articles were a fair comment, therefore the defendants should be acquitted. The prosecution's statements are declared to be irrelevant and insufficient to support an action.

The Parnell Commission.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The great fact of the moment in the history of the Parnell Commission is the fact that the Attorney-General on Friday finished his five days' opening speech. The Commission forthwith adjourned to Tuesday. Sir Richard Webster is thought to have done his work well, though tediously. He was bound to traverse again oft-trodden ground, to recite the history of the Land League and the National League, and to repeat the grim story of outrage and crime which, in Mr. Gladstone's words, dogged the footsteps of the League with fatal precision. It was his duty as an advocate to endeavor to establish a connection between conspiracy in Ireland and conspiracy in America. It was his duty to allege, and it will be his duty to try to prove, that Mr. Parnell and others were accomplices in conspiracy and crime.

Sir James Hannen remarked early in the week that the Attorney-General entered upon the case as he thought fit, and was responsible if he made a mistake, and he declined to check him. But as soon as evidence is offered with reference to the proceedings of the League the Court will be called on to rule definitely whether it is or is not admissible. It will be seen, therefore, almost at once whether the Judges intend to narrow the inquiry to the acts and words of the defendants themselves, or whether they will allow the Attorney-General to prove the whole case.

OPENING OF THE SOBRANJE.

Ferdinand Accorded a Brilliant Reception—The Speech From the Throne.

SOFIA, Oct. 28.—The Sobranje was opened on Saturday by Prince Ferdinand, who was accorded a brilliant reception. An artillery salute was fired in his honor. In his address he congratulated Bulgaria upon the position she has attained and said that owing to the prevalence of peace, the content of her people, the tranquil state of the country and the justness of Bulgaria's cause, the country was daily growing stronger. The opening of the Sofia and Vakarel Railway, constructed by Bulgarian resources and Bulgarian labor, has raised Bulgaria's credit and won the sympathies of enlightened people. The gallant army was equal to the position in which it was placed and would justify the nation's confidence.

Fatal Folly.

MUSCATINE, Ia., Oct. 29.—Two ladies from Pennsylvania, who were visiting their brother, a Mr. McKinley near West Liberty were killed last night by a Burlington and Cedar Rapids passenger train. Their death was due to the stubbornness of a boy who persisted in driving them across the track when the engine was almost upon them. The lad paid the penalty of his folly by his life.

Varsity's Annual Football Match with McGill College Declared a Draw.

MONTREAL, Oct. 29.—The ninth annual football match between the Varsity team of Toronto and McGill was played in a pouring rain and a sea of mud on the McGill grounds on Saturday. Last year the match was played in Toronto and the Varsity won by 27 to 7. Each team had won an equal number of matches, and this match was looked forward to with much interest. When time was called the match was declared a draw, each team scoring a safety touch.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The West Bromwich Albions, the English cup holders, defeated the Canadians in an evenly contested game by one to nothing. The only goal was scored near the close. THE COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

Since the last meeting of the Board of Education the Ontario Government has forwarded the half yearly grant for the Collegiate Institute, but the amount is much less than last year, because the Government ranks the school now as a high school. Inspector Hodgson reported that certain improvements should be made in the building, including the furnishing of a gynasuim. The Board has built and furnished the gynasuim, and asked the Government to defer action till next year, as they were unable to do more this year. The Government has refused, and the difference between the Collegiate Institute and High School grants is withheld until the changes demanded are made.

This is a high-handed proceeding on the part of the Government, in keeping with its conduct in other matters in controlling the action of municipalities and local school boards. The Institute has maintained its status for years and the Inspector reports that the teaching now is excellent. He commends the staff and the work done, but the school's standing is lowered because certain changes are not made in the building that would not improve the facilities for teaching to any appreciable extent. It is done, too, in an insulting way. The Board ask that time be given them, and the reply of the Government is that they will keep a portion of the grant as a deposit from the Board to guarantee that the work will be done.

An important question, and an irritating one, is where will the demands of the autocratic educational authorities end? When the work is done that they are now forcing on the Board, what will the next demand be? Three years ago Inspector Hodgson made a report on the Collegiate Institute. The report is dated 22nd December, 1885. In that report he threatened the Board that if certain improvements were not made the Institute would be in danger of being reduced to the status of a high school. The demands then made were as follows, in Inspector Hodgson's words:—

"The Institute does not in all respects comply with the requirements of the statute (48 Victoria, chap. 50, sect. 13).

"1. The grounds are limited in extent and there is no gymnasium or other appliances for physical training.

"2. The library of reference is meagre and requires supplementing.

"3. The supply of chemical and physical apparatus is defective (see sec. 60, page 113 of regulations).

"Unless these deficiencies are supplied within a reasonable time the Institute will be in danger of being reduced to the status of a high school."

These were the demands made less than three years ago. The library has since been added to, chemical apparatus supplied, a gymnasium built and an instructor in physical training employed. As to the grounds, when it was pointed out that in addition to the school grounds, which are not small, the park was across the street from the school, the Inspector expressed himself as being satisfied.

The demands made in December, 1885, have all been complied with.

Yet the Government comes forward with new demands. Large outlays must be made again—more expense must be incurred—or the status of the school will be reduced and a portion of the usual grant withheld. We would be sorry to see the Institute become a high school, but should not the Board have some guarantee that if the "deficiencies" now reported are made good the Government will not come forward in another year or so and require further large expenditures? The people should not submit to such high-handed proceedings on the part of the Ontario Government.

When the extradition proceedings in the Greenfield case were instituted the Chief of Police was informed at Toronto that the Government would pay the expenses. Now the town receives a bill for $250 and is asked to pay half of it, although it has borne the expense of procuring the evidence in the case to be forwarded to the United States. The Ontario Government's surplus cannot be so large as it pretends.

Elsie—"Did you used to clean your teeth with it?"

Elsie—"Isn't it nice? But Grandma, when was it introduced?"

Grandma—"About 1888; by the same Horsey M'f'g.Co., of Utica, N. Y., who now make the handsome Holder and box of 18 Felt Polishers." dd99

ICE-BOUND WHALERS.

Thirteen Vessels Locked Up in the Arctic Sea—The Crews in Peril.

San Francisco, Oct. 29.—The whaling bark J. A. Howland arrived here from Fox Island in the Arctic Ocean yesterday. She reports the following whalers in the ice with little prospects of their being able to get out: The Andrew Hicks, Wm. Dayliss, Saucer, Seabreeze, Ohio, Rosario, Reindeer, Eliza, Mass., Hunter, J. P. West, Hidalgo, and Olean. Nearly all these vessels are from New Bedford, Mass. Help went to them but it is feared it would not reach them until they were broken up. There are between 500 and 600 men on the tied-up vessels and unless the ice breaks up before long they will not be able to survive, as their provisions cannot hold out for any length of time. The vessels are near the place where the Jeanette first experienced a tie-up and was afterwards broken up and drifted north. The value of the thirteen vessels, including the season's catch which they have on board, will aggregate $500,000.

A POLICEMAN ON THE WAR PATH.

He Whips the Mayor, Kills a Brother Officer and Wounds Three Citizens.

Elkhardt, Ind., Oct. 29.—Police Officer Joseph Barrett Saturday afternoon shot and instantly killed a brother officer named Wm. Burton. Barrett had been on the force for several years, but Friday Mayor Goldthwaite reprimanded him for drunkenness. In a spirit of revenge, he waylaid the mayor and gave him a severe whipping. He was bound over in bonds and after the trial an attempt was made to arrest him on a new charge. This he resisted and pulling his revolver he began to empty it. The second shot pierced Burton's brain, and the succeeding three shots wounded as many bystanders. The man then took refuge in a saloon, and the citizens at once began to take steps which looked toward his lynching, but the prompt interference of the mayor and other policemen saved his life. He was at once taken to Goshen for safe keeping. One of the shots tore off the finger of a city alderman.

A WOMAN'S WILL BROKEN.

Miss Lizzie Baker Obtains a Handsome Sum in a Peculiar Case.

Boston, Oct. 29.—A peculiar lawsuit, the first of its kind ever carried into a Massachusetts court, has ended by the filing of an agreement in the Supreme Court for judgment for Miss Lizzie C. Baker against the estate of the late Mrs. Mary G. Perkins for $31,500. In 1880 Mrs. Perkins, aged 30, who had inherited $100,000 from her husband, an Italian nobleman, became acquainted here with Miss Baker, who was fitting herself to be a school teacher. Becoming attached to the girl, Mrs. Perkins offered to leave Miss Baker her entire estate if the latter would live with her as an adopted daughter. The offer was accepted. Mrs. Perkins died here in 1885, leaving in her will but $1000 to Miss Baker, and the bulk of the property to charitable institutions. Miss Baker contested the will, bringing an action of contract against the executors. A compromise was reached in the case with the above result. The contract was a verbal one, but Miss Baker produced a letter from Mrs. Perkins showing the terms of the agreement.

ONE MAN ROBS MANY.

A Lone Robber Holds up a Stage Load of Passengers in Texas.

Pena, Tex., Oct. 29.—The Pena Rio Grande stage was robbed about twenty miles from here about 3 o'clock Saturday morning on the Randero Place. The robber was a short, thick man. Sergt. Fulmer and Wm. Wyant, of the United States army, were among the passengers, as was also Fred. W. Fruitts of New Orleans. These gentlemen were made to hold up their hands and searched. The robber got $35 from Mr. Wyant besides other valuables. The driver was compelled to get down from his seat and was robbed. All the occupants were made to take off their wearing apparel. The robber had a pistol and a Winchester rifle. He was an American. He opened Mr. Fruitt's watch to find the time and then put it back. One passenger saved a roll of bills by concealing them in a soiled handkerchief, which was offered to the robber.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites

is sold all over the world. It is far superior to plain Cod Liver Oil, palatable and easily digested. Dr. Martin Miles Stanton, Bury Bucks, London, England, says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion, and taken it myself. It is palatable, efficient, and can be tolerated by almost anyone, especially where cod liver oil itself cannot be borne." Put up in 50 cent and $1 size.

$10,000 Stock of Boots at 40c. on the Dollar.

An upheavel taken place in leather and the boot and shoe trade shattered to pieces. On Saturday we are going to run a special Boot Sale. Good Goods and Low Prices have gained for us the admiration of close buyers. Our 25c. Boots have completely demoralized the high priced dealers. One man says Goughs are selling below cost, so we are! That is we sell lots of Goods below the first cost of manufacture and still make a living profit. Some people would naturally like to know how we do it. "Here is the Secret." A wholesale man gets hard up, wants money, must have it. He knows Goughs are spot cash buyers. They send for the Wonderful Cheap Men. They arrive on the scene. The wholesale man says, Gough what will you give for 300 cases of these boots; Goughs look them over carefully, find them good desirableselling lines and make a bid of 40c. on the dollar; after hard fighting we get them. They arrive in Peterborough, are sold at 50c. on the dollar, we therefore sell them at half price and make a living profit for ourselves. These are a few of the many reasons why posterity has raised up and christened us GOUGHS, the Tireless, Sleepless, Wide-Awake Boot Men, GOUGHS, the Kings of Clothiers, GOUGHS, the Original Agitators of Small Profits, GOUGHS, the Wonders of the 19th Century. ADVERTISING

When Newspapers first began to be published in London, an editor took opportunity one day to say that a certain man desired a certain something—no matter what. That was the invention of advertising, though the inventor may not have known what he had found. From that time to this people have made more or less use of the papers to publish their wants, and tradesmen their wares; but we doubt very much whether any real improvement upon the first advertisement has ever been made. It was a frank statement that somebody wanted something and what it was that he wanted. Doubtless he got it. We want something. Want to sell goods. Good goods too. The best of the best in Groceries. The range of stock is a wide one. It has to be wide to suit all customers. That we do suit is positive.

If there is one thing we do better than another it is in TEAS.

It is our specialty. Years of experience tell us how and where to buy. We use that experience and select the best.

Do you like a good article? Do you value flavor and strength in Tea? If so give us a trial order.

In addition, every line of groceries you can call for we have.

Mistaken Identity.

In the report of the ceremony of laying the corner stone of St. Joseph's Hospital, by some mistake the name of Mr. Carlisle was mentioned as contractor. The gentleman who has charge of the building operations and who assisted at the ceremony is Mr. M. Hayes, who will finish the building to his own credit undoubtedly.

Meeting This Evening.

The regular meeting of the Charlotte-st. Methodist Endeavor Society will take place this evening in the school room. This will be the most opportune time to become a member of the above Society, as the membership cards will be given out this evening by the secretary. 15 cents will entitle you to a membership card and all the privileges of the Society for the next six months.

Bringing Back the Burglar.

The warrant of reciplas in the Greenfield case was received by County Crown Attorney Wood this morning, and handed over to Chief Boszel. Mr. Edwards, Town Solicitor, forwarded the $125—half of the expense of the extradition proceedings—to the Government this morning.

"Dot" at the Opera House.

A contemporary, speaking of the company and star that will occupy the stage of the Bradburn Opera House next week, says:—"A more clever, captivating, and capable little woman than Baby Bindley hasn't bewitched the play-goers of Chicago in a long time. Her diminutive size won her the sobriquet of 'Baby,' but every inch of her is grace itself. Her tone is music, her dancing incomparably the best of the season. In strictly soubrette business she is not one whit behind Yeamans or Rose, but she adds to this a rare power—the ability to delineate with force and fidelity scenes of pathos and emotion. She does this, too, without any rant, yet very effectively. 'The play, 'Dot,' or 'The Avenger's Oath,' gives full scope for the versatility of her talents, containing 'gay and grave' in well mixed proportions." 1d100

FRENCH EVANGELIZATION.

A Missionary Speaks of the Work in St. Paul's.

The pulpit of St. Paul's Church was occupied Sunday morning by Rev. Mr. Doudiet, one of the missionaries who are at present working among the French Canadians in Quebec. There was a large congregation present, and the rev. gentleman in his address gave them an insight into the work and showed the great necessity there was for carrying on the work. He based his remarks on the three first verses of the 10th chapter of Romans:—

"Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God is that they might be saved.

"For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

"For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God."

The speaker said he had been a delegate to the General Assembly at Winnipeg last year, and a resolution had been passed by that body instructing him to go round among the different congregations and preach on the French evangelization scheme. He had now been seven months going from church to church all through Canada, and he found from Cape Breton to British Columbia that the work of the congregations was carried on with an energy and a blessing upon it which stamped it as Christ's own. He then proceeded to speak of French evangelization work in Quebec, and spoke of the condition of the people under their present religion and showed the great necessity for the work. The progress of the work as he portrayed it had been most encouraging. He had taken the St. John's French Protestant church in Montreal when there were only eighteen communicants in the roll, and when he left it had 128 communicants in the church. When he first went there the French Protestant churches numbered not more than three, and now they had twelve. He said that the total number of converts, according to a carefully prepared census, was about 30,000. In closing his address he made an appeal for money to carry on the work and more particularly for funds to build schools for the education of the children.

The rev. gentleman delivered an address in the St. Paul's Sunday School in the afternoon, and preached in St. Andrew's last night.

A Perfect Fit.

It is very hard sometimes for ladies to decide where to leave their orders for mantles, so many garments spoiled by careless cutting and work. H. S. Griffin & Co. are doing a rushing trade in mantles made to order and they give a perfect fitting jacket, dolman or ulster at close cash prices.

Attended by Thousands.

The concert by the Fisk Jubilee Singers at the New England Assembly at South Framingham last night, was attended by thousands on thousands, the vast auditorium solidly packed. Of their performance it is needless to speak; it was unique, made up of striking contrasts, abounding in vigor and pathos, as the sentiment required, and gave immense satisfaction.—Preston Journal. Opera House, Wednesday evening, Oct. 31.

Stopping Sunday "Smiles."

Police Magistrate Edmison remarked this morning that he was going to make all those who appeared before him charged with drunkenness on Sunday tell where they got their liquor. He was told, he said, by people who knew, that some of the hotels admitted men by the scores on Sunday, and allowed them to remain in the bars until stupified with liquor and then turned them out on the streets. This was most disgraceful and he intended to make an effort to put a stop to it. There was as much, if not more drinking done on Sunday than any other day in the week.

A Dog with two Owners.

A man from Bridgenorth was going along George-st. on Saturday afternoon when he saw a dog running along which he had lost seven months since. He at once proceeded to get his long-lost canine friend in tow, but was obstructed in his efforts by another man who said the dog belonged to him. A dispute arose, and, with the poor dog between them, and followed by a large crowd they went around to the police station. Here, with the help of Chief Roszel, a settlement was arrived at, the Bridgenorth man paying the other claimant $2 for the keep of the dog for the past seven months.

The "Y" at Home.

The was not a large attendance at the "At Home" given on Saturday evening by the Young Women's Christian Temperance Union, but those present enjoyed a pleasant evening. The hall was decorated with pictures, and tables and seats were arranged about the hall. Parior games were supplied and made good use of. At intervals during the evening a short but good programme was carried out. Miss Wrighton gave an excellent piano solo; Miss Winnie Dobbin also gave an instrumental solo; Misses Wrighton and Pearson sang a duet; Mr. Herbeson gave a reading, and Miss Wynn closed the programme with a piano solo.

Before Queen Victoria.

The Duke and the Duchess of Argyll were among the friends who gave the Fisk Jubilee Singers an early and hearty welcome in Great Britain. It was while spending an evening at Argyll Lodge as their guests, that the Singers had the honor of appearing before the Queen. At the Duke's request they sang for her first, "Steal Away to Jesus," then chanted the "Lord's Prayer," and sang, "Go down, Moses." Her Majesty listened with manifest pleasure, and as they withdrew communicated through the Duke her thanks for the gratification they had given her. There was no stage parade or theatrical pomp in the scene; but the spectacle of Britain's Queen coming from her palace to listen to the songs which these humble students learned in their slave cabins, and that not merely for her own entertainment, but to encourage them in their efforts to lift up their fellow freed people, was worthy of a place in history. They appear at the Opera House, Peterborough, Wednesday evening, Oct 31. Tickets 50c. and 75c.

Cool and His Quartette.

Cool Burgess was at the Opera House on Saturday night and with the assistance of four others gave an old-time variety show, some features of which were not bad. Charles Simco gave a slack wire performance which all had seen before, and Prof. Maxy appeared in his cabinet mystery, doing the usual mysterious acts while tied in the cabinet, very cleverly. Miss Lottie Cleveland gave a couple of songs, and appeared in a negro speciality "Past, Times on the Levee." Her dancing brought down the house. Wardell, the great fire king, ate fire, drank boiling lead and thoroughly mystified the audience by his wonderful performance. Prof. Maxy was fed several bunches of needles by two gentlemen from the audience, ate some thread, and then after a careful examination of his mouth had been made, proceeded to draw from his mouth the three yards of thread with the needles all sticking upon it. Cool Burgess himself gave some of his renowned white faced specialties and also amused the audience with a stump speech. Cool can still make the people laugh, although he must have voted several decades ago.

ESCAPING THE GALLOWS

Causes Farley to Suffer from Nervous Prostration.

On Saturday evening a number of telegrams were received from Philadelphia from Farley's father and from Mr. L. J. Burns, chairman of the Philadelphia committee which have been working in the interests of the condemned American, thanking his friends in Peterborough for their action in working so energetically and successfully in securing a commutation of the death sentence. Mayor Stevenson received the following telegram:—

"PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27th, 1888.

"Please accept the heartfelt thanks of an afflicted family and of the entire community for the deep interest you have taken in the case of James Farley, getting the death sentence commuted to imprisonment.

"LOUIS JAMES BURNS."

Yesterday Farley was suffering from nervous prostration. The great anxiety and suspense under which he has lived during the last two weeks have been a great strain upon his nerves, and the news that he had been snatched from the terrible doom to which he was sentenced caused a relaxation which effected his nerves so as to necessitate the sending for Dr. Kincaid, gaol physician. The doctor, however, does not consider that any serious results are to be apprehended. The prisoner will be removed to Kingston immediately.

Finance Meeting.

The Finance Committee will meet tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

Next Tuesday night, October 30th, will be the last night that new members will be allowed to join the Peterborough Vocal Society.

Died at West Bay City.

Word was received here yesterday that Harry the seven year old son of Mr. John McNeil, and grandson of Mr. Alex. McNeil, of Water-st., had died in West Bay City. Mr. John McNeil and his brother Harry both reside in West Bay City, and the former will have the sympathy of his Peterborough friends in his present sorrow.

Their Wonderful Singing.

The Fish Jubilee Singers have swept us out of ourselves and almost into Paradise with their own wonderful singing. There is a weirdness to their voices that makes one think of pines and moonlight and lonely seas—of graves under white winter stars, and dim aisles of moaning woods, where a tempest is whispering itself to rest.—Chicago Evening Journal. Opera House, Wednesday evening, Oct. 31.

Do You Catch on.

Wait, if you are going to buy. Hold your horses. Snub up to something and wait. Gough Bros. have bought the Sheppard bankrupt stock and will offer it for sale during the week. A host of help are at it marking the goods down. But at 60c. on the dollar the entire stock will be sacrificed. Dry goods and clothing will catch it. A cyclone will sweep over the trade appalled by the movements of Gough's, the wonderful cheap men, to supply the people of the county with cheap goods. Don't buy until the great sale opens or you will lose money.

Anniversary Services.

The Rev. Dr. R. N. Grant, of Orillia, will conduct the anniversary services in St. Andrew's church on Sunday morning and evening, November 4th. A collection will be taken up in aid of the church debt. On Monday evening, November 5th, a soiree will be held, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. Tea will be served in the school room from 6 to 7 30 o'clock, followed by a good musical programme in the church and addresses by the Rev. Dr. Grant and local ministers. Strangers will meet with a cordial welcome and spend a pleasant evening. Tickets to soiree 25 cents. 3d100

A Cayuga Elopement.

At about 2 o'clock on Wednesday morning, the Gazette says, a couple arrived at the McArthur House, Fenelon Falls, from Bobcaygeon. They were Mr. James Slater and Miss Louisa Chapman. At an early hour in the morning Mr. Slater had procured a license and a little before 8 o'clock Rev. Mr. McAmmond performed the marriage ceremony in the hotel. When the telegraph office was opened a message came from the girl's father to have her arrested, but the message was too late, and the couple took the train for the south.

Is he the Same John?

One of the tramps arrested in Kingston, of whom Chief Horsey wrote asking if they were wanted here, was John O'Neil. When arrested they fought with the constable viciously and O'Neil has got five months in the Central and his chum, Williams, seven months. A short time ago a John O'Neil was arrested here with Fay, suspected of stealing a coat from Sheppard's store. Fay was given six months in the Central and O'Neil was acquitted. O'Neil had been here at the time Howe's circus was here. He and Fay were circus men. Probably the Kingston O'Neil is the same one, and if so he has again gone to join Fay.

Accident to a Child.

This afternoon little after two o'clock, the infant son of Mr. Robt. Hall, aged three years, met with a very painful accident. The little fellow was playing in the woodshed, when a pile of wood from some reason or other came tumbling down upon him. In falling the wood broke and carried with it a bottle that was standing on a platform, and a piece of the broken glass cut clean through the child's upper lip and made two deep cuts on the forehead near the right temple. Dr. King was summoned and dressed the wounds, and it is got thought the child's speech will be in the least affected by his lip being cut through.

Not a Cent for the Exchequer.

There was a quartette of drunks staring at Police Magistrate Edmison from the prisoners bench this morning. They were all run in on Saturday night or early Sunday morning.

Edward Horrigan was the first one to sing his little song. He was from near Lakefield and admitted that he had been drunk. "But," he said, "I've been in that place down below since six o'clock Saturday night and feel nearly killed." The Magistrate took this into consideration and as it was his first offence allowed him to depart.

John Fox next rose to warble his sweet melody. He had been on the street on Saturday afternoon and was taken with a light-headedness and fell down. He was picked up by the police and had been in the cells. The magistrate remarked that a man was liable to be affected with lightheadness if he took a couple of "horns" too much. However, as he discharged the prisoner without adding any of the filthy to the town exchequer.

Jos. Shearer and Ed. Strain, two youths about 19 years of age, then rose to render a duet, or rather to account for rendering a duet on Sunday morning on Water-st. They were full they admitted, but were on their way home when arrested. They did not think anybody could hear them singing. The magistrate asked them where they got their liquor on Sunday morning or Saturday night. They did not divulge, and as it was their first offence they made their exit with a severe lecture.

Penniless and far from Home.

A young, respectable looking girl about 15 years old, applied to Chief Roezel this afternoon for a pass to Hamilton. She said she had come to Peterborought to look for employment, but had been unable to find any, and her funds being exhausted she wanted to get home. The chief referred her to Mr. Adam Hall, Chairman of the Charity Committee.

The Hard Worked Society Girl.

People will call us butterflies and insist that we live a gay and idle life, when in reality the part of a society girl is anything but enviable, and we are the hardest worked beings imaginable. Many like this existence, but most of the votaries tire soon, and are forced afterward in the social arena by circumstances and family. What could be harder than arising early, receiving and making morning calls, attending the inevitable luncheon, a dejeuner, followed by two or three receptions, with scarcely an hour's interval for rest, when the toilet for ball, theatre or opera commences, and, perhaps, a necessitated attendance at two or three entertainments the same evening. We poor slaves grow wofully tired after one season, and we don't even get rest at the summer seaside, which is really harder than the winter campaign for social claims.

It takes only one winter to play havoc with one's complexion and eyes, and when the late hours and dissipation must be covered over by resort to cosmetics we are blamed and talked about. You know we are taught that a woman's chief duty is to be beautiful and as attractive as possible. Besides, in St. Louis you must have dust on your face from the streets, so where is the objection to clean white dust in the form of powder on your skin and filling the pores with that instead of genuine black St. Louis dust? Men talk about the poison in the stuffs we use for beautifying. It may be so, but is it one-fifth as bad externally applied as that internally taken in cigarettes and wine by the same croakers?—Society Girl in Globe-Democrat.

The Lover and the Artist.

A Boston artist declares that a newly betrothed lover commissioned him to paint a certain secluded nook in the rocks on the shore, because there he had declared his passion. The picture was painted, but before it was done the lover said to the artist: "Of course I will see you through on that picture, but my engagement is off, and, of course, it would be painfully suggestive to me. If you can sell it to somebody else I will take another picture and be extremely obliged besides." The painter assented to the arrangement, but within a week his patron again presented himself. "It is all right," he announced, joyously, "I'll take that picture." "Am I to congratulate you on the renewal of your engagement?" the artist asked. The other seemed a little confused, but quickly recovered his self possession and grinned, as he said, "Well, not exactly. It was the same place but the girl was different."—Providence Journal.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1888.

By S. BARING GOULD.

Q. Did you read the inscription on his vase? Did you observe the word "tyran" on it? A. I did not look at the vase after the legend had been added. I did not see it till it was removed from the factory. Then the word "tyran" was not on it. At least, I did not observe it. If you will look, you will see that the scroll on which the inscription is extends some little way to the left, before the words A l'eternelle, and properly the inscription should have a blank space to correspond at the end. But it has not. It unevenly fills the scroll. There is blank before the words, it crowds to the end.

Q. Would it be likely that a person unaccustomed to writing on porcelain would not properly consider the length of an inscription, and so make it approach the border nearer at the end than the beginning? A. I should say that was most likely.

This witness also was not allowed to withdraw till Aldbury had requested to be allowed to cross-examine him, but he asked to be allowed to defer his catechism till the rest of the witnesses for the prosecution had been called.

The next to be summoned was the workman who had taken the vase from the painting room to the kiln. After him that workman gave his evidence who had put the vase in to be baked. He said that he had remained by the oven all the time the biscuit china was being baked, so as to set the painting on it.

With this witness the case for the prosecution was closed, and every one in the court felt that it went hard with the accused, or at least with one of them.

The young count throughout the hearing maintained a dignified position and expression. He was pale, indeed, but he looked toward his mother now and then and smiled, to let her see that he was confident that his innocence would be established.

Sophie Mansfeld was also pale; she wore a dark dress; standing with her modest eyes lowered, and with the dew of sorrow sparkling on the lashes, she looked remarkably pretty; and when Aldbury asked if any evidence had been given to justify her imprisonment, and the charge of treason brought against her, "No, no!" shouted the king. "Let her get out of the box. I discharge her."

This was not exactly the way in which trial by jury was conducted in England, thought Aldbury, but it mattered not, so long as justice was done. He requested, as Sophie was discharged, that she might remain. He would require her evidence.

Aldbury was too imperfect in the German language to make much of a speech for the defense; he very shortly informed the jury that he would show them that the evidence incriminating the young count was not complete enough to justify a sentence against him. Then he called Sophie Mansfeld into the witness box.

Q. Did you paint the legend on the scroll? A. I did not.

Q. Who did that? A. The Count Augustus Lazinka.

Q. What did he write? A. "A l'eternelle gloria de Frederic le grand."

Q. That was all? A. That was all.

Q. Was there space after le grand left vacant? A. The same as at the beginning.

At the beginning I notice a little floreation in gold filling the space. There is none at the end. How do you account for that if he did not add the word tyran?

A. The count wrote the inscription, and I did not think of the little gold flower till too late. Afterward I remembered that it had been omitted, and then I ran to the kiln master and asked for my vase that I might add the little ornament filling in the empty space after le grand; but he told me it was too late. The vase was already in the oven.

Q. You are sure the count did not add the word tyran? A. Quite sure. I should have seen it had he done so. Besides, he was quite incapable—with his noble soul——

Aldbury. That will do. We do not want your opinion of the soul of the count.

Sophie crimsoned and looked down.

"You may leave the box," said Aldbury. Then he called the workman who had taken the vase to the kiln and asked him where he had put the vase.

A. On a square board which stood on a table; there were other vases and various articles to be burned with it.

Q. You are quite sure you set it with the rest? A. Quite sure.

Q. What reason have you for this certainty? A. Because I nearly knocked over some small pieces in setting the vase there. Indeed—yes, I did knock over one—a coffee cup, and in setting it right put my finger in the new paint and smeared it.

Q. Is this the coffee cup? A. Yes, and there is the mark where my finger went. The vase was large, and I had to make room for it on the board.

Q. Did you mention what you had done to any one? A. Yes; I reported it to Herr Hirsch, as was my duty.

Q. Did he say anything in reply? A. He said he would set it to rights before it was burned.

The next witness called was the burner.

Q. Were you at the kiln when the vase was brought there? A. I was not there, but I saw it with other articles ready for burning when I returned.

Q. Why were you absent? A. It was my dinner hour.

Q. When you took the biscuit porcelain to put it in the oven, where did you find it? A. On the table.

Q. Not on the board? A. No. It was not on the board, but on the table. The board was full, there was a coffee service there.

Q. You are certain it was not on the board? A. Quite certain. I do not think there was room for it on the board.

Q. Was any one by the oven, in the bakehouse, while you were at dinner. Is the bakehouse left open to any one to go into at that time? A. Oh, no, it is under the charge of Herr Solomon Hirsch.

Q. Did you see Herr Hirsch? A. Yes. He had a palette and brush in his hands, and said that George Stockmayer, the last witness, had smeared one of the coffee cups, and he had been putting the painting to rights.

Q. But the cup has not been touched and repaired. This is it? A. I dare say. That is one of the set I then baked. I cannot swear to the particular cup. I do not trouble myself to examine the painting. I leave that to others—to Hirsch. That is outside my province. I see that the baking is sufficient.

Q. Did you read the inscription on the vase? A. How could I? I cannot read.

Q. Did no one else have access to the bakehouse during dinner time but Hirsch? A. I do not know. Hirsch was responsible. Ask him.

Q. Did Sophie Mansfeld come to you and ask to remove the vase? A. Yes. About half an hour after it was in the oven.

Q. Did she give her reason? A. Yes. She said she had forgotten some little curls at the end of the inscription.

Q. Did you refuse to remove the vase? A. Of course, I did. I could not open the oven then—it would not have done. I was responsible for the articles in it.

Q. And when they were done what happened? A. Then Herr Solomon Hirsch had them under his charge.

The next to be called was Hirsch himself. At Aldbury's request, he had not been allowed to be present during the interrogation of the witnesses. He appeared in the box with great confidence, and answered readily enough to the first queries, but soon became confused and alarmed.

Aldbury asked, "Are you in charge of the bakehouse?" A. Yes. I do not myself bake, I supervise the baking.

Q. And at dinner time on the day in question, were you responsible for the oven, and the articles that were to be put in it? A. I was.

Q. When the dinner hour came, the oven was not sufficiently heated for them to be committed to it at once? A. I do not remember. I think they were put in at once.

Q. Do you recall the witness Stockmayer telling you on the occasion in question that he had smeared a coffee cup? A. (With hesitation) I cannot say. Such things happen sometimes.

Q. But on this day, and at the hour of dinner, you were left alone in the oven house with the porcelain that had to be baked, and you had with you palette and paint to repair the damage done to the coffee cup by Stockmayer. A. That was on another day.

Q. The day book says whether the coffee service was baked on that day or another. Will you look at the book? Is that the entry for the day in question? Is that your signature at the end? A. It is my signature. I did not recall the fact.

Q. How comes it that the smeared cup was not put to rights? A. I suppose it was made right.

Q. Will you look at the cup, and say if it has been rectified? A. (After some delay). That cup is smeared. I did not know that more than one was rubbed. Stockmayer only told me of one, and that I put in order before baking.

Q. Indeed. You remember the circumstance now. You can also tell me who removed the vase painted by Demoiselle Mansfeld from the board on to the table? A. I cannot tell you that.

Q. We are assured that the vase was left by Stockmayer safely on the board, and the baker declares that he found it on the table, and not on the board. Consequently it must have been removed and handled by some one while you were in the bakehouse and responsible for it. A. I may have moved it, when I got the smeared cup from the board, and did not replace it; I cannot say. I do not remember trifles like that.

Q. What color was required for the cup? A. Gold.

Q. The same that is used for the inscription on the vase? A. I dare say. (Spoken reluctantly.)

Aldbury said, "You may stand aside. I will now call Herr Gerber, colorman."

When this new witness appeared in the box, Hirsch looked much disconcerted.

Q. Is your name Lorenz Gerber? A. It is.

Q. What is your trade? A. I am a colorman.

Q. Do you remember Solomon Hirsch coming to your shop on the 20th of last month? A. I do.

Q. Please inform the jury of the particulars. A. Herr Sub-director Hirsch came to me on the 20th of April and asked me if I had some deep blue color that would match with the blue on a piece of crockery he had—of porcelain, I mean. He said that a valuable specimen had been snicked, and it was desired to rub some color over the marks and to disguise them. Then I produced ultra marine, but that was hardly deep enough. We contrived by mixing some blues to obtain the depth of tone he required. I explained to him that my colors would not do for burning on porcelain, and he laughed and said that he did not need them for that purpose, but for covering temporarily blemishes on porcelain already burned.

Q. Have you any of that blue? A. Yes, I rubbed some on paper, here it is.

"That will do," said Aldbury. Then he called an old woman named Frosch-hammer.

Q. What is your name? A. Margaretta Frosch-hammer, widow.

Q. Your trade? A. I am a washerwoman.

Q. Did you, three days ago, receive from Herr Hirsch any clothes to wash? A. Yes, I do all his washing.

Q. Among the clothes did you receive a handkerchief? A. Yes, I did.

Q. Is this it?

In Brief and to the Point.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and much many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

Yarns and Hosiery

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland, Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies, at prices that are right, as we are confident they are no sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You shou'd ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what in ducements may be offered we never allow ourselves to be undersold.

TOPICS FROM THE CAPITAL

MINISTERS WHO WILL ATTEND THE BANQUET TO MR. POPE.

A Life Convict's Release Petitioned for—The Legal Experts in the New Northwest Assembly.

OTTAWA, Oct. 30.—Sir John Macdonald left for Montreal yesterday morning on his way to Sherbrooke to attend the banquet in honor of Mr. Pope. Sir Hector Langevin, Sir John Thompson, Hon. G. E. Foster, Sir Adolphe Caron, Hon. John Carling, and Hon. John Haggart left yesterday afternoon. Hon. Messrs. Chapleau and Tupper being unwell were not able to go.

A petition has been received by the Minister of Justice asking for the release of David Prevost who is serving "a life" sentence in Kingston Penitentiary for the murder of an old man named Bender. There has always been a strong impression in the minds of Prevost's neighbors that he was innocent.

The new regulations for governing the excise branch of the Inland Revenue Department have been issued, by which Ottawa is raised from the fourth to the third class, the collections being over $200,000.

Judges Richardson, Rouleau and McLeod, who have been appointed under the act of last session as legal experts in the new Northwest Assembly, will receive a sessional allowance of $250 and traveling expenses.

The Marine Department has been notified by the contractor for raising the steamer Ottawa, sunk in the St. Lawrence, that it will be impossible to complete the work this season.

It is stated that the Dominion Government will make an unusually large exhibition at the Royal Agricultural Society's Jubilee Show next June.

It is understood that one of the results of the interview between Sir John and Mr. Mercier, while the latter was here last week, will probably be an early amicable settlement of the Northwest boundary line of the Province of Quebec.

DEATH OF JUDGE MONK.

The Aged Jurist Passes Away in His 75th Year—Sketch of His Life.

MONTREAL, Oct. 30.—Hon. Judge Monk died yesterday morning at 8.20, at the Grey Nunnery.

[Hon. Samuel Cornwaller Monk was born in Halifax, N.S., in 1813, and was consequently in the 75th year of his age. At the age of eighteen he came to Montreal and studied law. He took part in the famous rebellion of '37, and after the insurrection played a prominent part in the defence of the political prisoners, being associated with the late Judge Drummond, another very brilliant man. He afterwards entered into partnership with the late Sir John Rose, the firm being known as Rose & Monk. In 1854 he was made a Q. C., and acted as Crown Prosecutor for the district of Montreal. He was appointed a judge of the Superior Court in 1859, and was raised to the Queen's Bench in 1868, a position he held until his retirement a few months ago. Judge Monk was a man of splendid and imposing physique, great ability, and most genial manners, and filled the various positions which he occupied with singular ability.]

FIRE AT CHATSWORTH.

The Public School Building Completely Destroyed—Loss $5000.

CHATSWORTH, Oct. 30.—Yesterday afternoon about 3.40 the Chatsworth Public School House was discovered to be on fire. The building was totally destroyed. It was a two story brick containing four rooms, built last year at a cost of $5000. About 160 children were in the school at the time and all escaped unhurt. The cause of the fire is as yet unknown. The building was insured in the Sydenham Mutual for $3000.

A Town Nearly Wiped Out.

CARROLLTON, Mo., Oct. 30.—The little town of Hale on the Chicago, Burlington and Kansas City Railway was nearly wiped out by fire last night.

1500 Persons Homeless.

BERLIN, Oct. 30.—A fire has been raging since an early hour yesterday morning at Huenfeld, near Cassel. Two hundred houses are in ashes and 1500 persons are homeless and destitute. Great distress prevails.

HANNAH BOYD RELEASED.

No Evidence to Connect Her with the Galt Poisoning Cases.

BERLIN, Oct. 30.—Hannah Boyd, who has been confined in the county jail during the past ten days on the charge of being implicated in the sending of the poisoned candies which caused the death of Meta Cherry at Galt, was released yesterday, there being nothing to warrant holding her longer.

The general impression prevails here that her arrest and detention were due to an expectation that she might be frightened into making statements in the nature of a confession which would clear up the dark mystery that surrounds the case.

Miss Boyd is now in charge of her friends, and left for her home in Hamilton to-day.

The officials say that before leaving the court house Hannah made a lengthy statement of all the matters within her knowledge that might have a bearing upon the case, and Detective Murray states that the information contained in this statement will prove of material assistance in the further investigation of this mysterious case. Whether the information is as valuable as is stated, or whether it is an easy way of letting themselves down, is an open question. Certain it is that nothing is expected from it at present.

THE KAISER'S COMPLAINT.

BERLIN, Oct. 30.—In reply to a request of the Municipal Council for an explanation of the Emperor's speech of Saturday last, during which he took occasion to pass certain remarks on what he reprobated as the unjust gossip of the press in regard to the imperial family, the following, which is the text of the concluding passage of the speech, has been sent to Mayor Forckenbeck:

"I cannot but give expression to a very painful reminiscence of my journey. While I have devoted health and strength to securing the peace and welfare of the Fatherland, and thus of the capital also, by creating ties of friendship, the daily press of the capital has given publicity to and spoken about the affairs of my family in a manner which a private individual would never tolerate. I am not only painfully impressed by this, but my displeasure has been aroused. I wish, above all, that the continuous citing of the name of my departed father shall cease. It most deeply injures my feelings as his son, and it is in the highest degree unbecoming. I trust that when I chose Berlin as my principal residence, and as a Berliner, it always attracts me, the people will avoid making the private relations of my family the subject of press discussion. The duties uniting a prince with his people for the purpose of making the Fatherland great and happy are numerous and important enough for them to devote their whole attention to it in a thoroughly patriotic manner, allowing all other affairs, such as I have already mentioned, to rest without giving them publicity. They should combine to use their strength in a faithful devotion to these high and noble aims. I trust the representatives of Berlin, to receive whom gives me a special pleasure, will endeavor in this matter to perform their part."

The passage in which the Emperor rebukes the press for quoting the Emperor Frederick in unfavorable comparison with himself elicits special interest. The first semi-official copy contained no explicit reference to the Emperor Frederick.

THE KAISER AT HAMBURG.

His Route Thronged With People—A Triumphal Progress.

HAMBURG, Oct. 30.—Emperor William arrived here yesterday. He wore a general's undress uniform. He was received by the Senators in a body. The people greeted the Emperor with great enthusiasm. The Emperor went by water to Alsterlust where he had lunch. He afterwards proceeded to Jungernstein and then returned to the city where he inspected the Guard of Honor and exchanged words of greeting with the officers. He afterwards drove through the city in a carriage drawn by four black horses, and Gen. von Moltke and Count Herbert Bismarck followed in a second carriage.

The route was thronged with people and the progress was a triumphal one. At intervals along the route children presented the Emperor with flowers. His Majesty bowed repeatedly in response to the acclamations of the people. The Senators conducted the Emperor from Brooks' bridge to the scene of the festivities where a stone was placed to commemorate the inclusion of Hamburg in the customs union.

Dr. Fereman tendered the thanks of the Senate, the burgomaster and the inhabitants of the city for the Emperor's presence. The Emperor then took a trowel and mallet, spread mortar over the stone, tapped the stone and said:

"For God's honor, for the good of the Fatherland, and for the welfare of Hamburg."

After Gen. von Moltke, Herr Petersen and Herr von Boetticher had made speeches the Emperor steamed through the customs canal and the upper harbor canal to the Elbe bridge and inspected the forts.

Substantial Sympathy.

ROME, Oct. 30.—Emperor William of Germany has donated 4000 marks for the relief of the families of the victims of the recent railway disaster at Grassano near Potenza. The news has caused much enthusiasm at Rome.

The Liberty Banquet.

PARIS, Oct. 30.—A banquet was given at the Hotel Continental last evening to commemorate the dedication of the statue of Liberty Enlightening the World which was given by the French people to the United States. M. Goblet said that France was formerly courted and dreaded, but that since her misfortunes unjust accusations and jeering had not been spared her in her isolation. But she did not complain of this temporary trouble. The day was coming when under the ægis of the republic she would recover her ancient splendor and when that time came she would not forget her faithful friends. France had renounced the glory of conquest, her only desire was to live in peace and to develop her resources.

The Cossack Dynamite Story a Canard.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 30.—The story that a Cossack in the disguise of an officer, who had explosives and poison on his person, was arrested at Kutars just before the arrival there of the Czar's train, is declared to be a canard.

The Czar and Czarina arrived at Sebastopol yesterday. They were greeted by a special envoy from the Sultan of Turkey. After reviewing the manœuvres of the Black Sea fleet Their Majesties proceeded on their way to Gatschina.

Savage Atrocities in Africa.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Advices from the Bonny River, Africa, give a revolting story of savage atrocities and cannibalism. The Okrikan tribe in revenge for some injury, invited a party of Ogonis to a friendly palaver and then entrapped and massacred them. A cannibal festival of the most horrible and indescribable character followed. Then an attack was made upon the undefended villages and the most barbarous outrages were committed. It is estimated that over 150 persons including women and children were killed and eaten.

Discredited.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The Emin Relief Committee discredits the story of the massacre of the Stanley expedition. The members of the committee do not doubt that Stanley is the white pasha reported to be in the Bahr El Gazette province. It is believed that Stanley joined Emin at Wadelai in December, 1887. Nothing has been heard at Brussels in regard to the reported massacre.

The Charges Were False.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 30.—The Congressional Committee before whom the accusation against ex-President Gonzales has been pending since 1884 reported yesterday that there was no foundation for the charge. The Chamber of Deputies approved the report, thus ending the case. Great excitement followed the action of the Deputies.

The Irish Press Surprised.

DUBLIN, Oct. 30.—The Irish press expresses surprise at the leniency of the sentence imposed upon the men who were convicted of conspiring to defraud the Equitable Assurance Company of New York.

Stabbed by an Employe.

TEXARKANA, Ark., Oct. 30.—P. S. Mathews, the wealthiest sawmill owner and lumberman in this section, was stabbed and it is thought fatally wounded by a negro employed at his mill yesterday.

THE INJUNCTION STANDS.

A NEW ASPECT GIVEN TO THE RAILWAY QUESTION.

No Attempt Will be Made by the Manitoba Government to Effect a Crossing of the C. P. R. at Present.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 30.—The railway trouble is temporarily over, owing to the continuance by Judge Killam yesterday morning of the injunction restraining the crossing of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and a new aspect has been given to the railway question. It was confidently expected that the injunction would be dissolved, and when the adverse decision was given those who usually assume the direction of affairs seemed to be nonplussed.

Members of the Government being approached after the decision as to what their policy would be admitted that nothing had been determined. A Cabinet meeting was held last night and it is understood that the Legislature will be called about Nov. 10 to discuss the situation.

In the meantime the Government will make no attempt to affect a crossing but will carry on the work by teaming material over the Canadian Pacific Railway track via the highway which is about 200 yards from the point of intersection. The Canadian Pacific Railway still maintain a guard at the four intended points of crossing. The Government specials were on hand yesterday morning but when the decision was given in court their services were temporarily dispensed with.

WHEAT AT PORT ARTHUR.

The Arrivals Not up to Expectations—Elevator Work Suspended.

PORT ARTHUR, Oct. 30.—Wheat arrivals at the elevators here are not at all up to expectations and much behind last year, probably largely owing to the backward season. For the week ending Saturday night the receipts were 201,960 bushels, against 369,260 bushels for the corresponding week last year. The receipts of this season's crop so far have been 636,350 bushels, against 1,204,450 bushels for the same period last year. Probably on account of the comparatively light receipts instructions were received this morning from headquarters to suspend all operations on the immense annex to the elevator. It is believed that the company feel that the present elevators and the new one will be able to accommodate the season's crop without the annex. The foundation of the annex is all completed and if it is found to be needed can be continued later on. It is also reported here that the Canadian Pacific Railway will not carry frosted grain from Manitoba until all the higher grade grain is exported.

A HORRIBLE DISCOVERY.

Two Boys While Hunting Trip Over a Skull and Find a Clothed Skeleton.

ST. CATHARINES, Oct. 30.—A son of Mr. A. Simpson and a companion named Burch, of Beamsville, were hunting for black squirrels in Mr. Harcourt's bush, about five miles west of the village on Saturday, when young Simpson tripped, as he thought, over a stone. On turning to look at it he was horrified to find it was a bleached skull, and at the same moment young Burch discovered a clothed body sitting up by a maple tree. The trunk was without a head, and presented a most ghastly spectacle, with evident marks of being there for several years. The skull was several feet from the body. The body, arms and thighs were throughly shrunken into a parchment covering the bones, but the skull had a short pipe between the teeth, as if death came suddenly. There was nothing in the pockets to give information regarding the body.

MR. BURWELL'S RUSE.

How He Managed to Get Clear of Officers Sent to Arrest Him.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Oct. 30.—The News of this city says that soon after the burning of the big sawmill of Burwell & Co., at Spanish River, Ont., the Canadian Bank of Commerce sent two officers to arrest Burwell, claiming that he or the firm owed the bank $60,000. Mr. Burwell insisted that the officers dine with him. During the meal the housekeeper said someone wanted to see Mr. Burwell. He went to see the man, and as soon as the door closed behind him ran to the wharf, and boarding one of the firm's tugs, steamed away. When the officers learned what had happened they offered heavy rewards for his recapture, but Burwell is now in Grand Haven just the same. The News also says: "Nobody acquainted with members of the firm believes they contemplated fraud."

Live Stock Weighing Association.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The Live Stock Weighing Association met yesterday to discuss the situation in the Southwest. The time set for the adoption of the new system of weighing live stock shipments was Oct. 25, but owing to some hitch in the arrangements the Kansas City roads did not put the rates into effect as agreed upon. The St. Louis lines declined to adopt the rates until Kansas City was ready to do so, and matters have been considerably muddled in consequence. At yesterday's meeting the Chicago roads agreed to stand by the agreement and continue the weighing system here, notwithstanding the action of the roads at other points.

JANESVILLE, Wis., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Anna Snook, now under three indictments for murder for poisoning her children, was brought here yesterday and lodged in jail. She has been out on $10,000 bail for over a year on two charges, but the grand jury indicted her again last week when an ounce of sulphate of copper was found in the remains of her baby that died five years ago. She will remain in fail until the trial occurs next month.

IRON SMELTING

SPEAKING of this interesting subject the Empire says:—If the proposal to undertake iron smelting with charcoal at Deseronto is carried into effect there may be confidence that it will have a fair trial. Past experience of the various enterprises that have been set on foot by the Messrs. Rathburn gives promise that any industry with which they are connected will find that combination of energy and scientific development that must almost insure success. Perhaps, when the projected furnaces at Deseronto are giving occular proof that Canadian iron ore really is of some use in Canada, Messrs. Mowat and Coe for very shame's say may remember their combine by which large tracts of fine agricultural land and much valuable hardwood timber, the property of this province, was appropriated or rather misappropriated, on the understanding that Mr. Coe wanted the wood to make charcoal to smelt the iron ore, of which he had obtained such a wide monopoly. It really is about time that this combine should make at least some show of carrying out the bargain by which such valuable provincial property was parted with for private speculation. Some years have elapsed since the promise was made to the province, and so far there has not been even a pretence at fulfilment. If there is success at Deseronto they may be shamed out of this long-continued breach of faith.

When it is found, as will undoubtedly be the case on trial, that charcoal iron can be made profitably from our ores in Ontario, it will soon be seen that our mineral wealth is too valuable to be merely given away. If the charcoal gives good results it will not be long before coke will also be employed for the ordinary brands of pig iron. There is absolutely nothing that stands in the way of this industry but the timidity of capitalists, who pay too much heed to the oft-refuted threats of an impotent faction of Canadian free traders or annexationists.

REVIEWS.

THE CANADIAN METHODIST MAGAZINE.—In his "Landmarks of History" the Editor of this Magazine in the November number traces the collapse of the French Empire and the tragic scenes of the Siege of Paris, of which several striking engravings are given. The "Round About England" paper illustrates copiously the picturesque regions of Cornwall, Devon, Somerset and Wiltshire. The Rev. Geo. Bond gives an account of fascinating interest of the recent discovery of the Pharaoh of the Exodus, and presents the photograph taken from his mummy now in the Boulak Museum near Cairo. The Rev. W. I. Shaw, L. L. D., has a strong word to say for classical studies; and Professor Coleman, of Victoria University, gives a racy and readable account of the adventures of an artist and scientist in search of the picturesque in some out-of-the-way places of the Old World. The Rev. Dr. McLean gives a graphic missionary sketch entitled "Mary and I, or Forty years among the Sioux." A thrilling adventure on the ice off Newfoundland is also described. A well-informed correspondent in Venice, under the title "Rome Within Rome," describes the widening breach between the Quirinal and the Vatican—between King Humbert and Pope Leo XIII.—and the rapid growth of civil and religious liberty in Italy. Mrs. Barr's absorbing serial story comes to a happy end. The Editor describes a recent visit to the Tennessee Mountains, and reviews "John Ward, Preacher," and other recent books. Other articles fill up a capital number. The announcement is made that the success of this Magazine makes a considerable enlargement of its capacity a necessity.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites

is sold all over the world. It is far superior to plain Cod Liver Oil, palatable and easily digested. Dr. Martin Miles Stanton, Bury Bucks, London, England, says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion, and taken it myself. It is palatable, efficient, and can be tolerated by almost anyone, especially where cod liver oil itself cannot be borne." Put up in 50 cent and $1 size.

ELSIE—"Did you used to clean your teeth with it?"

GRANDMA—"Yes, dear, I tried to, but it hurt my gums, scratched my teeth, and did little else. How delighted I was when I first used the Ideal Felt Tooth Polisher that everbody uses now, and which has done so much to preserve the teeth."

ELSIE—"Isn't it nice? But Grandma, when was it introduced?"

GRANDMA—"About 1886; by the same Horsey M'f'g Co., of Utica, N. Y., who now make the handsome Holder and box of 18 Felt Polishers." dd20

TORONTO TOPICS.

An American Boodler in the Toils—Central Bank Dividends.

TORONTO, Oct. 30.—There is an American boodler in town, and he is in the hands of the police. His name is Louis Helm Slonaker, and until a few weeks ago he was the trusted cashier of the Chicago and Illinois Railway at Sioux City, Ia. On Oct. 13 he left that town with $400 of the company's money and came to Canada. Arriving in Toronto he registered at the Palmer House under the name of "Louis Helm." From there he removed to a house in Portland-street, where he was arrested last night by Detectives Slemin and Davis on the charge of forgery. Slonaker was bonded by the American Surety Company of New York to the extent of $7000. When the company learned of his defalcation they started two men on his track. These men were Detectives Abel S. Donegar and B. K. Sharretts of New York, who reached here on Oct. 24 and located their man. They claim to have a good case.

William Cathro, the contractor, was arrested last night by Detective Cuddy on a charge of embezzling $5000 from his partners, Joseph Kent and Joseph Rogers. He is the same individual who some few days ago had his mistress and brother arrested on a charge of stealing $500 from him.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. W. Smith, aged 88, residing in Richmond-street west, fell down a flight of stairs and received severe internal injuries. He was conveyed to the Hospital and was in a very weak state last night.

Judge Robertson yesterday ordered that the liquidators of the Central Bank pay a second dividend of 33½ per cent. on Nov. 15. The total dividends will probably reach 75 per cent.

HIS SECOND ATTEMPT SUCCEEDS.

A 12-year-old Hamiltonian's Efforts to Terminate His Existence.

HAMILTON, Oct. 30.—Frederick Hooper, a lad about 19 years old, who has quite a local reputation as a roller skater, made a deliberate attempt to poison himself some time Sunday night. Hooper's real name is McClintic, he having assumed his step-father's name. He lives with his mother and sister at 9 Macnab-street south. He had been out of work for several months, and as the sister had to support the family she told him a couple of weeks ago that he would either have to get work or leave the house. The thought of being compelled to leave home preyed upon his mind, and a week ago last Saturday he took a dose of laudanum, with the probable intention of taking his life. He denied that he intended to commit suicide, claiming that the laudanum was taken for medicinal purposes and that he had taken too large a dose.

Saturday night when he retired to bed he told his sister not to wake him on Sunday, as he wanted to sleep all day. Miss Hooper paid no attention to her brother until Sunday night, when she went to his room and found out that he was all right. Yesterday morning about 7 o'clock she again visited his apartment and found him in a stupor. Miss Hooper then suspected that her brother had taken another dose of laudanum. She succeeded in bringing him to, and with the assistance of a neighbor walked him up and down. Hooper again denied that he had taken laudanum, but the physician was convinced that he had taken some kind of poison. He was taken to the City Hospital where he died at 8 o'clock last night. An inquest will be held.

They arrive in Peterborough, are sold at 50c. on the dollar, we therefore sell them at half price and make a living profit for ourselves. ADVERTISING

When Newspapers first began to be published in London, an editor took opportunity one day to say that a certain man desired a certain something—no matter what. That was the invention of advertising, though the inventor may not have known what he had found. From that time to this people have made more or less use of the papers to publish their wants, and tradesmen their wares; but we doubt very much whether any real improvement upon the first advertisement has ever been made. It was a frank statement that somebody wanted something and what it was that he wanted. Doubtless he got it. We want something. Want to sell goods. Good goods too. The best of the best in Groceries. The range of stock is a wide one. It has to be wide to suit all customers. That we do suit is positive.

If there is one thing we do better than another it is in TEAS.

It is our specialty. Years of experience tell us how and where to buy. We use that experience and select the best.

Do you like a good article? Do you value flavor and strength in Tea? If so give us a trial order.

In addition, every line of groceries you can call for we have.

Fac-simile of a Famous Painting.

The Toronto Weekly News controls in Canada the etching of "Christ Before Pilate," 18in. x 21in., a fac-simile of the famous painting by the Hungarian artist, Munkacsy, which has won him world-wide fame. The etching is a delicate piece of art work and would add value to any collection.

Farley's Departure.

The 11.30 train on the C. P. R. carried from Peterborough this morning a party composed of Sheriff Hall, Turnkey Ray and James A. Farley, the two former conveying the latter to the Kingston penitentiary where he will put in his life sentence. Farley was seen by several of his friends this morning and was very cheerful. He looked remarkably well, and did not show the slightest sign of the nervous trouble from which he was suffering on Sunday. He feels, as he said on Saturday, the great debt he owes to the many strangers in Peterborough—now friends—who interested themselves in his behalf.

Growing in Interest.

A regular meeting of the Endeavor Society of the Charlotte-st. Methodist church was held last evening, when there was quite a large attendance. The interest in the Society is most lively and last evening several new names were added to the membership roll. The reports of the committees were read and adopted. Under the head of new business it was decided to hold a tea meeting on Thanksgiving night from 5 to 8 p.m. and after tea a popular entertainment will be given. The programme rendered was excellent, and was contributed to by Mrs. Morrow, the Misses Brundrett, Misses Lumsden and Crosby and Messrs. Ritchie, Tebb, Crane, Wilson and Dawe. These Monday evening meetings of the Endeavor Society are proving a great success and are growing in interest.

DEBENTURES SOLD.

The 20,000 Four Per Cents Bring a Very Satisfactory Price.

The $20,000 of town debentures, authorized to be sold to provide funds for building bridges and cribbing Crescent-st., were disposed of this morning at a very satisfactory price. The debentures bear four per cent. interest, the lowest of any debentures issued by the town. The rate was an experiment, and the result was awaited with interest to see what price would be paid. The municipal authorities, however, had confidence in the town's standing and credit, and it was not misplaced, as the debentures were sold to the Bank of Commerce at 95½ cents.

The town has had no commission to pay in making this loan and no expenses for exchange, making the price 95¾ net. This is as good as selling 5 per cent. debentures at about 112½, and the purchasers will net about 4.3 per cent. on their investment. No other towns, we believe, have made such a satisfactory loan, and the largest cities, including Toronto, issue their debentures at 4 per cent. The Council is to be congratulated upon their courage in issuing the debentures at 4 per cent. and upon the satisfactory sale.

W. J. Morrow will receive 100 packages of very fine Tea which will be sold off in the next thirty days. Parties wishing to procure a fine article should call at 340 Opera House Block.

Hose that Will Wear for Years.

The hose supply of the fire brigade has been increased by two hundred feet of new Eureka hose, from New York. There is some hose of this make which has been in use here for fourteen years past, and is still serviceable.

Apples! Apples! Apples!

Messrs. Elliott & Tierney have purchased the entire choice crop of apples, the product of Mr. G. W. Hatton's "Walkerfield orchard" consisting of Spitzenburgh, Ben Davis, Pippins, Northern Spy, Beauties of the West, etc. All hand picked and in prime order. Call and taste. Prices reasonable. d89

Splendid Tableaux.

The volunteers are preparing for two fine tableaux for the military concert on Nov. 15th. One will be a representation of the roll call and the other of the battle of Quatre Bras. Tugs of war, between privates, non-commissioned officers, and officers will be an interesting feature of the entertainment. On Thanksgiving night, remember.

A Perfect Fit.

It is very hard sometimes for ladies to decide where to leave their orders for mantles, so many garments spoiled by careless cutting and work. H. S. Griffin & Co. are doing a rushing trade in mantles made to order and they give a perfect fitting jacket, dolman or ulster at close cash prices.

Papers from Washington.

This morning Chief Roszel received two documents from Washington in the matter of the Greenfield case. One was from Lord Sackville, the British Minister there, and might be termed the document of deliverance, and the other was from the Secretary of the United States surrendering the prisoner. Word will be received from Buffalo to-day or to-morrow and Greenfield may be in Peterborough before the end of this week.

Indicted for Murder.

If a merchant sells a pair of shoddy boots to a boy and the boy through the shoddiness of the boots, gets his feet wet, catches cold and dies, can the merchant be legally arrested for murder? The court, after argument decides:—No. The boy knew, or should have known, or his father, if he had a father, which is likely, should have known for him, that Kidd, the boot man, sells J. D. King's make of boots, in which there is no shoddy. Besides, they cost no more, and it would be difficult to prove that the shoddy man really intended to kill the boy. (Signed) SWITCHEM I.

Fisk Jubilee Singers.

We have just received word from the Rev. M. L. Pearson that he has met the Jubilee Singers on his way east. From a conversation with them he learned that the renowned band, J. M. Caldwell, as well as the noted sopranos, Laura Wells and Ella Gordon, are with the troupe. The concerts are drawing immense crowds all along the line. Mr. Pearson informed them that a large crowd would welcome them in our town, and obtained a promise that they would render their best selections and sing their newest and most popular choruses, quartettes, trios and solos. A rich treat is in store for to-morrow night. 1d101

The Lecture Last Night.

A fair sized audience found their way to the Opera House to hear and see Prof. Ragan's illustrated lecture on "Paris the Magnificent." These lectures are now known all over Canada and the United States, and hardly need any notice from the press at all, so high is the standard of the entertainment. The eye can be pleased, knowledge incessed and a pleasant evening spent when one of Ragan's lectures is attended. The lecture is made so much more interesting than it otherwise would be by the fact that the professor relates his own actual experiences in his travels in the country or place, as well as being assisted by his excellent photographs.

The Thanks of Poor and Grateful Boy.

The Knights of Labor were not forgotten by James Farley, who before he left forwarded the following letter to that body:—

To the Knights of Labor of the Town of Peterborough:—

I take pleasure in thanking you through your delegate to Ottawa, Mr. Henry Denne, for the friendly interest you have taken in my behalf in forwarding through him your memorial in my behalf to the Governor-General and the Government of the Dominion of Canada for the commutation of my death sentence to that of imprisonment for life in the Kingston penitentiary and, having received that according to your request, I cannot find words sufficient to express my gratitude towards you all for your kindness to me. A stranger from a foreign country in your midst and you have the prayers and thanks of a poor and ever grateful boy as long as I live. I remain,

Your humble servant,
JAMES F. FARLEY.

A similar letter was received by Mayor Stevensen addressed to The Mayor and Town Council of Peterborough, thanking that body for their action on his behalf.

Telephone Extensions.

With the exception of a new line between Toronto, Hamilton and London, to be worked on the long distance system, the Bell Telephone Company has nearly completed an unusually heavy season's work in the way of extentions to the system, and the officers report having used this year, in the Ontario Department alone, over 13,000 poles, and 1,500 miles of wire, most of which is copper. The principal new lines built were from Toronto to Arthur via Orangeville; Orillia to Waubaushene, and Barrie to Midland and Penetanguishene; Owen Sound to Hanover; Wingham to Kincardine; Teeswater to London via Wingham, Clinton and Lucan, with branch to Parkhill; and in the Province of Quebec, Montreal to Three Rivers. Additional wires have also been put up between Toronto and Oshawa; Berlin and Stratford, and Listowel and Harriston; and the following new exchanges and agencies opened, viz:—In Ontario; Alias Craig, Bolton, Caledon, Chesley, Coldwater, Elmvale, Elmwood, Exeter, Fesserton, Grand Valley, Lucan, Lucknow, Parkhill, Phelpston, Tara, Teeswater, Tottenham and Woodbridge; and in Quebec: Bedford, Berthier, Charlemagne, Dorval, Joliette, Knowlton, L'Assomption, Louisville, Stanbridge East, Stanhope and Valois. Connecting offices have also been opened at Centreville, Croydon, Grafton, Kingston Mills and Roblin, in Ontario.

Jubilee The voices of the company are well balanced and flexibly cultivated, and collectively their renditions are beyond compare. The pieces by the male quartette were exquisite, the time and harmony being perfect.

Keep the Sidewalks Clear.

There was another case of breach of a town by-law before Police Magistrate Dumble this morning, Chief Roszel charging Mr. John Craig with obstructing the sidewalk by exposing poultry on a table at his door on George-st. Mr. John Burnham appeared for the defendant and stated, on behalf of his client, that Mr. Craig was not aware that the by-law was being enforced with such rigor, and Chief Roszel stated, also, that Mr. Craig was always very careful about keeping the sidewalk in front of his store clear. The Magistrate, however, said the letter of the by-law had been broken, but he did not propose to give judgment then. He said he was of opinion that the by-law was too strict and he would lay the case over until he could get the opinion of the Town Council as to whether they intended to have the law enforced to the letter. In Toronto he had noticed only yesterday that goods were allowed to be exposed on all the public streets, and in his opinion the by-law was too strict. A dry-goods box or piano box standing on the walk and obstructing the street should not be allowed, and was a different thing from a little fish, fruit or poultry. The case therefore stands until the voice of the Council is procured on the matter.

"From Year to Year."

"One of Raphael Tucker & Sons' Calendars for the year 1889 is really a gem. It is in book form, and designed by J. Pauline Sunter, with couplets by Helen M. Burnside. January shows two little girls who come timidly along drawing behind them a little waggon full of dolls; they hold one another by the hand and look as pretty as they are innocent, their hair fluttering in the breeze and falling in masses over their foreheads, their chubby little faces aglow with good nature and even dolls laughing. Their appeal—'Could we stay this year with you?'—could not be refused by any one. They evidently stay the year, for in the pages that follow they are shown in various occupations, feeding the birds, plucking wild flowers, rollicking in the grassy fields, and sitting by the seashore, making little rivers in the sand. On the page between June and July there is a picture of a milestone almost hidden by the flowers, but on which the inscription 'Half Way,' can be seen. Throughout the Calendar they are dressed in costumes appropriate to the different months of the year. In April they take refuge from the showers 'neath umbrellas; in May they fall asleep among the daisies in the field as they murmur:

"'Nodding, nodding, to and fro,
In the grass the daisies grow.'

"In December they depart, muffled up to protect themselves from the cold, their satchels on their arms; and as the hands of the clock point to midnight they say:

"'We hope you have had a pleasant year.'

"The last page of the Calendar has a candle burnt almost to the bottom, and is just dying out, indicating the close of the year."—Art Stationer.

This charming Calendar Book for 1889 has 18 pages of color and monochrome illustrations, gold edged, silk cord and tassels.

A dainty gift—to be had at all first-class stores throughout the United States, or mailed to any address on receipt of 50 cents. Address—Raphael Tucker & Sons, 298 Broadway, New York.

Singers The singing of the old weird plantation slave melodies by these rich voices appears to come very near the absolute perfection of harmony.

—The committee of labor men in charge of the arrangements of their ball to be held on Thanksgiving Eve met last night and furthered the arrangements for the assembly.

—Word came to the police station last night that a man was making night hideous with the assistance of his lungs near McDonnel-st. Officer McGinty went up but he had disappeared. He was probably one of the Italian navvies—about 200 of whom occupy a couple of box cars near there.

THREE CARD MONTE.

Two Sharpers Try to Dupe a Farmer—Slandering Peterborough.

Farmers would do well to notice the way the sharpers are now trying to play the monte game upon them and not be caught by any plausible tricks. As the tale the trickster tells below about being swindled in Peterborough is only a part of his yarn, it is of course not true and another time he might locate his alleged misfortune in some other town. The way the trick was tried is thus described by the Bowmanville Statesman:—"Early in the summer a fluent tongued man, apparently a well-to-do-farmer, met a lady on the 9th concession of Darlington, and inquired the names of some of the oldest and most wealthy farmers in the vicinity. Being told, he proceeded to visit them and stated that he represented a banking company and was looking for investment in real estate. After viewing the farm and having a long chat with the owners he went away promising to call again after a while. Nothing was heard of the man until last week when he again put in an appearance, and desired to look over the farms more carefully. After an hour spent in this way, the sharper (for such he proved to be) met by arrangement, of course, a stranger who was driving east-ward and inquired for Myrtle. A lengthy conversation ensued and to all appearance the man was intoxicated. He told the land hunter and his wealthy farmer friend how he had been euchred out of $500 in Peterborough at a game of cards, and said he had bought a pack of cards afterwards and was going to learn to play and return and try to win the money back. He was asked by sharper number one to let him see the cards, which he declined to do until pressed to do so, when he took them out and endeavored to explain how to use them and finally wanted to play a game. Sharper No. 1 tried his luck and won. This resulted in the man of the cards producing an immense roll of bank bills and challenging either of the others to play for $100, appearing all this time to be drunk and reckless. No. 1 was inclined to play, but said he had not $100 with him. His wife was in Oshawa and he had left $100 with her. Watching a good chance he turned to the old farmer and aside remarked in a low tone, "This man has more money than brains. Let us try him a hand." Old farmer said no, he would not take advantage of any man in that way, and declined to have anything to do with the cards, though the corner of one had been turned down a little to enable him to distinguish the lucky 'puzzle card.' Beginning to small 'a rat' old farmer brought the interview to a sudden ending by denouncing the scheme and giving the men to understand that he wanted nothing further to do with them. The bank agent tried to smooth the matter over, but finding the old farmer too wide-awake for them bade him adieu and each drove off in different directions. When walking over the farm he had told old farmer that Dr. Sweetapple, of Oshawa, was coming out with him, but could not get away that day. Dr. Sweetapple has since been interviewed and disclaims any knowledge of the men. This is another lesson to farmers to have nothing to do with entire strangers."

WAIT FOR THE OPENING.

The opening of the great sale of the Henry Sheppard Bankrupt Stock bought by Gough Bros. at 60c. on the dollar will not take place as advertised on Wednesday, Oct. 31st, but positively on Saturday, Nov. 3rd, when the doors will fly open to the spontaneous rush of waiting thousands. Bring on your money and clothe yourself, for so little that you'll be almost ashamed to take the goods at the prices. Don't forget the opening. 2d102

Bits of Washington's Possessions.

Robert E. Lee, president of Washington and Lee University, at Lexington, Virginia, and son of the Confederate General, when he gives a particularly important dinner party, spreads his table with a linen cloth, in the corner of which are worked the initials "G. W.," and they stand for the true and only "G.W.," having formerly belonged to George Washington, from whose august possession they have descended to their present owner, who is a direct descendant from Martha Washington. The Lees own other bits of Washington's possessions in the way of silver and china, but nothing brings that venerated family nearer to our own time than this well darned table linen.—Harper's Bazar.

The Full Moon's Light.

Some fellow of a mathematical turn of mind has been to the trouble to calculate that the light of the full moon is equal to that of 134,000,000,000,000,000 candles, and that within one or two of that number of candles could be set up on end on one-half the surface of the moon. This information will enable any one to figure up how much every full moon is worth to us, putting candles at, say, fifteen cents a dozen.—Chicago Herald.

CHEESE BOARD.

No Sales Made—October Cheese Said not to be the Best.

Twenty factories board 2,645 boxes at the Cheese Board to-day. These were all Oct. make. The buyers present were Messrs. Wrighton, Cook, Bird, Bower and Fitzgerald. There were no sales made, the highest bid was 9¼c. offered by Mr. Cook. The bidding was slow, only four being boarded. Mr. Cook advised the factories to accept the offer of 9¾c., for they might do worse if they waited. He had been told by Inspector Whitton that October cheese in the Belleville section had been mucky and he would rather have August cheese, as the October make was not liable to carry over as the weather had been cold and the milk too sweet. Mr. Bower said he had bought cheese near Belleville since the Board meeting for less than was offered then. The cheese boarded was as follows:—

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger airl passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. THE SACKVILLE INCIDENT

CLEVELAND AND BAYARD HOLD SEVERAL CONFERENCES.

A Cablegram Sent to Minister Phelps and One Received From Him, But the Contents Not Divulged.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Secretary Bayard, who had just returned to the city from his home in Delaware, had several conferences with the President yesterday concerning Lord Sackville's letter and other matters relating to affairs of state. Another message was sent to Minister Phelps yesterday and it is believed a cablegram was received from him at the Department of State during the afternoon, but nothing can be learned as to the contents of either.

Sir Charles Tupper's Name Mentioned.

OTTAWA, Oct. 30.—The Journal gives currency to a rumor, without stating its authority, that Sir Charles Tupper will likely succeed Lord Sackville-West as British Minister at Washington.

English Press Opinions.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The Pall Mall Gazette, commenting on the Sackville incident, expresses the opinion that the excitement caused by the letter in America is largely simulated for political effect. It regrets that Americans are not superior to such outbursts of feeling. Except for the chance of catching the Irish vote by abusing England, it thinks that no one in America would care two straws what Lord Sackville wrote, said or thought.

The Globe holds that the most satisfactory denouement of the incident would be to send instructions to Lord Sackville to keep his opinions to himself while at Washington. American election tactics in its opinion are outside the notice of any foreign power.

The St. James Gazette maintains that Lord Sackville cannot remain at Washington. It says he should have known better than to walk into a net spread before his eyes.

WASHINGTON AND MONTANA.

Annual Reports of the Governors of the Territories.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Governor Semple of Washington Territory, in his annual report, estimates the population of the territory at 167,982, an increase of 24,000 during the year. The taxable property of the territory is $84,621,182, a gain of $65 000,000 in the last ten years and a large increase over last year. The Governor urges the admission of the territory into the Union.

Governor Leslie of Montana, in his annual report, estimates the population of the territory at 140,000, an increase of 10,000 over last year. The territory is entirely free from debt and has plenty of money in the treasury. The commercial operations of the territory during the year aggregated $49,000,000. The product of the mines, the income from the sale of wool, sheep, cattle and horses, with the receipts from the sale of surplus agricultural products amount to $47,000,000. The total assessed value of taxable property is stated at $39,600,000.

RED-NOSED MIKE.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 30.—Michael Rozzoli, known as "Red-Nosed Mike," the Italian whom many suspected of the murder of Paymaster McClure and Flannigan, his body guard, was arrested yesterday for the second time. Two constables from Luzerne Borough have spent five days in the woods and among the Italian camps disguised as hunters and they claim to possess positive knowledge that Mike and three associates committed the murder. They followed the traces of one of Mike's accomplices nearly fifty miles through the woods. Yesterday they hastened back and had Mike before Justice Moore, who held the prisoner in $2000 bail. The action of the local officers greatly irritated the Pinkerton men, who were following up a supposed clew, and they immediately procured bail for Rozzoli and he was set free, though the excitement occasioned by the arrest is intense.

Confidence Men Fleece a Farmer.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 30.—Aaron B. Allen, a well-to-do farmer of the town of Lorraine, this county, has been swindled out of $800 by three-card monte men. The leader, claiming to be a Monroe county banker, decided to purchase Allen's farm and just as he was starting for home to get the necessary money a social stranger drove up and after the usual preliminaries the banker bet on the stranger's game and won at first, but afterwards lost $800. He asked the farmer to loan him the money promising $20 shave. Allen had only $200 with him, but they drove to Adams where he borrowed the rest on his note and the banker paid it over to the stranger who drove away. The banker took the farmer part way home, but suddenly remembered that he had to catch a train, and giving Allen his note for $820 he left him and drove to Mannsville where he joined his partner, the stranger, and the two disappeared.

SMALLPOX AT BUFFALO.

Another Case Reported Yesterday—The Record to Date.

BUFFALO, Oct. 30.—Another case of smallpox was reported yesterday afternoon, a 6-year-old girl named Childs living on Bristol street being the sufferer. Scattering cases are reported now and again but the epidemic is considered to be over. All told there have been 93 cases and 23 deaths. Our houses are under quarantine and 70,000 people were vaccinated by the free bureaus.

East Northumberland Liberal Convention.

WARKWORTH, Oct. 30.—Dr. Mallory, ex-M.P., was the unanimous choice of the Reform party convened here yesterday, for the purpose of choosing a candidate to contest the constituency in the coming election for the Commons.

TRADE AND TRAFFIC.

Leading Features of the Grain and Produce Markets at Home and Abroad.

TORONTO, Oct. 30.—St. Lawrence Market yesterday was flat. The supply was fair but the demand was poor. There was no change in prices.

The receipts of hay and straw were small, the demand was good and prices were firm. Hay sold at $23 to $24.50 and straw at $15 to $15.50.

On the grain market 200 bushels of wheat sold at $1 22 to $1.23½ for fall and 98c for goose; 400 bushels of oats sold at 42c to 43c, and 7000 bushels of barley at 67c to 75½c.

On the Call Board $1.23 was bid for No. 2 spring, but $1.25 was asked, to arrive on track, and none was sold. One car of No. 2 red was sold at $1.23 on track.

OSWEGO BARLEY MARKET.

Oswego reports barley dull. Sales, 20,000 No. 1 Canada at 87½ and 88, and 9000 of Canada by sample at 90.

BEERBOHM'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports: Floating cargoes—Wheat, turn dearer; corn, firm. Cargoes on passage—Wheat, turn dearer; corn, steady. Mark Lane—Wheat, turn dearer; corn, steady; flour, turn dearer. French country markets—Quiet. English farmers' deliveries during the past week—Wheat, 75,193 qrs.; average price, 32s 2d, was 32s 1d. Liverpool—Spot wheat, firmer; corn, turn dearer.

LIVERPOOL MARKET.

Liverpool reports: Wheat firm; demand poor; holders offer sparingly. Corn steady, fair demand. Spring wheat, 8s 2½d; red winter, 8s 2½d; No. 1 Cal. 8s 4d and 8s 5d. Corn, 4s 8½d. Peas, 6s 3½d. Pork, 78s 9d. Lard, 43s. Bacon, short cleared, 47s; long cleared, 45s 6d. Tallow, 29s. Cheese, 51s.

CHEESE MARKETS.

The offerings of cheese at Buffalo yesterday were 5000 boxes, sellers and buyers apart, former wasted ½c. more than buyers would concede; 11¼c. was bid with no takers, 11½c. asked, but sellers would have taken 11¾c.; stock holds over.

At Utica the market was dull and spiritless. Prices declined ½c. September stock has been about all marketed. The total sales were 4402 boxes, ruling price 9¾c. Transaction one year ago 10,996 boxes, ruling price 10½c.

The trading at Little Falls was rather slow and prices were off ½c from those paid last week. The choice colored stock was in best demand and secured ½c more than white of similar quality. Transactions are as follows: 76 lots at 10c; 11 lots at 10½c; 9 lots commission, total 6776 boxes. Farm dairy—Sales of cheese amounted to 730 boxes at prices from 10c. to 11c., with the bulk of the sales at 10½c. Butter—Sixty-four packages of dairy sold at 23c. to 24c., with the bulk at 23c.

Denied by the Vatican.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The Chronicle's correspondent at Rome says that the Vatican authorities emphatically deny the truth of the reported interview between the Pope and a Daily Telegraph correspondent. The Vatican has sent a special note to the European courts with regard to Emperor William's visit but it does not refer to the Roman question.

Ell's Alibi.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The report that Ell Perkins, the lecturer, got into difficulty with a railroad restaurant keeper at Winchester, Ky., last Saturday proves unfounded. The lecturer was in New York city at the time.

Montreal's New Fire Chief.

MONTREAL, Oct. 30.—At a meeting of the City Council yesterday afternoon P. Benoit of St. Henri was appointed chief of the Montreal fire brigade, in the place of Chief Patton, dismissed.

In Brief and to the Point.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

WHERE Should I Buy PROPERTY?

This is the question that confron the citizen who is thinking of getting himself a home,—Where to buy.

Common sense will tell that citizen that the best lot he can get is none too good for him, and why?

Because well located property is always worth its price. Because it is conducive to health and happiness to live in the midst of good surroundings; because if you want to sell you can always find a buyer: because such property is becoming scarce and is therefore rapidly increasing in value. I am prepared to offer a special bargain of a few such Lots, one exceedingly good Lot on Dublin-st. 54x196 feet, high and dry, south front east of and adjoining Mr. Bogue's fine new residence This is a Bargain. A beautiful Lot on Water-st. opposite St. Paul's Church. This Lot should suit any person wanting a beautiful and central location. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period.	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 84,811 21	$169,482 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,586 67	185,188 29	1,167,486 14
1884 to 1887, three years	217,651 33	475,007 24	4,029,373 85

It is worthy of note that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceeding four years.

Yarns and Hosiery

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies; at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way: We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam: You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what inducements may be offered we never allow our selves to be undersold.

HANNAH BOYD AT HOME.

She Tells a Reporter About Her Sojourn in Berlin Jail.

HAMILTON, Oct. 31.—Hannah Boyd of this city, who was arrested a week ago last Saturday in connection with the Galt poisoning case and was liberated Monday afternoon, arrived at the home of her father, No. 2 Elgin-street, Monday night. She was seen yesterday by a reporter, to whom she gave a very intelligent account of all that took place from the time of her arrest until she was liberated. Miss Boyd is a fine looking young woman, and takes a sensible view of the affair. Now that it is all over as far as she is concerned, she says she does not care so much, because she is satisfied that all who knew her at all, and the public generally, are convinced that she was not concerned in the remotest way with the terrible crime. She was in Thorold, she said, at the time of the poisoning, and did not know what was going on, as she had not had a chance to read the papers. She was so much surprised when arrested that she did not know what to do at all, and when Detective Murray refused to allow her to consult a lawyer she considered herself very harshly used.

Detective Murray told her that she did not need a lawyer, as the right thing for her to do was to tell all she knew about the poisoning. She told him at once that she knew nothing and has told him the same thing every time he has asked her about it. She not only knew nothing of the poisonir g case, but could not think of any circumstances or occurrence which she could in her own mind connect with it. The Tuesday morning after her arrest her brother and brother-in-law arrived from Hamilton, but she was not allowed to talk with them. They had engaged a lawyer, but he was not allowed to see her either. Detective Murray took her into the parlor of the jail in Berlin, and in the presence of Magistrate Spiers of Galt she told him that she knew nothing about the affair and therefore could tell him nothing.

Her relatives were in the next room but she was not allowed to talk with them. Magistrate Spiers then told her that the officers wished her remanded for a week, so he remanded her. During the week she was used well in the jail, and was not treated as a prisoner. She was allowed all the books she wished to read but no newspapers. She knew she was innocent, and therefore did not worry much on her own account, but the thoughts of her aged parents in this city and the mental anguish they would be undergoing troubled her greatly. Monday morning, she said, she was again taken before Magistrate Spiers and informed that she could go, but that if she wanted as a witness she would have to attend. She again said that she could give them no information and took her departure.

During all the time she was in custody she was not charged with any crime. She was not indicted or arraigned; nor was she asked to plead or to elect upon any charge. She was simply kept in jail because a detective thought he might possibly get some information out of her upon which to work. She tried to induce Murray to state why he had arrested her and how he connected her with the crime, but could find out nothing. Murray, while supposed to be acting for the Crown, offered her advice, too, and told her that she would not need a lawyer. From this she believes that Murray himself knew at the outset that she was innocent, but wanted to use her as a tool.

No Further Intercourse With Great Britain Will be Held Through the Present Minister at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—By direction of the President, the Secretary of State to-day informed Lord Sackville-West that for causes heretofore made known to Her Majesty's Government, his continuance in his present official position in the United States is no longer acceptable to this Government, and would consequently be detrimental to the relations between the two countries. The grounds of this action on the part of the United States are stated in a report of the Secretary of State to the President, dated Oct. 29, which is as follows:

"DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
"WASHINGTON, Oct. 29, 1888.

"To the President:

"The undersigned has the honor to submit to your consideration the following statement with a view to receive your direction thereon: On Sept. 4 last, a letter purporting to be written by one Charles F. Murchison, dated at Pomona, Cal., was sent from that place to the British Minister at this capital, in which the writer solicited an expression of his views in regard to certain unsettled diplomatic questions between the United States and Great Britain, stating at the same time that such an expression was sought by him for the purpose of determining his vote at the approaching Presidential election. He stated that he was a naturalized citizen of the United States, of English birth, but that he had still considered England the Mother Country, and this fact led him to seek advice from the British representative in this country. He further stated that the information he sought was not for himself alone but to enable him to give certain assurances to many other persons in the same situation as himself, for the purpose of influencing and determining their political action as citizens of the United States, of English birth, but who still regarded their original obligations of allegiance as paramount. The letter also contained gross reflections upon the conduct of this Government in respect to questions now in controversy and unsettled, between the United States and Great Britain, and both directly and indirectly imputed insincerity in such conduct.

"To this letter the British Minister at once replied from Beverly, Mass., under date of Sept. 13, last: In his reply he stated that 'any political party which openly favors the Mother Country at the present moment would lose popularity, and that the party in power is fully aware of that fact,' and that in respect to the 'questions with Canada which have been unfortunately re-opened since the rejection of the [fisheries] treaty by the Republican majority in the Senate, and by the President's message to which you allude, all allowances must therefore be made for the political situation as regards the presidential election.'

"The minister thus gave his assent and sanction to the aspersions and imputations above referred to. Thus, under his correspondent's assurance of secrecy, in which the minister concurred by marking his answer 'private,' he undertook to advise a citizen of the United States how to exercise the franchise of suffrage in an election close at hand for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency of the United States, and through him, as the letter suggests, to influence the votes of many others.

"Upon this correspondence being made public, the minister received the representatives of the public press, and in frequent interviews with them, intended for publication, added to the impugnments which he had already made of the good faith of this Government in its public action and international dealings. Although ample time and opportunity have been afforded him for the disavowal, modification or correction of his statements, to some of which his attention was called personally by the undersigned, yet no such disavowal or modification has been made by him through the channels in which his statements first found publicity.

"The question is thus presented, whether it is compatible with the dignity, security and independent sovereignty of the United States to permit the representative of a foreign Government in this country, not only to receive and answer without disapproval, and confirm by his repetition aspersions upon its political action, but also to interfere in its domestic affairs, by advising persons formerly his countrymen as to their political course as citizens of the United States.

"As between this country and Great Britain there can be no controversy as to the complete severance of ties of original allegiance by naturalization. Disputes on this point were finally put at rest by the treaty of naturalization concluded by the two countries on May 13, 1870. Therefore it will not be contended, nor was such contention ever admitted by us, that citizens of the United States of British origin are subject to any claim of the country of their original allegiance.

"The undersigned also has the honor to call attention to the provisions of Section 5335 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, by which severe penalties are visited upon the citizen of the United States who, without the authority or permission of this Government, 'commences or carries on any verbal or written correspondence or intercourse with any foreign government, or any officer or agent thereof,' either with an 'intent to influence the action of such Government or its agents in relation to any disputes or controversies with the United States,' or with an intent 'to defeat the measures of the Government of the United States.' These penalties are made equally applicable to every citizen of the United States, not duly authorized, who 'counsels, advises, or assists in any such correspondence,' with similar unlawful intent.

"The undersigned respectfully advises that the attention of the Attorney-General of the United States be directed to these enactments, in order that an investigation may be made with a view to ascertain whether they have not been violated in the present case by the correspondent of the British Minister.

"By your direction the attention of the British Government has in a spirit of comity been called to the conduct of its minister as above described, but without result. It therefore becomes necessary for this Government to consider whether, as the guardian of its own self-respect and of the integrity of its institutions, it will permit further intercourse to be held through the present British Minister at this capitol.

"It is to be observed that precedents are not wanting as to the question under consideration. It is a settled rule, essential to the maintenance of international intercourse, that a diplomatic representative must be personæ grata to the Government to which he is accredited. If by his conduct he renders himself personæ non grata, an announcement of the fact may be made to his Government. In the present case all the requirements of comity have been fulfilled, the facts having been duly communicated to Her Majesty's Government with an expression of the opinion of this Government in regard thereto.

"Respectfully submitted,

"T. F. BAYARD."

REVISED BY THE PRESIDENT.

Bayard's Statement Submitted to Cleveland, Who Makes a Few Verbal Changes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The Cabinet meeting yesterday lasted about two hours and was attended by Secretaries Bayard and Endicott and Attorney-General Garland. Assistant Secretary Thompson of the Treasury, and Commodore Harmony, Acting Secretary of the Navy, were present during a portion of the session, discussing measures for the relief of the whalers icebound in the Arctic Ocean. The regular session, however, was devoted mainly to a consideration of the case of the British Minister, and the result is shown in the statement furnished to the press by the Secretary of State last evening. After Secretary Bayard had prepared this statement he walked over to the White House and submitted it to the President for his approval. The President perused it carefully and suggested a few verbal changes in the introduction, and when these had been made the members of the press were furnished with copies of it.

At the British Legation last evening access was denied to all newspaper men, and they were informed that Lord Sackville had nothing to say. An Associated Press reporter managed however to have a copy of the report of Secretary Bayard to the President sent to the Minister. After about half an hour Lord Sackville in person returned the copy to the waiting reporter and cordially expressed his thanks for having had an opportunity to read the report, which he said he had never seen before. He declined to express any opinion in regard to it, saying "I have nothing to say."

"Then you will say nothing about it to-night?"

"Nothing, nothing," answered Lord Sackville. "I am absolutely at quiet."

Lord Sackville's face as he said this wore a pleasant smile and he did not seem in the least disturbed at the turn affairs had taken.

Secretary Bayard when seen last night said that there was nothing that he could say in addition to what was stated in his report to the President. The Government's action, he said, constituted a complete severance of our relations with Minister West. The Secretary did not care to enter into any speculation as to what Great Britain would do in the matter, or as to when a new minister would be sent here, but Lord Sackville, he said, would no longer be recognized in any event.

Secretary Bayard declined absolutely to give out anything in regard to the spirit in which the communications of the United States were received by the British Government. The matter, he said, was the subject of letters or messages between two parties, and neither, he said, had the right to give out the contents of these communications without the consent of the other. What had taken place between the President and himself he had given to the press, but the other correspondence he did not feel at liberty to make public.

A Recall Had Not Been Demanded

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—A Post reporter last night put the following question to Secretary Bayard: "Have you ever at any time formally requested or demanded of the British Government the recall of Lord Sackville?"

The Secretary replied: "No, no, positively no! All statements to that effect are absolutely and unqualifiedly untrue. We forwarded to the British Government, through our representative at the Court of St. James, all the facts in the case. The President waited what he considered a sufficient length of time before he resolved upon a definite action and finding that the British Government were apparently doing nothing in the matter he decided in view of the emergency to do what has been done to-day."

$1000 on Murchison's Head.

POMONA, Cal., Oct. 31.—The National Democratic Committee has telegraphed Postmaster Stein and J. A. Clark of this place to offer in the name of the committee, a reward of $100 for the name of the author of the Murchison letter, and to spend another $1000 in detectives and means to apprehend the author.

Several politicians here, who say they know who the man signing himself as Murchison is, say he lives here, walks the streets every day and that neither Patrick Egan nor any non-resident whatsoever had anything to do with the matter. They claim that the letter was conceived in Pomona, written in Toronto and by a resident of four years in the place.

THE ICE-BOUND WHALERS.

A United States Cruiser to be Sent to their Relief.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Acting Secretary Thompson yesterday received a long telegram from San Francisco, signed by Senator Hearst and others, informing him of the perilous situation of the crews of about a dozen whalers supposed to have been wrecked near Herald Island in the Arctic Ocean, and asking that a revenue steamer be sent at once to their assistance. There are said to be nearly 500 men in the party and they are in no condition to withstand the rigors of an Arctic winter. The revenue steamer Bear is desired for the purpose of sending them provisions and clothing without which it is said they will perish of hunger and cold.

Acting Secretary Thompson visited the White House during the day and laid the matter before the President, saying there is no vessel now in the revenue service in a fit condition for a winter cruise to the Arctic. The steamer Bear now at San Francisco, which was suggested for the expedition, would require extensive repairs and Mr. Thompson added that there is no appropriation which can be utilized for this expense. The President said the case was a serious one and required prompt action. He then sent for Commodore Harmony, Acting Secretary of the Navy and instructed him to take immediate steps for the relief of the whalers. Commodore Harmony promised to do so and said he would endeavor to communicate with Commander Emery, commanding the U. S. S. Thetis, now cruising in the Arctic, and which is expected to arrive at San Francisco in a short time. The present plan is to fit this vessel out for a relief expedition as soon as she arrives at San Francisco and to expedite her arrival there with that end in view.

The Trouble in Hayti.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The situation of affairs in Hayti according to reports received at the Department of State has assumed so serious a phase that it has been decided to send a naval vessel to that country for the protection of American interests. It was at first decided to send the United States steamer Boston, now cruising in the West Indies, to Port au Prince but this plan was abandened owing to the difficulty of communicating with that vessel. It was finally decided to send the Kearsarge. She will be ready to go in a few days.

ATHENS, Oct. 31.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the assumption of the throne by King George I., was celebrated yesterday by a grand banquet at the palace at which the officers of the British, Russian and Danish vessels in the harbor were present.

On Trial for Their Lives.

PICTON, Oct. 31.—The grand jury yesterday brought in a bill for wilful murder against Peter and Wellington Loveless for the shooting of one Church at Smoke Point in this county. The trial of the prisoners is going on and will probably occupy a large part of to-day. The Crown is represented by Mr. Clute of Belleville, and B. B. Osler of Toronto is defending the prisoners.

Kemp No Longer Champion.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—A despatch from Australia announces that Searle has defeated Kemp in a match for the sculling championship for £500 a side on the Paramatta river.

WAR BREAKS OUT AFRESH

A SPUR BUILT UP TO THE C. P. R. TRACK AT FORT ROUGE.

The Company Gathers a Force of Men to Prevent a Crossing—Attempt to Burn the C. P. R. Bridge at Headingly.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31.—It looks as if the railway war had broken out afresh. The Government built a spur up to the Canadian Pacific Railway track near the point of intersection at Fort Rouge yesterday morning, and the Canadian Pacific gathered a force of men to prevent the rails being laid across their track. A quantity of material was carried over, and it is said if the Government cannot secure a crossing at this point it will, notwithstanding the inconvenience, transfer enough material to complete the track to Headingly.

An attempt was made yesterday morning to burn the Canadian Pacific Railway bridge at Headingly, it being saturated with coal oil. The bridge was only slightly damaged, but sufficiently to delay the Southwestern train. There is no clue to the perpetrators.

As stated yesterday, the Legislature will be called together on Nov. 8, when it is expected that a policy of retaliation will be adopted, all tax exemptions being abolished, and the heaviest tax the law permits will be imposed on the company's property in the province.

All was quiet at Fort Rouge last night.

Prepared for Submission.

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—It is understood that Mr. Clark, solicitor of the Canadian Pacific Railway, has prepared the case for submission to the Supreme Court re the crossing of the Canadian Pacific Railway by the Manitoba Government railway and forwarded it some days ago to Attorney-General Martin. The Railway Committee of the Privy Council meets on Friday, and if Attorney-General Martin agrees to the case it will be laid before the Supreme Court for opinion. As the matter is important and urgent the court may take it up immediately on reassembling on Tuesday.

THE LEAGUE'S BANK BOOK.

Justice Hannen Says the Order for Their Production Will be Enforced.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—When the Parnell Commission re-assembled to-day, Attorney-General Webster asked the court to enforce its order giving The Times' counsel permission to inspect the books of the League in the keeping of the Hibernian National and Munster Banks.

Sir Walter Phillimore, counsel for the Hibernian Bank, contended that the commission had no power to compel the production of the books.

Presiding Justice Hannen said he would not discuss the question. If the banks, under color of protecting the privacy of their clients, obstructed the orders of the court, the court would be constrained to put its powers into force.

Sir Charles Russell, counsel for the Parnellites, intimated that his clients had not the slightest objection to the production of the books.

The court then heard formal evidence proving the correctness of the shorthand notes of the speeches from which the Attorney-General quoted in his presentation of The Times case last week.

Sir Charles Russell raised a question regarding the order in which evidence shall be submitted. He said if The Times' counsel conducted their case in a higgledy-piggledy way like Attorney-General Webster's opening address, they would never get to the bottom of it.

Justice Hannen said he hoped the evidence would be brought in in orderly sequence, and the Attorney-General promised to consult the convenience of parties implicated, and that as far as possible he would oppose them of the order in which his side would submit their evidence.

THE GREAT GRVND TRUNK.

The Annual Meeting at London—Sir Henry Tyler Talks.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—At the Grand Trunk meeting to-day Sir Henry Tyler spoke for an hour and twenty minutes. He reported favorably upon his personal inspection of the system. The past half year was disappointing owing to a paucity of business, low rates and undue competition in through traffic west-bound, yet the company during the next twelve months hope to show just an opposite state of things. He was thoroughly satisfied with the prospects of the Northern and North-western system. The Chicago and Grand Trunk traffic was very much improving. It was intended to further concentrate the work, having repairing stations only where absolutely necessary. Sir Henry described the Canadian Pacific as the Grand Trunk's aggressive competitor, and said the time had arrived when they should seriously consider the position of the two companies, so that should the Canadian Pacific prove a permanent powerful rival the Grand Trunk would be equal to the task.

A Despairing Effort.

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—The alleged threat of retaliation made by President Cleveland has caused considerable comment here. The two Cabinet Ministers who are in town decline to speak on the subject during the absence of their colleagues. Many politicians think there is a possibility of the threat being put into execution. Under these circumstances such action would be entirely unwarranted and must be regarded as a despairing effort to offset the Sackville incident.

A G. T. R. Brakeman Killed.

STRATFORD, Oct. 31.—A G. T. R. brakeman named Andrew McKeough, aged 19, was injured in the yard here Monday night. He was engaged in shunting, and while hanging on to the rear end of the van came in collision with another car standing on the track, smashing his legs and otherwise injuring him internally. Medical attendance was immediately summoned, but he died at an early hour yesterday morning.

Manitoba Wheat in Demand.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Mr. Dyke, Government agent at Liverpool, reports a great demand on the Corn Exchange to-day for a few samples of Manitoba wheat. Nine shillings and threepence to nine shillings and sixpence per cental were quoted for the best Californian, and only eight and five for the best Russian.

Too Fat for the Cells.

MONTREAL, Oct. 31.—A fat woman named Julien Mason, weighing 300 lbs., who has been exhibited here for some time, was brought before the recorder yesterday for refusing to pay her carter. The recorder fined her $4 when she gave him a piece of her mind and refused to pay it. She then created a stampede of officials, but was again finally brought before His Honor and fined another $5, which she also refused to pay. Upon being taken to the cells it was found that they were not large enough to receive her. The fine was finally paid by the party who has been exhibiting her.

Mr. Pope Banqueted.

SHERBROOKE, Oct. 31.—The banquet to Hon. Mr. Pope, which took place last evening, was attended by nearly all the members of the Cabinet. The speeches of the occasion were strongly condemnatory of the Commercial Union and Annexation movements. No reference whatever was made to the Sackville difficulty, nor could Sir John be drawn out to express an opinion on the case.

TRADE WITH THE UNITED STATES.

AFTER letting the subject rest for some time the Liberal paper in Port Hope returns to the statistics regarding Ontario's trade with the United States. It says:—

"Some few weeks ago we showed from the blue books that the Province of Ontario exported $26,000,000 worth of products of different kinds, and of the above amount the United States absorbed twenty millions; that is over 80 per cent. of our exports goes to our neighbors, and only five millions to Great Britain. Notwithstanding this very pertinent fact, the restrictionists impertinently call us disloyal because we do not with them, labor or disguise the truth."

The trouble with the Guide is that it does labor to disguise the truth and that when the truth is pointed out it shuts its eyes to the facts. The value of the produce of Ontario exported to Great Britain is greater, we believe, than the value of the produce sent from this Province to the United States. The greater part of the exports to Great Britain go by the Quebec ports and are entered as being exported from those ports. The Guide knows this, but it ignores it, it suppresses the facts and labors to mislead and to disguise the truth. The exports from the Dominion to Great Britain exceeded in value the exports to the United States by over $6,400,000, and the value of exports of animals and agricultural produce to Great Britain was greater by over $10,000,000 than that of similar exports to the United States. If our trade with Great Britain was interferred with the loss to the country would be great and the farmers would be the greatest losers.

The Guide, after quoting the figures, ask:—

"If our trade with the United States is so large and important, hampered as it is with the unwise policy and restricted legislation now in vogue, what would it be if all the "Barriers were burned way" and free trade between the two countries proclaimed?"

The trade with the United States is not Canada's most important commercial interest. The aggregate exports and imports for consumption in 1887 amounted to $195,155,239, and of this trade $82,000,000 was with the United States, less by nearly $7,000,000 than the trade with Great Britain and less by $113,000,000 than the aggregate. To secure greater facilities for the $82,000,000 worth of trade the Liberals ask the people of the Dominion to discriminate against the countries that do the $113,000,000 worth of trade with them. Besides, were unrestricted reciprocity adopted the home market would be injured by the United States factories supplying us with goods now made at home, and thus a vital interest of Canada would be injured.

But the Guide asks, if free trade with the United States were adopted, would Canada not do a greater trade with it? We believe it would, under unrestricted reciprocity, for then imports from all other countries, including Great Britain, would be charged a far higher rate of duty than now, while goods from the United States would come in free. That is what the manufacturing combines and rings in the United States want. They would then be able to control this market—to get us to close out other countries by a higher tariff and to give them our markets by adopting free trade with them. To give them this great advantage Canada would have to yield a part of its governing power, in regard to the tariff and customs laws, would endanger its greater trade with Great Britain, would injure its own industries and the home market for agricultural produce, and would weaken its position as a self-governing country.

YOUNG'S POINT.

Correspondence of the Review.

MEETING AND SUPPER:—A very largely attended meeting was held at Young's Point on Tuesday, the 23rd, to hear Mr. Stratton explain the work of the past session of the Legislature. The chair was occupied by Reeve Sanderson. At the conclusion of his speech Mr. Stratton was invited to a banquet tendered him by his North Smith friends. An adjournment was made to the Lakeview House where a splendid supper was laid in Mrs. Kearney's customary good style. The dining room was very tastefully decorated and the tables groaned with their weight. Mr. C. Young was called to the chair. After supper the usual toasts were drank and responded to. A very enjoyable evening was spent and the proceedings broke up about 1 o'clock. The following are the toasts and those who replied:—"Her Majesty the Queen," Company, "God save the Queen"; "Our Dominion and Provincial Parliaments," Mr. J. R. Stratton; "Our Municipal Institutions," Messrs. Sanderson, Middleton and McIlmoyle; "The Learned Professions," Messrs. Hall, Sutherd and Geo. McIlmoyle; "The Manufacturing Interests," Messrs. D. McLean, W. Hickey and C. Young; "The Farming Interests," Messrs. Angiely, Ayotte, Bullock and others; "Our Guests," visitors; "The Ladies," Mr. Tierney and others; "Our Host and Hostess," Mr. J. E. Kearney.

ELSIE—"Did you used to clean your teeth with it?"

GRANDMA—"Yes, dear, I tried to, but it hurt my gums, scratched my teeth, and did little else. How delighted I was when I first used the Ideal Felt Tooth Polisher that everbody uses now, and which has done so much to preserve the teeth."

ELSIE—"Isn't it nice? But Grandma, when was it introduced?"

GRANDMA—"About 1886; by the same Horsey M'f'g Co., of Utica, N. Y., who now make the handsome Holder and box of 18 Felt Polishers." dd99

THE KAMLOOPS DISTRICT.

GREAT ACTIVITY AMONG PROSPECTORS AND MINERS.

Valuable Deposits of Gold, Silver and Platinum—The Prince Edward Islanders May be Happy Yet.

OTTAWA, Oct 31.—Professor Dawson of the Geological Survey has returned from his summer work in the Kamloops district, where he surveyed the region from a point about fifty miles north of Kamloops to Granite Creek. He reports great activity throughout the district in prospecting and locating lands and his general impression was that many of these locations were of great value. The completion of the railway had given a great impetus to mining and near the line of the road, where the indications are that deposits of gold and silver are very rich, some placer mining is being done. In this section platinum is everywhere found with gold.

W. G. Lamphy, one of the engineers of the Marine Department, left for Glasgow yesterday to bring over the new Government steamer Stanley which is intended to take the place of the Northern Light in the winter season between Prince Edward Island and the mainland.

The Department of Justice yesterday issued a warrant for the extradition of Greenfield who is wanted at Peterboro on a charge of burglary and attempt to murder a policeman and who is now in jail at Buffalo.

The time for receiving tenders for two locks and enlarging the entrance of the Galops Canal by the Department of Railways and Canals expired yesterday. A large number of contractors are here in connection with the work. It will probably be some days before the contract is awarded.

It is not expected in the Postoffice Department that any reply will be received from the Japanese Government for two or three months with reference to the proposal made about a month ago for an exchange of money orders between Canada and Japan.

The Supreme Court has adjourned until Tuesday when the full list, on which sixty-six cases are inscribed, will be taken up. It is expected that Mr. Justice Patterson will take his seat on Tuesday.

Mr. Page, Chief Engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals, returned from Cornwall last night. It is thought at the Department that the break in the canal will be repaired by Saturday. Continued wet weather has caused great delay in effecting the repairs.

The case of the Queen v. Ayer, although inscribed for hearing at the coming term of the Supreme Court, has been dropped by the Government, and will consequently not be heard.

Word has been received here that the Northwest Land Company has refused to pay municipal as well as educational taxes at Calgary. The company, on appeal, lost their suit as regards school taxes, but have won the suit to compel them to pay municipal taxes. The case will be appealed to Ottawa.

All the disaffected military corps have wheeled into line again, and will turn out on Thursday for the ceremony of the unveiling of the Guards' sharp-shooters' monument.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The Board of Works Investigation—A Rise in the Price of Milk and Coal.

TORONTO, Oct. 31.—The Board of Works investigation advanced another stage yesterday, when Judge McDougall entered upon the duties of the enquiry. The principal witness examined was James Hardy, a former book-keeper of Contractor A. W. Godson, who testified as to alleged crookedness in the construction of the Dundas-street sewer, when 260,000 feet of lumber were charged and only 150,000 feet used.

The price of milk was raised from 6 to 7 cents a quart yesterday, and the coal section of the Board of Trade decided to advance that commodity 25 cents a ton.

Yesterday was the last day for the reception of tenders for the purchase of the 8 acres of land at the west end of the Insane Asylum grounds and 7½ acres at the east end, through which six streets are to be opened from Queen to King-streets. Hon. A. M. Ross, Provincial Treasurer, said yesterday that the tenders had not been considered at the meeting of the Council, which took place in the afternoon.

Rev. Father Shea died suddenly yesterday at Dixie, to which parish he was assigned only a few weeks ago.

Louis H. Slonaker, the cashier of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway at Sioux City, Iowa, who left that city on Oct. 13 with $9000 of the company's money, and who was arrested in a Portland-street boarding-house Monday night, was arraigned before Judge McDougall yesterday afternoon on extradition proceedings. County Crown Attorney Badgerow asked for a remand for a week to get witnesses here from Sioux City, which was granted. It is said Slonaker brought $3000 to Toronto with him, but only $13 was found on his person. He has evidently "planted" the wad out of the reach of the officers. He will be charged with forgery, an extraditable offence.

The genial Scotchmen who comprise the Caledonian Society of Toronto met in the Walker House diningroom last night and celebrated Hallowe'en by a sumptuous dinner, as is their usual custom.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites

is sold all over the world. It is far superior to plain Cod Liver Oil, palatable and easily digested. Dr. Martin Miles Stanton, Bury Bucks, London, England, says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion, and taken it myself. It is palatable, efficient, and can be tolerated by almost anyone, especially where cod liver oil itself cannot be borne." Put up in 50 cent and $1 size.

It is extremely interesting to visit some of the leading manufacturing houses in Toronto. Perhaps the most interesting are surprising of them all are the extensive Ornamental Stained Glass and Decorative works of the McCausland & Son. It is from this establishment that the finest windows have come for the principal edifices, throughout our country.

That is we sell lots of Goods below the first cost of manufacture and still make a living profit. Some people would naturally like to know how we do it. "Here is the Secret." A wholesale man gets hard up, wants money, must have it. He knows Goughs are spot cash buyers. They send for the Wonderful Cheap Men. They arrive on the scene. The wholesale man says, Gough what will you give for 300 cases of these boots; Goughs look them over carefully, find them good desirableselling lines and make a bid of 40c. on the dollar; after hard fighting we get them. They arrive in Peterborough, are sold at 50c. on the dollar, we therefore sell them at half price and make a living profit for ourselves. ADVERTISING

When Newspapers first began to be published in London, an editor took opportunity one day to say that a certain man desired a certain something—no matter what. That was the invention of advertising, though the inventor may not have known what he had found. From that time to this people have made more or less use of the papers to publish their wants, and tradesmen their wares; but we doubt very much whether any real improvement upon the first advertisement has ever been made. It was a frank statement that somebody wanted something and what it was that he wanted. Doubtless he got it. We want something. Want to sell goods. Good goods too. The best of the best in Groceries. The range of stock is a wide one. It has to be wide to suit all customers. That we do suit is positive.

After some discussion as to means of obtaining money for current outlay, it was decided to hold several parlor socials. Further particulars after next meeting. Mrs. Lousley was appointed treasurer pro tem. in Mrs. Ludgate's absence. It was decided to call the roll at all further meetings, also to reorganize the Band of Hope on Friday next, at 4 p. m. Mrs. Payton (the delegate to the W. C. T. U. Convention at Sarnia), gave a most interesting report from which it is hoped practical results may grow. A very hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mrs. Payton for the detailed statement of the work which she brought for the benefit of the members.

Will be Brought here this Week.

The Town Solicitor this morning received word from the Commissioner at Buffalo stating that the prisoner Greenfield would be handed over immediately to any official of the town upon the presentation of the necessary papers signed by the Secretary of State at Washington. These papers Chief Roszel has in his possession, and he will probably go to Buffalo to-morrow morning, and bring Greenfield back with him on Friday.

New Legal Firm.

Messrs. C. W. Sawers and E. B. Stone, two of Peterborough's prominent barristers, have entered into partnership for the practise of their profession and as both gentlemen have had an extensive legal business in the past and are well and favorably known in their profession, both as to their legal and speaking abilities, they will, we are certain, when together as a firm, sustain their reputation and receive a large share of the legal business of the county. We wish the new firm every success.

A Blaze on McDonnel-st.

About a quarter to twelve this morning an alarm of fire called out the brigade to extinguish a blaze at the house occupied by Mr. John Gibbs, 250 McDonnel-st. The fire originated from a defective chimney, and was confined to the roof by the firemen, who after twenty minutes work had the fire extinguished. The damage will amount to $150, a great part of which was caused by the water destroying the ceilings. Mr. Gibbs owned the house and had it insured in the Etna Fire Insurance Company for $500.

Indicted for Murder.

If a merchant sells a pair of shoddy boots to a boy and the boy through the shoddiness of the boots, gets his feet wet, catches cold and dies, can the merchant be legally arrested for murder? The court, after argument decides:—No. The boy knew, or should have known, or his father, if he had a father, which is likely, should have known for him, that Kidd, the boot man, sells J. D. King's make of boots, for which there is no shoddy. Besides, they cost no more, and it would be difficult to prove that the shoddy man really intended to kill the boy. (Signed) SWITCHEM I.

Another Letter.

Letters of thanks from the United States in connection with Farley's case still come to hand The following was received by a prominent citizen:—

"READING, Pa., Oct. 27, 1888.

"The paramount topic of the hour is praise for the Christianly example Canada has set before the world in saving the life of a once honored citizen of the United States. Thousands of mothers in this land have prayed that his life might be spared. And those prayers have been answered. Brave and noble deeds are the imperishable monuments of man. Praise for your local press for its services and influence can be heard on every hand. No retaliation there.

"Very sincerely yours,
"C. J. DAVIS."

A Conviction for Obstructing.

Another case of obstructing the public highway was before the Police Magistrate this morning, Mr. J. W. Crosby being charged by Chief Roszel with leaving two organ boxes standing on the sidewalk in front of his store on Monday night. The defendant stated that the boxes had been emptied and a carter was to call and take them away, but failed to do so. The magistrate, however, fined him $2 as it was proven that there had been a breach of the by-law. The opinion of several of the councillors was expressed yesterday in regard to this by-law, which the magistrate thought was too strict, and the feeling was that the by-law was none too stringent. In this case Magistrate Dumble said he would enforce it to the letter. For the benefit of all merchants the section of the by-law under which these charges are laid is given. It reads as follows:—By-law 395, sec. 12, "No persons shall place any goods, wares or other articles of any kind upon any street or sidewalk, but the provisions of this section shall not be constructed to interfere with the use of a portion of the said street or sidewalk for a seasonable time during the taking in or delivery of merchandise or other goods."

The Jubilee Singers.

The Ottawa Citizen says:—"The entertainment by the Fisk Jubilee Singers in the Dominion Methodist Church last evening drew an immense attendance, so that even standing room in the main body was at a premium. This clever band of singers are so well known in Ottawa that further incomium is unecessary than to say that they fully satisfied the great expectations formed on the occasion. The Dominion Church treasury will net a considerable sum from the enterprise" At the Opera House, Peterborough, Wednesday evening, Oct. 31st. Tickets 50c. and 75c. Strangers will meet with a cordial welcome and spend a pleasant evening. Tickets to soiree 25 cents. 3d100

The Night for Pranks.

To-night is Hallowe'en. The small boy will undoubtedly be around on the warpath for a few pranks, but the old-time doings are not heard of now-a-days, nor is the night so largely associated with its own peculiar games and amusements as it was some years ago. There was a time when a citizen was almost afraid to leave the front yard or lawn outside of the house for fear he might find that it had been carried away during the night by some of the "boys." The destruction of property was sometimes considerable and the sport not desirable to the average man. Now the thing is changed, due greatly to our police force, and harmless are the tricks which the small boy perpetrates to-day. However the police will have an eye to houses to night.

A Lecture on Physical Culture.

The Brook Bank Gymnasium will be open to the public on Thursday evening, Nov. 1st, when Sergt.-Major Rundle will deliver a short lecture on Physical Culture and explain the prospectus of the institution, and as there are several gentlemen who have already obtained their tickets for the ensuing quarter, from Nov. 1st to Jan. 31st. it is desirable that all who have subscribed their names will be present on Thursday evening and obtain their tickets. It would help the Sergt.-Major very much if the classes could be formed on that evening. All ladies who are interested in their physical development and are desirous of taking lessons will please meet in the gymnasium at 4 30 Thursday afternoon, and as there is a class of boys to be formed, from say 10 to 15 years old, the manager would esteem it a favor if parents (that is those who are intending their children to be trained) would kindly cause them to meet at the Gymnasium at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Personal.

Rev. Mr. Pearson, who was attending the missionary committee of the Methodist Conference, at Napanee, returned home last night.

The Rev. Dr. Smith has just returned, the Kingston News says, from the west, where he was making arrangements for the collecting of Queen's Endowment Fund interest, due the first of December. He had a most successful trip.

Mr. T. E. Bell, of Smith, and his youngest son, L. H. Bell, leave for Pittsburgh, Pa., to-morrow morning, the former for a two weeks' pleasure trip and the latter to take a position in the office of his uncle, Mr. J. C. Forgie, who carries on an extensive lumber business.

Mr. Richard Huffman, a young man who was injured some time ago by an accident at Mr. McFadden's factory, is very ill. He is suffering from a severe attack of inflammation of the lungs, and also from a heart disturbance caused by the accident. At noon to-day he was very low.

The Matter of the Cheque.

The little difficulty that arose over the Town Solicitor, Mr. Edwards, forwarding the cheque to the Government at Toronto to meet half the expenses in the Greenfield extradition case, will probably be brought to an end immediately by the town covering the cheque. Mr. Edwards felt that he had not been treated fairly in the matter, as it was said by some that he had no authority for sending the cheque. However, Mr. Davidson and Mayor Stevenson both admit that they authorized the paying of the cheque understanding that the Government would pay expenses incurred here. The former gentleman wanted the solicitor to give an undertaking that the Government would pay all the expenses incurred by the Council, and this was what caused the delay in Mr. Edwards getting his cheque covered immediately. However, it is understood that Mr. Edwards, having acted with the authority of the Mayor and the Finance Chairman, there will be no further delay in the matter.

THAT ROAD.—Once two Irishmen saw a railway for the first time. "Why in the world," asked one, "do the people have these these iron things on each side of the road?" "Faith," said the other, "they're all such heavy drinkers in this part of the country they wouldn't get home at all, at all, if they hadn't something to keep them on the road." That is about the explanation your Zion correspondent gives of why the fences I complained of are so near the road, and, of course, he should know the habits of Zion people better than I do. It would be too bad if they should drive into the stumps, but what will they do when the road is blocked with snow?

BENEFORT.

Correspondence of the Review.

BUSY.—The farmers in this vicinity have finished up their root harvest, and are in a hurry to get their ploughing done before the frost comes.

NOT IN A HURRY.—The farmers around here do not appear to be in a hurry to draw out their grain this fall. They are all so busy with their fall work that they have not time to count the money.

CHEESE FACTORY.—The Benefort cheese factory closed last week. Their season's work has been very successful, the business done being larger and the patronage better than the proprietors anticipated at the start, this being the first season's work for the factory. The cheese manufactured here were all of the finest quality, without a single cull in the season's make, which speaks well for the skill and management of the cheesemaker, Mr. Thomas Stevenson, who is yet a very young man, not long out of his teens. Messrs. Pue, the proprietors, intend to make cheese making a permanent business, and will no doubt receive a very largely increased patronage another season.

LITERARY SOCIETY.—The Benefort Literary Society has re-organized and intends to give a series of meetings through the fall and winter months, the objects of the society being mutual improvement and mental development. At the organization meeting held on the evening of the 25th, the following officers were elected:—Mr. J. Fletcher, President; Mr. S. Smithson, Vice-President; Mr. E Stinton, Secretary; Mr. J. Wood, Treasurer. Programme Committee No. 1.—Messrs. E. Stirton, E. B. Truscott, A. Wood. Committee No. 2.—Messrs. J. R. Emberson, Wm. McAllister, Geo. McClelland. Executive Committee.—Messrs. C. Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth it relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or otherwise. 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Two Burglars Convicted—The Alleged Perjury Case Dismissed.

The hearing of the case of alleged perjury, made by a party named Allenby, against Messrs. Anderson, Moore and Houghton, members of the London West School Board, came on before the Police Magistrate at the interim session room yesterday and the defendants were honorably acquitted.

A young woman named Fanny Neil appeared before the Police Magistrate yesterday on a charge of vagrancy. For the past fourteen years she has been in the house of a prominent citizen, who took her from Miss Rye. During that time she states she received no wages, and judging from the clothes she wore in court, very little of anything else. The girl states that she went home late one night and was badly treated. Finally she was told either to go to bed or to the police station. She chose the latter in preference to a bed in the house where she had served for such a long time, and as a result she will go to the Mercer Reformatory for one year.

Van Deckermann's Bargain.

By M. THEED.

It was through the children I first became acquainted with Mr. Van Deckermann. They were pretty little tots then, the two of them, and had such friendly ways with them that it would not have surprised any one, I imagine, that they should attract where their elders seemed rather to repel; but my wife and I were nevertheless conscious of a certain feeling of triumph when we first saw them in animated conversation with the funny old gentleman, about whom people knew so little and speculated so much.

We were living at that time in a small house in one of those old fashioned suburbs, whence the city is easiest of access, even the omnibus fare to and fro being a matter of consideration to us, and we knew as little of our neighbors as most people even in London.

We were very happy, all the same, being fully occupied—I on the city treadmill which I am working still, with this difference, that I am better paid for it—Mary looking after the house and children, and keeping both after such a fashion that in our poorest days it was a pride and a pleasure to come home to them.

"You are the luckiest man I know," Mr. Van Deckermann said to me once—"or have known," he said, correcting himself. "To say whom I know would not be to say much," which, indeed, judging from our observation, was true enough.

Nobody seemed to know him to speak to, but everybody in the neighborhood must have known him by sight, for he was to be seen daily, summer and winter, taking the same monotonous walk, and dressed in the same odd fashion, in a brown coat cut in the style of at least fifty years before, with brass buttons, and a wide brimmed hat, beneath which he wore the most transparent imposture, in the shape of a wig with which I have ever come in contact. It was in great measure the contrast between this, which was of a somewhat lively brown, and the iron gray of his bushy eyebrows which conduced to the oddity of his appearance. His eyes were the only striking feature in his face, being dark, prominent and piercing, and the skin was a network of wrinkles on parchment, but no one who had seen his countenance light up as I saw it that Sunday evening, at the innocent prattle of the children, would have received other than a pleasant impression of the little old man.

We had come upon the trio rather suddenly, Mary and I, and had the reluctance to speak upon either side been ever so strong, it must in common courtesy have been overcome. We exchanged greetings accordingly, and from that day forth the acquaintance thus inaugurated ripened steadily into an intimacy, in the course of which I arrived at these primary facts concerning Mr. Van Deckermann. He was, as his name indicated, of Dutch extraction, he had no occupation, and he lived, and had lived for years, in a house which would have contained three of mine, in the most expensive situation thereabouts. What he wanted, or ever had wanted, being a bachelor, with a residence of such dimensions it would not have been easy to determine—the less so that he saw no company, and that the establishment was restricted to two old servants—like himself English by birth and breeding, but of foreign origin—with a sort of "slavey," upon whom doubtless devolved the giant's share of such work as there was to do, under them.

We came little by little, as I have already intimated, to see a good deal of him; more in the summer, however, than in the winter, when I was glad enough to stay at home in the evenings, when I got there, and he felt naturally, at his age, equally indisposed to turn out. But in the long, light days he was fond of dropping in on us after dinner, and if we should sometimes have preferred being to ourselves we were careful never to show it. We were flattered by the fancy he seemed to have taken to us, and sorry for his loneliness, and I do not pretend but that we appreciated the fact that he might, if he would, be a good friend to us.

It was in the course of the second summer of our acquaintance that one Sunday evening after church we came up with him leaning over the palings of an old fashioned house, at some distance from our own. It stood back in its own grounds a good distance from the road, and such glimpses of the building itself as were to be obtained through the screen interposed by the trees and shrubs in front of it, gave one the idea of a sufficiently gloomy exterior. We had remarked upon its dismal and unoccupied appearance more than once, and wondered, seeing how long it remained apparently untenanted, at the absence of any indication that it was to be either sold or let, but we were not prepared for Mr. Van Deckermann's first words.

"You have brought me back to the present," he replied. "I had gone back further than you could go, either of you. That was my father's house; the house in which I was born and bred. It has remained as he left it, with such patching up as has been positively necessary, ever since he died."

"But not empty, as it is now!—Somebody has lived in it since then, surely!" my wife said timidly.

"The old couple who take care of it, nobody else," he replied, as we walked away from it. "Everybody has a craze of some sort, they say, Mrs. Thurnell, and that is mine. You have heard of certain rooms in a house being kept sacred to the memory of certain people? Why should not I go a little further and keep the whole house so, when I am about it?"

The sharp tone and the laugh that accompanied it grated on the ears of us both, and my wife's hand pressed my arm a little nervously as she answered:

"Certainly, you have a right to do what you like with your own. If you did not care to live in it yourself"——

His turned round upon her before she had time to finish the sentence, striking the ground with his stick as though he would have driven it into it to emphasize his words, and repeating them after her in a shrill falsetto voice, which bore evidence to his excitement.

THE BLUE VASE.

By S. BARING GOULD.

...ine was produced, stained with blue. A. Yes, I know it again, both by the stains, and also by his initials in the corner.

The color dealer was again called and asked if he could swear that the blue on the handkerchief was the same as that he had sold to Hirsch. He swore to their identity.

That concluded the case for the defense. In a few words Aldbury pointed out the salient features: the fact that Hirsch had been in charge of the vase; that he had in his hands at the time the gold paint wherewith the inscription was written; that immediately after the burning, the vase had been under his custody; that during this period blue paint had been used to conceal part of the inscription; and that he had himself wiped away the paint so as disclose it to the eyes of the monarch.

The jury retired for two minutes, and returned with a verdict of "Not guilty."

Lazinka was acquitted, but now the Jew Hirsch was ordered to be arrested.

"Halloo!" shouted the king. "Come here, Count Augustus, and the girl, let her come also. A great wrong has been done to both of you, and I must undo it somehow, make some amends. Countess, you come here also. I broke your vase, I almost broke his sword over your son's back. You—Lazinka, what do you say, what shall I do?"

"Your majesty, I request, will at once order mademoiselle into custody."

"Under custody! how so? What do you mean?"

"Your majesty must remember that she is possessed of secrets which must not be divulged to the world."

"Quite so—but I cannot help that I have discharged her—that is, the jury has acquitted her—no, the judge. That is—I. In fact, there is nothing against her."

"Except, your majesty, the fact of her possessing the precious secret, and in your own interest, sire, she should be kept under surveillance."

"True—but—but"——

"Sire!" said the count, "would you commit her to me? I will answer for her silence."

"You!" then the king burst into a roar of laughter, and held his sides. He looked at the countess mother, who was evidently disconcerted.

"Hold!" said the king. "It shall be so—and what is more, I will ennoble the Mansfeld. I will create her a baroness in her own right—Let me see! She shall be the Baronne Grand-Tyran, and bear on her shield, and as the Grand-Tyran crest—the Blue Vase."

Feeding a Hungry Beggar.

A good hearted Harlem clergyman has for a six month been the victim of a beggar, who always told him the same story of not having had a mouthful to eat for twenty-four hours. He made the very common mistake of answering the appeal with a dime or a quarter. A few days ago several of his parishioners told him about this perpetually hungry man and how he had received financial aid from them.

Yesterday the good dominie was the recipient of a visit from the hungry man. This time he had fasted longer than usual.

"My poor fellow, you must be hungry," said the clergyman, sympathetically; "come down with me to the kitchen."

The beggar's face fell, but he followed. At the master's bidding the cook placed an enormous roast, from which the clergyman cut an enormous slice. "There, my poor fellow, eat your fill." The fellow ate, not daring to refuse, and, as his plate became emptied, the clergyman, with ferocious hospitality, replenished it again and again. The beggar ate until it became positively painful to watch him. After he had eaten about three ordinary meals the clergyman relented and dismissed the beggar with an invitation to call whenever he felt hungry.—"Miss Justice" in New York Star.

In Brief and to the Point.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

Yarns and Hosiery

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies; at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what in ducements may be offered we never allow our selves to be undersold.

WINNIPEG AGAIN EXCITED

THREATENING ATTITUDE OF THE HOSTILE CAMPS.

Angry Feeling Between the Opposing Gangs—Provincial Police Patrolling the Spur.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31.—Winnipeg is in another blaze of excitement over the attitude of the two hostile camps at the crossing, and he fear that a detachment from the infantry school would be ordered out to the scene tonight to preserve the peace intensified the feeling to the highest pitch.

It is learned that at 10 o'clock all was quiet at the place of trouble, but an angry feeling has arisen between the opposing gangs that might, on slight provocation on either side, precipitate a conflict.

The Government have laid rails on a spur to the Canadian Pacific Railway track on the east side and will complete a spur on the west side to-morrow.

It is impossible to learn the intention of the Government, but The Sun says to-night that it will not be surprising if a locomotive is run over the Canadian Pacific Railway track when their men are off guard. The Canadian Pacific Railway will prevent this if possible.

The provincial police are patrolling the spur, but the latest news from the seat of war is to the effect that the probabilities are there will be no conflict to-night.

A Conflict Imminent.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 1.—A despatch from the scene of trouble this morning announces that a conflict between the opposing forces may take place at any moment.

Both parties are strongly represented at the crossing, and a large number of provincial police are being sworn.

THE TERRITORIAL ASSEMBLY.

The Opening at Regina—Dr. Wilson of Edmonton Chosen Speaker.

REGINA, Oct. 31.—The Northwest Assembly opened to-day. The rules of the old Council were adopted. Dr. Wilson of Edmonton was chosen Speaker.

The speech from the Throne was delivered by Lieutenant-Governor Royal. It announces measures for the consolidation of Northwest ordinances, the suppression of prairie fires and the collection and compilation of vital statistics, and referred at some length to his Honor's visits to the agricultural fairs. Referring to the liquor question, the speech said the members, as reprgsentatives of the people, were the only ones possessing any degree of authority to speak on the question and that any representations they might make to the Privy Council at Ottawa would doubtless receive consideration. The Governor would be happy to transmit any recommendation to the Dominion Government.

The Assembly adjourned till Friday.

THE MONTREAL LOAN.

A Satisfactory Result on the London Market—An Important Advance.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Montreal loan tenders were opened to-day with the satisfactory result that £1,053,000 was applied for, being £213,000 in excess of the issue. Nearly half tendered at the minimum price of 82½; other tenders ranged to 85½. The minimum tenders get 46 per cent., the others get their full tender. The Canadian Gazettee remarks that this is an important advance upon anything yet done by a Canadian municipality, for 3 per cent. stock at 83 is equal to 3½ at 97, and 4 at 110. While fours have not hitherto been issued above par, Montreal now has a full register of credit in London.

Latest from Halifax.

HALIFAX, Nov. 1.—Archbishop O'Brien leaves for Baltimore to-day to take part in the consecration of Rev. Dr. Foley, the newly appointed bishop of Detroit.

Halifax Customs receipts for October $174,357; increase, $10,500.

Dr. Hobkirk, the oldest and best known physician of Charlottetown is dead.

Last September James W. King, of Lunenburg, was jailed under the liquor license Act. He was subsequently released under a habeas corpus and now sues the magistrates, license inspector, jailor and constables for $3000 damages for false imprisonment.

The war ships Bellerophon and Comus sailed for the West Indies yesterday.

The horses in a horse car took fright last night and ran away. Driver McLeod fell under the car, which passed over and probably fatally injured him. The car brought up against a fire plug and smashed it.

Mrs. Skene jumped out of a second story window during a drunken row last night and both her legs were broken.

The new steamer Halifax ran aground on the flats while entering Charlottetown harbor and is discharging cargo in an attempt to float.

Emory Goodwin, of the Argyle, Yarmouth, fishing schooner Maid of the Mist, was drowned on the grand banks by the upsetting of the dory.

Mrs. Cleveland Thanked Him.

E. PARNELL COMMISSION.

Captain O'Shea on the Stand—A Sensation at Nightfall.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The Parnell Commission resumed its sittings yesterday morning Attorney-General Webster called Captain O'Shea to the witness stand. Capt. O'Shea stated that at Mr. Parnell's request he conferred with Mr. Gladstone in June of 1881. The interview was accomplished without the knowledge of Mr. Parnell's colleagues. After Mr. Gladstone's speech, made in the House of Commons, May 16, 1882, Mr. Parnell spoke of the awkardness of the speech, and how it annoyed Egan and others. Negotiations were discontinued until 1883, when Messrs. Parnell and Dillon were in Kilmainham jail. The proposals which the witness made to the Government in 1882 were made without the authority of Mr. Parnell. Certain members had replied to them in Parliament about the time that Mr. Parnell was released. After the latter's return from Paris he conferred with the witness at the latter's house, and at these conferences they were always alone Captain O'Shea stated that Mr. Parnell desired to release Michael Davitt from imprisonment, but not Brennan. The Irish leader also authorized the witness to confer with the Government, and said that if the question regarding the arrears in rent was settled satisfactorily he would advise the tenants to pay their rents, and would himself denounce as outrages all resistance to law. Mr. Parnell said that he had power to carry out this guarantee. A letter to this effect written by Mr. Parnell to Mr. Forster, then Chief Secretary for Ireland, while Parnell was an inmate of Kilmainham jail, was read by Attorney-General Webster.

Seven letters were shown to witness, who declared with certainty that the signature attached to them was that of Mr. Parnell.

Sir Charles Russell here asked the court to permit him to postpone the cross-examination of the witness.

Justice Hannen said he could not perceive any good reason for postponing the cross-examination.

Sir Charles Russell thereupon decided to proceed, and Captain O'Shea in reply to his questions said that Mr. Buckle, editor of The Times, had asked Joseph Chamberlain to get him to give evidence. Mr. Chamberlain showed witness Mr. Buckle's letter in July last. Witness did not agree to give evidence, however, until he had been supersaed by Mr. Parnell. Mr. Houston, the Secretary of the Irish Loyal Union, saw him take down in short hand his statement for The Times.

Mr. Houston told him that it was a state secret how The Times got the letters it had published.

He had heard through a Nationalist named Mulqueeny that the police had found a letter in the League's rooms in London in which Frank Bryne acknowledged the receipt of a cheque from Mr. Parnell, which had been sent to him to enable him to escape from the country, but the authorities had assured him that no such letter had been seized.

Sir Charles Russell: "Did you ever threaten Mr. Parnell?"

Witness: "Threaten him! How do you mean? I have been angry with him, and once I turned him out of my room in Dublin."

Sir Charles Russell: "Why did you turn him out?"

Witness: "I told him to get out as I did not want to see him again."

Sir Charles Russell: "Have you ever said you would be revenged on Mr. Parnell?"

Witness: "I never remember saying so."

Sir Charles Russell: "Have you ever said that you had a shell charged with dynamite to blow him up."

Witness: "No."

To further questions the witness replied that he saw the original of the facsimile of one of The Times' letters last week. He believed the writing was Mr. Parnell's.

Many of the memoranda which he had made were destroyed in 1883, when there was danger of a select Committee of Parliament being appointed to enquire into the Kilmainham treaty, and it was intimated to him that the utmost reticence ought to be observed on the subject.

Sir Charles Russell: "Instructed by whom?"

Witness: "By Sir William Vernon Harcourt, who said it was the opinion of another person, namely, Mr. Gladstone."

These statements caused a sensation in the court, and Justice Hannen asked that everybody abstain from manifesting his feelings during the proceedings.

Sir Charles Russell: "Was it then you destroyed the memoranda?"

Witness: "Yes. Certain memoranda, which were in another box, and which included some of Mr. Chamberlain's letters, escaped destruction. It was Mr. Gladstone's wish that I should be as reticent as possible from motives of political expediency."

He Couldn't Chew in Their Pulpit.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Rev. Mr. Simmonton, a colored clergyman from this city, preached in the house of Mr. Scott, on Grove-street in Bloomfield, Sunday night. During the sermon, one of the women arose and protested excitedly against the continuance of the sermon until the preacher took a quid of tobacco out of his mouth. Others joined in the demand. The preacher complied with their request, but he said after the service that he felt insulted, and would never come from New York again to save souls.

The Attack on Suakim.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Advices from Suakim say that the rebels attacked the town burning the zareba around the water fort on the left and shelling the fort. They were repulsed by a heavy fire from the ships and forts.

The Peace Society.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—The International Peace Arbitration Society met yesterday. Many deputies from the English House of Commons were present. It was resolved to organize an international Congress to meet in 1889.

The German Wahlmaenner Elections.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—In the elections for Wahlmaenner the National Liberals for the most part retain their positions. They have been victorious in Saxony and Hanover. The Centrists everywhere hold their own.

The Canadian Team Again Beaten.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A football match took place yesterday between the Swifts and the Canadian team. The Swifts won by a score of one goal to none.

The Kaiser Lays a Corner Stone.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—Emperor William laid the foundation stone of the new law courts at Leipsic yesterday. He was presented with an address and was enthusiastically greeted.

The U. S. Public Debt.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—It is estimated that there has been a decrease of about $4,000,000 in the public debt during the month of October.

A British Schooner Captured.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—A cablegram from Port au Prince received last evening announces the capture by the Haytian man-of-war Toussaint Louverture, off Cape Haytien, of the British schooner Alta, which left New York about Oct. 19 with a heavy cargo of arms and ammunition. The Alta cleared for Antwerp.

SACKVILLE STILL SILENT.

THE QUESTION OF A SUCCESSOR ONE OF PROMOTION.

No Likelihood of Sir Charles Tupper's Appointment—Sir John Declines to Express any Opinion.

MONTREAL, Nov. 1.—Sir John Macdonald and several other Cabinet Ministers passed through the city yesterday on their way back from Sherbrooke to Ottawa. On being asked the question: "Is there any truth in the report that Sir Charles Tupper is likely to be appointed Minister Plenipotentiary at Washington?" Sir John replied:

"Oh, no! The question is one of promotion. In diplomatic service there are seniors waiting."

On being asked whether he thought Lord Sackville had been fairly treated by the American Government Sir John said, laughingly:

"Oh! we had better say nothing about that."

Mr. Herbert Now Acting Minister.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Now that Lord Sackville is, by the action taken by the Government of the United States Tuesday, no longer minister to this country, the First Secretary of the British Legation naturally becomes the official representative of the Government of Great Britain. Mr. Edwards, the First Secretary, is absent however and will not return for some time, so that Mr. Michael Herbert, who was recently made Second Secretary, is now Acting Minister.

At the British Legation silence is maintained. Lord Sackville refused to see anyone yesterday, and the members of the legation who were seen said that all was uncertainty as to his departure from Washington.

He Has Important Business in England.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The Press Association announces that Lord Sackville comes to England immediately on leave of absence; that he has important business to attend to in connection with his succession to the Sackville estate, and that he will not return to America.

ENGLISH PRESS OPINIONS.

The Pall Mall Gazette Proposes a Parallel—The Affront Cannot be Resented.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The Pall Mall Gazette says: "If Secretary Bayard's rebuke of Lord Sackville fails to convince Irish voters that President Cleveland can be relied upon to check John Bull as much as any other man, we do not see what there is left for him to do short of placing Lord Sackville under arrest and escorting him to the frontier. How silly it all is! How much Americans will despise themselves for it when the election fever is over! Suppose Minister Phelps had written a private letter to some pseudo-American during the election in England, saying that although Mr. Gladstone's party seemed to be more in accord with American principles, yet Lord Salisbury could be trusted to concede all the Irish needed, does the most excited American imagine that we should have taken notice of his indiscretion?"

The St. James Gazette says: "As Lord Sackville is technically in the wrong, England cannot resent the affront which Mr. Bayard has put upon it by declaring that he cannot continue to hold communication with Lord Sackville. Englishmen can only pity American statesmen for the strange things they do in order to oblige caucuses."

The Globe says: "The uncourteous announcement might create very strained relations between the two countries. Fortunately its true character is recognized on both sides. Lord Sackville has been subjected to unmannerly treatment by both Mr. Bayard and President Cleveland. If the minister comes back it will be simply because Mr. Cleveland's ambition to be elected President a second time soars far above the requirements of international courtesy and good will."

RETALIATION TALK.

What a New York "Times" Correspondent Says "Semi-officially."

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The correspondent of The New York Times at Washington is believed to have inside opportunities for ascertaining facts of interest, so that the following despatch to his paper may be taken as semi-official: "Reports which have reached Washington from various parts of the country during the last day or two indicate that a good many persons are looking for a proclamation by President Cleveland declaring retaliation upon Canada, under the Act of last year, for her past outrages upon American fishermen. These persons need not worry for the present, at least. Should the occasion arise when such a course became necessary for the protection of the rights of American citizens, retaliation would be promptly resorted to, under the limited powers now vested in the President; but at present there is no necessity for taking such a pronounced step, and there is no foundation for the reports that a retaliation proclamation is about to be issued."

The Political Pot Boils in Gotham.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—A Republican procession composed chiefly of colored men met a Democratic procession at 26th-street and 6th avenue last night and a riotous struggle ensued. The colored Republicans far outnumbered the members of the Jeffersonian Association of the Ninth Assembly District with whom they fought. The numerous colored inhabitants of the neighborhood who had turned out to see the immense colored procession fell to and assisted the colored paraders, missiles flew in all directions and hand-to-hand fights were in order. Store windows were smashed, women ran into every available place for shelter and several shots were fired. The stores were all closed between 26th and 30th streets and the shop keepers with drawn revolvers protected their property as best they could.

The drugstore of Mr. Stein at 446 Sixth-avenue, was at once filled with frightened women who rushed in knocking everything off the counter. With a great effort Mr. Stein, revolver in hand, at length closed his doors. Thomas Murphy, aged 22, was found stabbed in the back, an old man named Kilkea was forced through a show case and was unconscious from loss of blood. He was carried off by friends. Peter McDermott, aged 45, was knocked down and badly hurt. James Ryan, aged 20, was either shot or stabbed and was found unconscious. He was taken to the New York Hospital. The police easily cleared the streets.

Barnard Sights Another Comet.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 1.—A telegram just received from the Lick observatory announces the discovery yesterday morning by Barnard of another comet, the second discovered by him in less than two months. It was in right ascension 9 hours, 43 minutes, 22 seconds; declination south 15 degrees, 19 minutes. It has a faint tail with a slow motion northeast. It is of the eleventh magnitude, being just visible through a 4 inch telescope. This discovery entitles Prof. Barnard to another Warner comet prize of $100.

The Smoke Point Murder Trial.

PICTON, Nov. 1.—The Smoke Point murder case occupied the Court all day yesterday to 4.30, when the jury retired, and after about three hours' deliberation brought in a verdict of "not guilty," and the prisoners were at once discharged.

PETTY TYRANTS.

WHILE reading the reports of the High School Inspectors, sent here by the Ontario Government to examine the Collegiate Institute, one wonders why the Trustees are elected at all, or for what reason the School Board exists. The people generally suppose that they elect the trustees to attend to the school matters in the town; to see what is required and to expend money in supplying what they believe is needed But that is a great mistake. The Ontario Government decides what must be done. It tells the trustees what they must do and how they must do it.

The smallest matters are noticed by the eagle eye of this paternal Government. In 1886 the usual report was sent here to the Board, that they might see what it had to do. One section of the report says, "Lighting, bad. I pointed out to the headmaster how the defects may be remedied." See? The Government official comes here. He looks over the school building and tells the headmaster to tell the Board what must be done. The Board is a machine in his hands to do as the Government requires. The Board, however, must furnish the money, whether the expenditure be great or small.

In 1885 the Government pointed out that there were no private rooms for the teachers. This defect was remedied to some extent, but not to suit the æsthetic taste of the Government, and the next year's report said:—"Teachers' private rooms, one in common use. Should be carpeted or covered with oilcloth and provided a with wash stand." Oilcloth or carpet, either would do, but the floor must be covered. The Board might be thought capable of attending to matters like that, but the Government thinks otherwise and the Government's opinion is law, even to the smallest matters. The smallest? Here is another paragraph from the same report:—"Halls small, no door mats." Just think of that! How could the pupils be expected to master their studies, to solve a problem in geometry or to read a passage in Latin, while all the time the halls were unprovided with door mats! But though the Board may be negligent in providing the proper adornments and embellishments the watchful eye of the Government is upon it and the important fact is pointed out that the school is languishing for door mats. It is not likely that the Government wanted the mats supplied for adornment only, and if they were furnished and not used would not the last state of the school be as bad as the first? It therefore behooves the Board not only to provide the articles, but to provide for an inspection of the shoes of the pupils lest the grant might still be withheld by the Government on account of negligence in not using the door mats.

From buildings and gymnasium down to door mats the Board is controlled by the power in Toronto, and it is ordered, in the same way, to erect a building, to furnish a gymnasium, to carpet a room or to provide a door mat. Of course, the Board has committees which are supposed to superintend the property, the supplies and other matters, but it is to a large extent only make-believe—a sort of playing at School Board—for their authority and views of what is required are limited by the power exercised from Toronto. If this sort of thing goes much further would it not be about as well for the Board to drop out and let the Government collect the taxes and attend to the business directly?

SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT argues that the National Policy has failed because, he says, our foreign trade has not increased as it should. The Mail argues that it has failed because the exports of agricultural produce is greater than before. There is no such thing as satisfying these people. An increase or a decrease of foreign trade is alike evidence to them that the N. P. is a failure.

Medical Students Fired Upon From a Doctor's House—A Girl's Suicide.

TORONTO, Nov. 1.—Twenty-six candidates entered for the final examination of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, and of this number 22 passed. In the primary examination 54 candidates entered, of which 31 were successful.

The family of Rev. Dr. Cavan, Principal of Knox College, who resides at 228 Victoria-street, were startled at 9 o'clock yesterday morning to find their servant, Mary Brooks, aged 26, in the cistern at the rear of the house. The body was promptly taken out of the cistern, but the girl was beyond aid. She was a good girl, so far as Dr. Cavan's family know, and while they conclude that she must have committed suicide, they can assign no cause for it. She was of good spirits, and up to Tuesday night gave no indication of anything that would cause her to take her life. A brother visited her Tuesday evening and found her apparently well. That she threw herself into the cistern is regarded as conclusive, from the fact that the top which had been nailed down, had been forcibly removed. Coroner Powell did not think an inquest necessary.

There is an impression that an effort is being made to force Rev. Mr. Jeffery's resignation and that the effort will succeed.

The students of Trinity Medical College celebrated Hallowe'en by an unique demonstration in tendering an ovation to Miss Rose Coghlan, who is playing "Jocelyn" at Grand Opera House. After the play they visited a number of ladies' schools and wound up at Dr. McCully's house, were they expressed themselves unpleasantly towards the Doctor, and were answered, not by a kindly speech, but by a display of fireworks which they alleged consisted of five revolver shots and a discharge from a small cannon.

Among those who visited Jarvis-street with the students was Mr. H. H. Oldright, a son of Dr. Oldright. Mr. Oldright was in the uniform of the Queen's Own Rifles; he received a shot in the fore part of the leg, and was removed to his father's house at Carlton-street and Homewood-avenue. There were at least one or two others who received wounds.

County Constables Busy on an Old Case—General Items of Interest.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The county constables are under the impression that they have got on to a nest of thieves out near Clandeboye. Last winter a number of robberies were committed on the Grand Trunk railway in that neighborhood and since then the constables have been on the look-out, but had not succeeded in getting a trace of any of the stolen property. A few days ago, however, a clue was obtained and one of the force went out there at an early hour yesterday morning and arrested Eli Bice, brother of the heroine of the Gilmour-Bice abduction case, which created such a stir some time ago. The charge is the stealing of two chests of tea from the Grand Trunk Railway Company in January last. The accused was remanded for a day by Magistrate Noble. A number of search warrants have been issued and the constables hope to recover a lot of the stolen property.

During October there have been registered with the city clerk 50 births, 27 deaths and 24 marriages.

The Relief Committee at a meeting last night decided to recommend the city council to bear the cost of maintenance of inmates of the "Old Men's Home" to the extent of 24 cents per day.

The Lawyers Nearly Came to Blows.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Sensational scenes intensified the interest in the Bowman common-law marriage divorce trial yesterday. The cross-examination of Mrs. Bowman was taken up by Judge McLaughlin, of Bowman's counsel, who sought to show that Mrs. Bowman had been intimate with Mr. Case, her lawyer, and brought the name of Mrs. Case into the affair. At this Case jumped up and, shaking his fist in McLaughlin's face, threatened to chastise him in the court. McLaughlin withdrew his remark, but in a few moments both lawyers were again on their feet, threatening violence upon each other over a repetition of the offence. Judge Tuley repeatedly rebuked McLaughlin for his intemperate speech, and when the lawyer made a hot rejoinder the Judge threatened him with the punishment of the Court.

$10,000 Stock of Boots at 40c. on the Dollar.

An upheaval taken place in leather and the boot and shoe trade shattered to pieces. On Saturday we are going to run a special Boot Sale. Good Goods and Low Prices have gained for us the admiration of close buyers. Our 25c. Boots have completely demoralized the high priced dealers. One man says Goughs are selling below cost, so we are! That is we sell lots of Goods below the first cost of manufacture and still make a living profit. Some people would naturally like to know how we do it. "Here is the Secret." A wholesale man gets hard up, wants money, must have it. He knows Goughs are spot cash buyers. They send for the Wonderful Cheap Men. They arrive on the scene. The wholesale man says, Gough what will you give for 300 cases of these boots; Goughs look them over carefully, find them good desirableselling lines and make a bid of 40c. on the dollar; after hard fighting we get them. They arrive in Peterborough, are sold at 50c. on the dollar, we therefore sell them at half price and make a living profit for ourselves. These are a few of the many reasons why posterity has raised up and christened us GOUGHS, the Tireless, Sleepless, Wide-Awake Boot Men, GOUGHS, the Kings of Clothiers, GOUGHS, the Original Agitators of Small Profits, GOUGHS, the Wonders of the 19th Century. Wyatt & Turner are the closest, crankest old fools that live by labor to offer goods for the sake of cheating poor men. Their prices beat all others in town for extravagance and expense. They give no man a chance to save something for the rainy day when there is need of the spare money to put into doctor's bills. They are the most miserly and stingy and mean to the last degree. Don't trade with Wyatt & Turner if you want bargains, if you want to be cheated out of your reckoning, go to Wyatt & Turner and you will regret it as long as you live. ADVERTISING

When Newspapers first began to be published in London, an editor took opportunity one day to say that a certain man desired a certain something—no matter what. That was the invention of advertising, though the inventor may not have known what he had found. From that time to this poor's have made more or less use of the papers to publish their wants, and tradesmen their wares; but we doubt very much whether any real improvement upon the first advertisement has ever been made. It was a frank statement that somebody wanted something and what it was that he wanted. Doubtless he got it. We want something. Want to sell goods. Good goods too. The best of the best in Groceries. The range of stock is a wide one. It has to be wide to suit all customers. That we do suit is positive.

If there is one thing we do better than another it is in TEAS.

It is our specialty. Years of experience tell us how and where to buy. We use that experience and select the best.

Do you like a good article? Do you value flavor and strength in Tea? If so give us a trial order.

In addition, every line of groceries you can call for we have.

Handsome Work.

One of the handsomest and most complete pieces of work in the way of a railway car was at the C.P.R. station yesterday having just came from the Crossen car works Cobourg. It was a dining car that had been built at a cost of about $18,000. The seats were finished in Russian leather and the sides of the car inside was covered with plate glass between the windows. The range with which the car was fitted was a splendid one, and everything necessary—refrigerators, ice-boxes, etc.—for a run from Montreal to Winnipeg can be carried. The tables are fixed between the seats which face each other, and are made so as to turn back when not in use. The car, of course, is not meant to travel in, as upon getting your meal you pass out again to your carriage. The price of a meal is 75 cents. There were also two more of the handsome first-class carriages and a new baggage car along with the dining car. All these coaches now turned out are fitted for electric light, the wires being in all ready for the introduction of the new system.

Good Results Already.

The work on the C.P.R. siding running to Dickson's mill is being rushed along, and great progress has already been made. The work of making the road bed or the dumping will be completed next week, while the timber for the trestle work at the south end is being placed on the ground and work on this will be commenced on Monday. One good has resulted from this extension already, and that is the opening up of Water-st. as far South as Dalhousie-st. By building the siding, the company have removed the embankment which formerly barred traffic on that street.

On the Improve.

Always on the advance and improve, applies in full force to the Auburn Mills. For some time past the work of thoroughly refitting the mills throughout, taking out old machinery and placing in position the most modern and improved machinery that is manufactured, until their aim has been accomplished and to-day the mills stand as well equipped as any woollen mills in the country. Among the other new machines are eight broad Crompton looms, which were put in yesterday. By the improvements made and their improved facilities the capacity of the mills will be increased and the quality of the work of a higher standard.

Indicted for Murder.

If a merchant sells a pair of shoddy boots to a boy and the boy through the shoddiness of the boots, gets his feet wet, catches cold and dies, can the merchant be legally arrested for murder? The court, after argument decides:—No. The boy knew, or should have known, or his father, if he had a father, which is likely, should have known for him, that Kidd, the boot man, sells J. D. King's make of boots, in which there is no shoddy. Besides, they cost no more, and it would be difficult to prove that the shoddy man really intended to kill the boy. (Signed) SWITCHEM I.

Death at the Gaol.

Wm. Course, a baker by trade, who has suffered for some time with cancer in the throat and was given lodgings in the gaol as a vagrant, died on Wednesday night. In accordance with the law Dr. Bell, coroner, held an inquest this forenoon. A jury was sworn in consisting of Messrs. H. LeBrun (foreman), Robert Drury, F.W. Miller, Chas. Porter, M. Giroux and Thos. Connal, and the following prisoners:—R. Young, John Sullivan, D. Slattery, Alex. Ritchie, Adam Dobbin and D. Burgess. The evidence of the Gaol Surgeon, Dr. Kincaid, the gaol authorities and a prisoner was taken, and the jury returned a verdict that the deceased had died from natural causes, namely cancer in the throat.

Just as was Expected.

Few were the empty seats in the body of the Opera House last night to hear the Fisk Jubilee Singers, and enthusiastic and delighted was the large audience over the singing of this noted company of singers. They were brought here under the auspices of the Sunday school of the George-st. Church, and although they were not secured for nothing, the school will probably realize a good surplus. The singing of these people does not require mention or words of compliment from a newspaper, for their eighteen years of unprecedented success has made them familiar to almost every child. However, last night the choruses, solos, trios and quartettes, carried the audience away and nearly every number met with an encore. The male quartette was called back three times, so pleased were the audience. At the close of the entertainment Rev. Mr. Pearson moved a hearty vote of thanks to the singers for their evening's entertainment, which was carried with great enthusiasm.

Method in Business.

There is nothing like method. The cashier of a large firm in Montreal was to be married the other day, and although it was an unusual thing for him, he did not neglect to make a memorandum of it, as he would if cash had been paid in or paid out. The wedding was to take place at the home of the bride, the hour had nearly arrived, the guests were all assembled, but to the bridegroom cometh not. His best man went in search of him, and found him in his room in a dirty old dressing-gown, smoking tobacco in a clay pipe and reading a novel, "Ain't you coming to be married?" inquired the friend. "Married? By jingo, that's so. Check marriage!" And he turned to his diary and checked it off. Method in business is everything, and if a man once gets in a habit of being methodical it will stick to him all through life, and be better than if he belonged to a chain gang. Method and nothing else lets gough bros., the wonderful cheap men, get through so much in a day. The stores are crowded from morning until night. Buyers throng the counters and pick up bargains. Boots and shoes are sold at prices so low that to go bare foot would be an absurd practice even if the weather permitted, which it doesn't. Come to gough bros. for clothing or boots and shoes.

A large and thoroughly representative meeting is looked for and a deal of business will come up for settlement. The location of next year's camp will be decided.

The Business College.

Mr. G. W. S. Bean, B.A., B. Sc., has, we learn, purchased Mr. Sawyer's interest in the Business College and thus becomes sole proprietor. Mr. Bean is a thorough educationalist and while wishing him prosperity we have no doubt that the College will continue to be successful under his management.

Giddy Girls and Hallowe'en.

Three young ladies were observed last night walking or rather "making their seek" down George-st. a little after eight bearing between them the sign from in front of one of the confectioner's store. They thought they were unobserved, but a few pair of eyes took in the comical picture, and saw the giddy girls deposit the wooden business card in a hall way and sail away seemingly enjoying it greatly. After a hunt the confectioner found the missing sign.

Pushing their Trade.

J. Muckleston & Co., hardware merchants, have just sold to the Gananoque Carriage Co., of Gananoque, 2,250 sets, about 70 tons, of their celebrated Beaver Fire Steel, and to the Montreal Transportation Co. 15 tons of Oakum, and to Goldie & McCullough, Galt, $600 worth of Sanderson's Patent Sand Blast Files, besides a large quantity of iron to the Dominion Carriage Works, London. Such an enterprising firm will be a great benefit to our town.

A Delay.

Another delay has occurred in bringing Greenfield from Buffalo Chief Roszel had his arrangements all made to leave on the train last night to bring over the burglar, but a telegram was received by Mr. Edwards, town solicitor, from the Attorney-General's office, Toronto, telling him not to allow the officer to start for Buffalo until word was received from there, as a detective whose presence was necessary could not be found. The delay will only be for a short time.

Humors of the Campaign.

A gentleman has handed us a sample of the fly sheets used in the Presidential campaign in the United States. It is headed the Presidential race, and describes the contest as a horse race. The candidates are all humorously and sarcastically described, fexcept Harrison. Cleveland is called "an English Clyde stallion" and is said to be driven by "Jawny Bool" and his colors "English Jack and big bandana, twisted." The Republican candidate is called an "American thoroughbred, by Revolutionary sire, out of Original Yankee; dam, Splendid, out of Prosperity; Prosperity out of Protection, he inbred from Industry and Breadwinner." His colors are "American flag afloat" The fly sheet is obviously a Republican one.

At the Altar of Hymen.

A pleasant ceremony was performed in St. Paul's church yesterday evening, when Rev. E. F. Torrance, M. A., tied the knot which made one for life two happy hearts—Miss Ella G. Daly and Dr. Cumberland, of Port Huron. Misses Gussie and Birdie Daly, sisters of the bride, acted as bridesmaids, while Mr. R. Latimer, of sault Ste. Marie, assisted the groom. The ceremony was not public, none but the immediate friends of the bride being admitted into the church. The happy couple went direct to the station and took the train for Port Arthur. The many friends of the fair and estimable young lady in Peterborough will unite in the wish that hers may be a happy lot in marriage life, and the REVIEW extends its warmest congratulations to Dr. Cumberland in his choice.

Favorably Remembered by Montrealers.

The Montreal Herald says:—" The company of which the vivacious little actress, Miss Florence J. Bindley, is the leading character, opened for a week's engagement in the Theatre Royal yesterday afternoon, in the sensational drama, 'Dot, or the Avenger's Oath.' Miss Bindley will be favorably remembered by Montrealers when she appeared in the same role last season. 'Dot' is without doubt one of the most bewitching little soubrettes that visit Montreal and her inimitable dancing is always popular with the patrons of the Royal. At both performances yesterday the theatre was packed, standing room even being at a premium. The plot is a sensational one, of border life, and the scenes among the gold diggings are very thrilling. 'Dot' proves herself to be an adept in the use of the rifle, by shooting down the telegraph wire. Mr. Otis Turner, as Jacob Galoot, an irrepressible Dutchman, tends to keep the audience in good humor, while Mr. J. J. Macready, as Hank Sayers, the heartless villian, does his part in the usual bristling manner. Mr. James Horne, as Ned Curley, a retired miner in search of his twin-brother Jack, proves himself to be a pathetic and feeling mate to his wayward twin brother. The supporting company are of high merit." "Dot" and her company give one performance to-night in the Opera House. 1d103

A SEVERE WOUND.—Mr. Thos. Rahal, while working on Queen st the other day, received a severe wound from an adze. The adze is a peculiar cutting tool, and if used carelessly is sure to injure the operator. A cut several inches in length extends across the ankle of Mr. Rahal's right leg.

ANOTHER BRICK BLOCK.—Mr. Robt. Metcalfe has the foundation for another brick block on his property on Colborne-st. completed. In the spring he will extend this block south, one hundred feet, to the junction of Wellington and Colborne-sts. The block which he erected last year is all occupied and pays a good rate of interest on the capital invested.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.—At the meeting of the directors of the East Peterborough Agricultural Society on Thursday last the following resolution was unanimously passed:—"Moved by Chas. O'Reilly, seconded by Thomas Blezard, whereas it has been the decree of Almighty God to call Edith E. daughter of our esteemed secretary, W. E. Roxburgh, to her eternal rest, be it therefore resolved that we extend to our respected secretary and other members of the family our sincere sympathy. Whilst bowing to divine providence in this affliction, we remember that He doeth all things well; and we pray that He will comfort and console them in this their time of trouble and that they will meet her whom they so sincerely loved in a better world, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the family and to the press for publication." At the last regular meeting of Norwood Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 262, a similar resolution was unanimously passed.—Register.

THE PETITION FOR THE RELEASE OF GAMBLE.

Satisfactory Results From the Polariscopic Sugar Test—Best's Extradition to be Demanded—The Port Arthur Breakwater.

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.—Up to the present time lunatics from the Northwest Territories have been confined in the Manitoba Asylum at Selkirk, at the expense of the Dominion Government, but in the future they will be kept in one wing of the Stoney Mountain Penitentiary until the Dominion Government builds a lunatic asylum for the Northwest.

The Department of Justice has received a petition for the release of young Gamble of Toronto, who is confined in the Kingston Penitentiary on a life sentence for an attempt to procure an abortion on a young girl. The petition lays great stress on the distress caused Gamble's widowed mother and young sister.

Since the adoption of the polariscopic sugar test by the Customs Department three years ago the imports of raw sugar for refining purposes have been steadily increasing. The returns thus far for the present year promise to make the best showing yet. The test is giving the utmost satisfaction, as formerly by the Dutch standard or examination of color the saccharine qualities of the sugar could not be determined.

The Department of Justice will shortly make a demand for the extradition of W. J. Best, who is wanted on the charge of attempt to murder Ed. M. Batson of Campobello, N.B. Best is in jail in Portland, Me.

Messrs. Kerby & Stwart have been awarded the contract for the additional 1600 feet of breakwater at Port Arthur. When this is completed the breakwater will be a mile long.

Messrs. Rosseau & Mather of Montreal have got the contract for the new highway bridge over the Ottawa at Chaudiere Falls, to take the place of the old Union suspension bridge erected in 1843.

John Shields and John Carrol, contractors for the Niagara Central Railway, are here for the purpose of getting the road, which has been completed, approved by the Department of Railways and Canals, so that passenger traffic may begin over it. Freight trains are now running.

Sir Hector Langevin returns from Sherbrooke Friday. The other ministers returned last evening.

Lord and Lady Stanley visited the Gloucester-street convent yesterday.

The monument to Privates Osgoode and Rogers, of the Sharpshooters, who were killed in the Northwest, will be unveiled by Lord Stanley to-day.

THE DRAFTS WEREN'T PAID.

And Now Two Paisley Men are Looking for J. B. McKay.

PAISLEY, Nov. 1.—J. B. McKay, a lumber measurer formerly in the employ of Platt & Bradley of Hamilton and lately employed by John D. Lebel of London, on Saturday requested a resident of Paisley to endorse a draft on Lebel for $45 which was cashed at the Western Bank. McKay said he was going to load a car of lumber at Harriston. He afterwards went to a second gentleman and said he was short of funds and would return here Tuesday to load lumber and that he wished to get a draft for $35 on Lebel cashed and requested the second gentleman to endorse this draft which was cashed at Porteous & Saunders' bank. McKay told his second victim that he was going to Milverton to load there. McKay is now missing and Mr. Lebel refused payment of the drafts. McKay is probably on the American side of the line.

EXPENSES MUST BE PAID.

Hannah Boyd's People Will Not Let the Matter Rest Where It Is.

HAMILTON, Nov. 1.—Miss Hannah Boyd has returned to Thorold, where she was before Detective Murray took her into custody to see what he could pump out of her about the Galt poisoning affair. The lady by whom she was employed wrote to her, asking her to return, and expressing her conviction that Miss Boyd had nothing to do with the affair. Miss Boyd and her relatives here were put to a considerable expense, besides the great inconvenience and annoyance, in connection with the case, and do not purpose letting the affair drop quietly. Unless Detective Murray makes good the amount of the expenses he will probably be sued for damages for false arrest.

Another Farmer Taken in.

BROCKVILLE, Nov. 1.—A farmer named Shaw, who resides near here, was roped in for $800 by a sharper. This was how the racket worked: The sharper wanted to buy the farm and finally agreed to take the farmer's place at his figures. Just then another stranger came along and after chatting a while proposed a game of cards, which proved to be three card monte. Stranger No. 1 bit and won several times, but finally lost $800. He didn't have the money and turned to the farmer for a loan of the amount, agreeing to give him $20 for interest when he paid for the farm. He hasn't paid for the farm yet and the farmer bewails the loss of $800 in hard cash.

Grand Trunk Stocks in London.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Grand Trunk stocks advanced to-day. The advance is attributed to Sir Henry Tyler's speech.

The depressed state of the cattle markets continues to hamper the success of the ranche stock. It is estimated that at least £5 per 100 was lost on the last shipments. Compared, however, with the Colorados, the price of Alberta sides shows ranche meat to be well received on the better markets.

Stratford Squibs.

STRATFORD, Nov. 1.—Municipal politics have commenced to foment early and Mayor Butler says he is going to have another trot over the municipal race-course.

The citizens are greatly elated over Hickson's fiat regarding the locating of the car shops with the locomotive shops at this point.

The chocolate drop care has reached here at last. George Leck received a box containing a dozen. It is supposed to be the work of a practical joker.

THE FIRE RECORD.

Wardsville Suffers Heavy Loss—Fires in Other Localities.

WARDSVILLE, Nov. 1.—The large frame foundry belonging to H. Henderson was totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. A spark from the chimney set fire to the roof and gained such headway before noticed that it was impossible to get anything out of the building. A fresh breeze was blowing at the time and the flames soon spread to the Marshall house, occupied by J. Wilson, which was also burned. The villagers worked heroically and managed to keep the fire from crossing the street. Loss to the Henderson firm, $11,000; no insurance. J. Wilson's loss and damage to furniture, $300. A. M. Smith, of London, owner of the hotel, loss about $1000; amount of insurance unknown.

Another Fire in Glasgow.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Higginbotham's spinning and weaving mills, at Glasgow, were burned yesterday. Loss, £50,000.

In the Eternal City.

ROME, Nov. 1.—Fire broke out yesterday in a part of the Quirinal used for the storing of furniture. The flames were extinguished before serious damage had been done. The pontifical escutcheon affixed to the palace was burned. It will be replaced with the national arms.

Half a Million Gone up in Smoke.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—The fire at Huenfeldt has been subdued. The damage will be about $500,000.

The Deadly Fire Escape.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 1.—While testing a rope fire escape at the Monongahela House yesterday the rope broke and three boys, James McClure, aged 14 years; John Duddy, aged 15, and Daniel Nade, aged 15, were precipitated from the fifth story to the pavement, a distance of 70 feet. McClure and Duddy fell headforemost and were killed instantly. Nagle had both arms and legs broken and will probably die. The agent of the fire escape, H. C. Arlson, who hired the boys to come down the escape paying five cents each, has been arrested.

All on Account of Eliza.

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 1.—This place is all torn up over an action of alimony and a judicial separation, brought by Mrs. Eliza Jane Babcock, now over 50 years of age, at the present sittings of the Court of Chancery here against her husband Daniel Babcock, of Rendersville. It is a very strange case—a romance in real life—where the love and kisses of years ago have been turned into chilly blasts of ill-temper and connubial infelicity. Her maiden name was Mrs. Eliza Jane McQuoid, sister of Hugh McQuoid, ex-reeve of Murray township. The marriage took place in Murray in 1859. Justice Robertson merely heard the pleadings for the defence and without calling any evidence for Mr. Babcock dismissed the action with costs.

Wheat Advancing but Flour Unsaleable.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 1.—The Northwestern Miller says: "There was a more perceptible falling off in the flour output last week, the grind being the lightest in seven weeks. Millers say that although wheat keeps going up flour is unsaleable and that there is no other alternative for them than to stop grinding until there is a change in the relative positions of wheat and flour."

Woodstock Cheese Market.

WOODSTOCK, Nov. 1.—At the cheese market held here yesterday 6000 boxes were offered; no sale.

In Brief and to the Point.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

Yarns and Hosiery

—AT—

TURNBULL'S

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies; at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what inducements may be offered we never allow ourselves to be undersold.

Canadian and Home-made Yarns always in stock

NEWS OF THE DOMINION.

THE SHARPSHOOTERS' MONUMENT AT THE CAPITAL.

Unveiled Yesterday by Lord Stanley in the Presence of a Large Number of Spectators—A Big Railway Deal.

OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—The event of yesterday was the unveiling of the monument to the two members of the Ottawa Sharpshooters, Privates W. B. Osgood and John Rogers, who were killed at Cut Knife. The day being fine a large crowd turned out, over 5000 people being assembled in Major's Hall Park and vicinity.

The monument is placed at the entrance to the park and consists of a bronze statue of a sharpshooter in the full uniform of a guardsman, with the rifle reversed and in an attitude of repose, standing upon a square pedestal of grey Canadian granite, upon either side of which are basso-relievos of Osgood and Rogers. The figure of the sharpshooter while full of massive strength is indicative of dejection and grief. The pedestal is ten feet in height and the statue seven. The inscription reads:

ERECTED BY THE CITIZENS OF OTTAWA
To the Memory of Privates
JOHN ROGERS AND WILLIAM B. OSGOOD of the
GUARDS COMPANY OF SHARPSHOOTERS,
Who Fell in Action at Cut Knife Hill on the 2nd of May, 1885.

After the formal unveiling brief addresses were delivered by His Excellency and Sir A. P. Caron.

CUSTOMS SEIZURE AT MONTREAL.

A Young Irishman Taken in by an Old Confidence Game.

MONTREAL, Nov. 2—Henry Moore, a young Irishman who has been working on a farm in the vicinity of Toronto, and who arrived in Montreal Wednesday on his way to visit his friends in Ireland, has been taken in by a confidence game. He loaned a man $20 because his friend could not cash a bogus check for $950 drawn on a New York bank.

The customs officers here have made a seizure of liquors, in which it is claimed there was undervaluation of a large consignment of wines, at a club house on St. Antoine-street kept by Mr. Bertin, who is an importer. The wines are valued at between $4000 and $5000. Bertin denies any intention of irregularity in the matter and says he has been betrayed to the officers by an ex-employe for revenge.

Ambitious City News.

HAMILTON, Nov. 2.—The committee of the Niagara Methodist conference which met Wednesday night to consider the case of Rev. Mr. Colling, of Simcoe, arrived at a decision, but it has been decided not to divulge it until the Simcoe board has passed on the matter. It is understood that the charges against Mr. Colling are chiefly in relation to matters of doctrine, particularly in regard to his extreme views on the doctrine of holiness.

The customs duties collected at this port during October were $62,154, a decrease of $3844 as compared with the corresponding month last year. Inland Revenue receipts, $44,545, an increase of $10,968. Exports to the United States from the consular district of Hamilton $165,243.

St. Clair Tunnel Company.

SARNIA, Nov. 2.—These gentlemen have been elected officers of the St. Clair Tunnel Construction Company: President, Joseph Hickson; vice-president, S. J. Sargent; secretary and treasurer, Robert Wright; engineer, Joseph Hobson; directors, Hon. Alex. Vidal, Sarnia; Charles Mackenzie, Sarnia; Joseph Hickson, Montreal; S. J. Sargent, Montreal; John Bell, Belleville; E. W. Meddaugh and W. J. Spicer, Detroit. It was stated at the meeting that the tunnel would be finished in two years at a cost of $2,500,000, unless some unforseen obstacle is encountered.

Reported Big Railway Deal.

HAMILTON, Nov. 2.—A Hamilton commercial traveler, who had an interview with the Superintendent of the Canadian Division of the Michigan Central Railway this week, volunteers the important information that the Vanderbilt Road has obtained control of the Niagara Central Railway, and that the line will be built through to Hamilton and Toronto. It is already completed to St. Catharines.

It Was Billy the Tinker.

ST. CATHARINES, Nov. 2.—The body found in the woods a short distance from Beamsville, has been identified as that of a man known as "Billy the Tinker," who lived in the vicinity of Smithville, and has been missing since the early part of May last. Deceased was a man of about 60 years of age, who wandered about the country, and no attention was paid to his disappearance at the time.

Deserves to be Lynched.

KINGSVILLE, Nov. 2.—Some miserable specimen of humanity a day or two ago perpetrated a horrible crime on one of Mr. J. H. Smart's horses on the Sorenson farm near here. The fiend drove the horse from the pasture into the barn and cut off its foot at the joint and left it to bleed to death. The poor brute was discovered lying dead on the barn floor the next morning.

Telephone Rates Reduced.

MONTREAL, Nov. 2.—The Bell Telephone Company yesterday issued a circular reducing rate from $50 to $25.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

IN INDIGESTION.

Drs. Marshall and Longacre, Olney, Ill, say: "We have used it in cases of indigestion with good results."

THE SACKVILLE EPISODE.

MR. BLAINE'S ARRAIGNMENT OF DEMOCRATIC DIPLOMACY.

The London Papers Continue to Print Caustic Comments on American Politics and Politicians.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Addressing a meeting at Norwich, Conn., last evening Mr. Blaine said while speaking on the Sackville incident: "The Democratic party never has conducted the affairs of this country with Great Britain with dignity or with advantage to this country. We owe to the Democratic party and to its bad diplomacy the loss of British Columbia, and that vast province on the Pacific coast which would give us the entire coast from Behring Strait down to the Gulf of California.

"To the bad diplomacy and the surrender of the Democratic party we owe the reciprocity treaty of 1854 in which we got about one article to forty as compared with the Canadians; the reciprocity treaty which was thirty-nine degrees on one side—which was our opponents—and one degree on our side. We owe that to them. In fact it is not in the power of the Democratic party to give a single treaty or diplomatic procedure they have made with Great Britain which redounds to the honor of this country."

Simply Told the Truth.

PORTLAND, Ind., Nov. 2.—Hon. John Sherman speaking at a Republican meeting yesterday said: "How have the Democrats conducted foreign affairs? Why have they surrendered the fisheries question? They gave up everything they had (and that was not much), then when the Senate refused to assent to the treaty they proposed to retaliate—on England?—on Canada?—No! No!! On whom? On the people themselves, and all that this administration has done is that it has finally got the approval of Sir Sackville-West. The trouble was that Mr. West simply told the truth.

Britain's Only Cause of Shame.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Globe commenting on the Sackville affair says: Unhappily for America in one sense, happily in another, the character of ministerial and journalistic bluster during an election is comprehended by politicians of the same sort better even than among the best informed persons here. This is understood as a portion of a great sham, which everybody affects to believe. Whichever party scolds England the loudest will win. Lord Salisbury preserved England's dignity by not indulging Mr. Bayard's desire to hurry over what is only a piece of election strategy.

As far as England is concerned the matter is over. Our only cause of shame is that those we call cousins are capable of such short-sighted folly. Both of the leaders chosen work upon whatever anti-English feeling exists and bid for it by competition in bluster. If Mr. Cleveland is re-elected it will be as a President whose Secretary of State sent the British Minister his passports and snapped his fingers in the face of Downing-street. It will be a perilous character he will have earned, because it will have to be maintained.

You Pays Your Money, etc.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Daily News says: "The suggestion to retaliate upon Mr. Phelps is theoretically illogical and practically foolish. It probably results as much from sheer ignorance as from any less respectable quality of the human mind." Again justifying Mr. Cleveland's course The News maintains that if he had ignored the matter and happened to be unsuccessful in the coming election, Mr. Harrison would probably have seized the first chance to intimate that Lord Sackville's room was preferable to his company.

The Daily Chronicle says: "With every desire that President Cleveland and Secretary Bayard should enjoy a monopoly of their rudeness it is impossible passively to submit to having our representative treated like a Chinese coolie or an Irish pauper. There need be no heat displayed, but if England is to remain a self-respecting nation her ministers must not be slow to resent so deep an insult to her national dignity."

The Irish Vote Paramount.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Star (T. P. O'Connor's paper) says Mr. Bayard puts it pretty strong. The Irish voter is so pressing, and the desire to satisfy him is so urgent, that President Cleveland cannot wait until Lord Salisbury takes action. The incident furnishes fresh evidence of the paramount influence of the Irish vote in Anglo-American politics.

Not so Good a Shot as Dr. McCully.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—In a tavern opposite the Law Courts yesterday afternoon Joseph Kavanagh drew a revolver and fired a shot at Planche Cox. The shot did not take effect. Kavanagh was arrested and committed to jail on a charge of attempted murder. It was reported that both Kavanagh and Cox had been cited to appear as witnesses before the Parnell Commission. A five-chambered revolver with four chambers loaded was found on Kavanagh. He stated to the police that he carried the weapon for self-defence, as he had been threatened with death for making certain disclosures.

A Letter From Gladstone.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Lord Rosbery addressed a meeting at Dalkeith yesterday. In the course of his speech he read a letter from Mr. Gladstone, in which the latter said: "I conceive that the country has indicated a very general desire to retain Irish members at Westminster. We recognize that desire and we are prepared to give it effect. I hope this is clear, although I suspect some Dissidents will now begin to find the retention of Irish members highly mischievous."

The New Rifle for the British Army.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Mr. Stanhope, Minister of War, in a speech in London last night, said that the new rifle decided upon for the British army was believed to be superior to any used abroad. He hoped the Government would be able to supply the army with the new weapon before long. He also saw the way to the early introduction of a new system of explosives for big guns.

Parnell's Scotch Suit.

EDINBURGH, Nov. 2.—The case of Mr. Parnell against The London Times for libel was again heard in the Court of Sessions yesterday. Counsel discussed the question of the relevancy of the action brought by Mr. Parnell, the defendants contending that the court had no jurisdiction. Judge Kinnear reserved his judgment.

The Official Accounts Denied.

COLOGNE, Nov. 2.—It is stated here that the nobles in the Caucasus contemplate an emeute at the first opportunity, and that the official accounts of the Czar's reception on his tour were not true.

A New Face on the Geffcken Affair.

BERLIN, Nov. 2.—Letters found by the authorities on their recent search of Baron von Roggenbach's residence give a new complexion to the Geffcken affair.

No Postal Delivery Yet Awhile.

ST. THOMAS, Nov. 2.—The Postmaster General has written Mr. C. O. Ermatinger, stating that he was sorry to say he could not see his way clear to grant the request for establishing a free postal delivery in St. Thomas.

TORONTO TOPICS.

A Reward of $1000 Offered for the Conviction of the Galt Poisoners.

TORONTO, Nov. 2.—The Don improvement complication is assuming serious proportions. The contractors claim that the city has refused to pay certificates for work done, that the drawback retained as security has been withdrawn and misappropriated and unless something is done at once operations will be suspended. The original water course of the Don is now stopped, and if the new channel is not opened before the spring floods the water will be dammed up at the Gerrard-street crossing and when the break comes the volume of water will sweep everything before it in its onward course to the Bay.

The Ontario Government will pay $1000 for information that will lead to the conviction of the Galt poisoner or poisoners.

During the smallpox scare of last year Thomas Preston and his wife were conveyed to the pest house by order of Medical Health Officer Canniff and Dr. Lowe, in the belief that they were suffering from the disease. After remaining there some weeks they were discharged, it becoming evident to the medical men that it was not smallpox from which they were suffering. They have now brought suits for $7000 against the city and the two doctors for assault and false imprisonment.

The Ontario Bank has issued a new circulation. The bills so far put out are only 5's and 10's, which will be followed by 20's and 50's; the 100's of the old issue will continue in use.

Louis Helm Slonaker, the Sioux City boodler who was arrested in Toronto Monday night, left for home at 4.50 yesterday afternoon in company with the American officials who came after him and Detective Slemin. Yesterday he voluntarily agreed to waive extradition proceedings and go back to Iowa to stand his trial. He gave up the $800 he had in the Dominion Bank, $20 in cash, a gold watch and a pair of trousers.

Mr. Louis Sievert, into whose face the man Graham threw vitriol a year ago last August, for which the fiend was sentenced to prison for life, underwent an operation upon his right eye on Tuesday, after having the left one removed a few weeks ago. He is doing well, and this operation, it is expected, will be the last.

Dr. McCully, who shot Harry Oldwright Wednesday night while the latter was watching the antics of the Trinity Medical students in front of the doctor's house, was arrested yesterday and brought before the Police Magistrate on a charge of shooting and wounding with intent to do great bodily harm. The accused pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried summarily, his counsel saying that the prisoner was amply justified in doing what he had done, and that the medical students had persecuted him beyond endurance. Dr. McCully was remanded until to-day and allowed out on bail, himself in $2000 and two sureties in $1000 each.

Mr. W. A. Foster, Q. C., died at 8.30 last night at his residence in this city, the immediate cause being inflammation of the lungs. Mr. Foster was born in Toronto in 1840, called to the bar in 1861, made a Q.C. in 1883. He was one of the young men who originated the Canada First party. During the past 12 months Mr. Foster had been solicitor to the liquidators of the Central Bank, and contracted the illness from which he died while on a trip to New York in that connection.

It is considered certain in well-informed circles that Bishop Cleary of Kingston will be appointed to the vacant Roman Catholic Archbishopric of Toronto.

VICTIMS OF THE "SPOTTER."

Four Grand Trunk Conductors Suspended—What was it For?

HAMILTON, Nov. 2.—Three familiar ticket-punchers have disappeared from the Hamilton branch of the Grand Trunk Railway and one from the main line of the Southern Division (Suspension Bridge to Windsor). Four well known passenger conductors have been suspended and considerable excitement has been created both here and in Toronto in railway circles.

he unfortunates are "Bob" Gilkinson of Toronto, Wm. McKay and Conductor Edmonson of Hamilton, and "Tom" Blunt of the main line. When a passenger conductor is suspended now-a-days he is very lucky if he ever finds out what it is for. "Spotters" have been watching the trains on the Hamilton branch for a considerable time. These informers, it is said, are bound to make some kind of a report against some one, and they are not over particular what that report is. It is rumored that the suspended conductors were charged with carrying some of their friends on their trains dead head.

Superintendent Skiff of the Southern Division was in Toronto yesterday and remained until the evening holding some kind of an investigation which may lead to some of the men being re-instated. Rumors were in circulation last evening that the whole Grand Trunk system was purposely picketed with spotters and that no less than twenty-three conductors had been suspended within a couple of weeks on the different divisions.

A Morrisburg Man Drowned.

MORRISBURG, Nov. 2.—Mr. M. G. Munro, a wealthy citizen of Morrisburg, was missing yesterday morning, not having been home Wednesday night. His hat was found floating in a flume leading from the canal to Gibson's mills; and on further search his body was discovered near the mills, the water having drawn it against the grating. He was seen late Wednesday night, and it is not known how the accident occurred. He had quite a large sum of money on his person, which was found on the body. The coroner did not consider an inquest necessary.

A Narrow Escape.

GUELPH, Nov. 2.—Yesterday morning as one of the clerks in Harvey & Co.'s hardware store was fitting some cartridges to a gun brought in by Mr. James Person, the pin, which was not in good order, rasped the priming of a cartridge and it went off, the ball making a big hole in the front plate glass window and shattered it badly. The glass was sufficiently heavy to scatter most of the bullet, and no further damage was done. Mr. Person was standing close by at the time and the bullet whizzed past his face. The window was fully insured.

Listowel Cheese Fair.

LISTOWEL, Nov. 2.—At the cheese fair held here yesterday 14 factories boarded 5995 September and October cheeses, of which 3730 were colored, 2265 pale; sales were 300 at 10½c, 510 on private terms. Four buyers present, market very dull, only one buyer operating.

QUIET AT THE CROSSING.

THE SITUATION IN MANITOBA PEACEFUL YESTERDAY.

The Military Still on Guard—Contractors Flaunting the American Flag—To-day May See Trouble.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 2.—Everything was quiet at the crossing yesterday and there was no trouble last night. The military are still on guard, the Canadian Pacific Railway are watching the crossing and the Northern Pacific and Manitoba Railway force were busy all day completing the spur.

Some of the contractors' teams, in bad taste, are flaunting the American flag. It is expected that an attempt will be made to-day to take an engine over and this will be resisted by the Canadian Pacific.

Between 400 and 500 Dakota excursionists are in town.

HACKED BY HER BROTHERS.

Two Poles Brutally Assault the Lover of Their Sister.

WILKESBARRE, Nov. 2.—A tragedy which will in all probability result in murder was enacted in a suburb of Nanticoke last night. Adam Dryoliski, a young Hungarian, had been paying attention to Mary Violiski, a young Polish lassie, for some time, but his suit was objected to by her brothers. Dryoliski called at the Violiski residence last evening to invite his sweetheart to attend a Polish ball this evening. The two brothers objected and a fight ensued, in the course of which the lover was thrown out of the house.

Shortly after he returned, having previously sent a message to the girl asking her to prepare to elope. He and Mary were conversing in the kitchen, when the two brothers rushed out of a room in which they had been listening to the conversation. John picked up a hatchet and Joseph a knife, and armed with these weapons they proceeded to make mince meat out of Dryoliski. The screams of the sister attracted the attention of neighbors, who hurried to the scene. The brutal brothers, after much difficulty, were pulled off their victim, who was more dead than alive. He was terribly cut about the head and body, and doctors say he cannot live. His assailants have been arrested.

ONE MORE FORGER IN CANADA.

Henry F. Albers, a Buffalo "High Liver," Skips Across the Border.

BUFFALO, Nov. 2.—The rumors that Henry F. Albers, a coal and lumber dealer of this city, had gone to Canada under a cloud, prove upon investigation to be true. About six months ago money transactions began between Albers and Jacob Schen, the well-known retired brewer. At that time Albers succeeded in getting the endorsement of Mr. Schen on a note for $2000, which he promised to pay in a week. This note was paid at the time agreed upon. Subsequently Albers induced Mr. Schen to indorse other notes at different times until the amount reached $6000. About half of this Albert made good.

A few days ago it was discovered that Albers had forged Mr. Schen's name to notes aggregating $20,000. Mr. Schen says he does not believe that Albers obtained any money from the banks on these notes, but it is claimed that he did raise cash on two spurious notes each for about $1500. Albers was a high liver.

A Bomb in the Stove Wood.

BRIDGEPORT, Nov. 2.—While Mrs. R. J. Teele was attending to household duties yesterday an explosion shattered the kitchen stove. Mrs. Teele and her 12-year-old son narrowly escaped injury from the flying pieces of iron. Pieces of a wooden bomb, which had been loaded with some explosive, were found among the fragments of the stove. The bomb had been picked up in the hallway by Mrs. Teele's son, who mistook it for a piece of stove wood. Mrs. Teele had had trouble with a family living in the same house, and an investigation will be made. Mrs. Teele's husband is employed in New York.

Attempted Suicide at Binghampton.

SINGHAMPTON, Nov. 2.—Robert Futhey, a superannuated school teacher about 84 years of age of eccentric disposition, made a determined attempt to take his life yesterday morning by cutting his throat almost from ear to ear with a razor. Not having accomplished his object the first time he made a second attempt when he was discovered and prevented from carrying out his purpose. He is in a precarious condition but may recover.

The Weather Crop Bulletin.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The weather crop bulletin issued by the signal office says: The weather has been generally favorable for farm work in the winter wheat states, and the rainfall for the month has doubtless affected the winter wheat crop favorably. The rain in the southern portion of the Gulf states has impaired the condition of crops in that section, although the reports indicate that generally the weather for the season has not been favorable for the cotton crop.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1888.

MR. WIMAN IN CANADA.

MR. WIMAN has again delivered an address in Canada. He spoke at Huntsville and his speech is reported in the Globe of Thursday. In his speech the commercial union leader talks boldly and even plainly for him. He has the assurance to try to persuade a Canadian audience that they should give up their nationality and transfer their allegiance to another nation. Imagine a Frenchman making such a speech in Germany! But in Canada men are allowed greater freedom of speech than in any other country in the world.

It has been denied that Mr. Wiman's object is the annexation of Canada to the United States. That can surely be denied no longer. He is as much an annexationist as is Prof. Goldwin Smith or Senator Sherman, although he has not yet gone so far as Mr. Sherman did when he said we must have annexation or war. Mr. Wiman said:—

"That an invitation to join the Union, coupled with conditions of the highest advantage, will within a very short period be afforded to Canada there is no manner of doubt. It is doubtful if in all the history of nations an invitation more hearty, more attractive or more advantageous will have ever been recorded in the annals of time.

With such words Mr. Wiman tries to win Canadians over to consent to political union with the States. He presents an argument in favor of the union, and we here give enough to show that Mr. Wiman is a thorough annexationist:—

"Already the subject has been comprehensively discussed in the Committees of Foreign Affairs in the United States Senate, and but for the intimation that the invitation would not be accepted, would have before this been made public. But this action has merely been postponed and beyond all question it will be pressed, and with such pressure on the one hand and such attractions on the other that it will seem difficult to resist. For if all sentiment were to be dismissed, all antecedent training were to be divorced, and if only considerations of material and personal advantage to every precious son and daughter in Canada were to prevail, what better future could be afforded them but that, with the complete liquidation of the national debt, now and for all time to be so burdensome, their native land should form a group of States, to join the constitution of commonwealths that illuminate this western hemisphere?"

Mr. Wiman's arguments in favor of annexation are, like his "broiler" and other arguments in support of commercial union, very fallacious. Canada's national debt might be assumed by the United States should political union be brought about, but Canadians would still be responsible for a portion of that debt and also for the debt of the whole United States. Besides, the States receive no subsidy from the federal treasury, and the Provinces would lose that much of the federal revenue that they now receive and it would go into the general coffers of the United States. All is not gold that glitters.

But our object was to show that Mr Wiman favored annexation, rather than to argue with him. After depicting other blessings that he assured his audience would come with annexation, he turned to his old subject, and asked them, if they would not consent to political union, to at least accept commercial union. But the trap is set in the sight of the animal, and the beaver will not step into it.

THE MURCHISON LETTER.

THE Sackville letter is an incident that all connected with it might well wish to forget as soon as the election is over. Lord Sackville was indiscreet in writing the letter to "Murchison." There was nothing wrong in the letter itself, only in so far as it was injudicious for a gentleman occupying Lord Sackville's position to say anything that could be construed into meddling with United States politics. In the present temper of the politicians of the Republic, and considering of the direction the political discussions have taken, he would be an injudicious man who, occupying any public position in or under a British Government, would do anything that would look like interfering in United States politics. Lord Sackville's letter was friendly to Cleveland, yet while the Republicans so read it, Mr. Cleveland found in it grounds for saying that the British Minister reflected on his administration by intimating that they had been insincere in their public utterances. Thus Lord Sackville found Cleveland turning upon him. Not, of course, on account of what he had said, but because he had to do something to checkmate the Republicans and he therefore construed the letter in a way to use it to seek Lord Sackville's recall. The letter from Mr. Murchison, to which Lord Sackville replied, was obviously a trap, set by a Republican, and the Minister fell into it. The Republicans should be ashamed of such political schemes, Lord Sackville must regret that he permitted himself to be duped, and Mr. Cleveland must feel that the United States occupies a ridiculous position on account of the fuss made over a small matter.

THE Empire will get no parent to believe with it that the Attorney-General's Department has exceeded its duty in arresting Hannah Boyd.—Toronto Globe.

Hannah Boyd, who was arrested on suspicion of being the sender of the poisoned candy, has been released, as was proper. That girl has a grievance. Her arrest was an outrage.—London Advertiser.

The Advertiser may not be a parent, but it is a Liberal paper and it seems to agree with the Empire. The girl was badly treated.

THE London Advertiser celebrated its twenty-fifth year by issuing an excellent "quarter century edition." The edition describes the great progress the city has made in the twenty-five years. The Advertiser is a good newspaper and deserves its prosperity. It announces that Mr. C. D. Barr, of the Lindsay Post, will be its editor-in-chief.

BANKER MASCETTA'S HEARING.

The Prisoner Threatened by an Excited Crowd of Swindled Italians.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Italians packed the hearing room at the second district station house when Magistrate Lelar called the case of E. Lorenzo Mascetta, the partner of Banker Castelnuovo, who absconded with the savings of many of his countrymen and is now on the high seas bound for Antwerp. Mascetta was in business with Castelnuovo since February. It was not believed that Mascetta was concerned in the robbery of the depositors, but when the flight of the senior partner was made public it spread like wildfire and stirred up wild excitement in the Italian quarter about Carpenter-street.

A dozen frenzied Italians who has suffered the loss of their savings threatened to murder Mascetta. His arrest was demanded and he was locked up on a warrant sworn out by Gaetano Del Bene di Faco. When Mascetta was brought into the hearing room before Magistrate Leler the crowd got excited and began to swear at the prisoner in strong Italian sentences and shake their clenched fists at him, but policemen kept the mob back from Mascetta. When Faco had told, through a good-looking interpreter, how he had deposited $40 with the firm on Oct. 15 and was unable to get it back he produced a bank book with the entry marked in it on that day.

After nineteen other men had testified that they had put their savings in charge of the bankers and had been swindled, Magistrate Lelar held Mascetta in $500 bail to answer at court the charge of embezzlement. A man was ready to go his bail, but the mob was again boiling with rage and Lawyer Keely, who represented Mascetta, thought it best that his client be not released. The police drove the mob out of the station house, but the defrauded Italians and their friends stood around the station house in groups watching the entrance for over an hour.

In the afternoon Magistrate Lelar's office on Third-street, near German, was overflowing with Italians. Vincenzo Mincenzo swore that he gave over $100 to Mascetta to send to Mincenzo's father and mother in Italy and that he had appropriated the money. He said he expected to prove that the defunct bankers had embezzled nearly $2000, representing the hard-earned savings of almost forty men and women. Another warrant was issued against Mascetta on Mincenzo's charge. While Magistrate Lelar was issuing the warrant Dom Salvati, of Wilbertha, N. J., was swearing out a capias in the Prothonotary's office against Mascetta in a civil action to recover his lost money.

Why Dr. Thompson Will Fight It Out.

BOSTON, Nov. 2.—Dr. Augustus Thompson admits that he has been a fool. The Doctor is the 50-year-old father of a family against whom pretty Mrs. Myra Beals was the other day awarded a verdict of $30,000 for damages done her by letters he wrote about her. The Doctor, who helped Myra with her dramatic education, says he was too generous with her and that his most glaring faults are his generosity and sympathy.

"If we take no risks," writes the Doctor, "we do charity or good to none. Many a larger and more intellectual man than myself has been caught in the same meshes. I will tell the truth and the people of Massachusetts shall see in the future whether it has killed my manhood. I do not ask sympathy. I meant no wrong. My family does not believe that I meant to do wrong. The Beals case will be contested to the bitter end simply in self-defence."

Suicide of a Priest.

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 2.—The people of Dallas were shocked last night by the news that the Rev. Adrian Derente, a Catholic clergyman, had committed suicide by shooting himself with a pistol. He was a native of France, 45 years old, and was for many years at Denison. Then he was transferred to Dallas, and recently his mind showed signs of decay, and he was for a short time under restraint. He had apparently recovered, and for more than six weeks had been attending to his ministerial duties. Last evening, at the parochial residence, he placed a pistol in his mouth and blew out his brains. He was a man of strong mental powers and a finished orator. He left a large estate, which he inherited.

"The Great Monthly Magazine of the World." (Pacific Churchman.)

THE CENTURY

MAGAZINE IN 1889.

WHY has it such an enormous circulation? Experts estimate that between two and three millions of people read each number.

BECAUSE THE CENTURY is above everything a leader. It led the development of wood-engraving in America and it has fostered American authors. It is alive to the issues of to-day. What it prints sets people to thinking and talking.

BECAUSE whatever other periodicals may come into the family, the great reading world has found out that "no household can keep abreast of the times without THE CENTURY." "Its success is explained by its contents."

BECAUSE the greatest writers of the world like to have their work read by the greatest number, and therefore to such a magazine as THE CENTURY the best naturally comes. It was for THE CENTURY that Gen. Grant first wrote his reminiscences of important battles.

BECAUSE it is publishing the life of Abraham Lincoln, by his private secretaries. Of this it has been said, "The young man who is not reading it robs himself of that which he will one day hunger for." The coming year presents the most important part of this great history, which may be begun at any time.

BECAUSE it is printing those remarkable articles on "Siberia and the Exile System," by George Kennan, which are attracting universal attention and are being reprinted in hundreds of foreign newspapers, but are not allowed to enter Russia. The "Chicago Tribune" says that "no other magazine articles printed in the English language just now touch upon a subject which so vitally interests all thoughtful people in Europe and America and Asia." They are "as judical as the opinion of a Supreme Court Tribunal,—as thrilling as the most sensational drama."

BECAUSE during 1889 THE CENTURY is to have a series of engravings of the greatest pictures of the old Italian masters, made by Timothy Cole, the leading wood-engraver of the world, who has spent four years in Italy on this work; a series of "Strange True Stories of Louisiana," by George W. Cable; occasional richly illustrated papers describing the scenes of the current International Sunday-school lessons; interesting illustrated papers on Ireland, and a series of humorous and pathetic Irish-American stories; a striking illustrated novelette, "The Romance of Dollard," by a new writer, and other novelettes to be announced later; supplemental war papers, untechnical and descriptive of special incidents; "Pictures of the Far West," by Mary Hallock Foote, etc., etc. We have not space here to announce all the new features. Let us send you (free) our "Catalogue of Special Publications," with original illustrations, containing full prospectus, special offer of back numbers to beginning of the Siberian papers, etc. The November number, which begins the new volume, is for sale everywhere after Nov. 1st. THE CENTURY costs 35 cents a number; $4.00 a year. Address THE CENTURY CO., 33 East 17th Street, New York.

Wyatt & Turner are the closest, crankest old fools that live by labor to offer goods for the sake of cheating poor men. Their prices beat all others in town for extravagance and expense. They give no man a chance to save something for the rainy day when there is need of the spare money to put into doctor's bills. They are the most miserly and stingy and mean to the last degree. Don't trade with Wyatt & Turner if you want bargains, if you want to be cheated out of your reckoning, go to Wyatt & Turner and you will regret it as long as you live. You will go any distance rather than buy the shoddy things kept on sale of buyers. They can suit the ever expected men who at prices less than cost just themselves, and becoming at last are so low that they are bound to Wyatt & Turner do not encourage get a just profit and they grumble that he can't future. ADVERTISING

When Newspapers first began to be published in London, an editor took opportunity one day to say that a certain man desired a certain something—no matter what. That was the invention of advertising, though the inventor may not have known what he had found. From that time to this people have made more or less use of the papers to publish their wants, and tradesmen their wares; but we doubt very much whether any real improvement upon the first advertisement has ever been made. It was a frank statement that somebody wanted something and what it was that he wanted. Doubtless he got it. We want something. Want to sell goods. Good goods too. The best of the best in Groceries. The range of stock is a wide one. It has to be wide to suit all customers. That we do suit is positive.

Is there is one thing we do better than another it is in TEAS.

It is our specialty. Years of experience tell us how and where to buy. We use that experience and select the best.

Do you like a good article? Do you value flavor and strength in Tea? If so give us a trial order.

In addition, every line of groceries you can call for we have.

Henry George in Peterborough.

An opportunity will probably be offorded the public of listening to a lecture by Henry George this season. Mr. Geo. Ball, W.M. of the Knights of Labor, received a letter from Mr. George stating that he intended making a tour through Ontario shortly and that Peterborough would be included in the route. If this be fulfilled he will undoubtedly talk to a crowded house.

Gas vs. Daylight.

The competition which has been taking place between the Gas Company and the Sun at the corner of Hunter and Simcoe-st. occasioned some remark. The large gas light on the corner has been burning in the day time, and the only solution of the question as to why this was, is that the Gas Company are trying to compete with old sol and beat him out of a fat "sit." The latter, however, is still a lap ahead.

Port Hope's Boom.

Port Hope's Council has arranged for the the establishment of a glass factory in that town. It is to be established on the co-operative principle. Mr. Richard Davis, of Montreal, is the promoter, and the co-operative association will be composed of practical glass workers from England. The capital stock of the association is to be $50,000, and of this $23,000 is to be expended on machinery and buildings. The establishment is to employ 500 workmen with a pay sheet of $1,200 a day, operations to be conducted ten months in the year. The town is asked to grant a 99 years lease of the vacant lots south of the viaduct and east of the railway tracks, exemption from taxes for ten years, and the town to construct a frame building 60x70, which would cost in the neighborhood of $1,000, possibly not more than $800. The association will place in the buildings all necessary plant and machinery, amounting to $23,000 in all. The association engage to operate the factory for ten years, but in case of failure within that time the leasehold premises, all buildings and improvements are to become the property of the town. In case of failure after that period, the leasehold and buildings the town put up are to revert to the town, while all improvements and plant would go to the creditors. The town has agreed to these conditions.

The invention is a new one and a convenient thing to carry in the pocket. The matches are contained in the article and by a movement of the finger the match is pushed out and ignited. The old plan of carrying matches in the pocket is out of date and now suspended by this invention. Look up the agent and give the article a trial. 1d104

Physical Culture

Sergt.-Major Rundle opened the Brook Bank Gymnasium last night. The building is the old tannery at the corner of Brock and Aylmer-sts., and the gymnasium has been fitted up with bars, ladders, and the other necessary equipment for a gymnasium. The physical culture is not to be confined to the young men, as a ladies' class has been formed and all of the fair sex who have a desire to develop their physical strength will be given lessons. The institution is one which the town lacked and will undoubtedly be well patronized. Last evening quite a few were present and threw themselves a little, and enjoyed it immensly.

At the Opera House.

"Dot, or the Avengers Oath," was put on the boards at the Opera House last night by Florence J. Bindley, supported by a good company. The audience was fair, the plot was a good one of its kind—a border-drama—and of the company every one took their parts well. Florence Bindley as Dot, made herself a great favorite, and her singing and dancing carried the house. She also performed with combs on glasses, and delighted her auditors by the music. She is a bright little actress and is sure to make her audience her friends. The dogs were well trained and lent a reality to some of the scenes which could not have been effected otherwise.

All for a Purpose.

The following is an item which has appeared in several papers, and the question as to who was the Peterborough man referred to was asked:—"Messrs. Fulford & Co., of Brockville, manufacturers of Nasal Balm and other proprietary remedies, have entered an action against Lawson & Jones, a firm of printers and box makers in London, Ont., for an alleged infringement of their Nasal Balm package. The damages are placed at $10,000. A similar action has been entered against a Peterborough druggist for selling the imitation preparation." Upon making enquiries the REVIEW found that the local druggists referred to is the firm of Ormand & Walsh, corner of George and Simcoe-sts. Mr. Walsh says they received a letter from a lawyer in reference to the matter, but they have no fear as to damages if an action should really be brought. The preparation they make and sell and the one which is called an imitation, is called "Cream Balm," and is put up in different boxes, labelled differently and is not represented to be the same.

IT'S positively the chance of a lifetime to get 3 boxes of matches for 10c. at M. R. Kidd's.

St. Luke's Literary Guild.

A regular meeting of this society was held last evening in the school room of the church, which was well filled. The Rev. Mr. Warner was in the chair. After routine the speaker of the evening, Dr. Clarke, was called upon and read an excellent paper on "Vaccination," in which he treated of its discovery by Dr. Jenner, enlarging on the germ theory, and on the dreadful scourage, small pox, which rendered vaccination necessary. In speaking of contagion he gave instances of the germs of the disease remaining for years apparently dead, but on coming in contact with people produced small pox in its worst form. He gave a short history of the treatment of the disease, first referring to the improvement in its treatment from the old fanciful notions that existed, next to the introduction of inoculation, which, however, was sometimes as bad as the disease itself, and then to the discovery of vaccination. He referred to the protective power of vaccination, and gave statistics from large hospitals to prove that it was highly preventive. He answered some objections that were raised by those who did not favor vaccination, and showed their unreasonableness. The paper, besides being highly instructive, was written in a pleasing and interesting style, and was enjoyed by those present. The next meeting of the Guild will be held on Nov. 15th, to which all are welcome.

THE DISTRICT CHAMPIONS.

The Riversides Bring the Lacrosse Laurels to Peterborough.

The Riverside lacrosse club were given the district championship by the Canadian Lacrosse Association which held a council at Hamilton yesterday to consider charges of crookedness against several players. They are determined to blot out these players, known as "ringers," and the future of the game depends upon that being done.

The Riversides, it will be remembered, tied Orillia and the tie was played off at Lindsay on the 29th of August last. The game resulted in favor of Orillia, but the local club put in a protest against one of the Orillia team, Robbins, a man who had played under an assumed name on other teams. The protest was pushed by the perseverance or the secretary, Joe Phelan, who has kept the matter before President Rose ever since the game was played. The Riversides were not represented at Hamilton, but the secretary forwarded a letter dealing with the charges and this answered equally as well as a representative. The Orillia club were suspended on the ground of having violated article 6 of section 6, which suspends any club playing a man who has played with another club, and the laurels of the championship fall to the Riversides.

Of course, there may not be the same glory in becoming champions in this manner, but the Riversides played some good lacrosse last year and played that lacrosse according to the rules in a straight and fair way, and it is only justice that they should get their rights by having the clubs who have been working in "ringers" and taking all possible and unfair advantages, brought to the scratch. That the efforts of the secretary proved so successful is a matter of congratulation.

Next year the Riversides will now have something to play for—to show and prove to the district, by retaining the proud position of champions, that they are there by merit and intend to remain there.

St. John's Church.

Owing to the continued illness of the Rev. Mr. Beck, the rector, the Rev. John Cheyne Davidson, M.A., of Colborne, will come to Peterborough to take the position of curate in charge of St. John's Church. Rev. Mr. Davidson is a son of the Rev. J. Davidson, of Uxbridge. He received his preliminary education at Trinity College School, Port Hope, and graduated in arts at the University of Trinity College, Toronto, about 1883. He won the Bishop of Toronto's prize for general proficiency in divinity subjects. In 1887 he received the degree of M. A. from Trinity. Immediately after his ordination Mr. Davidson went to England to attain an experience in church work that would be beneficial to him when in charge of a parish, and for two years he was curate with the Rev. Frank Boyd, Teddington parish church, London, Eng. This is known as one of the best worked parishes in England and the experience Mr. Davidson gained there will be of great advantage. Upon returning to Canada Mr. Davidson went to Colborne, where he has labored very acceptably and successfully for twenty months. He is a good preacher and reader, and is an energetic worker in the interests of the church. Mr. Davidson will take charge on December 1st and will be welcomed to Peterborough.

REVIEWS.

THE CENTURY MAGAZINE.—The November Century begins the thirty-seventh volume and nineteenth year of the magazine; and the number is made notable by the beginning of several new series, or magazine "features." The most important of these is the first installment of The Century Gallery of Old Masters; engraved by T. Cole, and described by W. J. Stillman and by Mr. Cole himself. The engravings in this series were made in the presence of the original pictures themselves; they are actually copies, and unique in the history of art; for such careful copies have never before been made in wood.

Another series begun in November is Mr. Cable's "Strange True Stories of Louisiana" "The Romance of Dollard," by Mrs. Catherwood, illustrated by Mr. Sandham, has two prefaces, one by Mr. Parkman, the historian, and one by the author. Mrs. Catherwood is a new author, and has broken new ground—Canada in its most romantic epoch. The first of Mrs. Foote's "Pictures of the West," a full-page engraving, is given in the same number. Among the leading contributions to this number are interesting installments of the life of Lincoln and of George Kennan's highly important papers on the Siberian Exile system. The "Guides of the City of London are described by Norman Moore and profusely illustrated by Joseph Pennell; several Unpublished Letters of Lord Nelson are accompanied by two striking portraits of the hero of Trafalgar; Julia Schayer contributes a story entitled "Mistaken Premises"; Murat Halstead has a paper on "Gravelotte Witnessed and Revisited," accompanied by numerous illustrations. Many other able articles make up an attractive number.

ST. NICHOLAS.—The November number begins the sixteenth volume. The first article is a charming sketch of girl life in the West, written and illustrated by Mary Hallock Foote. Mary E. Wilkins gives the remarkable experience of "Ann Mary," who had two Thanksgiving days in one year, and from Octave Thanet there is a stirring story of the "Loaf of Peace." Cecil W. Franklyn tells us of the success of "Little Lord Fauntleroy" as a play in London," and John J. a Becket relates the romantic story connected with "The Carving over the Sally-port" on Fort Columbus in New York Harbor. "Great Japan: the Sunrise kingdom," the experiences of Miranda, who spent part of Thanksgiving day. "In a Cellar" and "Elsie's Invention" are readable papers. Of permanent interest and value are "The Queen's Navy" by Lieutenant F. Harrison Smith, R. N., a paper describing the British Navy and its manœuvers during the Queen's Jubilee, fully illustrated from photographs of the men-of-war; and the serial papers on "The Routine of the Republic," by Edmund Alton. Besides these, is a practical paper on "Wood Carving" by John Todd Hill; an account of the "Western Meadow-Lark," "The Agassiz Association," and then we have barely enumerated the prose. All of the articles are richly illustrated. Of course there are poems, verses, and other pictures and a fine frontispiece from a painting by Romney.

Van Deckermann's Bargain.

By M. THEED.

"Live in it myself—I—after all that had happened in it! I would rather have begged my bread on the roads—rather—Good heavens! what would I not rather? But there, I beg your pardon," he added, cooling down. "I can't expect you to understand, how should you? If you had spent there the most miserable boyhood, barring one thing, that ever man had to look back to, you would hate it as I do."

"And yet you don't get rid of it altogether?" I interposed at this juncture. "Why not pull it down and sell the land for building upon? You would make a good thing of it."

"Why not? Because I am a fool, I suppose," he returned curtly. "Because, if there are many memories for which I hate it, there are a few for which I love it. What was it I saw in your little maids, do you suppose, but a likeness to another little maid, dead and buried long ago—the only bit of sunshine that ever strayed within those four walls, the only creature that loved me, or that I had to love. She was my cousin, and she was an orphan. How she came to be left to my father's care I never clearly understood, but she came to us before I could remember, and she was more to him than ever I was. There was too good a reason that he should not care much for me. He had not been fortunate in his marriage, and it had soured him, but he must have been hard and cruel to begin with, or he could never have done by his own flesh and blood as he did by me. I was not good at my books, what cleverness I had lay in another direction, and, unhappily for me, I went to a day school, so that my father's eye was never off me, and he took it upon himself to see that I did the task that was set me. There was no kind of punishment he did not resort to. I was flogged, starved, imprisoned by turns. It was as though he thought he was wreaking his vengeance upon my mother through me. The only way in which Alice got into trouble was by espousing my quarrels—the only way, heaven help her sweet soul!—from first to last."

He paused for a moment, his voice husky with emotion, and Mary laid her hand gently on his arm.

"Another time, Mr. Van Deckermann, tell us another time," she said in her soft voice.

"I should like you to know," he replied, unsteadily, "and I should never bring myself to speak of it again. By the time I was 16 I had come to the end of my patience. My father was fast becoming as miserly as he was cruel, and I could see plainly if I were to wait for him to give me a start in life I might wait for ever. I knew that our name was well known at the Cape, and I trusted to its being a passport there of which, in conjunction with the business faculty I was conscious of in myself, I might make use to my advantage. I resolved to work my way out, and as soon as I had made enough to keep a wife, to come back for my cousin. It was at the gate at which you found me standing just now I said good-by to her.

"I had been away nine years before I saw my way to making a home for her. For the greater part of the time it had been such hard work that but for the few pounds she managed somehow—I often feared by going in rags or something approaching to it herself—to send me now and then I must have starved outright. But at the end of the nine years I was able to write to her and say I would come for her. She wrote me in reply that my father was very feeble, that she had owed him a home all her life, and that we should wait until I could come home for good. It was a great blow to a man who had already served for her so long, and was thirsting for the sight of her, but it was as if I had no will of my own where she was concerned. I stayed on where I was and set my shoulder to the wheel harder than ever for another three years. The Cape owed me nothing; then at last I turned my back on her. I had gone out a beggar, I came home with a handsome independence. And what was it, think you, I came home to? I had toiled and slaved and denied myself all these years for what? Merciful heavens! for what?"

He stopped suddenly in the road, and wrung his hands, with an expression upon his face which haunts me to this day when I am troubled and out of spirits. The same thought occurred at the same moment to my wife and myself. For some reason—possibly with little, if any, blame attaching to herself—his old love had been false to him. So completely, as we found when we came to compare notes afterward, had this idea taken possession of both our minds, that his next words took us quite by surprise.

"You don't ask me how I found her?" he said in a harsh voice. "You don't ask me whether she was waiting to meet me where I had left her—where you found me just now. You don't picture her as I had pictured her to myself hundreds and hundreds of times, with the sea rolling between us; with her arms round my neck, and her lips pressed to mine, and the welcome I had been waiting for so long looking out of every feature of her sweet face. But you can fancy what it was to me to look for her like that, and think of her like that, and then to find her, as I found her—dead and buried!"

His voice sank to a whisper in the utterance of those last words, and except for a murmur of surprise and sympathy, which seemed all to which we found ourselves equal, we went our way for the next few minutes in silence. Whether he would have told us more had we questioned him, I cannot pretend to say, but I have often since regretted what was possibly a lost opportunity. He may never have meant us to be any wiser, but, on the other hand, if he did mean that, and was checked by a reticence, which sprang rather from too much feeling than too little, how much might have been spared both him and us! The inclination, supposing it ever to have existed, had ceased to animate him before he spoke again.

"You can understand now," he said, with a resumption of his ordinary manner, which was so rapid as to be remarkable, "why the very walls of that old house are at once sacred and abhorrent, dear and hateful to me. I can neither make up my mind to let other people live in it nor to let it go to rack and ruin, and I would not live in it myself if there were not another roof in the wide world for me to shelter under. But there, it is all over and done with, and we will find something pleasanter to talk about."

It was about midsummer, to the best of my recollection, this little conversation took place, and not long afterward our house, of which we had only the half yearly tenancy, was sold over our heads—a circumstance which would have concerned us very little, had not the new owner required it for his own occupation. Conceive my astonishment when, under these circumstances, Mr. Van Deckermann offered me the long uninhabited Cedars! I say advisedly offered me, for the proposition was only submitted to my wife after it had been talked over at considerable length between us.

The fact was, Mr. Van Deckermann frankly admitted, the house during its years of disuse had acquired a bad name, and though he believed me to have no more belief in the supernatural than he had himself, he had no wish to withhold from me the knowledge of what would, it must be confessed, from the vulgar point of view, constitute a drawback to the very substantial kindness he talked of conferring upon me.

"You are welcome to the house," he said, "rent free, and I will have it done up for you from top to bottom. It shall not cost you a penny piece so long as I live, and when I am dead and gone you will be your own landlord, but I am not going to saddle you with it under any false pretenses. The people who take care of it say it is haunted. It is to their interest to keep others out of it, and they have contrived to live there themselves a good many years in spite of it; but you may take what they say for whatever you think it is worth. I am not afraid of you, but women are weak upon these points, and there is your wife to consider."

I was obliged to confess that my wife was not in this respect superior to the rest of her sex. She might face a burglar—she would certainly not wittingly run the risk of collision with a ghost.

"I suspected as much," he said equably, "and that is why I thought it better to introduce the subject in her absence. I should be sorry for her to stand in her own light and in yours, if it can be helped, and the chances are she would. Now my own belief with regard to the Cedars is that there has been some sort of knavery carried on there for years, and my object is to get at the bottom of it and to do you a good turn at the same time. We can't offer Mrs. Thurnell the house with the ghost attached to it, with any reasonable hope of her acceptance of it—so much we may take for granted. The question is, is it worth your while to try and clear the coast of it before anything is said to her about it?"

The proposition was an odd one, to say the least of it, but the game seemed worth the candle, and I felt, moreover, how poor a figure I should cut in the old man's eyes were I to decline it. What it was he wished me to do precisely, he was either undecided himself or did not choose to tell me, but I consoled myself with the reflection that impostures of the sort he suspected were, as a rule, of the clumsiest, and, to make a long story short, I accepted the Cedars on his own conditions. My wife, who was told nothing to disquiet her, and who naturally, therefore, was overcome by the generosity which was being shown us, accompanied Mr. Van Deckermann over the house and was charmed with it, with the style in which he proposed doing it up, even with the old furniture stowed away in the attics, and which was to supplement our own, and it was finally arranged we were to take possession at Lady day.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings healt and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.
